ID numbering system – a modification of the Henry system

Thomas Connely (1??? – 1794) starts the line of descent and is given the number 1. I give an individual's spouse the same number, so Thomas' wife, Margaret (Walker) Connely (1??? – 1794), is also given the number 1. Their oldest child is given the number 11, the second child the number 12, etc. In the third generation, the oldest child of person 11 is assigned the number 111, the second child of that person is 112, etc. Number 12's oldest child is 121, the second child 122, etc. If there are more than nine children in a particular family, the 10th child is assigned the letter a, the 11th child is assigned the letter b, etc. I include adopted & step-children in my history, so the birth order of all natural, adopted & step-children considered together determines the number that an individual gets. Thus the individual digits or letters in a person's ID number represent generations and the specific numbers or letters represent birth order within that generation. When you find an individual in a decendancy report, you can gather numbers or letters working up & left to get his ID number (converting 10 back to a, 11 to b, etc.). In lists of sources such as Bible records, obits & bios, I sort by ID number. I suggest you search by ID number to quickly find all the sources I have included if this report on a particular branch of the family. For example, my great-great-grandfather, Robert A. Connelly, has ID = 1325; first click on the binoculars icon in the Acrobat toolbar and then enter id = 1325; repeat the search by clinking on the icon to the right of the binoculars. This will take you to sources I have on Robert, his wife, and their descendants.

6 May 2012: Could this be the year the Baltimore Orioles break their streak of consecutive losing seasons (now at 14)? They won in 17 innings today and own the best record in baseball at 19-9. Beat the Red Sox at Fenway. Chris Davis, power hitting 1st baseman, went 0-for-8 from the plate with five strikeouts. But he was the HERO! After running out of real pitchers (8 were used during the 1st 16 innings), Davis pitched the 16th & 17th, yielding 0 runs!

Melody Cerro, our granddaughter
(Extracted by RRC from the original article sent to me by Lorri, Melody's mother.)

9th grade student of the month for December 2012

Melody Cerro is this month's 9th grade student of the month. The daughter of Lorri and Joseph Cerro, Melody has quickly adjusted to life in high school. "I love that we have more freedom in high school," Melody explains, "I like being able to select my own classes and make my own decisions."

Earning her way to a position on the varsity basketball squad, Melody is also involved in softball, the engineering club, art club as well as girl scouts. In fact, Melody just earned her Silver Award, which is the highest award a girl scout of her age can earn, and is now beginning work on her gold award.

A Project Lead the Way Major, Melody is very excited to begin taking her engineering classes next semester. She has also already decided that she would ideally like to attend John Hopkins University and major in solar engineering, in hopes that one day she will be able to create a more efficient, portable solar panel heating unit.

AP US History teacher Mr. Sherman has no doubts that she will accomplish her goals. "Melody is a really hard worker. She is mature and articulate, and has worked hard to improve in her first AP class."

I planted a bunch of daffodills around our home in Columbia soon after we settled there in 1971. A lot of work but well worth the effort - they have always been something we looked forward to seeing in the Spring. This year they seemed especially beautiful (see photo below - Spring of 2014). I suspect the long, harsh winter we just came out of had something to do with the flowers looking so good.

Can you spot the two families of Canadian Honkers on “my” pond? One family has 2 adults & 4 chicks, the other 2 adults & 2 chicks. Taken in the summer of 2015. In the 44 years we have watched geese & ducks raise families on Pushcart Pond, this was the 1st year that two families simultaneously shared the pond.

This is a favorite photo of mine for several reasons; I took it - well really my iPad took it, I just pointed the tablet at the pond, put the geese in the center of the screen and clicked; it is mostly green, my favorite color (lots of Duck Weed on the pond’s surface plus lots of trees in the shot); the log floating in the foreground adds just the right touch. But no one I show this photo to has ever given it any praise. Clearly beauty is in the eye of the beholder

Same pond as above; this shot taken at dusk on a mid-December day in 2015 - much less Duck Weed - many more geese (all adults, at the far end, hard to see). The bright spot on the pond near the Honkers is a reflection of the street lamp that is located just beyond the pond - at the intersection of Gales Lane & Pushcart Way.

First baby born EMCH

By Iva Kay Horner/News-Tribune

It has been close to 20 years since a baby was born at East Morgan County Hospital (EMCH), but staff at the Brush facility welcomed the first baby to the Women and Infants Services Unit on Monday, September 21. Christian Connelly White, son of Christian and Bri Connelly-White of Akron, came into the world at 7:17 a.m., weighing in at 6 pounds, 11 ounces. He was 19 1/2 inches long and is welcomed home by a brother, William, age six, and a sister, Casair, age four. "It has been fantastic," Christian said of the staff and facility. "Five stars and hands down, everyone here has been super and wonderful," he exclaimed. "I'm comfortable and would highly recommend using EMCH," Bri said, with her husband adding, "Every single person here has been a gem." Moving to Akron in 2012 from California, Christian said, "It is the best move we made." He is employed at Viaero where he provides data support and Bri is a stay-at-home mom.

QHS Soroptimists Celebrate Health Integrity Staff Member's Daughter with Award

Several QHS Easton-based members of the Soroptimist International organization had the opportunity to congratulate Melody Cerro, Lorri Cerro's daughter, as she received the organization's Violet Richardson Award during the Talbot County Maryland Award Dinner. Deb Keller, Carol Cook, Deidre Stokes, and Melissa Steffy joined Cerro.

"The fun story is that I didn't realize we had Soroptimists at QHS when Melody applied for their award," said Cerro. "We learned of the award because Melody is friends with the girl who won last year (they met competing in a medical spelling bee for a scholarship when they were in middle school)."

women be their best." Melody is a senior at Colonel Richardson High School in Caroline

County. The award carried a prize worth $1,000 which was for work she did on her Girl Scout's Gold Award (which is the highest award in Girl Scouts, and similar to the Boy Scout's Eagle Award). Melody earned the Gold Award through volunteering over 150 hours on her project called Empowering Engineering to promote Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM)—especially for girls. She was disappointed to find only two girls in her Project Lead The Way Pre-Engineering class at CRHS.

Melody mentored the Colonel Richardson Middle School Lego League Robotic Club for several years, created informative postcards about STEM to hand out at Career Day events around the county, and produced a series of classes to introduce fifth graders at Preston Elementary to aerospace, mechanics, architecture, and robotics. She also documented her project in a website she built: www.empoweringengineering. weebly.com.

The Soroptimists also made a donation of $500 in her name to the Girl Scouts of the Chesapeake Bay.

Melody is currently trying to decide if she will attend the University of Maryland College Park, as she is a life-long Terrapin fan, or the University of Delaware, where she has been admitted to the Mechanical Engineering program.

Lorri Cerro is the Corporate Technical Trainer for Health Integrity and is located in the Easton office.

Soquel native Matt Maxson records huge assist in 'The Last Dance' magic Producer Matt Maxson, a Soquel native, helped turn 10-part docuseries, 'The Last Dance,' into most watched documentary in ESPN history
May 9, 2020 at 5:10 p.m.

Matt Maxson, 33, a Soquel High alumnus, helped produce ESPN and Netflix's hit docuseries "The Last Dance," which focuses the Chicago Bulls' dynasty and legend Michael Jordan, from his arrival to the NBA to the end of his career. (Ashley Ako – Contributed)

Matt Maxson competed in football and track and field in high school, but not basketball, one of his many interests. Nearly two decades after he graduated from Soquel High, he wound up making the assist of his life.

The 33-year-old independent producer is a member of the team that produced one of the most-watched sports documentaries in history: ESPN and Netflix's "The Last Dance." The docuseries focuses on the Chicago Bulls' dynasty in the nineties and legend Michael Jordan, from his arrival to the NBA to the end of his career.

The series has been a slam dunk with its viewing audience.

"It's like the Super Bowl is on five straight weeks," Maxson said. "That's the attention it's getting."

NBA Commissioner David Stern presents Michael Jordan and the Chicago Bulls the championship trophy after the Bulls defeated the host Phoenix Suns in Game 6 of the 1993 NBA Finals. (Andrew D. Bernstein – NBAE)

The 10-episode series was initially slated to run on off days during the NBA Finals. When the coronavirus pandemic put a halt to sports, the series' deadline was pushed up by two months to help fill the void of live events.

It shined as the main attraction. The series, televised the past three Sundays on ESPN, has averaged 5.8 million viewers over its first six episodes.

Episode Nos. 7 and 8 air Sunday beginning at 6 p.m. Among this week's numerous gems: Jordan opens up about punching former teammate and current Golden State Warriors coach Steve Kerr in the face during a Bulls practice.

Each Sunday, Maxson, his wife, Ashley Ako, and their dog, Dennis, sit in front of their television in Harlem, New York, and watch the magical production. It's a mixture of never before seen footage, highlights, and interviews offering viewers a behind-the scenes look at the Bulls, a six-time NBA champion from 1991-98. And much of it is pure gold.

Maxson follows Twitter and watches tweets of Last Dance scenes trend nationally, seconds after they've aired.

"Everyone is talking about it. It's insane," he said.

Foot in the door

So, how does a political science major at UNLV wind up on the production team for the most-watched docuseries in ESPN history?

Well, Maxson also served as prep sports writer at the Las Vegas Review Journal while in college and was a fixture at most boxing events in Sin City as well as basketball events at UNLV's Thomas and Mack Center.

Former Chicago Bulls coach Phil Jackson is interviewed by Jason Hehir for the docuseries "The Last Dance." (ESPN Films/Netflix/Mandalay Sports Media/NBAE – Contributed)

Las Vegas is a hotbed for professional boxing and HBO Boxing was in need of some cheap labor to help cover events. Maxson, who gained his computer knowledge from his step-father, Roger Connelly, an Apple employee, jumped at the opportunity. Maxson worked in the production truck and became a junior producer. After graduating college in 2009, he parlayed his experience into a full-time position with HBO Boxing from 2010-16.

Maxson and partner Jacob Rogal, who also worked at HBO, later joined production teams for "The Circus: Inside the Greatest Political Show on Earth" in 2016 and "Andre the Giant" in 2018, the latter of which was directed by Jason Hehir. When Mandalay Sports Media reached a deal with ESPN and Netflix to produce the "The Last Dance," Hehir, the director, reached out to Maxson and Rogal, among others, to be part of his team.

When the Last Dance deal was signed, the production team celebrated big. It also went to Flight Club, a Nike store in Union Square, New York, and everyone bought a pair of Jordans. Maxson opted for a pair of black and grey Jordan 1s.

"That's when it became, 'This is real, this is actually happening,' " he said.

A lot to work with

Given the partners involved, specifically NBA Entertainment, the production team had more than 500 hours of behind-the-scenes footage at its disposal.

Most of the footage found the cutting room floor, but there were plenty of must-use clips. One of those brilliant scenes was incorporated into Episode No. 6. It shows the uber-competitive Jordan losing a game of quarters to one of his security guards, John Michael Wozniak. After Wozniak took Jordan's money, he showcased Jordan's famous "shrug" celebration to the NBA legend.

"We knew right away that was going to be something that people loved," Maxson said.

An associate producer texted Maxson just before the scene aired: "Twitter is about to lose it for John Michael Wozniak."

He was right. Wozniak became an overnight celebrity and media darling.

In his thorough research, Maxson also discovered must-use footage of Bulls general manager Jerry Krause dancing on an airplane during the credit roll for a 1991 end-of-year NBA reel. Maxson got the NBA to unearth the treasure from its archives and incorporated it into Episode No. 4.

“It was the (Holy) Grail,” Maxson said. “It was the whole plane ride back after beating the ‘Bad Boy’ Pistons. It was (heck yes), you won!”

Lights, cameras, Maxson

The production team started with a lengthy list of contacts for potential interviews.

“We had 65 to 75 percent right off the bat,” Maxson said.

A list of 250 potential interviewees was assembled and 102 sat down for Hehir’s team, including former President Barack Obama, an avid basketball fan who held various jobs in Chicago, and late NBA legend Kobe Bryant, who was initially reluctant to open up, but eventually confided to Hehir, “Everything you see from me, came from him (Jordan).’ ”

Most of the interviews were conducted by Hehir.

Chicago Bulls legend Michael Jordan is interviewed by Jason Hehir for the docuseries “The Last Dance.” (ESPN Films/Netflix/Mandalay Sports Media/NBAE – Contributed)

Maxson helped out with editing and piecing together the story. His fingerprints are all over the series.

In Episode No. 5, there’s a scene of Jordan locked up in a hotel room, smoking a cigar while being interviewed, and talking about the difficulties of being famous. In the next scene, he emerges from the hotel elevator and is mobbed by dozens of overzealous fans, who have to be restrained by a security crew. That is life for Jordan in public.

If I could be like Mike? It made viewers think twice.

“He made the scene come to life,” Rogal said of Maxson.

Though Hehir was at the front line of questioning, the entire staff took part in research. Atop their to-do list was some required reading: Sam Smith’s “The Jordan Rules: The Inside Story of a Turbulent Season with Michael Jordan and the Chicago Bulls,” and David Halberstam’s “Playing for Keeps: Michael Jordan and the World He Made.”

Some of the interviewees did their homework, as well. They either were shown a clip or knew about specific questions before getting in front of the camera.

Not Jordan.

“He remembered everything,” Maxson said.

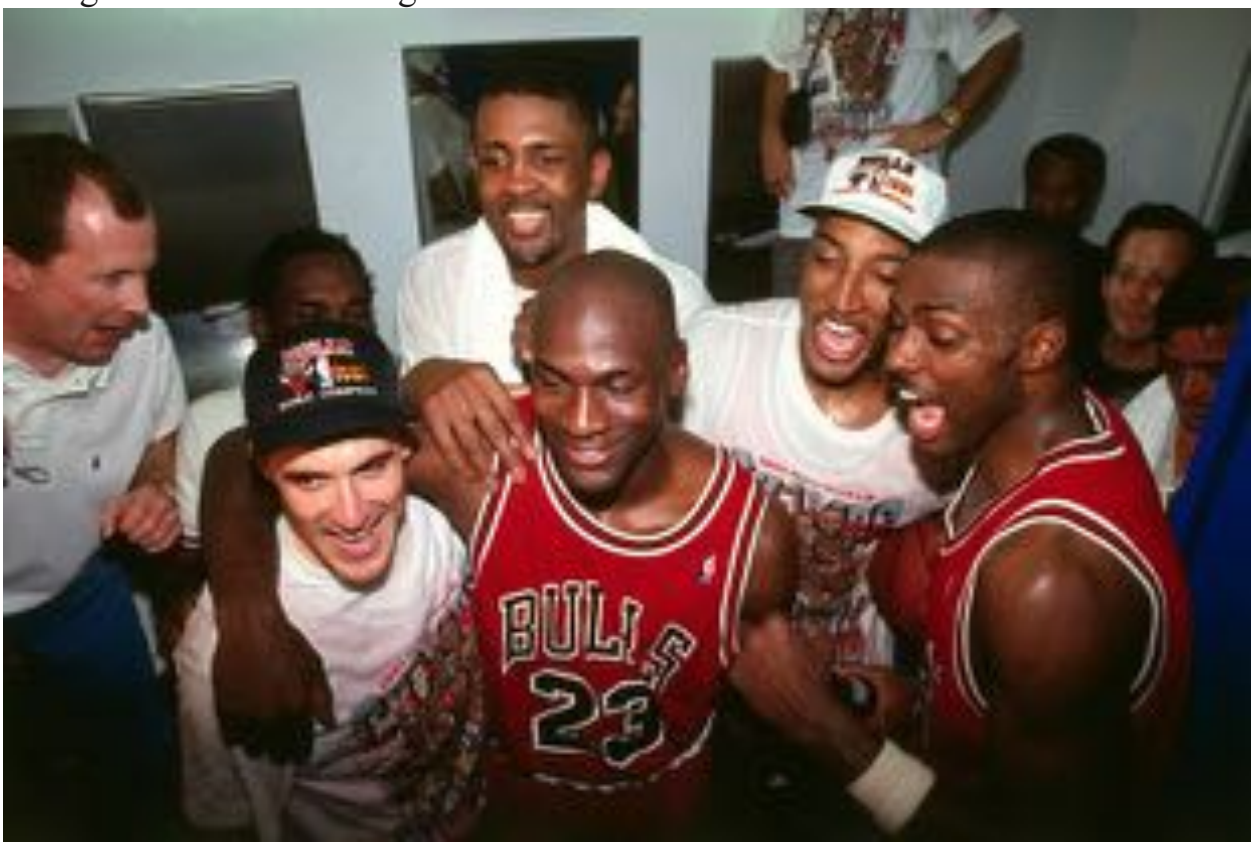
Finished product

What started with the production team looking at footage in January of 2018 is now a finished product.

“From September of 2018 until six days ago we were editing this show,” Maxson said Tuesday night.

Maxson wasn’t just a behind-the-scenes guy to his teammates, he was an MVP, Rogal said.

“This wouldn’t have happened without him; he was so integral to the whole thing,” said Rogal, noting Maxson is the tech guru of the team.



Michael Jordan (No. 23) of the Chicago Bulls celebrate following Game 5 of the 1991 NBA Finals at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood. (Andrew D. Bernstein – NBAE)

The coronavirus pandemic not only forced ESPN to move up its deadline from June to April, it forced the production team to work from home. Maxson provided the team with hard drives, software and editing equipment and helped make the team a cohesive unit while they worked independently.

“We would’ve never gone on air without him,” Rogal said.

With a new deadline in place, the team worked overtime to turn out the product. Eventually, they had their 8 1/2 hours of programming and one heck of a docuseries.

As good as it is, some viewers have commented on social media that they’re not sure it needed to be so long. Funny, because the production team actually asked ESPN for an extra minute of footage for Episode No. 10.

“When we set out to do this thing, I thought there’s no way we fit everything in. I mean we have interviews from Kerr, Kobe, Michael, Scottie (Pippen), Dennis (Rodman), Phil (Jackson) … I don’t think we left much out,” Maxson said.

The next two Sundays, Maxson — like many of you — will be in front of a TV screen. His computer will be by his side and he'll track Twitter exploding with series-related comments again. And the past two years of his life flash before his eyes.
Maxson, who grew up watching Jordan dominate, said he got an idea of just how beloved the iconic player is during a 2017 visit to Chicago. This series is exposing Generation Z to the most competitive player to ever step on the hardwood and is a thrilling ride down memory lane for others.
The story is coming to a close. Maxson has already viewed the entire series. And he, like the rest of the world, knows how it all ends. But that won't stop a big case of the feels when the last seconds flash across the screen.
This series is Maxson's NBA championship trophy and it was one hell of a journey to get here.
"I'll definitely get a little choked up, especially after what I went through the past two years," Maxson said. "It's like I'll be in Grant Park (in Chicago) celebrating with them."

Family Record from the Bible of Alexander Connely (1789 VA – 1857 IN), ID = 133

(Transcription of a family record submitted to me in 1996 by William & Madelyn (Rader) Connelly of Independence, MO, current possessors of the Bible; it was sent to them by June (McBride) Wallace: these folks all descend from Robert Wesley Connely, 8th child of Alexander Connely. Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original Bible pages and a sheet of paper pasted into the Bible. Spelling & punctuation as in the Bible - except the words died, daughter & son were capitalized in the Bible, I converted them to lowercase, and I have added commas in my transcription of some entries. Although the entries for births, marriages, & deaths were recorded in 2 columns on each of 4 Bible pages (2 pages of births), I show them below in 1 column with Bible column 1 entries followed by Bible column 2 entries. Dates which are too faded to read or were left blank are shown as a series of x's.)

(Note by RRC: The first 4 entries under BIRTHS are for Alexander Connely & his 3 wives; the next 13 entries are for his 13 children. From other sources, I have the birth day of Sarah, 2nd wife of Alexander Connely, as 5, not 8; I have the birth day of Rebecca, 3nd wife of Alexander Connely, as 1, not 6; I have the birth day of Elizabeth Ann Connely, as 5, not 8; I have the birth month ofThomas G Connely as May, not April. The Bible entries are somewhat faded making it difficult to read an occasional birth day.
I think the first 17 entries under BIRTHS, the first 4 entries under MARRIAGES, and the first 4 entries under DEATHS were made by the same person (based on their consistency), either Alexander or his wife Rebecca, probably in early- to mid-1854 (based on the obsevation that Mary Catherine Connely, 7th child of Alexander & Elizabeth (Steel) Connely, married 25 June 1854, and her marriage is not recorded in the Bible). Marriages for several other children - Verlinda in 1861, Arthur in 1861, Armilda in 1868, and George in about 1874 – are not recorded either. The marriage of son Thomas Connely in 1857 is recorded but the entry is in a hand different from the other marriages recorded in the Bible.
I think the 1st child of Robert Wesley Connely was always called Rhoda (and see below) but she is called Rosean in the above BIRTHS, why remains a mystery to me.

Thomas Connely, his brother Arthur & sister Mary, together with their father & mother, emigrated from Ireland to the State of Virginia in the year (blank). They left behind them a married sister who never had any children. Said Thomas married a Virginia Lady named Walker who bore him 9 children, to wit, Arthur, Thomas, Alexander, Robert, Martha, Mary, Jane, Elizabeth & Isabella. Of the above named 9 children of Thomas, Arthur's family genealogy is given above. Thomas married & emigrated to Boone County in Kentucky where he died leaving 5 children. Alexander settled & still lives in Covington Ky where he raised 8 children. Robert settled in Boone County Ky where he died leaving 11 children. Martha married her cousin Arthur Connely. Mary married George Berry but never bore children. Jane married Charles Patterson by whom she had 2 children, a son & daughter, the former was killed by a fall from a horse. Elizabeth married Samuel Tharp to whom she bore several children, most of whom emigrated to Springfield Illinois. Arthur Connely, brother of first above named Thomas, married in Virginia & raised 9 children, to wit, Thomas, Robert, John, David, Arthur & James, Mary, Jane & Sarah. Mary married Joseph McCauley. Jane married David Williamson and Sarah married John Walker, brother of her Uncle Thomas' wife. She lived to a very great age & died in Augusta County Virginia.

Thomas Connely senrs wife had a sister Barbara who married Wm Donaldson & settled in Kentucky in 1793 where she left a numerous family. Alexander was the _____ member of the Walker family.

Arthur Connely, oldest son of the first above named Thomas, married in 1785 Jane Dale, daughter of Alexander Dale & Isabella Gilmore, both natives of Ireland & emigrated from Augusta County Virginia to Montgomery County Kentucky in 1791 where he died - his wife Jane Dale had 7 brothers & 7 sisters, to wit: Robert, Thomas, Alexander, James, William, Joseph & Samuel, Martha, Elizabeth, etc. All but one of the above married & ____ ____ _____.

(Note by RRC: The best record that I have seen pertaining to our early Connely ancestors is contained in this Bible record of Gilmore Franklin Connely (1815-1896), first son of Arthur Connely (1790-1878) & Jane (Steele) Connely (1793-1871), grandson of Arthur Connely (1764-1815) & Jane (Dale) Connely (1766-1839), and great-grandson on Thomas Connely (1??? - 1794) & Margaret (Walker) Connely (1??? – 1794). Gilmore married Lucy Leffingwell Kelley (1823~1900) in Assumption Parish, Louisiana, on February 14, 1843, and they settled on a large sugar plantation called Mulberry Farm and located on Bayou Du1argo about 5 miles from Houma, Terrebonne Parish, Louisiana.

The Bible was published in 1845 and Gilmore probably purchased it and made his first entries in that year or shortly thereafter. When I saw the Bible, it was in the possession of Gilmore's grandchildren, Ruth and Lavinia May Connely, daughters of Arthur Warren Connely (1847-1915) and Clara (Himel) Connely (1865-1949). Ruth and Lavinia resided in Houma together with the families of their nephews, William Alexander Ostheimer and Arthur Connely Ostheimer, and I was welcomed into their household to talk about family history and to see the Bible.

I would like to comment on the accuracy of the Bible information, most of which was written a half century or more after the fact. I have compared the Bible entries with another major source of information on the family of Arthur and Jane (Dale) Connely, the history written by Mary Frances Cooper of Greencast1e, Indiana, a direct descendant through Gilmore Connely (the last son of Arthur and Jane Connely shown above). There are minor differences in 3 of the dates; 1) for Arthur Connely (husband of Jane Dale), Mary Frances Cooper's history has his date of birth as 24 November 1763, 11 months earlier than the date recorded in the Bible; 2) Alexander's date of birth is given as 5 May 1789, 12 days earlier; 3) Maria Connely's date of birth is given as 3 June 1800, 6 months and 26 days earlier. I have little additional information that sheds any light on which of these dates is correct.

“Regarding the birth date of Arthur Connelly, 24 Nov. 1763, I’ve checked a lot of old sources. Oldest is a small notebook from about 1895-1900, which my mother’s sister, Cora C. Steele made containing family history she and another sister, Mary Barbara Steele, had gathered from Connelly relatives in Putnam County, Indiana. There, and again on the undated typed pages of which I sent you copies about 1982, and again on a page of notes in my Mother’s handwriting marked “copied 1923,” the date 1763 is consistent.” (Submitted by Mary Belle Wells, family member and genealogist. She also points out that Thomas Connely (brother of this Arthur) said (in a court record) he was about 29 at the death of his father. That would make his year of birth more likely to be 1765, not 1763.) I’m still working on these discrepancies.

A major difference relates to the date of death of Isabella, the daughter of Arthur & Jane (Dale) Connely. Isabella Connely's date of death is 19 June 1849 according to Mary Frances Cooper and December 1819 according to the Bible. I have other information that shows Isabella was alive as late as 1844 and I have seen a tombstone in Putnam County, Indiana for "Isabella, dau. of Arthur & Jane Connely, died June 19, 1849, aged (difficult to read)", so I believe Mary Frances Cooper's account is correct in this regard.

Another major difference is that Mary Frances Cooper's history does not mention Elizabeth Connely who died young according to the Bible. Mary Frances Cooper's history mentions a John Connely about who little is known except that he went to live in Louisiana, but this John is not noted in the Bible. There were a number of Connely's from another branch of the family in Xenia, Ohio (including a John Connely), several of whom surveyed for the government in Louisiana. I believe that Arthur and Jane (Dale) Connely had the 9 children as recorded in the Bible and that the John Connely mentioned as one of the 9 children in Mary Frances Cooper's history was actually from another branch of the family.)

Isabella Gowdy, daughter of Thomas & Margaret (Walker) Connely, is said in the Bible to have died in 1838. But in a Gowdy family history written by Mahlon M. Gowdy (see my transcription later in this report of some pages of his 1919 publication), her date of death is 9 Sept 1842. Since there is circumstantial evidence in the 1840 census that Isabella was alive in 1840, I now (in 2008) use 9 Sept 1842 as her date of death. I saw her gravestone in Associate Reformed Cemetery, Xenia, OH; the dates on it were illegible; so I'm still unsure when she died.

I was aware of much of what Gilmore had recorded in the Bible from an earlier conversation with Ruth Connely and also through correspondence with Jack Idenden, a fifth cousin of mine who had abstracted the Bible years ago and shared his findings with me. I was overjoyed by what they told me, but actually seeing the words written by Gilmore Franklin Connely brought tears to my eyes.

I was surprised to learn from Gilmore's account that Thomas, Arthur, and Mary Connely came to this country with their parents (I had not previously known that the parents were immigrants). Much is known about Thomas and his brother Arthur, both of whom settled in Augusta County, Virginia, but I have yet to uncover any definitive information on their parents. Elsewhere in the Bible we find that Mary, the sister of Thomas and Arthur who immigrated with them, married William Johnston (they had no children). As we have seen, the Bible record states that Thomas (one of the immigrants) married a Virginia lady named Walker (known to be Margaret Walker) and that they had 9 children. Other information, including the wills of Thomas and Margaret Connely, indicates there was a 10th child, Barbara. Also, their child named Jane in the Bible was called Jean in Augusta County records and Jenny in Montgomery County, Kentucky, records.

Gilmore Franklin Connely was a surveyor, lawyer, and plantation owner. Gilmore played an important role in Louisiana's history. On January 7, 1861, he was elected as a representative from Terrebonne Parish to a state Convention called to consider whether or not Louisiana should secede from the Union. Gilmore was one of 130 delegates elected that day; 83 were Secessionists and 47 were Cooperationists (Gilmore was numbered with the minority). The State Convention convened at Baton Rouge on January 23, 1861, and 3 days later an Ordinance of Secession was adopted. Before the vote on secession was called, the Cooperationists consulted, and when the vote was taken a number of them explained that although they were elected as Cooperationists, they felt that no other course but that of immediate secession could be pursued. The vote on secession was 113 for, 17 against; Gilmore voted with the majority. (When the ordinance was signed a short time later, 8 of the 17 affixed their signatures also.)" For the next 2 months, Louisiana was an independent state. The convention continued and on March 21, 1861, ratified the Confederate Constitution by a 107 to 7 vote; Gilmore voted with the majority.

Lithographic copies of the Ordinance of Secession were given to all the delegates and one is on display at the Confederate Memorial Hall, 929 Camp Street, New Orleans, Louisiana. In the lower left corner is the signature, G.F. Connely.

Could Robt Conoly be the father of Thomas? If so, why is there no evidence of him in Chalkley's Chronicles?

Title	Connaly, Thomas.
Note	Place of residence: Augusta County.
Note	Court booklet(s): p. 8.
Gen. note	Commissioner's book(s): II, p. 357.
Summary	The certificates issued by the commissioners of the provision law include date, a description of the item impressed including its value, and the name of the owner of the item. Court booklets and lists compiled by the county courts contain excerpts from the court proceedings and lists of authenticated certificates. The commissioner's books recorded the date payment was authorized, the name of the claimant, and a description of the property.
Other Format	Available on microfilm. Public Service Claims. Court Booklets and Lists (reels 1-4) (arranged by county).
	Available on microfilm. Public Service Claims. Commissioner's Books (Nos. 1-3, reel 5; Nos. 4-5, reel 6).
Biog./Hist. Note	During its session begun in May 1780 the General Assembly passed an act authorizing the governor to impress supplies needed by the American army. The governor appointed commissioners of the provision law in each locality to carry out the terms of the act. The commissioner, when he impressed property, gave the owner a certificate describing what was taken. Between 1781 and 1783 county courts held special sessions at which certificates were presented and authenticated, and booklets listing authenticated certificates were compiled and sent to Richmond for settlement. Two commissioners appointed to settle the claims recorded those for which they authorized payment, and warrants were issued by the auditor of public accounts.

Treasury Warrant issued 16 Sept 1782 to Thomas Connely, ID = 1

(Abstraction by RRC from an online image of the original warrant, issued 16 September 1782, for 1,688 acres in KY, grant signed by the Governor 2 May 1788. Land Office Grants No. 16, 1787-1788, pages 684-685, online at the Library of Virginia Archives web site www.lva.lib.va.us/ .)

Edmund Randolph Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia to all to whom these presents shall come Greeting. Know yee that by Virtue and in consideration of a Land Office Treasury Warrant Number fourteen Thousand two hundred and eighty nine Issued the Sixteenth day of September one Thousand Seven Hundred and eighty two granted by the said Commonwealth unto Thomas Connelly a certain tract or parcel of land containing Sixteen hundred Eighty eight Acres, by Survey bearing the date the Sixth day of April one Thousand Seven Hundred and eighty four, lying and being in the County Fayette and bounded as followeth ... common to a survey in the name of Thomas Gunnell ... on the second day of May in the year of our Lord one Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty eight ...

Edm Randolph

(Note by RRC about the disposition of these 1,688 acres in KY: Based on 5 of 6 Boone Co., KY, deeds (all written on either the 6th or 7th day of December 1802 and presented on 11 July 1803), Arthur Connely, ID = 11, the nephew & son-in-law of Thomas Connely, ID = 1, got half of this land (844 acres), probably for going to KY from VA at an early date. Four of the sons of Thomas Connely, ID = 1, got the rest (Thomas Connely, ID = 12, got 244 acres; Arthur Connely, ID = 13, got 200 acres; Alexander Connely, ID = 16, got 200 acres; Robert Connely, ID = 19, got 200 acres. My transcriptions of these deeds appear later in this file.

Excerpts from “The Virginia Land Office (Research Notes Number 20)” compiled by Minor T. Weisiger, January 2002: The Act of 1779 also provided for the awarding of bounty land for Revolutionary War military service. This process did not become operative until the end of the war in 1783 ... The process for receiving land for Revolutionary War service required several steps. Soldiers (or their heirs) were eligible for land if they served in the Continental Line, State Line, or State Navy for three years or longer, or if they died in service. After submitting proof of their unit, rank, and length of service (known as the bounty warrant), a numbered land office military certificate was issued. This in turn was followed by the issuance of a numbered military land warrant, which was presented to the surveyor of the Virginia Military Lands in Ohio or Kentucky, where the lands were located .. . The land was surveyed and the warrantee returned the warrant, survey, and other related papers to the Land Office. Six months were allowed for caveats (or objections) to the survey. If none were entered, the plat and certificate of survey were recorded and the grant was signed by the governor, recorded, and the original delivered to the grantee.)

Originally I thought this was an award of bounty land for Revolutionary War military service, but it wasn’t (thanks to Robert Connely of Phoenix, AZ, for pointing this out to me).

Fayette County, KY, in 1782, included the land from which Boone County was created in 1799.

This 1,688 acres in Fayette Co., KY granted to Thomas Connelly was surveyed on 6 Apr 1784 - see “The Kentucky Land Grants” by Willard R.Jillson, Chapt. II: Virginia Grants (1782-1792), 1925, page 40 - and entered on 17 Dec 1783 - see “Old Kentucky Entries and Deeds” by Willard R.Jillson, Chapt. III: Fayette Entries (1782-1794), 1926, page 87.)

(Note by RRC: The ten children of Thomas Connely mentioned in his will are the only ones I know of. Based on the order they are mentioned in the will and birth dates obtained from other sources I think their birth order is as follows: 1)Martha, 2)Thomas, 3)Arthur, 4)Mary 'Polly', 5)Elizabeth 'Betsey', 6)Alexander, 7)Barbara, 8)Jean 'Jenny', 9)Robert, 10)Isabella. Based on other sources of information, 7 children (Thomas, Alexander, Elizabeth, Barbara, Jean, Robert, and Isabella) were single and living at home in Augusta Co., VA, in 1794.
I'll mention a minor point here; in this will, Thomas the son was to get 244 acres of the land in KY, not 240 as stated in Chalkley's abstraction of the will.)

Robert Connely

(Note by RRC: Thomas Connely, ID =1, died in 1794 with 3 sons still living at home – Thomas, Alexander, & Robert (son Arthur had gone to Montgomery Co., KY, in 1791). I believe these 3 deeds taken together describe the home plantation in 1802. These deeds were not that easy to read – my transcription of the metes and bounds probably contains some errors – but it is clear that each son got roughly 1/3 of a total of 335 acres. I suspect that “hooks corner” in the 2nd deed should be Hooke’s corner. I believe that subsequent owners of some of this land are shown by Tiny May in the ‘Sunset Hollow Farm on Little Run’ section of Chapter II in his “My Augusta ... “ book.

Alexander Connely, ID =16, got married in Augusta Co. in 1801. Robert Connely, ID =19, didn’t get married until 1806 in Montgomery Co., KY. On 4 Oct. 1804, Alexander & Nancy his wife & Robert Connely of Augusta Co. sold to John Early 110 acres and 125 acres, respectively (Augusta Co., VA. Deed Book 33, page 365). The metes and bounds for the 110 acre tract are: beginning at a hickory on the side of a road & North seven degrees East 119 poles to a pine white oak & red oak South 43 degrees East 270 poles South 6 degrees West 119 poles to two white oaks North 54 ½ degrees West 208 poles to the beginning.The metes and bounds for the 125 acre tract are: beg at a pine, white oak & red oak corner to the said Alexander Connelly, then North seven degrees, East 75 poles to a pine two small hickories & black oak grubs then South 68 ^{0} East 45 poles to 2 pines & black oak then South 33 0 East 62 poles to a pine & black oak then South 16 0 East 36 poles to a white oak, Hooks corner, then South 59 ½ 0 East 174 poles to two white oaks, then South 36 0 West 36 poles to the beginning.

Thomas Connely, ID =12, got married in Augusta Co. in 1803. On 25 Mar. 1805, Thomas & Polly Connerly his wife of Augusta Co. sold to William Bell 100 acres on Little Run being “1/3 part of the land of Thomas Connelly deceased and equally divided between his 3 sons, Thomas Alexander & Robert & joining the lands of ____ Cline & David Laird” . I didn’t take the metes and bounds (Augusta Co., VA. Deed Book 33, pages 20-22).

(Note by RRC: From my review of Augusta Co., VA, deeds & deed indices in the court house at Staunton, it seems that Thomas Connely, ID = 1, held at least 335 + 150 = 485 acres of land at the time of his death in 1794. He had other land that was sold in 1793, either 107 or 214 acres, I'm not sure. On 17 Dec 1793, Thomas Connelly & Margaret his wife of Co of Augusta & Jasper Hapner of sd Co ... sum of 160 pounds ... sell ... on the waters of the middle river of the Shenondo containing 107 acres being part of a tract of 250 acres granted to Thomas Connelly by grant dated 1 Feb 1781 and bounded as follows: beg at 2 white oaks corner to John Campbell & David Lairds land thence north 23 deg west 168 poles to 2 white oaks ... (Note by RRC: Arthur & Jane (Dale) Connely had 9 children. One child, Elizabeth, died young in 1798. There were 8 alive at the time of the death of their father, Arthur, in August, 1815. In April, 1818, Isabella was 31 & single, Thomas was 30 & married to Elizabeth Petit, Alexander was 28 & married to Elizabeth Steele, Arthur was 27 & married to Jensey ‘Jane’ Steele, Margaret was 25 & married to Samuel Logan, Robert was 23 & single, Gilmore was 18 & single, and Maria was 17 & single. Based on the above article, it can be assumed that all 8 were living in Montgomery Co., KY, in 1818. From other sources I know that Alexander, Arthur, and Margaret all married in that county; I have assumed that Thomas also did so.)

Analysis of this document by RRC: Samuel Logan (1796 KY - 1865 IA) married Margaret Walker Connely (1792 KY - 1881 IA) on 17 Nov 1814 in Montgomery Co., KY. They were the parents of 13 children, 10 of whom are mention in this estate settlement (3 girls never married and predeceased their father). Margaret received 1/3 of the estate and the remaining 2/3 was divided equally among these 10 children (or their heirs). The dittos for "heirs" following the names of 4 sons (G. P., R. M., J. A., and T. J.) are incorrect as they were all still living at the time.

Analysis of this document by RRC: Robert Connely (1794 KY - 1877 IN) was one of nine children of Arthur (1764 VA - 1815 KY) & Jane (Dale) Connely (1766 VA - 1839 IN). Robert married but had no children, leaving most of his estate to nephews and nieces or their children. All but three of the legatees named on lines 19 through 61 of this document can be linked with a high degree of certainty to branches of the Arthur & Jane (Dale) Connely family as shown below. In each case, the total amount paid to the legatee equals 32% of their inheritance (see the transcription of Robert Connely's will for their total inheritance):

Children of Thomas Conley (1787 VA - 1859 IN);
- Elizabeth H. (Conley) Sims (1822 KY - ???? ??), lines 25 & 38.
- Emily C. (Conley) Sims (1827 KY - 1904 IN), lines 28 & 32.
- Amy G. (Conley) Thomas (1834 KY - 1913 IN), lines 26 & 44.

Children of Alexander Connely (1789 VA - 1857 IN);
- Verlinda M. (Connely) Shull (1820 KY - 1907 IN), lines 23 & 58.
- Mary C. (Connely) Arnold (1829 IN - 1918 IN), lines 29 & 39.
- Arthur Connelly (1834 IN - 1912 KS), line 31.
- Thomas G. Connely (1836 IN - 1895 MO), lines 20 & 36.
- George W. Connely (1849 IN - 19?? ??), line 61.

Children of Arthur Connely (1790 VA - 1878 KS):
- Gilmore F. Connely (1815 KY - 1896 LA), line 56.
- Eliza J. (Connely) Shrewsbury (1819 IN - ???? ??), lines 27 & 60.
- Mary O. (Connely) Steele (1827 IN - 1864 IN):
  - William F. Steele (1852 IN - 1927 ??), lines 21 & 40.

Children of Margaret W. (Connely) Logan (1792 KY - 1881 IA):
- Arthur C. Logan (1818 KY - 1865 IA):
  - William B. Logan (1848 IA - 1925 IA), line 47.
  - Margaret I. (Logan) Stafford (1849 IA - 1931 KS), line 51.
  - Samuel L. Logan (1850 IA - 1927 KS), line 53.
  - Amanda L. (Logan) May (1853 IA - 1915 KS), line 52.
  - Robert C. Logan (1854 IA - 1931 KS), line 54.
  - Martha E. Logan (1856 IA - 1897 KS), line 50.
  - Laura A. (Logan) Goodale (1857 IA - 1953 KS), line 49.
  - Harriet E. (Logan) Coates (1859 IA - 1934 KS), line 55.
- Gilmore P. Logan (1820 KY - 1894 IA), line 34.
- Robert M. Logan (1822 KY - 1905 OR), line 48.
- Thomas J. Logan (1826 KY - 1894 OR), line 57.
- Mary E. (Logan) Miller (1828 IN - 1887 IA), lines 22 & 35.
- Samuel A. Logan (1834 IN - 1919 OR), line 33.

Children of Gilmore Connely (1799 KY - 1863 IN):
- William A. Connely (1821 KY - 1897 IN), line 43.
- James R. Connely (1823 KY - 1892 MO), line 41.
- Margaret J. (Connely) Garner (1828 KY - 1925 IN), line 46.
- Amanda (Connely) Clearwater (1831 KY - 1893 IN), lines 24 & 37.
- Frances E. (Connely) Cooper (1838 IN - 1907 IN), lines 19 & 45.

Three legatees have unknown family connections:
- W G Bradshaw legacy, line 59. Arthur Conley (1815 ?? - 184? ??), son of Thomas Conley (1787 VA - 1859 IN), was married to a Bradshaw.
- Phebe Hancock, line 42. In the 1850 census there was a Phebe A. Campbell, age 12, who was enumerated in the household of Robert and Mary Connely Robert Connely's wife Mary was a Campbell.
- Jonathan Birch, line 30. Probably no family connection.

This document is obviously not the final settlement; the heirs who were paid received only about 1/3 of their inheritance, and some of the heirs (see the transcription of Robert Connely's will) are not even mentioned in this document.

Obituary of Mary Frances (Black) Tooman, ID = 111411

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in the Muscatine News-Tribune, Muscatine, IA, Friday, 10 Nov. 1905, page 3.)

On Nov. 2, 1905, Mrs. Mary Frances Tooman heard the summons and her spirit was released from its earthly tenement and went to the great beyond, from whence none return. She had not been in firm health for about year. Her sickness was very pathetic from the fact that it was absolutely incurable when she first consulted a physician. For several months prior to her release from suffering, she had great difficulty to breathe and could talk but little. She was so tired all the while she was sick. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Black and first saw the light of day on Dec. 25, 1862, near Atalissa, Muscatine county, Iowa. Her entire life was spent in the same county. On Oct. 6, 1882, she was united in marriage to Mr. G. M. Tooman. To this union five children were born. Three little babes are safe in heaven. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Carrie May, wife of Mr. Elmer Wells, of Davenport, and Laura Belle, at home. Also a little granddaughter, her father and mother, two brothers, Wm. L. and Benjamin J. Black, and an only sister, Miss Emma Black. The parents and two latter reside in Audubon county, Iowa. She and her husband began house keeping in Nichols, Iowa, where they resided about eight years. From there they moved to Muscatine, and remained there four years. The past eleven years have been spent in West Liberty, where she died. On Nov. 4th, a short service was held at the home, after which the solemn procession wended its way to Nichols, where the funeral was preached in the Methodist Episcopal church by Rev. Frenniss, pastor of the Presbyterian church at West Liberty. The church was decorated with beautiful plants and the casket was covered with cut flowers. H. Kirchner, of Nichols, had charge of the funeral. The grave was draped in white and black. The pall bearers were Messrs. Melvin Brown, H. Brown, H. L. Metcalf , B. L. Metcalf, Joe Heath and Fred Schmitt. The interment was made in the Nichols cemetery beside the grave of her little babe, Lucy, Laura's twin sister, who died in April 1888. In this cemetery rest her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs Benjamin Black, and two cousins, Mrs. Nannie Black Kirchner, and Miss Clara Belle Black. Around her grave stood her husband and daughters, her mother, brothers and sister, son-in-law, sister-in-law, nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts and cousins and many friends. Her father is in, feeble health and was not able to be present, but visited her during her illness. She will be missed in her home and by her friends and relatives.

(Note by RRC: In other records, her birth year is 1863 and her marriage day is 4.)

Journal Publisher Dies

Clyde Rabedeaux Succumbs After Long Illness; Rites To Be Held On Saturday

Clyde R. Rabedeaux, 55, beloved publisher of The Muscatine Journal, died at his home, 503 Fairview avenue, at 6:35 a. m. today. He had been in failing health for several years but continued in charge of his publisher's duties until a few days before his death.

Mr. Rabedeaux, who had held the position of publisher for the past 17 years, had attained an outstanding record during the 30 years he served as an employe and an official of The Muscatine Journal. Possessed of a genuinely friendly spirit and democratic disposition, Mr. Rabedeaux was popular with all who knew him. Friends and employees alike, from carrier boys to veterans of service in The Journal organization, knew him familiarly as "Clyde" and he met them all on an equal footing, never too busy to talk over their problems with them, whether business or personal, nor to offer his counsel and advice.

Members of his staff were members of his "family." He was particularly interested in the young men of The Journal organization called into the armed forces. Despite his failing health he devoted his energies to sending regular letters of encouragement to the group of six. In his last days on duty at The Journal letters and gifts were dispatched to "his boys."

And his interest in his newspaper and his community never waned. In the last two weeks when his health failed rapidly, necessitating his remaining a home, he kept in close touch with his staff, giving advice and counsel until he lapsed into unconsciousness.

Started as Solicitor.

Starting as a solicitor in the circulation department of The Journal, Mr. Rabedeaux's first major promotion was to the office of circulation manager in 1913. He held this position for two years and was then promoted to the position of advertising manager.

In recognition of his attainments in this department, he was advanced to publisher of The Journal on April 1, 1925, succeeding Lee P. Loomis who on that date became publisher of the Mason City Globe-Gazette.

It was under the supervision of Mr. Rabedeaux that The Journal organization reached one of its highest attainments in its history — celebration of the centennial anniversary — commemorating one hundred years of service to the community on May 31, 1940.

Community Leader

In addition to his newspaper duties Mr. Rabedeaux took an active part in community events and in organizations in the newspaper field. He served as a director of the Inland Press Assn., one of the most important newspaper organizations in the middlewest for a three year term and was a leader for many years in the Iowa Daily Press Assn., and was affiliated with the Newspaper Advertising Executives Assn.

Locally Mr. Rabedeaux was affiliated with the senior chamber of commerce, the Geneva Golf and Country club, the Muscatine Elks, Moose and Fraternal Order of Eagles lodges and also held membership in the Chicago Towers club. One of the oldest members in years of affiliation in the Muscatine Rotary club, he held several offices in that organization, declining the presidency because of failing health. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church.

Before his association with The Journal, Mr. Rabedeaux served as bookkeeper for the Huttig Manufacturing Co. here, as bookkeeper for a gold mine in Utah and as traveling representative for a Chicago firm.

Born in Michigan

Mr. Rabedeaux was the last member of his immediate family. The son of Martin and Martha Rabedeaux, he was born in Iona county, Mich., March 14, 1887. He married Miss Elsie Black at Atalissa on March 25, 1914. His parents and two brothers preceded him in death. Besides his widow several nieces and nephews survive, Mrs. Ila Flynn of Davenport; Merle Rabedeaux of Muscatine; Bernell Rabedeaux of Rushville, Ill.; Mrs. Gertrude Hohenadel and Mrs. Avis Bowie, both of Davenport; Wesley Rabedeaux serving with the United States army air corps; Robert Black, with the army air corps at Santa Ana, Calif.; Evelyn Gundrum of Davenport and James Gundrum of Muscatine.

The body has been removed to the Fairbanks Home for Funerals where it will remain for services at 2:30 p. m. Saturday. Dr. Henry C. Schneider, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will be in charge. Burial will be in Greenwood cemetery.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, "Iona" should be Ionia.)

SIOUX FALLS
The Rev. James Gundrum dies at age 64 of cancer

By DENISE D. TUCKER
Argus Leader Staff

The Very Rev. James Richard Gundrum had a love for people and his pastoral duties at Calvary Episcopal Cathedral. Yet after he was stricken with cancer, he discovered a new love — retirement.

"After he retired, he was able to do a lot more for people. And he was still involved, as much as he could be, with the church," said Carolyn Gundrum of her father, who died Friday, April 22, 1994.

Gundrum, 64, of 4104 Hackberry Circle died in McKennan Hospital.

"He was a people person," Carolyn said. "He always wanted to be where people needed him."

The Rev. Warren Shoberg of the Church of the Holy Apostles said Gundrum enjoyed his parish family.

"He was an excellent preacher and had a beautiful voice," Shoberg said. "He could speak to the crowd and not above their heads."

Gundrum retired from the church in 1989 because of cancer of the salivary glands.

He had the bottom half of his tongue, lymph nodes, the inner half of his lower jaw and all of his teeth removed.

"His tongue was literally tied down and became the floor of his mouth," said his wife, Frances. Doctors told him he would never be able to talk, but he managed to speak anyway, she said.

The cancer brought about some tough days for Gundrum.

"He didn't let it slow him down," Carolyn said.

Shoberg said, "He always lived life to the fullest."

Gundrum was born Nov. 30, 1929, in Muscatine, Iowa. He grew up and graduated from high school in Muscatine.

He then graduated from Iowa Wesleyan College in 1951 and from Seabury Western Theological Seminary in 1954.

He married Frances Lathrop on June 14, 1954. He served as a priest at Trinity Church in Denison, lowa; Trinity Church in Mapleton, Iowa; and St. John's Church in Veil, Iowa.

He served as rector at St. Michael's Church in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, from 1958 until 1969. He was canon missioner of the Diocese of Iowa, from 1969 until 1975.

He served as secretary of the General Convention and executive officer of the Episcopal Church in New York City, from 1975 until 1986.

He moved to Sioux Falls in 1986, to be the dean of Calvary Cathedral until his retirement in 1989.

He was a member of Calvary Cathedral, Trinity Lodge No. 200, A.F. & A.M. of Sioux Falls.

Survivors include his wife, Frances of Sioux Falls; two sons: Cameron Michael and his wife, Lynette, of Luverne, Minn.; and David William and his wife, Kathy, of Charleston, S.C.; one daughter, Carolyn Anne Gundrum of Sioux Falls; three grandchildren: Jared, Kathryn and Marie Gundrum, all of Luverne; and one sister, Evelyn Zacharias of Dallas, Texas.

Services will begin at 11 a.m. Monday in Calvary Episcopal Cathedral, with burial in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Visitation will begin at 2 p.m. Sunday in Miller Funeral Home, with the family present from 4 to 5 p.m.

The family requests that expressions of sympathy take the form of donations to Seabury Western Theological Seminary in Evanston, Ill., or to St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Gundrum

The Very Rev. James Richard Gundrum of Sioux Falls, S.D., a . native of Muscatine, reached the pinnacle of his career before he retired in 1989 because of cancer.

He is remembered by many in Muscatine as a good friend.

Gundrum was ordained a deacon at Trinity Episcopal Church in June 1954, and ordained a priest in December of that year at Dennison.

He was the founding priest of St. Michael's Church in Cedar Rapids and served as rector there from 1958 to 1969 when he became canon missioner of the Diocese of Iowa unfit 1975.

“He was a man who bubbled over with enthusiasm for people, for the Lord and for life," said the Rev. Rick Simpson of Trinity Episcopal Church. "He had the ability to reach out and make people feel welcome."

Gundrum graduated from Muscatine High School in 1947. The last time he visited Muscatine was for his 45th class reunion.

"Of all the friends I have, he was the dearest," said Mary Ann Boulund, a school mate,

Gundrum enjoyed spending time in the kitchen. He earned his way through seminary at the Seabury Western Theological Seminary by working in a bakery, she said.

"Whenever he was here to visit we always had to spend a day in the kitchen making wonderful desserts," Boulund said.

In 1975 Gundrum served as secretary of the General Convention and executive officer of the Episcopal Church in New York City until 1986 when he moved to Sioux Falls, assuming the role of dean at Calvary Cathedral until he retired in 1989.

"We grew up together," said Art Miller. "We shared a genuine friendship from an early age and it carried over into adult life."

Miller said they played golf together whenever Gundrum was in Muscatine. They didn't really care about their scores.

"We enjoyed reminiscing and discussing old times," he said. "I have fond memories of singing with him in the Trinity Church choir."

"His parents were very industrious and religious," Miller said. "They were very astute to teach him the basic principles of life. He was never one to give up. That's why he was successful at everything he did."

"When we were growing up he was the last person I thought would become a bishop," said Senator Richard Drake. "He decided to become a minister when he was in college. Both my wife and I were inspired with his interpretation of the Bible. Even though he had cancer he never lost his faith. He never asked 'Why me?'"

"He always had a smile on his face," said Shirley Drake. "He lived a life that could be an inspiration to us all. He was able to express what the Lord meant to him."

Obituary of William Edward Black, ID = 1114134

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Audubon Republican, Audubon, IA, Thursday, 3 Aug. 1916, page 1.)

FIVE YEAR OLD SON IS DEAD

Three Other Children of the Family Are Seriously Ill As Result of Poisoning

William, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Black, of Melville township, died last night about eight, and three other children are seriously ill. William was as well as usual until about nine o'clock last Sunday morning, when he was taken suddenly sick. Medical aid was at once summoned, and he had been under the careful care of several physicans and a trained nurse. The doctors in attendance are unable to determine the exact nature and cause of the disease, it being an infection of the bowels. Mr. Black's hogs are suffering in a similar manner, and it is thought that William contracted the disease in this way.

Yesterday, Lucile, aged eight years Robert, aged three years, and Evelyn, aged nineteen months, were taken suddenly sick as was William, and their condition is dangerous.

Because of the serious condition of the family, and to prevent any possible spreading of the disease, no public funeral will be held, and the little remains will be laid to rest this afternoon in Arlington Heights cemetery.

Everyone extends to Mr. and Mrs. Black their deepest sympathy in this their hour of most crushing grief and trial, and earnestly hope that the lives of the other members of the family who are now ill will be spared. Another trained nurse is expected today to help care for the sick.

Mr. Black is a member of the board of supervisors of Audubon county.

(Note by RRC: "physicans" should be physicians; based on other sources, "Lucile" should be Lucille.)

Mrs. Nannie Kirchner, wife of Bernie Kirchner, passed away Tuesday morning, March 26, 1901, about 1 o'clock after scarcely more than an hour's warning. She had been complaining some the previous evening of a pain in her head but retired about 9 o'clock thinking sleep would bring relief. About midnight her husband was awakened by her moaning. He awakened Mr. and Mrs. Robert Black, her parents, and called Dr. Nolan and Dr. Carl but all help proved fruitless. She did not regain consciousness and died about an hour later. She leaves, beside her husband, two small children, the youngest only 17 days old.

As the news of the sudden death spread over the village in the early morning, sadness prevailed everywhere. Many tears have fallen in sympathy with the father, mother and husband so suddenly bereft. This death comes with unusual sadness, she being the second and only remaining daughter taken within a year. An only child, Ben. Black, remains to her parents.

As the sun was sinking in the western horizon on Tuesday evening, April 10, 1906, Miss Lida Black, calmly closed her eyes on earthly scenes and she was not, for God had taken her spirit unto Himself. For several years she had not been in firm health, but for over ten weeks she had suffered more than words can express. She was very patient through all her sickness and always greeted her friends with a smile. She was ever thoughtful of the comfort of those who ministered unto her. She had set her house in order and with peaceful perfect trust awaited the summons, "come up higher.' The days of her pilgrimage here below were 61 years, 10 months and 10 days. She was the last surviving daughter of the late Benjamin and Frances Moore Black and was born on May 31st, 1844. To her parents were born 11 children, six daughters and five sons. One little son, Benjamin, and four little daughters died in infancy. In early life she united with the Christian church at West Liberty and in company with her sister, Martha M. Black and brother, Arthur L. Black was baptized by Elder John Powell. For more than fifty-three years her home was in Iowa. She was born across the Ohio river from Cincinnati in Boon county, Kentucky, and from there she came with her parents to Muscatine county, Iowa, in October, 1852 and has since resided in this county with the exception of a short residence in Cedar county. For fifteen years the family resided in Cedar Valley. In 1867 they moved to a farm 1 1/2, miles east of Nichols. On December 24, 1868, Martha M. Black was united in marriage with Alfred M. Wilkins. To this union were born four daughters, two dying in childhood and two are yet alive. They are Mrs. O. L. Pyeatt, Muscatine, Ia., and Mrs. Maude Rishell, Perry, Iowa.

Both parents died while residing near Nichols. The little mother January 15, 1884, the father April 18, 1885. The daughter Mrs. Wilkins, dying in Muscatine Oct. 12, 1882. Lester, Lida and her brother, J. W. Black, never left their parents, nor were they ever separated during all the years of his life except when she would go away on short visits. On Feb. 27, 1889, they moved to a farm 2 1/2 miles northeast of Conesville, which has since been their home. During her residence here she has been a regular attendant of the Methodist Episcopal church. She was deeply interested in all the affairs of the church and was a faithful memiber of the Ladies' Aid society She is survived by four brothers, James M. Black, Audubon, Iowa; Robert C. Black, Nichols, Ia; Arthur L. Black, Newton, Dale county, Alabama, and John W. Black, Conesville, Iowa. Four nephews, W. L. Black, Atalissa, Iowa; B. H. Black, Nichols, Ia.; B. J. Black, Audubon, Ia.; Elmer W. Black, Conesville, Ia.. Four nieces, Mrs. O. L. Pyeatt, Muscatine, Ia.; Mrs. Maud Rishell, Perry, Iowa; Miss Emma Black, Audubon, IA.; Miss Elma Mae Black, St. Andrews Bay, Florida. Six great nieces, three great nephews and one great great niece.

The last sad rites were held over the remains at the family home Friday morning. April 13. Rev. Brinton, pastor of the M. E. church at Conesville, spoke words of tender comfort to the bereaved ones in the presence of many sympathizing friends. A company-of sorrowing friends and relatives followed the remains to their last resting place in the family lot in the Nichols cemetery; She leaves many warm friends to mourn her departure. She was a great favorite with the young people of her acquaintance. The pall bearers were George Brown, J. H. Krider, M. P. McKeown, J. Gunderson, Allen McCurdy; and S. D. Foster.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, “Boon” should be Boone; “Alfred M.” should be Alfred N.; “Maude Rishell” should be Maud Rishel; I suspect Lester refers to her brother Arthur, but I can’t confirm that; I don’t know anything more about the niece named Elma Mae Black.)

Obituary of Opal Ella (Housewright) Ryan, ID = 1115511

(Partially copied from the Houston Chronicle, Houston, TX, 30 June 2006, online.)

Opal Ella Housewright Ryan

OPAL ELLA HOUSEWRIGHT RYAN, 90, was born on Easter Sunday, April 23, 1916 on her parents' farm near Wylie, Texas. On June 27, 2006 after recent failing health, including several years of kidney dialysis, she departed this earthly life to enter her Heavenly life. She was the oldest of eight children born to Pat and Lucy Housewright. Opal was educated in Wylie and married to George William Ryan on November 17, 1934. Opal and George moved to Houston in 1937. For over 20 years, she was a resident of Jersey Village. She was also a member of Jersey Village Baptist Church. Staying close to family was something she grew up with, was at the core of her heart, and continued her entire life with regular visits to see her parents, brothers, sisters, nieces, and nephews and the feeling that her "country home" was always a precious place for her. As a devoted wife to George for 65 years and a wonderful mother, her husband and her children were the focus of her life. She loved her home, visits from family "from up home", cooking for everyone, enjoying camping and fishing trips, and weekend drives to the bay and their "getaway" at the Trinity River. Later in life her grandchildren and great-grandchildren were an added joy to her life and they loved their "Nan". Her capacity for love, her devotion to family, her strength of character and constitution, her graciousness to anyone she met, were all wrapped up in an easy smile and a softness of heart that endeared her to anyone who met her. Always caring and attending to everyone else's needs and wants before her own and the pleasure to make others happy was how everyone will remember this sweet angel. She was preceded in death by her husband and parents and brother L.D. Housewright. Her legacy leaves to remember her, son... daughter... and son... Grandchildren are... Great-Grandchildren are... and her precious first Great-Granddaughter... and her second Great-Granddaughter... Sisters are... and brothers are... Visitation for family and friends will be held on Friday, June 30, 2006 from 6:00-9:00 p.m. at Forest Park Funeral Home, Lawndale. A celebration of "Nan's" life will be held at Forest Park on Saturday, July 1, 2006 at 1:00 p.m. Graveside services to follow. Pallbearers will be grandsons... nephews... and Honorary Pallbearer, Clay Coffman. The family wishes to express their gratitude to Nan's special caregivers Earline, Pam, and Linda.

Obituary of John Frederick Myers, ID = 1131341

(Found online at F-A-G, maintained by nancy myers.)

After John "Ted" Myers retired as an ink setter, he spent his time fishing, reading and working as a deacon for the First Baptist Church in Dayton, Ky.

His faith was important to him, said his daughter, Gail Myers of Cincinnati.

"He was always talking about doing the Lord's work," she said.

Mr. Myers, a native of Covington, Ky., died Wednesday. He was 83.

A sergeant in the Army Air Corps during World War II, he received five Bronze Stars.

"He would never talk much about his war experiences," said his wife, Evelyn Myers. "But he would tell the story about how he was on the beach at D-Day." He retired in 1974 from the Clopay Corp. in Florence.

The First Baptist Church in Dayton named him a life-long deacon. An avid fisherman, Mr. Myers taught all his children to fish.

Mary Eileen McCoy

SEPTEMBER 5, 1944 – MAY 9, 2021

On Sunday, May 9, 2021, Mary Eileen McCoy passed away at home surrounded by her loving family at the age of 76. Mary "Eileen" was born on September 5, 1944 in Franklin County, Missouri to Lloyd Charles and Elizabeth Lucille Wimmer. As the youngest child of four, Eileen and her family moved around a lot before settling in Springfield, Mo where she graduated from private high school on the campus of Southwest Missouri State College.

As a young, single woman Eileen loved to travel; she took a job at a ski factory in Seattle, Washington, then decided that was not for her so she moved back home. In Springfield, Mo. Eileen took business training then she accepted a job with Western Union that took her from Colorado to Kansas City as she said it, "I stepped off the bus with nothing but a hat box" and found an apartment on the Country Club Plaza.

As destiny would have its way, Eileen accepted a blind date from … and on February 14, 1970 that turned into 51 years of devoted marriage. Eileen, then, became an excellent homemaker; Eileen bore two children, … and … and used her talent to provide for the family. Eileen, like her father, had a talent for drawing cartoons with which she eagerly did for birthday parties and painting them on the nursery walls of the church the family attended- Grandview Assembly of God.

Eileen was passionate about her talent for cartooning that she took classes in oil painting and learned how to paint mountain, ocean, and country scenes. Eileen was deeply devoted to her husband and family they were the center of her heart, second only to God in her life, she exemplified the definition of the Proverbs 31 woman.

Eileen was preceded in death by her parents and her sister, Nancy Ruth Falls.

Eileen is survived in death by her sister … her brother, … her husband, … her two children, … and … eight grandchildren: … and two great-grandchildren: … and many nieces and nephews.

Private graveside service will be held at New Hope Cemetery.

In Lieu of flowers the family requests that Donations to Dementia society of America in Eileen's name. https://www.dementiasociety.org/donate

Obituary of Nancy Marie 'Nannie' (Robinson) Connley, ID = 11316

(Email submitted by Valerie Rohde in 2016; Valerie is a great-great-granddaughter of Nancy.)

I did some digging through a drawer full of old files at my dad's house this weekend and found Nancy's obituary. The following information was included in it: She was born Nancy Marie Robinson in Manard county in Illinois and moved as a child to Linn county, Missouri. She married James there in 1883. Her parents were named Samuel and Lucy. She had been sick for three months before her death and died at her daughter, Lucy's, house on Union St. in Marshalltown. She had lived in Marshalltown for 26 years at the time of death. She was survived (in addition to children and grandchildren) by two brothers, R.H. Robinson of Lexington, Nebraska and G.W. Robinson of Portland. My dad was 12 when she died, and he remembers her as having a good sense of humor and being a bit of a show off! She loved it when he took her picture. He vaguely remembers her house being on Main Street in Marshalltown. Hope that helps! Valerie

Robert Connley Dies In Action In Italy Nov. 30

A telegram was received Tuesday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Connley, 906 East Main street, from the war department informing them that their son, Cpl.-Tech. Robert Forrest Connley, 29, was killed in action Nov. 30, while in battle in the north African area. The telegram read: "The secretary of war desires me to express his deep regret that your son, Technician Fifth Grade Robert F. Connley, was killed in action in defense of his country on Nov 30 in the north African area. Letter follows." R. F. Connley. The telegram was signed by the adjutant general of the U S army.

FOUGHT IN TUNISIA.

Corporal Connley was presumed to be serving in headquarters company of an Iowa infantry regiment in Italy at the time of his death. He had previously fought in Tunisia, north Africa and Sicily.

He was inducted into the army with Marshalltown's Company H of the Iowa National guard, on Feb. 10, 1941, and took his training at Camp Claiborne, La., going to Ireland on Feb. 24, 1942 with that group and later to the combat area of north Africa.

In September, 1943, his family received a letter from him telling of his being confined to a hospital in north Africa with an attack of yellow jaundice. He had planned at that time on a two month rest period before rejoining his company.

On Thanksgiving day Pvt. Connley wrote a V-mail letter to his mother telling her about the turkey dinner he had eaten that day somewhere in Italy. He ended the letter with "Well, will see you Christmas."

ON CONSTRUCTION CREWS.

Before the war Corporal Connley was employed by Western Union and was on the construction crews that built the Bell Telephone company building and the city sewage disposal plant.

He attended the Evangelical church as a boy.

Robert Forrest Connley was born in Marshalltown on Nov. 10, 1914, and lived his entire life in this city before entering the army.

James Milton Connley, 88

James Milton Connley, 88, entered into eternal life on March 24, 2014, at the Veterans Hospital in Grand Junction, Colorado. He had been lovingly and faithfully cared for by his wife... and his youngest daughter... as he gradually lost his battle with heart disease.

He was put on a train at Ft. Des Moines for bootcamp in San Diego and on to Pearl Harbor for more training. Jim served as an orderly to Admiral Griffen in the Pacific with the 7th Fleet and was in most major sea battles, serving as far north as the Aleutian Islands and south of the equator. He transferred with the admiral from the U.S.S. Wichita to the U.S.S. Minneapolis during this WWll period. He experienced Kamikaze attacks and was fortunate to survive a three day typhoon.

After the war, Jim returned to Marshalltown and began his 38 year career with Iowa Electric Light and Power Co. After retirement in 1983, he then worked as expansion manager for Central Iowa Water Association until 1992. BEAUTIFUL YOUNG LIFE CLOSES HERE

Last Sunday morning, March 14, 1920, at 2:30 o'clock, Miss Laila Connley went to her heavenly reward after a brief illness of only one week. She passed away at the home of Mrs. W. H. Kelsco, where she had lived during the past six years.

Miss Connley was born at Stanberry, Missouri, October 23, 1890. She came to California in 1910, and resided for several years with her aunt, Mrs. G. W. Crosier, and family. She gave herself to Christ when a young girl and united with the M. E. church.

Laila Connley will be greatly missed in the Methodist church of Inglewood. She was a faithful and capable worker in the Epworth League, where she gave her best heart service. She was chairman of the Devotional Department of the Inglewood chapter where she was unusually efficient. She was also a member of the J. O. C. class in the Sunday school.

She was of a kind, loving disposition, and very unselfish. Miss Connley leaves a large circle of staunch friends, who will mourn for her.

One of the highest tributes that can be paid Miss Laila is that she was kind and devoted to her mother, who survives her and resides in Inglewood. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Howard of Los Angeles.

The funeral services were held on Monday afternoon in the Chapel of the H. J. Anderson Undertaking parlors, Rev. E. M. Crandall, pastor of the M. E. Church officiating. At the service the J. O. C. girls sang two selections. The floral offerings from the Epworth League, the J. O. C. class, the Sunday School and loving friends were numerous and beautiful.

Interment was in the Inglewood Park Cemetery. At the grave Mrs. George Miller of Highland Park sang touchingly, "In the Garden," which was Laila's favorite song.

The relatives and friends of this dearly loved young lady have the deepest sympathy of all in their bereavement but they have this beautiful thought to comfort them she did what she could while here and has only passed on to a better world. Laila is gone, but hey beautiful christian deeds will live on and on and who knows what the harvest will be? — Inglewood, California.

Obituary of Perry Andrew Smith Ryle, ID = 11427

Perry A. Ryle Dead

Perry A. Ryle died last Thursday at his home out on the Florence Pike, of apoplexy. He was in his 69th year and had been in ill health for several years. He was a son of the late Elijah and Sarah Clements Ryle, who passed to their reward many years ago. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Jane Adams, and four sons, Dr. R. E. Ryle, of Beaver, James and John, of Burlington, and Joseph, of Cleves, Ohio, and three daughters, Nora Mae, Lillie and Fannie. The funeral was conducted at the Burlington Baptist church last Sunday at 11 a. m., Rev. C. T. Claunch, pastor of Gunpowder church conducting the services, after which the remains were interred in the Odd Fellows cemetery near town in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The deceased was originally a member of the Middle creek Baptist church, with which he united fifty-six years ago, but at the time of his death he held his membership in the Gunpowder Baptist church. He was a man who not only believed in religion but lived it, and was one of the county's most conservative citizens, going through life in an unostentatious manner, enjoying the confidence of all with whom he had dealings. He was slow to anger but quick to forgive, and was not a man who considered all persons wrong who did not think as he did. He lived to see seven of the twelve children born to him and his wife, reach man and womanhood and become honorable and useful citizens, and were a pleasure to him in his declining days, when it was a comfort to them to minister to him. Perry Ryle led the life of the just and felt assured of a condition of happiness in the great beyond.

They were married Sept. 7, 1947, and had two children, Leonard, Jr. (1948), and Paula (1950). Over the next 20 years, the Nelsons lived in Washington, DC; Hayward, CA; Glenview, IL; and Garden Grove, CA. Pauline had a successful career as a secretary and administrative assistant for Hunt Wesson Foods (1951-1957; 1969-1984), the United States Civil Service (1958-1962) and Family Finance Corporation (1963-1969). After her divorce from Leonard in 1971, Pauline and William Ferrell, the love of her life, embarked on a partnership that lasted until his death in January 2005. Pauline and Bill enjoyed a wonderful life together - filled with family, travel and recreation. "Granny" and "Grandpa" were incredibly kind, generous and devoted, not only to their own children and grandchildren, but to countless "adoptees." They literally lived the credo "Practice random acts of kindness and senseless acts of beauty." After Bill's death, Pauline continued to live independently, but her health had quietly deteriorated, and she died of complications from a heart attack on Feb. 13, 2008. She is survived by her son, Leonard M. Nelson, Jr., and his wife, Carol Maier, of Portland, OR; daughter, Paula Saifer and her husband, Philip Saifer, of Orange, CA; and grandchildren Erin William Kirk, Jennifer Joan Nelson, and Ryan Michael Nelson. She was preceded in death by her mother, Ida, in 1983 and her sister, Betty Marsh, in 1992. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Pauline Nelson's name to the University of California Irvine Arboretum: UCI Foundation, Jeanette Storey, Director of Development, School of Biological Sciences, University of California Irvine, 4123 Natural Sciences II, Irvine, CA 92697-1450.

STRICKLAND - Josiah Strickland, 61 years old, 1214 Pennsylvania avenue, was stricken yesterday afternoon while at work on a WPA project at Seventy-first street and Wayne avenue, and died later at the General hospital. Hospital attendants said death was from a cerebral hemorrhage. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Leona Strickland of the home; two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Williams, also of the home, and Mrs. Ethel Kane, 111 North Liberty street, Independence: four sisters, Mrs. Nellie Staples and Mrs. Myrtle Grable, both of Brookfield, Mo., and Mrs. Ada Brammer, Tina, Mo., and Mrs. Flore Shoemaker, Hale, Mo., and four brothers, Harry Strickland, also of Tina; Newt Strickland, Denver; Ulysses Strickland, Rothville, Mo., and John Strickland, Brookfield.

(Note by RRC: I don't have any genetic relationship with Josiah that I know of. He is included if this genealogy because I do share some Connely genes with the Elizabeth Jane Adams who became the 2nd wife of John Strickland and was Josiah's stepmother.

I suspect "Flore" should be Flora.)

Obituary of Charles Tally Jones, ID = 11434

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Decatur Herald, Decatur, IL, Tuesday, 24 Jan. 1911, page 2.)

Killed by Falling Tree.

Charles T. Jones, one of the prominent farmers of Buckhart townhslp, had an accident this morning while engaged in cutting down trees at his home, three miles south of Edinburg, which cost him his life.

A tree fell upon him, pinioning him to the ground and mashing the knee of the left leg so badly that three Edinburg physicians, who were called into the case, decided that immediate amputation of the injured leg was necessary. It was removed about two inches above the knee, and soon afterward the man died.

Mr. Jones was highway commissioner of Buckhart township and is well known in Edinburg and vicinity. He is about 50 years old and has a wife and five children.

(Note by RRC: A typo - “townhslp” should be township; by my calculation, he was 59 at death, not 50.)

Pat was born November 21, 1930 in Los Angeles, to Ray and Geneva (Cutts) Jones. Later her family moved to Davis, California, where her father was Chief of the University Police Force. Pat and … met while he was a student at the University at Davis. There was no doubt from the beginning both had found the love of their life. They married on December 29, 1951 and shared 62 wonderful years together.

Pat came to King City as a new bride; ready to experience every adventure life had to offer. She learned to swim through the Red Cross program, becoming an excellent swimmer, going on to teach swimming and life saving with the Red Cross for more than 25 years. She taught many of all ages from the King City area, but none made her prouder than grandson … who still holds records in swimming for King City.

Pat's lifelong passion was her family, she was always alongside Bob to support and encourage him. They were life partners, business partners and best friends. Together they built Meyer Tomatoes in the United States, Baja, California and Mexico.

Another part of Pat's joyous adventures was traveling. She especially liked organizing trips for family and friends, foreign travel was on the top of her list. She wanted to see it all. Part of most summers were spent either at Lake Nacimiento or Catalina Island with family and friends. Her most cherished times were summers in Catalina.

Pat was predeceased by her parents and two brothers, Fred and Raymond Jones.

Pat was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, godmother and devoted friend. For the last several years Pat has had loving care, allowing her to live with dignity and grace, all provided by her caregivers, … Pat's family and friends will be eternally grateful to these two women. Rest in peace Pat, you will be missed by all who love you.

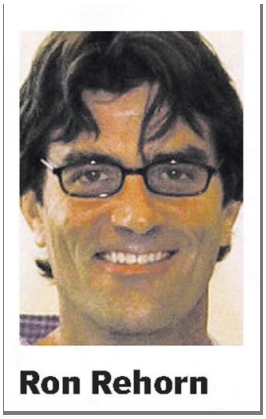
(Partially transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Santa Fe New Mexican, Santa Fe, NM, Monday, 3 Nov. 2014, page A-8.)



Clarence Ronald Rehorn Jr., known his entire life as Ron, passed away in a one-car accident on his way home from work on Oct. 30, 2014. He died at the scene. No one else was injured. Ron was 50.

Except for a few short absences, Ron lived his entire life in Santa Fe and the vicinity, spending much of his adult life working in the service industry as a bartender. Ron's excellent sense of humor, charm and charisma made him a perfect match for the Santa Fe service industry, and he was loved and liked by literally thousands of people.

Ron loved the outdoors and rural living, and sought places to dwell nestled at the foot of Rowe Mesa, his favorite stomping grounds. Hiking, gathering firewood and exploring in the piñon and juniper forests with his friends and family were among his favorite pastimes.

Ron attended school at Carlos Gilbert elementary, De Vargas Junior High, and Santa Fe High School. He was a member of the Santa Fe High Jazz Band and marching band as a trombone player during his high school years. He made the All State Band two years running during that time.

Ron was an avid backpacker, backcountry skier and outdoorsman. He could play a mean mouth harp and was invited from time to time to join the musical talent playing at his bar. Ron never met a musical instrument he didn't like and played many of them with heart. Just don't ask him to sing, his friends would comment.

All who knew Ron were blessed by his friendship and love, but especially his parents, … of Santa Fe, his daughter … and granddaughters … his niece and nephew … and his siblings … Ron is survived by the aforementioned loved ones, along with numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

A Celebration of Life will be held Sunday, Nov. 8, at the community center in the Eldorado subdivision. The Rev. John Kinsolving will officiate. Prior to the celebration, interment of Ron's ashes will occur with family and close friends. Contact Don Rehorn at 351-2424 if you were a friend of Ron. For more information, contact Jean at 989-7577.

Obituary of Zelma Lee (Stephens) Akin, ID = 1144114

(Found online at GenealogyBuff.com - Miscellaneous Obituaries Collection - Page 1724; date of these obituaries: 01-05-2000.)

Zelma Stephens Akin, Boone's assistant tax commissioner

The Stephens family has been intertwined with Boone County's history for 200 years, providing the county a tax commissioner, a newspaper publisher, farmers and teachers.

An elementary school that sits on the land where Zelma Lee Stephens Akin grew up bears the family's name.

Mrs. Akin, the last original member of the family for which Stephens Elementary School is named, died Tuesday at Woodspoint Nursing Home in Florence. She was 88.

The Stephens sold, for a small price to the county, a portion of the land they farmed and lived on when they moved to Burlington from Union. The house they lived in still sits adjacent to the school, and Mrs. Akin's sister-in-law lives there.

Mrs. Akin, who worked as an assistant tax commissioner for her brother, former tax commissioner Wilton Stephens, was proud of her family history, said her daughter, Mary Jo Martin. Her other brother, Pete, own and published the Boone County Recorder until he died, she said.

When Boone County dedicated the school, Mrs. Akin spoke of how her family had moved from Union to Burlington in a road wagon, a horse-drawn wagon used for farm work. Mrs. Akin, then Zelma Stephens, and her three siblings had just lost their father when the family moved in the early '20s.

"They had to make it on their own," Mrs. Martin said.

Mrs. Akin lived with a family in Cincinnati for a short time and worked her way through business school, quite a feat for a woman of her time, Mrs. Martin said. She married and moved to a farm where she "worked really hard to raise her four kids," said Mrs. Martin, a teacher in Boone County for 32 years.

Mrs. Akin was a loyal church-goer and had the longest-standing membership at Burlington Baptist Church. She insisted her daughter take her there before going to the hospital Monday night.

"She had to go to church," Mrs. Martin said.

Her husband, Roscoe Edwin Akin, died in 1988.

Other survivors include daughters, Arlene Akin Jones Singletary of Burlington and Martha Akin Mouzourakis of Hilton Head, S.C.; a son, John Buck Akin of Burlington; eight grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at Burlington Baptist Church. Visitation will be from 5 to 8 p.m. Friday at the church. Burial will be in Burlington Cemetery. Memorials are suggested to Burlington Baptist Church, 3031 Washington Blvd., Burlington, Ky. 41005. Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence, is handling arrangements.

MRS. ALICE UTZ PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Alice Utz, 86, Shelby street, Florence, died Tuesday at her home, following an illness of three months. She has been a resident of Boone county her entire life. She was the widow of O. B. Utz, farmer. She was 76 years old.

Four daughters, Mrs. W. R. Rouse, Electric, Texas; Mrs. Louis Clagg, Union, Ky.; Miss Dell Utz, Covington and Miss Fanny Utz, of Florence survive her.

Services are to be conducted at the residence at 3 o'clock (today) Thursday. Burial is to be in Rice cemetery, Union, Ky.

(Note by RRC: In "86," above, the comma is a typo - Alice's residence at the time of her death was 86 Shelby street per her death certificate. Her date of birth - as typed on her death certificate - was 6 June 1858 - but there is strong evidence that she was born in 1856, not 1858. If 6 June 1856 is her correct date of birth, then she was 78 years of age at death, not 76.

Based on other sources, "Electric" should be Electra; "Clagg" should be Clegg; "Fanny" should be Fannye;

Alice was the 2nd wife of Owen Bernard Utz. She was the biological mother of Fannye and the stepmother of the 1st 3 daughters mentioned in this obit.)

Obituary of Una Vernice Elizabeth (Scott) Hewett, ID = 11451141

(Partially copied from the website (ballardfuneralhome.com) of the Ballard Funeral Home, Roswell, NM.)

Una Vernice Elizabeth Hewett
April 24, 1929 - May 21, 2013

Funeral services are scheduled for 1:30 P.M. Thursday, May 30, 2013 at Grace Community Church for Una Hewett, 84, who passed away on Tuesday, May 21, 2013 at Mission Arch Care Center. Pastor Rick Hale of Grace Community Church will be officiating. Burial is scheduled for 1:00 P.M., Friday, May 31, 2013 at Resthaven Memorial Park in Midland, TX. Mrs. Hewett will lie in state on Wednesday, May 29, 2013 from 9 A.M. to 7 P.M. at Ballard Funeral Home.

From the time she was a little girl to the time she graduated to heaven; Una embraced and loved people from every walk of life. She had a heart of gold and a twinkle in her eye and could always make you laugh. Una loved playing practical jokes and was quick to the punch line all through her school years including her years at Texas Tech. The happiest time in her life, other than marrying Buddy, was having and raising her four children. She loved being a mother, raised all her kids in church and raised them all with the example she showed of being a kind and generous person. She also loved being a grandmother and a great-grandmother.

She began working for the Oil & Gas Commission in Artesia in the 1960's while her kids were still in diapers. After the kids were grown, and while residing in Roswell, Buddy was appointed Chief Highway Commissioner by then Governor Bruce King. They moved to Santa Fe where Una worked for the Oil & Gas Commission again and at the Bank of Santa Fe. Afterwards Una & Buddy returned to Roswell where she went to work for the Chaves County Assessor's Office. Upon retiring from the County in April of 1986 she continued her career at Pioneer Bank where she worked until the mid-1990's. She made many friends while working and she kept up with most of them until her death.

The stories of Una making people laugh and making everyone she met feel better about themselves are numerous. Even the week before she passed away and for the two years she was at Mission Arch, she touched the lives of many of the residents, several of them calling her "Their Angel". One example of this was on this past Mother's Day, when she received four large bouquets of flowers. The first thing she did, after thanking everyone for the flowers and while barely being able to talk, was to instruct her children that they were to give some of the flowers away to some residents who had no family that came to see them. This is a perfect example of who Una was. Many of the aides and nurses also have funny stories about "Una" and her antics. She will be missed but we know that heaven is a more joyful place with Una there.

Una was preceded in death by her parents her husband Joe J. (Buddy) Hewett Jr. and her daughter Christi Hewett of Roswell. She is survived by her son... her daughters... brothers... nephews... and a niece... Grandchildren... Her great grandchildren...

The family would like to thank all the aides, the nurses, the administrators and Hospice at Mission Arch for taking good care of her for the past two years. We would especially like to thank Anna Aguirre and Mary Duarte for their exceptional loving care for her over the past few weeks.

The family request that memorial contributions be made to the Roswell Humane Society, 703 E. McGaffey, Roswell, NM 88203.

Rogers, of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. Nannie A. Stephens, of Crittenden, Ky., all of whom were present during mothers last sickness and followed her remains on the sad journey to their last rest.

Deceased was a firm believer in the Christian faith, having in early girlhood joined the ten-mile Baptist church at Napoleon, in Gallatin county; being an active member of the Big Bone Baptist church in Boone county, for thirty years in middle life, and at the time of her death was a loyal member of the Crittenden Baptist church in Grant county.

On Saturday afternoon, April 26, 1913, in her late home, in the presence of the family, friends and neighbors, brief funeral services, of song, prayer and discourse, were conducted by the pastor of her church, the Rev. Kirtley Johnson, and on the Sunday morning following, the remains were taken to the Big Bone Baptist church in Boone county where in the presence of the entire family, in the church where the deceased so often worshipped in this life, filled with her neighbors, friends and relatives, a most impressive funeral service of song, reading, sermon and prayer was directed by the pastor, the Rev. Wm. McMillan.

A striking co-incident was that each of the pastors, without the knowledge of the other, selected as the text for his discourse the 15th verse of the CXVI Psalm, which is as follows, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

After the services the remains by the hands of those whom they were precious, the living children, were borne to the beautiful cemetery at the side of the church, and there gently placed by the side of the children who had gone before, with them to await their resurrection.

Died.

Died at her home at Lake Springs, Mo., Jan. 7, 1900, Mrs. Martha L. L. Hume, aged 57 years, 2 months and 15 days.

She has been afflicted for more than 15 years, but was such a consecrated christian and follower of Jesus that she bore her pain with great patience. She was a member of the M. E. church South, for more than 20 years before her death. She died happy in the Saviour's love.

Her remains were laid to rest in the Lake Springs cemetery. She leaves a daughter, two sisters, and 4 brothers and many friends that hope to meet her in that better city where pain is unknown. Funeral service were held at the Lake Springs church Sunday, Jan. 14, by the writer.

REV. SOLON J. UPTON.

(Note by RRC: I suspect “Lake Springs” should be Lake Spring. I don’t understand why she has 2 Ls as initials. If Martha was born on 23 Oct. 1841 & died on 7 Jan. 1900, then by my calculation she was 58, years, 2 months and 15 days old at her death.)

Mr. Bowles was visiting at the Legate home when stricken.

He was born at Jake's Prairie, Mo., and attended schools in that area. As a young man Mr. Bowles sold derby hats in St Louis, Mo., and taught school.

Buffalo man, 25, killed in bull-riding competition

By Paul Donsky
News-Leader

As he traveled the country on the amateur rodeo circuit, Charles "Chip" Hume almost always slipped on his protective vest along with his spurs, boots and cowboy hat.

But at a bull-riding contest in Mountain Grove on Saturday, the 25-year-old Buffalo resident rode without the vest, which proved to be a fatal mistake.

Hume was killed when the 1,500-pound bull he was riding threw him off and landed squarely on his chest, said Frank Walkowe, event organizer.

Wright County coroner Lynn Hurtt said Hume suffered massive internal injuries, including Hume a ruptured heart, and died instantly.

"It was about as sudden a death as you could have," Hurtt said.

Contest officials stopped the event after the accident.

Walkowe said his son often traveled with Hume from one small rodeo to the next. Sometimes Hume stayed at Walkowe's Mountain Grove home.

"Chip was just an outstanding young man. He was like a son," Walkowe said. "I don't know why he didn't wear his protective vest that ride. I've seen a lot of boys, including my son, stepped on like this. If they do get hurt, it's not as bad."

Walkowe said the protective vest is made of similar material to a police officer's bulletproof vest.

Saturday's event was held in a field behind the Branding Iron, a Mountain Grove steak house, and featured only 15 riders and a small cash prize, Walkowe said.

A certified emergency medical technician was on hand, but Hume's injuries were so severe, even having an ambulance at the arena would have made no difference, Hurtt said.

"If there was a cardiac surgeon there, it wouldn't have mattered."

Hume is the son of David Hume of Republic and Mary Brown of California, and the grandson of Charles and Maxine Hume of Springfield.

Obituary of Jack Robert 'Happy' Davis, ID = 1222162

(Partially transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Montana Standard, Butte, MT, Sunday, 31 Jan. 2021, page A7.)

Jack Robert Davis, 93

Sept. 30, 1927-Jan. 20, 2021

On 9/30/1927, "Happy" Jack Davis graced planet earth with his uplifting and indomitably cheerful presence. To the sorrow of those who were fortunate enough to have known him, and especially those who loved him, he passed away unexpectedly, but quickly and painlessly, during the morning of 1/20/2021, at the age of 93.

Jack was born in Butte, MT, to Wilfred and Nola Davis, and was the youngest of five children. When he was 13, he met the love of his life, Patricia "Pat" Horrom, while skiing at the Beef Trail ski hill and following a courtship over the course of the next 10 years or so Jack and Pat married and enjoyed a long and happy marriage until Pat's death in 1996. Jack and Pat raised four sons: … When Jack was about 14 and working as a car hop at the local RW root beer stand in Butte, he was given the nickname "Happy Jack" by a customer. The nickname stuck and followed him throughout his life. Not long before his death Jack explained that as a youngster the idea had come to him that he could choose to respond to unpleasant events in his life with unhappiness or with happiness and following logically from that epiphany he chose happiness as his default way of being in the world.

At the age of 18, Jack reported for duty in the Navy V-5 flight officer program and completed his 1st year of college at Cal Tech and Cal Berkeley while in that program. WWII ended during that year and so Jack was moved to inactive status in the V-5 program. He then returned to Montana where he continued his education in the field of mechanical engineering at Montana State College (MSC).

Jack was discharged from the Navy in late 1947 or early 1948 because of the reduction in force following the end of the war. While at MSC Jack skied and jumped with the MSC ski team and won many races and ski jumping competitions and took home many trophies. Following his college graduation, Jack returned to Butte and went to work for the Montana Power Company. During this time, Jack became acquainted with a high school kid named Robert "Bobby" Knievel, who was interested in learning to ski jump but did not have any way to get to the ski hill so Jack and his good buddy, Jack Emery, gave Bobby rides to the hill and taught him what they knew about jumping.

Jack and Pat's plans to marry during 1950 were disrupted by a "greeting" which Jack received from the government, instructing him to appear at the Draft Office for induction into the Army for service during the Korean War. Jack quickly enlisted in the Air Force and Jack and Pat then married in 1952, while Jack was still in the Air Force. Jack was discharged from the Air Force in 1953 and returned to working for the Montana Power Company for a short time before going to work for the Anaconda Copper Mining Company at the Columbia Falls Aluminum Refinery, his first of several positions over the years with the Anaconda Company and ARCO.

For much of his working life, Jack and the family lived in the community of Smelter Hill, across the Missouri River from Great Falls and across the tracks from Black Eagle. During those years, Jack built a rope tow on the hill in front of the family home so that his boys and other neighborhood children could enjoy skiing pretty much just "out the front door." Sometime around 1960, Jack made what some of his friends thought at the time was a foolish purchase of a lakefront cabin property on Seeley Lake, where he, Pat and the boys spent many happy days and summers. Jack named the property HlazyB, which stood for home for lazy boys. Also, in 1960, Jack was qualified as a moon planet engineer by the Celestial Society of Loonar Astrofizical Engineers. Around that same time, Jack purchased a pair of the newfangled metal Head Standard snow skies and when asked what he wanted engraved on the address line under his name on the skies, he chose the single word "earthling."

Jack was a natural leader and willingly served his community, volunteering time as chairman of the Commerce and Industry Division for the Great Falls Red Cross Fund Campaign during 1967, as a member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce during the 1970s, as chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Energy Committee during 1979-1980, and he was also an active member of the Great Falls Ski Bums and the First United Methodist Church.

Following the shutdown of operations of the Anaconda/ARCO smelter in Great Falls in 1980, Jack found overseas positions with ARCO for a few years, first in Ireland and then in Jamaica, before returning to Montana to finish out his working years and retiring in 1989. While in Jamaica, Jack and Pat enjoyed renting sailboats and sailing in the Caribbean. At his 60th birthday party Jack proposed to a group of friends that they pursue a project of building a golf course at Seeley Lake and, long story short, the result of that effort is now called the Double Arrow Golf Course.

In 2010, or thereabouts, Jack was inducted into the Butte High School Skiing Hall of Fame. Jack was preceded in death by his parents; siblings; his wife, Pat; and by his third son, Timothy. He is survived by his sons, …; by 13 grandchildren; and by five great-grandchildren.

Happy Jack will live on in the memories of the many people who loved him and whose lives were enriched by his "Happy" presence. A small family service will be held at the 1st United Methodist Church in Great Falls on Saturday, Feb. 6, at 11 a.m. The service can be viewed via live stream on the church's Facebook page by navigating in your device's web browser to the following address: www.facebook.com/1stumcgreatfalls.

Memorial donations, if desired, may be made to the First United Methodist Church of Great Falls, the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), and/or the Red Cross.

Obituary of Timothy John Davis, ID = 12221623

(Partially transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in the Great Falls Tribune, Great Falls, MT, Saturday, 29 Aug. 2020, page 8A.)

Timothy John Davis

On the afternoon of August 21st, 2020, Timothy John Davis tragically lost his life in a rollover accident on a quiet gravel road in Central Montana.

Tim was always happy to be in this world and his jovial spirit was infectious to all of those around him. He was able to find joy no matter the task and was always ready with a good story to tell, re-written song lyrics, or funny made-up words. Co-workers, family, and friends were all blessed by the perpetual cheer that emanated from the Great Falls native. He will be remembered for his great love of the outdoors. Fishing, skiing, hunting - elk was his favorite, and the general shenanigans that come from being the third youngest of four brothers, Tim spent his time in the caring arms of mother nature whenever possible.

He earned degrees in civil engineering and construction technology and found work in heavy highway and civil construction. It could be argued that he earned a 3rd degree in fly-fishing while he attended MSU in Bozeman, MT. During his 45-year career, he worked on numerous prolific projects across many western states. A master of his trade, Lord help anyone that casually asked Tim what he was working on or how to catch the biggest fish – for it would inevitably turn into a 20-minute lesson on choosing proper material, layering techniques, compaction specifications, or fly selection.

Tim fell in love with… shortly after high school. So in love that he still showed up to their wedding even though she had scheduled it for the opening day of elk season. They were married for 34 years and their favorite pastime was spending time together at Seeley Lake. Tim's proudest accomplishment was raising his two beautiful daughters and bragged about them to everyone he knew. He taught his girls about the important things in life like how to land a big steelhead and how to put in an honest day's work. Tim worked hard to provide for his girls. He loved being a husband and father and will be missed greatly.

Tim was preceded in death by his mother Patricia (Horrom) Davis. He is survived by his wife… daughters… father… and brothers… along with their families.

Cremation has taken place and a celebration of life will be held on Saturday, September 5th at the Davis residence at 5000 East Fork Road, Lewistown MT. Services begin at 11 A.M. Donations can be made to Kring's Nursery in Lewistown to plant trees in Tim's memory.

GEORGE WANGER BATHING VICIIM AT SEASIDE

ASTORIA, Ore., Aug. 10, - (AP) - George Wanger, 19, of Portland, drowned this afternoon while swimming in the surf at Seaside. He was in the water with two girls when the undertow carried them out to sea.

One of his companions, Mildred Vollans, of Seaside, kept Wanger's head above water when he became exhausted until lifeguards reached them. Efforts to resuscitate him failed, however, after he was brought ashore, and a heart attack is held responsible for the drowning.

The young man was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Wanger, 146 Sumner street, Portland.

(Note by RRC: Based on other records, George's father's middle initial was N, not W.)

Obituary of Jennie Vinita (Porter) Crites Routh, ID = 12225112

(Partially copied from GoSanAngelo, obit published from August 6 to August 7, 2013. online.)

Jennie Vinita Routh

JUNCTION Jennie Vinita Routh, 77, of London, Texas, passed from this life on Sunday, Aug. 4, 2013, at her home on the Llano River surrounded by her family. Graveside service will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 6, 2013, in London Cemetery with Chris Crites officiating. Jennie Vinita Routh blessed this earth on Oct. 19, 1935, in Fay, Okla., as the second child of Mildred and Harold Porter. Vinita was raised and graduated high school in Thomas, Okla., where she established herself as an artist, a leader and a published poet. After many adventures in Amarillo and Midland, working for the newspaper, Vinita met and married Bill Routh on Jan. 30, 1970. They began their new adventure raising five children together. During her time in Monahans she was a volunteer for the hospital's Ladies Auxiliary "Pink Lady's" and she stepped up to take charge of the candy striper program. She owned two cafes where she developed her legendary chocolate pie recipe. She became known as a go-getter in local and state politics, teaching her children her strong belief in being involved by recruiting them to stuff envelopes and hand out flyers. She was actively involved at her children's schools and in their education. In her spare time, she made it a priority the whole family to be involved in activities together. One such activity was square dancing, but in true Vinita style, she also took on sewing all the costumes. She also enjoyed sharing her talents in cooking, quilting, baking and practical jokes. After a move to Ozona, where she worked for a local judge and a doctor, the family moved to Junction in 1976. Vinita began working at a legal office and continued to open cafes. Her main focus of raising a family that knew love, laughter and support was her crowning achievement. With the children grown, the grandkids were the next labor of love. She encouraged creativity and created an environment where all dreams could be achieved. A place where no one was ever bored, Skittle trees and M&M trees bloomed, secret pimento cheese recipes were shared and no one preferred McDonalds to Grannie McMuffins or homemade pancakes. She was fluent in sarcasm and wit, keeping us all on our toes and laughing until our sides hurt. She loved God, family, hummingbirds, deer, yellow roses and the view from her home. Everyone she ever met, from her home to her cafes, left full and felt loved. Vinita was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers; and her sister. Those left to honor her memory include her husband, Bill Routh; sister… children… grandchildren… and eight great-grandchildren. Pallbearers will be Curtus Crites, Nathan Mathis, Chris Crites, Levi Putnam, Jeff Loman and Cole Williamson. Memorials may be made to the Wounded Warrior Project or Odyssey Hospice. The family invites you to leave a message or memory at kimblefuneralhometx.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Kimble Funeral Home.

Obituary of James Stanley 'Stan' Powers, ID = 12225122

(Partially transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in the Tulsa World, Tulsa, OK, Sunday, 9 April 2023, page 18.)

James Stanley (Stan) Powers.

James Stanley (Stan) Powers, 87, of Tulsa, OK, passed away peacefully, with family at his side, March 31, 2023. Stan was born August 25, 1935, in Custer County, OK, to Lloyd Everett Powers and Leila Docia Haskett. When Stan was four years old, the family, along with younger sister, JoAnn, moved to a rural farm near Putnam, OK. The first year in their new house they were snowed in from January to April, requiring Stan's father to procure groceries and other essentials on horseback. The solitude of rural life as a youth encouraged imagination, self reliance, and family devotion.

No money to buy JoAnn a bike? No problem, Stan built her one. He was also ornery. He would climb up high in the hayloft and feign suicide. "Farewell cruel world!" he would proclaim to dupe little sis into doing his chores. The farm is also where he developed the strong work ethic that defined his life.

He was a good athlete but academics is where he excelled. He earned a BS degree in physics, with a math minor, at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in 1957. He was inducted into the SWOSU Distinguished Alumni Program in 1988. Stan married his high school sweetheart, … in 1954. What started with pulling young … pigtails in elementary school blossomed into a lifelong union.

Stan and … started expanding their family in 1957 with the birth of their first son, … and again in 1958, with the addition of their second son, … Upon graduation, Stan accepted a position with Southwestern Bell Telephone. He was hired into a management training program ostensibly dubbed the "JET boys," renowned for the frequency of assignment transfers. Within the first ten years at SW Bell the family made nine moves. Due to his unwavering dedication to the company he quickly rose through the management ranks.

He ultimately achieved Division Manager of Network Operations in Oklahoma before retiring in 1991. Among other company accolades he received the prestigious Rider Service Award in 1985. His work was his passion and it could be said his only career failure was retirement - he was terrible at it.

A chance meeting in an airport led to Stan joining SW Bell International in 1993 in Mexico City. He spent two years in collaboration with TelMex helping manage their network transition from analog to digital.

In 1997 Stan began a four year stint consulting for IBM on multiple projects both domestic and international. He joined Housley Communications in 2014 monitoring buried cable drops in the NE Oklahoma region. He was actively working until the age of 85 when his body finally had enough. For many years, in addition to his duties at SW Bell, Stan served as Chairman of the Board of the Communications Federal Credit Union. During his brief retirement he volunteered with Habitat for Humanity building houses.

Stan loved his country music, their miniature Schnauzers (all have passed), reading, road trips to Colorado, tailgating at OSU football games, and collecting hammers and Napoleon figurines. He was eager to be involved in his boys' lives, coaching little league and sharing in their hobbies and lives. Most of all he loved his wife and devoted his life to providing for and pleasing her. He wished to recognize Doctors James Bailey, Ralph Ensley, and Scott Cole, as well as hospice nurse, Lindsay and caregivers, Janet and Diana. Stan was preceded in death by his parents Lloyd and Docia Powers.

He is survived by his wife of 68 years, … son, … of Tulsa; son and daughter-in-law, … of Cedar Park, Texas; sister and brother-in-law, … of Lubbock, Texas; brothers-in-law, … and sisters-in-law, … "adopted son," … as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, and so many dear friends.

It was Stan's desire to have a Celebration of Life at a later date in lieu of a funeral service.

Obituary of Thelma Jo (Donnell) Sturdivan, ID = 1222533

(Partially transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Modesto Bee, Modesto, CA, Friday. 19 March 2010, page B-6.)

THELMA JO DONNELL
STURDIVAN
NOV 6, 1920 - MAR 14, 2010

Thelma Jo Sturdivan was born November 6, 1920 in Helena, Montana, the second of eight children born to Sam and Florence Donnell.

Her childhood was spent in the Northwest, residing wherever her father's carpenter business took the family. She graduated from high school in Silverton, Oregon and attended nursing school in Portland, Oregon. Thelma often described her family as “The Waltons," and learned the value of hard work and money management, as a child of the depression.

Thelma met the love of her life, Louis Sturdivan, and they were married January 5, 1942 in Reno, Nevada. Louis was a veteran of WWII and a P-38 fighter pilot. He was shot down near Paris, France, during the Normandy invasion and was captured by the Germans. He spent the remainder of WWII in a German prison camp, Stalag III. Thelma endured four months of uncertainty with only a telegram that Lou was missing in action. They joyously reunited in April of 1945.

She was blessed with many talents and worked various part-time jobs, in addition to being a homemaker she retired from Stanislaus County as an accounting clerk. In addition, Thelma enjoyed many hobbies and activities including bridge, square dancing, sewing, oil painting, and home decorating. She volunteered for many charitable organizations in the community.

Thelma was a dedicated and loving wife, mother, and Nonnie who always put the needs of her family and friends before her own. She loved spending time with Lou and they traveled to many foreign countries and locations in the United States and were active in Prisoner of War reunions and family gatherings. She will be missed by all who knew her and loved her.

As a Christian who strongly believed in the Golden Rule, she depended on Jesus for comfort and strength.

She was predeceased by her husband, Lou, her sister Ethele McGill, and her brothers Ken Donnell and Sam Donnell. She is survived her son, … her daughter … and his wife … Thelma is also survived by her sisters … and her brother … She is survived by nine grandchildren and thirteen

Obituary of Janice Adair 'Jan' (Ostrom) Vail, ID = 12225411

(Partially transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in the Ventura County Star, Ventura, CA, Wednesday, 11 Feb. 2009, page B5.)

Ventura
Janice Adair Vail

Janice “Jan” Vail died suddenly and unexpectedly on Thursday, Feb. 5, 2009, while a patient at Community Memorial Hospital in Ventura, California.

Jan was born Aug. 6, 1938, into the Norwegian-American family of Edwin “Tom” and Alice Ostrom of Minot, N.D. Shortly afterward, the family moved west to Woodburn, Ore., where she would enjoy her childhood and schooling. Graduated from Woodburn High School in 1956, Jan left home and became secretary at the Oregon School for the Deaf, a job she held until departing for Long Beach, Calif., in the spring of 1960. Two years prior to that adventure, she had met … of Seattle, which led to a long-term relationship and marriage on July 1, 1961, also in Long Beach. At this point in her life’s journey, she was a department secretary at the Ball Road facility of Autonetics and a great support to her husband’s collegiate endeavors. By Spring of 1964, a son, … was born and … college graduation achieved. Her next move was to Redlands, Calif., where … began his teaching career and Jan honed her homemaking and parenting skills. By spring 1967, a second son, … was born, and her little family once again moved, this time to Ojai, Calif., where she has resided since.

Soon after moving to Ojai, it was very apparent that she loved this unique and beautiful valley and by her own declaration was determined to make it her home forever. She jumped right into Ojai life, distributing her boundless energy across many fronts, taking on the roles of PTA mom, classroom mom, baseball mom, soccer mom, patchwork player youth theater mom, and of course homemaker mom. As the boys grew older and reached their teen years, she decided to rejoin the work world and in 1978, she took the job of secretary at the Ojai Presbyterian Church, a position she filled with efficiency, humor, and dedication until retirement in 1990. All the while, she challenged herself to become a better bowler and has for the past 39 years been active in women’s bowling here in Ventura County and in state and national tournaments. The many teams that she has been a member of and her extended bowling family will always remember her for her competitive spirit, her gracious sportsmanship, and, of course, her words of wisdom and sage advice.

Jan was also a bargain hunter and devoted “garage-saler.” Every Saturday found her and her constant companions, Jo and Judy, mapping their strategy and marking their course to any and all sales that they could find within the boundaries of her beloved Ojai Valley. Coffee and scones ya bettcha. Consistent with her caring spirit and grace, she was a tissue donor and her corneas have been banked for future use in bringing sight to another. Such is the reach of her wonderful character.

Jan is survived by her husband, … of Ojai; siblings, … of Woodburn, Ore., … of Kaiser, Ore., … of Aloha, Ore., … of Portland, Ore., and … of Beaverton, Ore.; daughter-in-law, … grandchildren, … of Santa Maria; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews; plus many teammates and associates who have embraced her friendship and been enveloped by her unconditional love.

Preceding Jan on this heavenly journey were her sons, Jeffery Allen Vail and Derek Edwin Vail; and parents, Tom and Alice Ostrom.

Viewing will be held at the Joseph P. Reardon Funeral Home, 757 E. Main St., Ventura, on Friday, Feb. 13, from 1 to 3 p.m. for family with open viewing from 3 to 7 p.m. Services will be held at the Ojai Presbyterian Church, 304 Foothill Road, at 11 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 14, with reception to follow.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations in Jan’s name be made to The John Wayne Cancer Research Institute, 2200 Santa Monica Blvd., Santa Monica, CA 90404.

Janice was entrusted to the award-winning and family-owned Joseph Reardon Funeral Home, Ventura; 643-8623.

Obituary of Jeffrey Allen Vail, ID = 122254111

(Partially copied from an obit found online at F-A-G, memorial created by Alexandra Montgomery; obit published in the Ojai Valley News, Friday, 21 May 2004.)

Jeffrey Allen Vail, 40, of Santa Maria, died Wednesday, May 19, 2004, surrounded by his family and friend Alan Blair, after a 17-month battle against malignant melanoma. He was born April 21, 1964 in Westminster, California.

The family moved to Ojai when he was 3, and he grew up in Ojai and went to Ojai schools, graduating from Nordhoff with the class of 1982.

He was known for the many different jobs he held throughout life, such as a security guard, working as a mechanic at Rock Long Chevron in Oak View, and various other jobs. He ended up with a career that was cut short, at Lompoc U.S. Penitentiary, when his failing health forced him to retire.

In 1985, he met..., and they were married...

Mr. Vail coached in almost every league in Santa Maria. He coached basketball at both the Boys and Girls Club and for the city of Santa Maria. He coached soccer for SMVYS for years, for all three of his children. He also coached girl's fastpitch for Santa Maria Girls Fastpitch and coached his son at Northside Little League.

Most recently, he was honored by a girls' travel softball team being formed and then he was asked to name it. These girls had played together when they were 9 and 10 and it was always his dream was to see them come back together. He named them Destiny; the 12 young ladies took second place last summer in Oregon.

Mr. Vail was preceded in death by his brother, Derek Ed

I fight and fight against the waves, but the battle in life never sways.
Struggle and sweat to stay alive and do my best from deep inside.
But there are walls to climb, and my back is sore.
To climb those walls is quite a chore.
I near the top, but back I slide as I always did, but again I try.
The years they pass, and I finally see - the waves and walls were inside of me.

She is the daughter of Fred and Katherine Brewer. In early years, Colleen had many occupations and interests including fashion store manager, roller skate waitress, Catholic Catechism teacher, as well as Cub Scout and Bluebird troop leader. She was very adept at shorthand (that no one else could read) and had amazing skills with the sewing machine, oil painting and crocheting, but most of all Genealogy research. Colleen had abundant enthusiasm that she tirelessly bestowed on her children. Although Colleen lived in many places, her greatest memories were those of her early childhood in Helena, Montana.

The family would like to extend great appreciation for the kindness and loving care provided by Carilion Franklin Memorial Hospital in Rocky Mount, Va, and especially the staff of Gentle Shepherd Hospice Care.

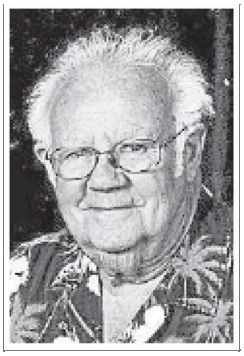
William Gair Drager, Jr.

August 10, 1935—July 26, 2023



Bill loved and was loved by a lot of family and friends. Some of the first ones to come along were his parents William Sr. & Virgie, and sister … Later came five in-laws, three nephews, two nieces, wife … and their two daughters & one son. … Then came 8 grandkids, later followed by 15 great grandkids.

Bill lived in Albany most of his life, and he had a lot of activities that he enjoyed: farming, bowling, church treasurer, camping with his family, pit crewing for his son and grandson, traveling with his wife of 66 years, celebrating events with his family, and he found a special joy praying for all the generations of his kids.

Bill was chosen as an artillery instructor during his 2 years in the army. He took pride in his job at the Albany Democrat Herald for 45 years, most of those years as a pressman.

Bill loved God most of all. His relationship with God gave him joy, strength, guidance, and peace. The last few years brought many challenges, due to the illness that robbed Bill of so many things that made him who he was, yet it never robbed him of his faith. On July 26th, 16 days before his 88th birthday, Bill found his perfect peace with his Savior.

Bill's family asks that any gifts given in his memory, be given to Samaritan Evergreen Hospice House in Albany. The staff's care and ministry allowed the family to be at peace, next toBill, during his last few days here on earth.

A memorial service will be held on Thursday, August 10th, at 1:00pm, at First Church of God, 1225 15th Ave. SW, Albany.

Mrs. Mary Hume Dead.

Mrs. Mary Hume, 76, died at her home in Burlington last Thursday aftetnoon, having been ill for nearly a year. She was a daughter of the late B. B, Allphin, of the Hume neighborhood, and is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Eliza Roberts and Mrs. J. G. Finnell, of Hume, and three brothers, Hon. A. A. Allphin, and James Allphin, of Gallatin county, and B. B Allphin, of Walton, this county. Her husband, Charles Hume, died in Walton about ten years ago, and only one child, ex-Sheriff B. B. Hume, of Covington, survives his parents, a daughter, Mrs. Stewart, having departed this life several years ago.

During her illness Mrs. Hume was administered to in a most tender manner by her son, B. B. Hume, her granddaughter, Miss Katie Stewart, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. B. B. Allphin, of Walton. Nothing was left undone that was calculated to contribute to her comfort.

Mrs. Hume had been a citizen of Burlington several years, but her love for her native neighborhood and the people there had not waned in the least, while their esteem for her increased as she advanced in years. Her very amiable and forbearing disposition won …… all with whom she became acquainted and her death is lamented by a very large circle of friends and relatives.

The remains were conveyed by undertaker Scott Chambers, of Walton to Verona last Saturday, and after a funeral service conducted by Rev. Edgar Riley at New Bethel church they were interred in the church cemetery by the side of those of her husband .

Undertaker C. Scott Chambers went to Covington and brought the remains to his home here on North Main street where the remains were viewed by many of Walton. Wednesday the remains were taken to Burlington and as a special honor were taken to the court house where they were viewed by hundreds. Rev Edgar Riley, one of his old friends, held religious services after which the remains were ...

RALPH LITTLE

A memorial service for Ralph L. Little, a highly successful and popular fundraiser for churches, colleges, hospitals and other nonprofits across the nation, will be held at 2 p.m., Saturday, Aug. 17, in the chapel at Frasier Meadows Manor, 350 Ponca Place, in Boulder. Frasier Chaplain Bob Ritzen will conduct the service, which will include a few of Mr. Little's favorite Glenn Miller hits, such as "Tuxedo Junction", the song that gave Mr. Little his college nickname of "Tux." Mr. Little, always a spirited, chuckling friend to everyone he met, died unexpectedly at his Longmont home on July 16. He was an energetic 91 who exemplified the worthiness of physical exercise. He relished football (he played in college on scholarship), the music of Glenn Miller, Grizzly Bears, hibiscus and a good Manhattan. He loved his wife, family and friends. Though blind in one eye, Mr. Little was a World War II veteran. He was a graduate of Transylvania University and earned a master's degree from the University of Kentucky. He also was a graduate of the Planned Giving Institute, College of William and Mary. That led to ten years with Burrill fundraising firm in Kansas City, where he became Executive Vice President. Over the next fifty years of his career he helped a wide variety of nonprofits throughout the nation, including major ones like the international body of the United Methodist Church and many capital fund campaigns for the Salvation Army and the Red Cross. Mr. Little's last official position was Director of Development for Frasier Meadows Manor. He left the post four years ago in another attempted retirement. Mr. Little was a member of the Boulder Rotary Club and founded the Denver Association of Fund Raising Executives. He also was an active volunteer worker and leader. One of his favorite volunteer adventures was serving with his wife in the Meals on Wheels program in Galveston and New Braunfels, TX and in Boulder. Mr. Little was born Oct. 29, 1921 to Myrtle and Ralph H. Little, at Tuscumbia, AL. He is survived by his wife... a son... daughter... Niece... his deceased sister's extended family in Georgia; three grandchildren... and seven great-grand children. He will be deeply missed. A reception in Frasier's Sky Lounge will follow the service. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Mr. Little's name to the work of Frasier Meadows Manor.

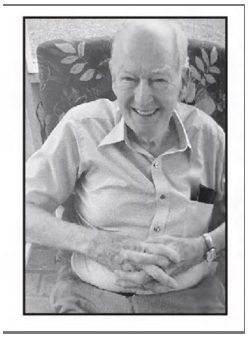
Obituary of Carroll Spencer 'Doc' Bevarly, ID = 1231342

(Partially transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Park City Daily News, Bowling Green, KY, Wednesday, 26 May 2021, page 5A.)



CARROLL SPENCER 'DOC' BEVARLY

Smiths Grove – Carroll Spencer "Doc" Bevarly transitioned to his spiritual home on May 24, 2021. He was 92 years old and the cause of death was Congestive Heart Failure. He was at his home surrounded by his loved ones. Mr. Bevarly was a resident of Smiths Grove for most of his life and moved to Bowling Green only after his health began to decline in order to be near his family. Mr. Bevarly moved to Smiths Grove in 1960 to operate a pharmacy and his family soon followed. He retired on May 15, 2006 and said "You make one trip through this world, and you want to help all the people that you can." To say he loved helping the good people of Smiths Grove is an understatement. For most of the 46 years his pharmacy was in operation, there was no 24-hour pharmacy in the area. Doc Bevarly would open his drug store to prepare and deliver life-saving medicine to those in need on holidays, weekends, and the middle of the night. For much of that time, there was no physician in Smiths Grove either, and when needed, Doc would administer first aid and dispense over the counter medicine for people and animals in need, thus the nickname, "Doc." Doc admired and respected the talented farmers in Smiths Grove and farming soon became his passion. He purchased a farm just outside of town, remodeled the old farmhouse, moved to the country, and successfully raised cattle and crops. Not bad for a city boy from Covington, KY. Doc Bevarly grew up in Covington, KY on the Ohio River, attended Holmes High School and University of Cincinnati. He is survived by the love of his life… who he met at Union Station in Cincinnati when he was a part-time student baggage-handler for the L&N Railroad. They were married for 71 years. Mr. Bevarly was preceded in death by his loving parents Birdie Elizabeth Conley and Carroll Gordon Bevarly, one brother William Granville Bevarly (a pharmacist as well who dedicated his life to serving the people of Gallatin County, KY, his son William Carroll "Bill" Bevarly, and a granddaughter, Mary Mackinnon of Hermosa Beach, Ca. He is survived by two daughters… of Bowling Green … of Palm Springs, CA, and three grandchildren… of Bowling Green, KY, … of Los Angeles, and… of Bowling Green, KY. Doc Bevarly left this world a better place. In addition to improving the lives and health of many, he served his church, Smiths Grove Baptist and his community. He was Mayor of Smiths Grove for several years and was instrumental in improving the infrastructure there. The soda fountain at his Smiths Grove Drug Store was a beloved social gathering spot that offered delicious plate lunches and soda fountain delights, filling the tummies and entertaining many hungry local residents. Doc provided employment and benefits to many wonderful people over the years and appreciated each and every one. He also learned to be very brave. In the late 60's when his pharmacy was plagued with a string of burglaries and his insurance premiums were rising, he took matters into his own hands. He installed a burglar alarm and would sneak into town in the middle of the night, with a shotgun to protect his property, while his partner… called the police. For over 40 burglaries, he caught them red-handed and held the rotten crooks at gun- point until the Kentucky State Police arrived, followed by the Warren County Sheriff's Department. His family often laughed and debated whether it was his desire to catch the crooks or his rising insurance premiums that motivated Doc to action, for all who knew him understood clearly that he was a frugal man. It was also well-known that Doc Bevarly was generous, honest, trustworthy, kind, and had a wonderful sense of humor. Until the end he was grateful for the abundance in his life. Visitation will be from 12-2 p.m. Friday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel with a graveside service at 3 p.m. Friday at Smiths Grove Cemetery. Flowers are appreciated, but in lieu of flowers, you may also make a memorial donation to the Smiths Grove Baptist Church Building Fund. Because Carroll Bevarly dedicated his life to the service, health, and well-being of others, the family asks if you are unvaccinated for Covid 19, you honor him by wearing you mask.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, "Conley" should be Connely; I suspect that "Gallatin County, KY" should end with a) and that "you mask" should be your mask.)
