Obituary of Arthur James ‘Bud’ Graves , ID = 12315274

(Partially copied from legacy.com)

Arthur James "Bud" Graves
One of the greatest men that ever lived!
June 17, 1946 - December 25, 2014

Arthur James Buddy Graves was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on the 17th of June, 1946, to Aurthur and Sylvia Graves. On the 25th of December, 2014, at the age of 68, Bud left his body and now remains in spirit. He was more than just a man, he was a free spirit that provided strength and guidance to everyone he met. Always humble, he would say he did not accomplish enough in his life. Please witness some of the great things this man loved and accomplished during his time with us.

On the 12th of December, 1972, Bud enlisted into the United States Navy as an Interior Communications Electrician. Petty Officer First Class Graves served on the USS Truxtun and was awarded the Good Conduct Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, and Vietnam Campaign Medal with "V" Device and the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal. On the 11th of October, 1983, Petty Officer First Class Graves was honorably discharged from the Navy.

Immediately after serving his nation he began serving his community as a Deputy Sheriff for the next three years before being elected Sheriff of Island County, Washington. Sheriff Graves was very concerned with the safety of the citizens of Island County, and made it his policy to always have his door open and to make himself available to them. He was always putting others before himself. There was always a special place in his heart for woman and children who were victims of crime.

Bud was very compassionate, tremendously tenderhearted and very generous to everyone. He loved everyone, but most important was his family. Above all was the love for his wife, children, grandchildren and friends. In his later years, Bud built the Little Red K-9 School House, training obedience and was particularly passionate for rehabilitating rescue dogs with behavioral issues that would have led to euthanization. He was also vastly diverse in many things. He loved wood working, stain glass creations, gardening, singing in barbershop quartets and playing music with the "Good Time Boys".

Bud is survived by his wife… daughters… sons… grandchildren… and great granddaughter… He also leaves behind a host of close friends and colleagues who have all played a very important role in his life.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by immediate family. We are going to celebrate his life on Wednesday, Dec 31st at an undisclosed location, for family and friends that knew him personally and was closely effected by his thoughts and actions. In lieu of flowers, please honor Bud's service by donating to the "Arthur (Bud) Graves Memorial Fund". The funds will go directly to The National Vietnam War Museum in Mineral Wells, Texas where a brick will be placed in the Meditation Garden with his name on it. The funds will also go to plant trees, place covered benches and support the Museum.

May you forever be in Internal Rest, Rest in Peace!

Kenneth L. Allen Jr.

Kenneth Lee Allen, Jr., 70, was found deceased in his home in Washington the morning of Thursday, Nov. 3, 2016. Three suspects were arrested that night in connection with Ken's death. They remain in custody of the Franklin County Sheriff's Department.

Ken was born in 1946 in St. Louis. He graduated from Dexter High School in 1964, after which he enrolled in Southeast Missouri College. In 1966, he transferred to Southwest Baptist College, where he met his future wife... In August 1969, he was drafted into the Army and became a combat medic (68W). He was stationed at Valley Forge Army Hospital, Allentown, Pa., and Fort Jackson, Columbia, S.C., until 1971 when he received an honorable discharge. He and... were married in August 1970 and relocated to Franklin County where they had one child....

Ken worked as a probation and parole officer for 40 years for the state of Missouri and several Missouri counties. He continued his professional development with a master's degree in human relations from Webster University in 1975. He also was an independent businessman, developing and administering substance abuse treatment programs for several Missouri counties. In 2000, Ken co-created The Homeport, an import home decor retailer and wholesaler.

Ken loved to travel in the U.S. and abroad. He loved taking friends and family snow skiing in the mountains and boogie boarding in the Caribbean. He loved restoring classic cars including his beloved Datsun 240Z, and he loved driving them really, really fast. He loved canoeing on Missouri's many rivers, including the Meramec, Huzzah, Jacks Fork and Current rivers. And he loved pecan pie. Pecan pie was his spirit animal.

Ken touched the hearts of many who knew him, particularly those in hardship trying to better their lives. He was a friend, mentor and father-figure to many.

Ken was preceded in death by his father, Kenneth Lee Allen Sr.

He is survived by his daughter... his wife... and mother-in-law... his mother... his brother- and sister-in-law...

The family is planning a private memorial service.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to a charity of your choice in his memory. Acknowledgment of donations may be sent to: Rainey Mathis Funeral Home, 125 West Stoddard St., Dexter, MO 63841.

Obituary of Howard Shumate Connely, ID = 123433

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Windsor Review, Windsor, MO, Thursday, 26 March 1925, page 6.)

DIED OF WOUNDS

Homesick Harrisonville Youth, Attempting to Steal Car in St. Louis, Shot by Policeman.

Howard Shumate Connely, 20 years old, better known in Harrisonville, his native town, as "Jason" Connely, died in the city hospital in St. Louis on Monday night, March 16, after he had been wounded by a policeman in that city on the previous Saturday night, March 14, says the Harrisonville Democrat.

Details of the tragedy are vague. Howard had been in St. Louis for about one month, going there from Kansas City after he had spent some time with relatives and friends in Harrisonville during the winter. The facts seem to be that, being in strange city without funds, he became homesick. The yearning for home folks became so acute that he sought a means to get to Kansas City and then home. In his eagerness to find a solution to his problem, he saw a parked automobile, and he believed this was a means to a desired end, never stopping to count the probable cost. A policeman saw him in the act of starting the car and the young man became frightened and endeavored to escape. Failing to halt when ordered to, the patrolman fired, the shot taking effect in the young man's left lung. He was taken to a hospital, where death relieved his suffering at 10:30 o'clock p. m., Monday. His father, Thomas Connely, of Kansas City, was summoned, reaching the bedside of his injured son before he died.

"I just yearned for home," he told his father before his death. "I had no money. I thought I'd take the motor car and drive it home. Foolish, I guess, but when a fellow's homesick he's desperate." So the youth has now attained, in death, the goal for which he forfeited his life.

"Jason" was well known in Harrisonville and well liked by all who knew him.

MARGARET BAUKNECHT

BAUKNECHT Margaret Lee Bauknecht of Jacksonville walked away from this life on Friday, February 1st at 11:25 PM. Her decision was justified following a decade of debilitating illness. Margaret Lee was preceded in death by her father George and mother Cleo Boswell of Lakeland, Florida. Margaret Lee or Moonbeam, as she was known by many of her classmates and friends, moved from Lakeland to Washington, DC in 1955 to serve as a private secretary to the president of the Bank of Commerce. She had attended Florida Christian College and through the years developed administrative skills. She met her husband... in the fall of 1955 when he was a second year dental student at Georgetown University. He became immediately enamored and the two became one on April 4, 1959 at Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church in St. Marys, Georgia. Her husband... had taken his place as a local dentist and Margaret Lee became the Office Manager for years. While in St. Marys, Margaret Lee formed the first successful Junior Woman's Club, Girl Scout Troop and Book Fair. Community and youth activities became and remained her passion and interest. Margaret Lee and family moved to Jacksonville, Florida in 1966 where she again became involved in civic and youth activities. She organized Book Fairs and carnival activities for Jacksonville Country Day School and became involved with the local Junior Woman's Club and the Ladies Auxiliary of Assumption Catholic Church. Moonbeam proved and appropriate nickname-it describes her beautiful ready smile and sparkle in her eyes. Margaret Lee is survived by her husband... her sons... daughter... her sister... grandchildren... plus multiple nieces and nephews. Assisting with arrangements Corey-Kerlin Funeral Home, 940 Cesery Blvd. Memorial Services will be held at Assumption Catholic Church, 2403 Atlantic Blvd., Jacksonville, Florida with Mass at 1:00 PM Saturday April 6th. Emmett E. Bagby
(Sedalia)

Emmett Ellis Bagby, Sr., 76, retired banker and farmer, was found dead in his home at 1001 West Broadway about 5 p.m. Tuesday. He was believed to have died sometime late last Tuesday, May 16, or Wednesday.

Harlan Close, Green Ridge, who oversees several farms of Mr. Bagby was in Sedalia Tuesday afternoon and when he drove by the Bagby home he noticed several papers in the yard. He stopped and found papers lying on the porch and sidewalk and when he could not get an answer to his knocking on the door, he notified the police. However, he said he wanted to first locate someone else and try to get in the house. Julian H. Bagby, a cousin, was summoned and then the police.

They found a back window unlocked when they were unable to get in the doors, and police opened this and went in to find the body in his bed in the front part of the residence.

His son, Emmett E. Bagby, Jr., Leawood, Kan., who had been notified by Mr. Close, arrived at the residence a few minutes after finding the body of Mr. Bagby.

Dr. C. G. Stauffacher, Pettis County coroner, arrived and viewed the body after which it was removed to the Gillespie Funeral Home.

Also surviving besides his son is one grandson, John W. Bagby of Leawood, and two first cousins, former Mayor Julian H. Bagby. 1413 West Broadway, and George Bagby of Marshall.

Mr. Bagby was a member of the First Christian Church, a Past Master of the Green Ridge Masonic Lodge and held membership in other Masonic organizations, including the Eastern Star.

He was reared on a farm near Camp Branch and educated in the public school there. He later attended both the Hills Business College in Sedalia and the Chillicothe Business College in Chillicothe, Mo.

For 18 years he was a banker at Green Ridge, retiring several years ago. He also operated several farms. Although he had retired from active farming he had Harlan Close of Green Ridge overseeing his three farms southwest of Sedalia.

Obituary of Julian Holman Bagby, ID = 128131

(Found online at F-A-G, memorial created by Diana.)

Julian Bagby, 90, four-time mayor of Sedalia and one of its most successful businessmen, died late Tuesday night at his home at 1413 West Broadway following a long illness. A life-long Democrat and a powerful figure in the party, Bagby's active political career spanned three decades. According to City Clerk Shirley Collins, he was first elected to fill an unexpired term as mayor in 1936, and later won a full term, serving until 1941. He was elected mayor again in 1946, serving until 1949. His final term ran from 1954 to 1957. Bagby was a personal friend of President Harry S. Truman, and was a regular at national Democratic conventions often serving as a delegate. He was also acquainted with Sen. and later Vice President Hubert Humphrey, as well as other national Democratic figures over the years. Besides politics, Bagby had an intense interest in city government, and was elected president of the Missouri Municipal League in 1940. K U. Love Sr., former publisher of The Sedalia Democrat and a long-time Bagby acquaintance, said Bagby's style was collaborative. He would consult as many people as possible before making decisions, then line up support for his positions. "He spent an awful lot of time calling on councilmen and leaders in the community selling his ideas," Love recalled. "He was a tireless man in trying to convince others of what needed to be done.... I marveled at him a lot of times." After stepping down from an active role in local politics, Bagby remained a power behind the scenes. He strongly opposed two efforts in the '60s and '70s to adopt a charter form of government for Sedalia, and remained a foe of nonpartisan city elections. Equally adept at business, Bagby began his career in Sedalia around the time of World War I, working for Third National Bank. He later managed some local ice cream companies before heading up the Meadow Gold dairy in Sedalia. He had the opportunity to buy the local Pepsi Cola bottling company in the late '30s. That remained the centerpiece of his business interests until he sold it to Illinois Central Industries in the mid-'80s. A multimillionaire, Bagby had other extensive investments, including banking, oil and large farm holdings in Pettis County. Survivors include his wife, Margaret, of the home; two stepsons, Robert M. Seelen, Sedalia, and Joseph S. Quinn, Hartland. Wis.; two stepdaughters, Janet Quinn Harris, Sedalia, and Patricia Quinn Eisele, Hot Springs, Ark.; 14 step grandchildren and several step great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the McLaughlin Funeral Chapel. Friends may call from 7 to 8:30 p m Thursday at the funeral chapel. Burial will be in Memorial Park Cemetery. The family suggests contributions to the American Cancer Society or a charity of the donor's choice.

Obituary of Daniel Ira Bradley, ID = 12846

(Found online at F-A-G, memorial created by Craig Leavitt.)

D. I. Bradley, aged 37 years, died Monday at his home at Newland, death resulting from pneumonia. Mr. Bradley was a well-known resident of that community and had many friends. He is survived by two minor children, his wife having died about three years ago. The funeral was held this afternoon at Hopewell church, the Rev. Mr. Osborne officiating.

(Note by RRC: Based on his death certificate, Daniel Ira Bradley of Newland, MO, died on the 16th of March 1914, a Monday. The only marriage this Daniel had that I'm aware of was to Anna May Allen and I believe she died in 1908; perhaps Daniel remarried and that wife died around 1911 but I rather suspect "about three years ago" should be about six years ago.)

Shirley Ann Bagby
September 16, 1931 - March 14, 2019

Shirley Ann Bagby, 87, passed away March 14th, 2019 in Pueblo, Colorado. She was preceded in death by her sons Steve C. Hoffman and Derry L. Hoffman; and her sister Sylvia Hughey. Shirley is survived by her grandson… granddaughter… granddaughter… and their children… as well as nieces… and their children. She had an extended family of friends both locally and across the country who will miss her dearly.

Shirley loved her family and friends beyond measure. Anyone who met Shirley recognized her as a special and beautiful lady and she touched many, many souls. She was strong, independent, and fearless. Her zest for life inspired all who knew her.

She was an incredibly kind and sweet person, who lived life to the fullest. Her sense of humor will never be forgotten. So many have fond memories of laughing and smiling with Shirley. She was thankful for each moment shared, whether a call, visit, or quick chat at the fence. Each was so precious to her.

She was a cowgirl through and through. While she didn't ride and camp as much in her later years, she never stopped blasting country music loud in her pickup and she never slowed down. She loved sweets, thrift stores, reading, watching westerns, Sam Elliott and Alan Jackson (not necessarily in that order either). And she was gorgeous! Always looking her best no matter the occasion and radiated positivity wherever she went.

Her love for animals was a theme throughout her life. She won countless ribbons and trophies with several horses in her younger days and always had a pack of critters in her home. Shirley had a gift when it came to keeping a beautiful yard and flowers. Every home she made was so warm and inviting. She had such a special touch and made anyone who visited feel welcome and part of her family. Shirley was incredibly proud of her grandchildren and great grandchildren, who will miss her immensely.

While she was born and spent many years in Missouri, she loved Colorado immensely. She moved back to the Pueblo area a few years ago to reconnect with dear friends and enjoy the beautiful climate. She shared many stories of the fun times and adventures she undertook and made each moment count until her last breath.

At Shirley's Request Cremation has taken place with no services.

THE CONNELLY FUNERAL

Former Spencer Man Who Died in Florida,
Brought Here For Burial in Riverside Cemetery

The body of Walter Connelly, 73 years old, a former resident who died in Jacksonville, Florida Monday of last week was brought here Thursday morning for interment. The body was taken to the home of Mrs. Mollie Convis until 4 pm when it was taken to the cemetery where a brief scriptural lesson and the committment service was read.

Mr. Connelly was born Nov. 10, 1848 in Connersville and was a son of Thomas T. and Emma R. Connelly. During Mr. Connelly's residence here he was engaged in newspaper work. On Feb.11, 1873 he was married to America Coffey of Spencer who with their only child, Miss Maude, survives hin. In 1885, they removed to Jacksonville, Florida where Mr. Connelly continued in newspaper work, being connected with the Metropolis of the city. Of late years he had been engaged in real estate work. He had been in failing health for some time and last week his trouble became acute and he failed rapidly dying Monday, September 5.

Accompanying the body to Spencer were Mrs. Connelly and daughter, Maude of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. E.R. Bladen of Indianapolis, their daughter, Mrs. Homer McGinnis of Martinsville and Mrs. Lizzie Coffey of Indianapolis. Mrs. Bladen is a sister of Mrs. Connelly.

Saturday morning the Connellys started for Jacksonville. Miss Connelly holds a responsible position with the Metropolis and her early return was imperative.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, his father's middle initial was P, not T; by my calculation, Walter was age 72 - but almost 73 - at death; a typo - "hin" should be him.)

After serving his country in Germany, Robert and Elizabeth moved to Santa Maria, CA, and later, in 1956, moved to Sacramento. Elizabeth was a loving mother and homemaker and enjoyed spending time in her garden. Obituary & gravestone for Catherine 'Kate' (Leslie) Connelly, ID = 1325

"Aunt Kate" Connelly Dead.

Mrs. Kate Connelly, wife of Robert Connelly, better known throughout the county as "Aunt Kate," died this morning at 7:20 o'clock, of pneumonia and heart trouble. The deceased was one of the oldest settlers of the county, and beloved by all who knew her. No greater tribute could be paid her memory than that expressed by every old citizen today. As the announcement came that Aunt Kate had passed to her eternal reward, a tear was visible on every aged cheek as one and all remarked, "One of the grandest and purest characters that ever lived in our midst." Aunt Kate was generally known for her amiable disposition and strong attachments to all friends. It was one of the joys of her later life to meet all the old settlers of the county and recall there earlier days, and her hand and latch string were always out for their reception at all times and upon all occasions. No death that has occurred in the community will be more universally mourn.

Mrs. Kate Connelly was born July 18, 1825, at Eaton, Preble county, O., and was the daughter of Peter and Susan Leslie, natives of Lehigh county, Pennsylvania. Her father died in 1855, and her mother in 1868. On January 15, 1843, she was married to Robert A. Connelly by Elder John O'Kane, of the Christian church. Nine children were born to them, of whom three are dead, Susan E., Robert E., and Nancy M. Those living are Thomas W., Peter L., Francis E., Sally E. Morehouse, Kate E. Pearson, Joeella Rothrock. Besides their own children they took to their home and cared for a number of indigent and orphan children. They lived for many years in Tippecanoe township, but moved to West Lafayette about two years ago. In January, this worthy couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, and we're handsomely remembered by many of their friends of a life time. Mrs. Connelly was a devout an active member of the Christian church, and was one of its earnest workers, carrying its principles into her daily life. Generous and charitable, she secured the love and esteem of all who knew her, her motherly nature and kindness of heart, winning from all the loving title of "Aunt Kate." She had a power of attaching to herself with tender regard all with whom she came in contact, which, added to her great open hearted charity, made her name such that it was always spoken with reverence and love. She threw a halo of purity and love over the home circle, which now so deeply mourns their great and irreparable loss. Truly it may be said: "Her charity was large, her kindness was tender, and her faith was unostentatious but strong." She was a loving wife, a devoted mother and a generous…

(Note by RRC: By my calculation, Robert died a few months short of his 75th birthday. From other sources, his wife's first name was Lora. I don't think Lora was the mother of Loren Carl Conley. I also have Stygall rather than Styagle, I don't know which is correct. Burnettville is a typo, should be Burnettsville. I think the first name of the sister who lived in Monticello was Georgia, and she was the wife of John Williams. I have his half-brother's name as Ira Willis Deardorff.)

Obituary of Marian Bernice (Harms) Connelly, ID = 1325231

(Found online, Globe Gazette, Mason City, IA, Friday, February 15, 2002.)

MARIAN BERNICE HARMS CONNELLY

MASON CITY - Marian Bernice Harms Connelly of Mason City left this life peacefully on Sunday (Feb. 10, 2002); she was 88 years old.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Harry and Etta Harms of Buffalo Center; her first husband, Lewis Ballard of Urbandale; her second husband, Vere Connelly of Mason City; and eight brothers and sisters.

She is survived by one brother; two sisters; two sons and daughters-in-law, Jim and Barbara Ballard of Dodgeville, Wis. and Chuck and Shirley Ballard of Ankeny. She is also survived by four grandchildren, Mike (Leesa) Ballard, Brooke (Lee) Bechtold, John Ballard, and Lisa Ballard and by five great-grandchildren.

She will be remembered not only for her fabulous sweet lime pickles, tater-tot casseroles, and killer oatmeal cookies, but also as a single-minded woman who came of age in the Great Depression, left school in the eighth grade to help support her family, and continued to work hard all her life. In a time when women had few opportunities, she struggled as a single mother to build a life of dignity and comfort.

She lived for many years at 519 15th St. S.E. in Mason City, where she enjoyed her tidy home, a close circle of friends, and a growing family. With a unique balance of hope that her sons would succeed in life and fear that they would turn out badly or worse: to be strangers, she used the phrase "no son of mine..." While the phrase always brings a chuckle, it is also a reminder that as Mom's Alzheimer's disease progressed, she could not remember friends' names and they did become strangers to her unwillingly.

As her world narrowed, her family and friends continued prayer and visits. Her caregivers at what is now known as USA Healthcare on South Pierce in Mason City, where she lived for nearly seven years, knew how to care for her physical needs and how to ease the loneliness.

It is in thanksgiving for these gifts of perseverance and generosity, of remembrance and laughter and sorrow that the family has made a memorial contribution to the National Alzheimer's Association.

If friends wish to join us in this act of thanksgiving, please send a check to: The National Alzheimer's Association, Attn: Development; 919 N. Michigan Ave., Suite 1100; Chicago IL 60611-1676.

A memorial service will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, March 2, 2002, at Wesley United Methodist Church, 1405 S. Pennsylvania Ave., Mason City. All are welcome. Rest eternal grant unto her, let light perpetual shine upon her.

Major Erickson Funeral Home & Crematory, 111 N. Pennsylvania Ave., is in charge of arrangements, (641) 423-0924.

FEARING POLICE, HE HANGS SELF

Mystery of Past Shrouds Man's Suicide in Jail Cell.

John W. Price, jr., 26 years old, who for some unknown reason seemed to fear arrest hanged himself in the city jail this morning thirty minutes after he had been jailed.

Several unusual circumstances led police to believe that Price, who gave his address as Long Beach, Cal., may have been wanted for some crime and feared to face the charge.

"Go ahead and kill me, I'm plenty hot," he told Patrolman Fred Thiel when the policeman stopped Price's automobile at Second and Locust street this morning. The remark was made after Thiel had taken a .32 caliber automatic pistol from Price's hand.

Believed Fugitive.

In underworld jargon the word "hot" is used to describe anything for which the police are searching, a stolen car or a fugitive from justice.

The arrest was made at 1:10 a. m. today. At 1:40 o'clock Price was in a cell at the city jail.

At 2:10 a. m. Jailer Fred Maybee found Price's body hanging over the door. The prisoner's belt was around his neck. The dying man was hurried to the hospital but efforts to save his life proved futile.

Then further unusual circumstances were discovered. The body was marked with bruises as though Price had been in a fight. Several bloody clothes were found in his car. Forty-one cartridges, a larger number than is usually carried by gun users, were also found in his possession. Two-thirds of a gallon of alcohol was in the tonneau of the automobile.

Came From Denver.

When Price was brought to the station he told the officers that he had come to Des Moines from Denver. His parents lived in Ranger, Tex., he said.

Investigation by detectives of the man's personal effects revealed that his wife was living in Riverside, Ia.

The Evening Tribune-Capital, through telephonic communication with Riverside, talked with Mrs. Price and informed her of the tragedy. She identified her husband from descriptions furnished by Coroner H. J. Wright, who is investigating the case.

Mrs. Price Astounded.

Mrs. Price was astounded at the news of the tragedy and said she knew of no reason for her husband's act. She asserted that she expected to come to Des Moines as soon as possible.

Price attended Iowa university about five years ago. While at school he met his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Edith Ingram.

Mrs. Price said she was living at Riverside with her infant boy, Jack, while her husband was traveling. He left home last week for Dubuque, she said, and verified the fact that he was a well driller.

Several letters among Price's personal effects, which were addressed to him at 602 M avenue, Nevada, Ia., and mailed this month, led Coroner Wright to confer with Nevada authorities to learn of the man's actions in that city.

The body was taken to Lilly's funeral home to await the arrival of relatives.

Uncle Jack and Aileen - 12/2012

My Tribute to My Uncle – Jack Price
(10 January 2014)

I last saw my uncle, Jack Price, and brother of my dad, William Collins in December of 2012. It was a great visit at Aileen Price's apartment in Chula Vista, CA.

I remember my uncle with great admiration. When I was a young boy, Uncle Jack often traveled internationally. He traveled to Europe, Great Britain, Ireland, Spain, South and Central America, Mexico, and I am sure many other places I can't remember or know of and he sent me many detailed hand written postcards from everyplace he traveled as well as souvenirs - various patches, a piece of the Blarney Stone (from Ireland), hats, and many other things he brought back to me – all of which I still have! – even a letter from Michael Collins on Michael Collins letterhead from County of Cork in Ireland where the Collins name originated, a multi-colored authentic Peruvian knitted hat – all were very much anticipated by me when I knew he was traveling across the world as a young boy. It was this interaction at young age that laid the foundation of my admiration and love for my Uncle. He was special to me; we had a connection because of his thoughtfulness to me as a boy.

My uncle joined the Navy at the end of WWII. He was very proud of his service in the U.S. Navy and he had a connection with my grandpa and with his dad, Henry Collins, who was a career US Navy Chief and who both served with honor to their country. Uncle Jack was a career public school teacher and fluent in Spanish – I think that is why he loved traveling to South America and Spain so much!

Every year, our family, his mom and dad - my grandma and grandpa – Henry and Edith Collins and my great grandma Nanny (Kate Ingram - who lived to 102 years!) and Uncle Jack's aunt and uncle (mine too or Auntie – my grandma Collins sister) Hazel and Louis Freymann would always get together for these awesome Thanksgiving dinners at my Grandma and Grandpa Collins house every year and that's when I would see my Uncle Jack since he lived in Bakersfield, CA (where he was a teacher).

I would see him once in a while in at my grandma and grandpa Collins house in Chula Vista when school was out. He was a runner and as I recall he took a lot of vitamins and he was always eating healthy and exercising during my high school days.

My uncle was always a nice man to me. Later in life – at least in my own mind - that I think he felt somehow connected to me since we were both adopted by our mom's husbands (our dads), each of us was the oldest in our family, we were both teachers, and that we both served our country in sea going services (me in the U.S. Coast Guard). I think he had a special place in his heart for me – at least I think so.

My uncle was a man of God and a follower of Jesus Christ. I can remember as a high school student – he would always have his Bible nearby and I would see him reading it at my grandma and grandpa's house from time to time. I am reassured and know that Uncle Jack is with Christ in Heaven and there with my Grandpa and Grandma Collins – smiling and worshipping the Savior, Jesus.

I loved him and he was a good man and I will miss him.

Also surviving are three brothers, Fred and Charles Connelly, Mason City; Roy Connelly, State Center, and five sisters, Mrs. Florence Alduker, Pierre, S. Dak.; Mrs. Dick Hall, Livingston, Nebr.; Mrs. William Ingram, Hamilton, Cal.; Mrs. Cleo Rubins, Richmond, Cal., and Mrs. Frank Herdliska, Long Beach, Cal. A brother died in infancy.

Funeral services will be held at the Patterson funeral home Monday morning at 10 o'clock, with the Rev. A. J. Brakke, pastor of Our Saviour's Lutheran church, in charge. Burial will be at Elmwood cemetery. The Patterson funeral home in charge.

(Note by RRC: I have some doubt as to the accuracy of "came to Mason City in 1906". Robert & his entire family were enumerated in Tiffin, Johnson Co., IA, in the 1910 census. Around the year 1916 for the move north to Mason City is suggested in the obituary of his wife.

Based on other sources, "Lucella" should be Lucille, "Alduker" should be Oldaker.

I'm not sure if the church name is spelled Our Savior or Our Saviour.)

(Note by RRC: I have some doubt as to the accuracy of "came to Mason City in 1906". Robert & his entire family were enumerated in Tiffin, Johnson Co., IA, in the 1910 census. Around the year 1916 for the move north to Mason City is suggested in the obituary of his wife.

Based on other sources, "Lucella" should be Lucille, "Alduker" should be Oldaker.

I'm not sure if the church name is spelled Our Savior or Our Saviour.)

A good man gone far too soon.)

IN MEMORY OF PATRICK
January 4, 2012

On December 21, 2011 my son Patrick died of complications related to a rare degenerative muscle disease that was untreatable. He was only 36 years old. Many of you who are reading this were aware of Patrick's epic struggle with this disease and supported him with your prayers. However, few knew who Patrick really was.

He was a brilliant young man with an IQ that was off the charts and that sometimes caused him problems. He didn't fit in with his fellow students in high school and the teachers had trouble dealing with someone who could read an entire textbook in a few days and often got bored in class as a result. He actually dropped out of high school at one point and then got his GED, but decided to go back to high school and get his diploma because he didn't want to leave anything unfinished.

Patrick was an Eagle Scout and was very proud of that fact. He was also a member of the elite scout honor society, the Order of the Arrow. He loved the outdoors and spent several summers as a camp counselor teaching young people about the beauty of nature. At the same time he was a black belt in karate and an accomplished kick boxer.

Patrick always wanted to help other people so he decided to go to nursing school and was determined to pay his own way by starting several small and successful businesses. He was also a patriot and joined the Louisiana Army National Guard and became a combat medic. When he graduated from nursing school he became a traveling nurse working in one of the most challenging and stressful areas of medicine, Emergency room care. However, Patrick felt that this was where he could do the most good.

In 2004 while he was working in Connecticut he volunteered to go to Iraq as a combat medic to join his older brother Sean who was a combat engineer officer. However, since he was a registered nurse the army decided to commission him as an officer and send him overseas as a nurse. Unfortunately, he failed his physical because of an irregular heart beat that was ironically the first indication of the emerging health problems. He received an honorable discharge from the military, but I learned just a few years ago that he felt guilty because he had not been able to serve his country overseas as his brothers Sean and Tim had done.

Yet, Patrick soon found another way to serve his fellow Americans. In August of 2005 he and his wife had moved back to our home town, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, which is just 60 miles north of New Orleans. When Hurricane Katrina roared through New Orleans and caused massive devastation and loss of life, many of the refugees and injured ended up in Baton Rouge. The hospitals were soon overwhelmed so many of the injured and homeless were housed on the Louisiana State University campus.

Pat was working his regular eight hour shift at the hospital and then going on from there directly to the LSU campus where he worked another eight to ten hours a day as a volunteer nurse. This went on for weeks and I later learned that he and his wife Sarah gave away virtually all of their clothes to the people of New Orleans who had lost everything. For a long time Patrick had nothing to wear but his nursing scrubs.

In 2006 my wife Kay, who was Patrick's stepmother, was diagnosed with terminal kidney cancer. Patrick and Sarah came to visit us in Dallas and wanted to know where Kay would like to go on a trip. Kay decided on Disney World where we had spent so many wonderful times with our six children. Pat and Sarah gave us $1,000 to get things started and then our other children, our many friends, and my fellow veterans jumped in to help raise enough money to give us a remarkable final trip together.

Shortly after Kay died in June 2008 Patrick made a special trip to stay with me for three days in Dallas. We cried together over our loss and then he went on his way to continue his ER nursing career. I knew he was having health problems, but it was not until early 2011 that it was determined that he had a terminal illness. Patrick continued to fight the disease and to work doing what he loved, helping others as an ER nurse. We talked often and I marveled at his courage. Then, about six months ago all communications between Patrick and I ceased.

He stopped talking to me. He wouldn't respond to my emails or telephone messages. Then, I learned that he had died while in California, still working as an ER nurse. He had continued to work despite being in severe pain. I then heard from Pat's sister, my oldest daughter that he had talked to her and told her that he knew I had watched my wife die and he didn't want to put me through that again so he was determined to go it alone. In the midst of all his suffering Pat was still watching out for those he loved.

So, who was Patrick Connelly? He was brilliant man, an athlete, an Eagle Scout, a dedicated nurse, a patriot, and a soldier; yet most of all he was my son and I am grateful that for 36 years God allowed me to have this remarkable individual in my life. Our country needs more men like him. I miss you Patrick and I love you.

Worst Accident In Area In Years

Fiery Crash Kills
Three, Injures Two

Hayden
Funeral
Thurs.

A fiery two vehicle crash at the intersection of Buttonwillow and South Avenues shortly before 5 o'clock Monday evening, left three persons dead and two with major injuries in one of the area's most disastrous accidents in recent years.

Personnel from PGAE and General Telephone were called upon for assistance to handle fallen wires, and Mid Valley Fire Dept. was summoned to extinguish a fire on one of the vehicles. The Sequoia Safety Council Ambulance made two trips to take away the injured.

Two of the fatalities were killed immediately, one being burned beyond recognition, and another died early Tuesday morning in the Sierra-Kings District Hospital.

TWO PERSONS were killed in this station wagon and two seriously injured Monday evening around 4:40 o'clock at Buttonwillow and South Avenues. The CHP reported the ve- - f hide was east bound on South Avenue and ran Into a pickup truck northbound on Button-willow

ONE PERSON was burned beyond recognition when his vehicle collided with a station wagon driven by Raphael Rodriguez, reports the Highway Patrol. Larry Hayden, an employee for D'Arrigo Bros., was the lone occupant in the pickup as he was northbound on Buttonwillow. The pickup turned over and burst into flames.

DEATH RODE the highways Monday evening when two vehicles crashed at Buttonwillow and South Avenues. The station wagon in the foreground, says the Highway Patrol, hit the pickup truck (farther north), pushing it into a orchard where it turned over and burst into flames. The station wagon apparently hit a telephone pole with a portion of the pole landing on top of it. The occupants in the station wagon were thrown out, the person in the pickup burned beyond recognition. This picture was taken looking north on Buttonwillow.

CRASH KILLS THREE

Larry C. Hayden, 30, of 17300 E. Floral, was northbound on Buttonwillow, and the pickup he was driving was struck by a station wagon driven by Raphael Rodriguez, 24, of 21575 E. Manning, who was eastbound on South Avenue, reports the Highway Patrol. The collision pushed the Hayden vehicle into an orchard north of the intersection where it turned over and burst into flames, burning Hayden beyond recognition. The Rodriguez vehicle went off the road in the same general direction, ending in an upright position with a utility pole laying on its top. All occupants, reports CHP, were thrown out. Juan Valdovinos, a passenger in the Rodriquez vehicle, was killed on the scene, and another, Trinidad Sandoval, died Tuesday morning.

One other passenger in the Rodriguez vehicle, Juan Miguel Hinojosa, sustained major injuries as did the driver, and both are in the local hospital.

Funeral arrangements for Valdovinos and Sandoval are pending.

Funeral arrangements for Hayden will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, either in the Chapel at Cairns Funeral Home or the First Baptist Church.

Hayden was a native of California and had lived in Reedley the past three years. He was in the U.S. Army Reserves and a graduate of Fresno State College. He was the Production Superintendent in charge of all D'Arriggo Bros's ranches.

Worst Accident In Area In Years

Fiery Crash Kills Three, Injures Two

Hayden Funeral Thurs.

TWO PERSONS were killed in this station wagon and two seriously injured Monday evening around 4:40 o'clock at Buttonwillow and South Avenues. The CHP reported the vehicle was eastbound on South Avenue and ran into a pickup truck northbound on Buttonwillow.

ONE PERSON was burned beyond recognition when his vehicle collided with a station wagon driven by Raphael Rodriguez, reports the Highway Patrol. Larry Hayden, an employee for D'Arrigo Bros., was the lone occupant in the pickup as he was northbound on Buttonwillow. The pickup turned over and burst into flames.

DEATH RODE the highways Monday evening when two vehicles crashed at Buttonwillow and South Avenues. The station wagon in the foreground, says the Highway Patrol, hit the pickup truck (farther north), pushing it into a orchard where it turned over and burst into flames. The station wagon apparently hit a telephone pole with a portion of the pole landing on top of it. The occupants in the station wagon were thrown out, the person in the pickup burned beyond recognition. This picture was taken looking north on Buttonwillow.

Larry C. Hayden, 30, of 17300 E. Floral, was northbound on Buttonwillow, and the pickup he was driving was struck by a station wagon driven by Raphael Rodriguez, 24, of 21575 E. Manning, who was eastbound on South Avenue, reports the Highway Patrol. The collision pushed the Hayden vehicle into an orchard north of the intersection where it turned over and burst into flames, burning Hayden beyond recognition. The Rodriguez vehicle went off the road in the same general direction, ending in an upright position with a utility pole laying on its top. All occupants, reports CHP, were thrown out. Juan Valdovinos, a passenger in the Rodriquez vehicle, was killed on the scene, and another, Trinidad Sandoval, died Tuesday morning.

One other passenger in the Rodriguez vehicle, Juan Miguel Hinojosa, sustained major injuries as did the driver, and both are in the local hospital.

Funeral arrangements for Valdovinos and Sandoval are pending.

Funeral arrangements for Hayden will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, either in the Chapel at Cairns Funeral Home or the First Baptist Church.

Hayden was a native of California and had lived in Reedley the past three years. He was in the U.S. Army Reserves and a graduate of Fresno State College. He was the Production Superintendent in charge of all D'Arriggo Bros.'s ranches.

Hayden is survived by his wife, Anita, and three sons, Jeffrey, Timothy and Gregory, the latter being three weeks old; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayden of Bakersfield, and a brother, Steven, also of Bakersfield.

Remembrances may be made to the Memorial Scholarship Fund, Agriculture Dept., at Reedley High School.

If you carefully take an old bamboo rake apart you'll wind up with many different sizes of plant stakes for indoor or outdoor use.

Obituary of Michael Dale ‘Mike’ Connelly, ID = 13252811

(Partially copied from an obit found online, obit was published in the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle and was posted 9 June 2019.)

Michael Connelly

Rochester - A beloved family, friends, and the Rochester activist community has suffered a great loss in the passing of Mike Connelly.

Mike was born in Chicago IL and grew up in Alexandria VA. He received a BS in Psychology from Penn State University and an MS in Education from SUNY Geneseo. He was certified to teach K through 8th grades. He became politically active during the Vietnam War, and began his relentless struggle against war and militarism and his deep devotion to peacemaking. Vigils, protests, marches, occupations – the tall figure of Mike was always there, speaking out with passion and standing up boldly for justice. He truly gave of himself to make the world a better place.

Friends said they didn't know of anyone who lived his life with more integrity or more in keeping with his values. He wrote frequent letters to the editor and was willing to take public positions on behalf of justice and peace and to risk much for what he believed.

Mike was a member of Genesee Valley Citizens for Peace, Band of Rebels, Take Back the Land, Metro Justice, Blooming Lilac Sangha, Rochester Chess Club, Ciudad Hermana, Rochester Committee on Latin America, Rochester Area Vegan Society, Peace Action NY State, and Amnesty International.

Mike died on May 19 at age 79. He is grieved by his loving family:… (spouse of 53 years); Children… Grandchildren … His voice of wisdom will be sorely missed.

A celebration of Mike's life will be held later in the summer and people will be notified.

The greatest tribute we can offer Mike's memory is to remain steadfast in the pursuit of social justice and peace.

Also injured and at St. Elizabeth hospital were Mrs. Ethel Voyles, 44, of 651 West Morrison street, Frankfort, and her roomer, Joe Budreau, 43. Mrs. Voyles suffered a serious head injury, but shock prevented an X-ray. er, and they were going east on the Odell-South Raub road. Budreau and Mrs. Voyles were riding in a light delivery truck, driven by Budreau. They were going north on a country gravel road, en route to West Point.

Mrs. Lillis Hadley, R. N., of Indianapolis, caring for a patient in the nearby John Foust home, rendered courageous first-aid to the injured.

SAW TRUCK COMING

The Vaughns were going to the Morehouse home for dinner and Vaughn, who discussed the accident with Coroner H. E. Klepinger, said he saw the Budreau truck approaching the corner. He said they were late for dinner and that he was driving about 50 miles an hour. He said the Budreau truck was going slower than he was driving and that he thought he had plenty of time to get across the intersection ahead of the truck. He sounded his horn, he said, but the truck rammed the right rear wheel of the Vaughn car, overturning both vehicles.

REMEMBERS NOTHING

Budreau told the coroner that he and Mrs. Voyles left home about noon. He said he had been driving about 40 miles an hour, but that he remembered nothing about how the accident occurred.

She was born in Detroit on May 4, 1926, the daughter of the late Walter and the late Pearl (nee: Beaton) Timmons.

As a loving memorial, Joanne's daughter, Cynthia has chosen to share an obituary message in her own words. She writes.

"My mother was a great mother. She was always there when I needed her, both when I was small and even grown. Mom was always involved in our activities, just a very busy person. She took care of my brother, Cameron when he was sick and passed with cancer.

Her grandchildren adored her and loved her dearly. She even took them to their activities as well. The grandkids loved to go fishing and camping with her and their grandpa, Ed. Mom would pack nearly the entire house to go camping and on picnics.

Her great-grandchildren loved her, too. She didn't get to do as many things with them as she would have liked, but if she could have, they would have had a wonderful time with her as well.

There are many stories, and funny ones too, as the days and years will pass. Mom, you will always be remembered and missed dearly, and you will always be loved no matter where you are. I, your grandchildren & great-grandchildren will always love, cherish and keep you in our hearts. Rest in peace, Mom. No more pain. You are now one of those angels you used to wear.
Love, Your Family."

Obituary of Lyle James Morehouse, ID = 13256711
(Partially copied from the Cheney Free Press, online.)

Lyle James Morehouse

Lyle James Morehouse, 79, of Langley, Wash, died Tuesday, Aug. 2, 2016, as a result of congestive heart failure complications.

He was born on May 9, 1937, in Cut Bank, Mont., the son of Les and Carol Morehouse and eventually a big brother to six sisters. Although the family settled in Cheney, Lyle's earliest memory took him back to Big Sky Country - riding horseback with his grandma searching for sage grouse to put on the dinner table - and shaped his belief in hard work, love of the outdoors and devotion to family.

Lyle met his wife-to-be, … in Cheney the summer before he was drafted and shipped to Germany where he accomplished two things: he captured … heart through letters and became a certified marksman and sniper in the U.S. Army. Upon his return the two married and moved to Renton, Wash. to start their life together.

Lyle was a man always in motion. He spent 24 years working at Pacific Car and Foundry manufacturing railroad boxcars. The railcar business went bust in the 1980s and in midlife he became a supervisor at Hytek Finishes specializing in metal finishing.

When Lyle wasn't at work, he was inventing, building, repairing, sanding, painting and welding. His rough hands fit perfectly with his green thumbs and, later in life, Lyle cultivated a colorful garden and delighted in sharing with the neighbors.

Though he had many talents, Lyle was modest and humble. He was also hilarious and honest, gracious and giving. He held firm convictions in politics and an abiding faith in God and the Catholic Church.

Lyle and … cheered their kids on in football, softball, baseball and wrestling. On their final wedding anniversary, Lyle told … 53 years together was not long enough.

Lyle is survived by his wife, … his children … grandchildren … sisters … He was preceded in death by his parents Les and Carol Morehouse; sisters Joan and Maria. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the American Heart Association.

Obituary of Duke Ellsworth Hanna, III, ID = 13256a1

(Copied from the Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, CA, 25 Feb. 2010, online.)

Duke Ellsworth
Hanna, III

Duke Ellsworth Hanna III
July 24, 1923 - February 22, 2010

Dr. Duke Ellsworth Hanna III, neurological surgeon, was born to Duke and Alice Morehouse Hanna, in Indianapolis, Indiana on July 24, 1923. He passed away at 86 years old on Monday, February 22, 2010 in the comfort of his home surrounded by family and dedicated caregivers.

Dr. Hanna devoted his professional life to medicine. In March 1945, he married his favorite nurse, Eleanor Jane Myron and then graduated with his medical degree from Indiana University in 1946. He served as a Lieutenant (JG) of the US Navy and was stationed in Long Beach, CA and later in Hawthorne, NV. He completed the Neurosurgical Residency at the University of Chicago (1951-1954). He began to practice neurosurgery in Indiana, but remarked that he would rather be "a little fish in a big sea than a big fish in a little sea", so in 1956, the young family moved to the Southland.
Dr. Hanna spent his most active years practicing neurosurgery at Santa Monica Hospital, St. John's Hospital, Centinela Hospital, and UCLA Medical Center. During those years, he served as Chief of Neurological Surgery at St. John's Hospital and was an Assistant Clinical Professor of Neurological Surgery at UCLA. He co-authored a medical textbook, Illustrative Cranial Neuroradiology (1967), working diligently to render radiographic studies sufficiently well to translate to the printed page. This was a difficult, laborious feat in the age of traditional darkroom technology.

Duke was a focused, determined, and intelligent man, applying those qualities to his hobbies: championship bird dogs, photography, classical guitar, and aviation. He was proud to be listed in Who's Who in the World. One thing Duke didn't do well was to tell jokes: starting in on a story, then laughing so hard he couldn't get to the punch line. Watching him laugh made us laugh especially in contrast to his usual serious and quiet mien. He depended on his wife Jane's companionship, warmth, and extroversion to bring out his lighter and more playful side. After the children were grown, he and Jane traveled frequently to both remote and cosmopolitan places around the world and enjoyed a wide variety of friends.

Duke is predeceased by his wife, Jane, and his two younger brothers, Robert E. Hanna (Westlake Village, CA) and A. Lyle Hanna (Tempe, AZ). Duke is survived by children: Anita Fullbright (Carl) of Fortuna, CA, Cheryl Hanna-Truscott (Al) of Gig Harbor, WA, and Robert Hanna of Fortuna, CA; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. He leaves sisters-in-law, Glenora Hanna (Tempe, AZ), Ann Hanna (Chatsworth, CA) and Nancy Wolter (Los Angeles, CA and Seymour, IN) and nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, February 27, 2010, at the Gates, Kingsley, and Gates Mortuary, 1925 Arizona Ave., Santa Monica. Viewing and reception will be from 1:00-3:30 pm with a service starting at 3:30 pm. Final interment will be at the Sunrise Cemetery in Fortuna, CA, on Saturday, March 13. In lieu of flowers, contributions will be gratefully accepted in Memory of Duke Hanna by HCAR-Sequoia Center/Art Studio, 1707 E. Street, Suite 2, Eureka, CA 95501 (707) 443-7077. HCAR is a non-profit organization enriching the lives of the developmentally disabled and has directly benefited their son, Robert.

Obituary of Eleanor Jane (Myron) Hanna, ID = 13256a1

(Copied from The Tribune, Seymour, IN, 27 Sep 2007, online.)

Eleanor Jane Myron Hanna

Oct. 1, 1923 - Sept. 17, 2007

Eleanor Jane Myron Hanna, born at home in Vallonia on Oct. 1, 1923, passed away Monday, Sept. 17, 2007. She died at home in the loving company of her husband, Duke Ellsworth Hanna, M.D., surviving sister, Nancy Wolter, and devoted caregivers Livier Hernandez ('Bibi') and Bernadine Sutherland. Compassionate care from these four helped Jane to live at home until the end of her life. Her death was a release from seven years of progressive disabilities due to dementia.

Jane, or 'Mana' to her grand and great-grand children, was the lively older sister of Bob Myron and Nancy Myron Wolter. She grew up in Hayden, the daughter of Hubert C. Myron, a railroader, and Kathleen Schooley Myron, a primary school teacher. Her loving grandparents, Florence and Orlando Schooley and Larry and Nell Myron, were important influences. Jane graduated from Vallonia High School in 1941, one of 13 students in her class. Selected as a cheerleader for her energy and engaging personality, she also possessed a talent in singing and a passion for art which she expressed all throughout her life. Choosing a practical profession in nursing at the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing, she met her future husband, Duke E. Hanna, who was a medical student at Indiana University. They married on March 10, 1945, and celebrated their 62nd anniversary this year.

Jane and Duke settled in Southern California in 1956 shortly after their third child was born. Initially residing in Redondo Beach, they moved to Brentwood near Dr. Hanna's neurosurgical practice in Santa Monica. During the late 1960s, Jane passionately pursued courses at the Chouinard Art Institute (CalArts.) She also hosted fundraisers for developmentally disabled children, a cause close to her heart, as her son, Robert, was diagnosed early in life with neurobiological developmental delays. Mana would be relieved to know Bob is doing well and her worries about his care after her death would be eased.

During their Empty Nest years, Jane worked for several years as her husband's scrub nurse during his most difficult operations. Jane and Duke loved to travel, sharing many exciting experiences all over the world. Jane valued her time with her book club, the UCLA Faculty Women's Club, her grandchildren, her dear friends and sister. She also valued physical pursuits (hiking, biking and swimming), art, and music events. She belonged to Westwood Hills Christian Church, enjoying her choir singing and relationships there.

She showed genuine love and interest in the individuals passing through her life. She spent time and care in her relationships with people who could have been easily overlooked and forgotten. She loved the exciting Los Angeles life but kept the heart of a small town country girl.

Jane is survived by Duke E. Hanna, M.D., her beloved husband; children Anita Fullbright (Carl) of Fortuna, Calif., Cheryl Hanna-Truscott (Al) of Gig Harbor, Wash., and Robert Hanna of Fortuna, Calif.; grandchildren, Kirsten (Carl) Goode, Nika Wissel, Katie (BJ) Gerving, Jenny Fullbright, Brandon Fee and Cody, Shaine and Annie Truscott; and great-grandchildren Hanna, Peter, Leah and Nathan Goode, Kyle and Brienna Zoellner and Olivia, Johnny and Benjamin Gerving. Jane also is survived by her sister Nancy Wolter; cousins Tommy Sprenger, M.D., and Sally Lammers; sisters-in-law Glenn Hanna, Ann Hanna and Frances Myron; and nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at Westwood Hills Christian Church, 10808 Le Conte Ave, Los Angeles, CA 90024 (in Westwood Village). Following the service, a viewing will be available between 2 pm and 5 p.m. at Gates, Kingsley and Gates Mortuary, 1925 Arizona Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90404 (entry on Arizona, parking on 20th and Arizona). An open house gathering of family and friends at the family home in Brentwood will follow church services. Burial will take place at Sunrise Cemetery in Fortuna, Calif., at 4 p.m. Monday.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be offered to Westwood Hills Christian Church or to the donor’s favorite charity.

Obituary of Elizabeth Lucile 'Lizzie or Cile' (Rothrock) Cissel, ID = 132591

(Copied from the website of the Ann Arbor Women's Golf Association; obit published in the Ann Arbor News (1963).)

Founding AAWGA Member,
Cile Cissel dies at 75

Mrs. Elizabeth (Cile) Cissel, 74, active in civic affairs and a noted city golfing figure, died last night at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a long illness.

She was the widow of the late Prof. James H. Cissel and lived at 1900 Steer Pl. She was born in Lafayette, Ind., on Nov. 7, 1888, the daughter of Hervey and Joella Connally Rothrock. She married Mr. Cissel on June 8, 1910, and came here in 1914. Mr. Cissel died on Jan. 29, 1949.

Mrs. Cissel was one of the founders of the Ann Arbor Women's Golf Association. She promoted the idea which finally took hold in 1931.

Mrs. Cissel began playing golf in 1923 and two years afterward played in the Women's State Amateur tournament and was consolation runner-up in the second flight. She also was the first Ann Arbor woman's city champion (1927) and won the City Tourney four times.

In 1958 women of the Barton Hills Country Club names one of their major tournaments the "Cile Cissel Tournament for Women" in her honor. A trophy bearing her name is awarded to the winner each year.

A "never-miss" spectator at all city golf events, Mrs. Cissel remained active in Women's Golf Association affairs through the 1961 season when the city crown was won by her daughter, Mrs. Daniel D. Dayton.

During her playing days, Mrs. Cissel and the former Jean Kyer (now Mrs. Thomas Findley, New Orleans, La.) took part in still-remembered "friendly links duels." Mrs. Cissel defeated Miss Kyer in the 1928 city title match and - after Miss Kyer had won in 1929 - took the title away from her in 1930.

Mrs. Cissel also was active in the city Republican Party. And in the fall of 1957 she was the assistant chairman of the residential division of the United Fund Drive. She also did volunteer work with the Washtenaw County Hospital Auxiliary, of which she was president for three terms. Mrs. Cissel also was a member of the board of the Washtenaw County Hospital.

Mrs. Cissel attended Northwestern University.

In addition to the other activities which also included the Thrift Shop and the Farm and Garden Club, she was a member of the First Congregational Church.

Survivers include two daughters, Mrs. Dayton of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Frederick Foglesong of Beaver Halls, Pa.; a son, James H. jr., of Atlantic Beach, Fla.; 18 grandchildren, and one great-grandson; two sisters, Mrs. J. Jones and Mrs. Ward Horn both of Lafayette, Ind.; a brother, Russell Rothrock of Defiance, O., and several nieces and nephews including Mrs. Jeffrey Dand of Ann Arbor.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday in the First Congregational Church with the Rev. Fred E. Luchs officiating. Burial will be in Forest Hill Cemetery. Friends may call at the Muehlig Chapel Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Obituary & death notice for James Harlan Cissel, ID = 132591

(Copied from the Faculty History website of the University of Michigan, online.)

James Harlan Cissel

The Michigan Technic 9

Professor James Harlan Cissel died very suddenly on January 29, 1949, after thirty-four years' service on the faculty of the Department of Civil Engineering. His colleagues in the University of Michigan remember him as a genial friend with broad interests in both the serious and lighter sides of living. The staff in Civil Engineering knew him as an engineer with a truly professional attitude toward his work, a methodical analyst, a gifted designer, and a serious teacher.

Professor Cissel was born in Goodland, Kansas, in 1889 and graduated from Purdue University in 1910 with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering.

Immediately after his graduation he went to Kansas City where he worked as a designing and surveying engineer for the Santa Fe Railroad and Kansas City Railways, principally in connection with the very large program of new terminals and grade separation. Soon afterwards he also worked for the Detroit United Lines.

In 1915 he came to the University as an instructor in Civil Engineering. During this time he also worked for Dean Mortimer E. Cooley doing appraisal work on the Michigan United Railways. In 1917 he was promoted to the rank of Assistant Professor, and a year later to the rank of Associate Professor. During the 1920's he also served in a consulting capacity on the design of bridges for the Wayne County Road Commission. In the latter 1920's he designed the Fuller Street Bridge in Ann Arbor.

In 1932 he was called upon by State Highway Commissioner Murray D. VanWagoner, later Governor of the State, to come to Lansing to re-organize the Bridge Division of the Michigan State Highway Department. He remained on leave of absence from the University for three years, during which time he supervised the design and construction of many million dollars' worth of bridge structures. These included the famous Mortimer E. Cooley Bridge on Highway M55 west of Cadillac, which was awarded first prize by the American Institute of Steel Construction as the outstanding American bridge of the year.

He was the designer of the proposed bridge across the Straits of Mackinac, which involved pioneer work in the height of the submerged piers and in the proportions of the suspended span between the piers. He was a member of the Mackinac Straits Bridge Authority, appointed by the governor, and in this capacity was called upon to appear before many civic bodies throughout the state to explain the advantages and objectives of this very large project, which was so important to the Upper Peninsula.

Recently Professor Cissel had been acting as consultant on the Stran-Steel Division of the Great Lakes Steel Corporation, and in this connection supervised a program of research on the use of thin steel sections for buildings.

In the field of recreational activities, Professor Cissel took a keen interest in the athletic affairs of the University, and in 1944 was appointed to the University Board in Control of Intercollegiate Athletics. Director H. O. Crisler has stated that his death was "a serious loss to Michigan athletics and to the Athletic Board." His interest in athletics and sports involved also an active participation in these fields. He was a star golfer, being a runner-up for the Ann Arbor City Golf Championship in 1928 and 1930, and was well known throughout the state for his golfing ability.

In 1937 the public speaking fraternity, Sigma Rho Tau, named him to receive the annual "Tung Oil" award as the most "loquacious lubricator" in the college that year.

He was a member of the Ann Arbor Exchange Club (1918-33), the Chamber of Commerce (1926-28), the Ann Arbor Community Fund Board, the board of the Red Cross, the Men's Club of the First Congregational Church, the University Club and Theta Chi fraternity.

During 1930-31 he was chairman of the annual Red Cross drive.

In the professional fields, his memberships included the American Society of Civil Engineers, the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, the American Concrete Institute, the Engineering Society of Detroit, the Michigan Engineering Society, and the International Association for Bridge and Structural Engineering.

Among his publications were the text-book "Stress Analysis and Design of Elementary Structures," and the well-known papers, "Tacoma Bridge Failure," "Stiffness as a Feature in Suspension Bridge Design," "Durability of Light-Weight Steel Construction," and others.

Surviving are his wife, the former Elizabeth Rothrock of Lafayette, Indiana; one son, James H. Cissel, Jr., of Roslyn Heights, New York; two daughters, Mrs. D. D. Dayton of Manhasset, New York and Mrs. Fredrick Foglesong of Ann Arbor; and twelve grandchildren.

Mackinac Bridge
Designer, Cissel,
Is Taken By Death

Ann Arbor, Mich., Jan. 29 (AP) - James H. Cissel, civil engineering professor at the University of Michigan, died early today of heart disease. He was 59.

Cissel, considered an authority on bridge design, drew plans for a bridge across the Straits of Mackinac more than a decade ago.

A. F. McMain
Suicides.

USED A TWENTY-TWO CALIBRE RIFLE TO ACCOMPLISH
THE ACT.

Deed Was Committed in Back Room of His Saloon.

(From Friday's Daily)

The town of Pineville was thrown into a state of excitement at 7:30 o'clock this morning when the news was rapidly spread that A. F. McMain had killed himself.

In a short time a large crowd had assembled at the McMain saloon in Pineville, where the deed was committed and the body and deadly rifle were viewed by hundreds of people, before the arrival of the coroner.

The body was found by Howard Ferguson, an eight year old boy, who lives just across the street from where the suicide occurred. The deceased had gone to the saloon this morning, as was his custom, and opened up, after which he retired to a little back room in the rear of the building in which there was a bed. He pulled off his boots and taking the rifle, a 22-calibre, short, Winchester, placed the muzzle in his mouth and lying back on the pillow, pulled the trigger. The ball entered the roof of the mouth and lodged in the brain, producing instant death. From appearances the man had not moved a muscle after firing the fatal shot. The weapon was lying on his breast with the muzzle near his mouth, and the right hand under the breech of the gun, showing conclusively that he had used the right thumb with which to pull the trigger.

Mr. Oscar Futrell, who has been Mr. McMain's bartender for some time, had arrived at the saloon and was engaged in the front part of the building when the body was discovered by Ferguson.

Coroner G. M. G. Stafford was notified by phone and on his arrival empanelled the following jury, and held an inquest: Dr. F. V. Gremillion, Jno. G. Armstrong, Oliver Schwartzenberg, J. M. Rembert and Michael Aaron. Only two witnesses were heard.

HOWARD FERGUSON.

The first witness stated that he went from his home over to the saloon, and through the saloon into the back yard. Didn't see Mr. McMain as he went out, but when he came back, looking in the door of the room saw him lying on the bed with the gun on his body. Went and told Mr. Futrell what he saw. Didn't hear any gun fire.

OSCAR FUTRELL.

The bartender for Mr. McMain, testified that the little boy came into the saloon and told him that McMain was lying on the bed with the gun. Witness went back to the room and at a glance saw that he was dead. There was no one around except a negro boy who does odd jobs about the place. Witness immediately gave the alarm. The shooting occurred before witness arrived. Didn't hear the shot. Had on previous occasion heard deceased say that he would kill himself, but not within past few weeks.

VERDICT OF JURY.

After hearing the evidence the jury rendered a verdict that deceased, A. F. McMain, there lying dead, had come to his death on the 20th day of November, 1908, from gunshot wound inflicted by

HIS OWN HAND.

After the inquest the body was removed to his home, and prepared for burial.

Mr. McMain was about 41 years of age. He moved to Pineville, from Mill Creek about three years ago and engaged in the saloon business. He went from Woodworth to Mill Creek. He was for a number of years interested in the saw mill and timber business.

Mr. McMain and family resided on Main street, in Pineville, a short distance below his business stand.

Mrs. McMain's mother, who is with the family in Pineville, has been critically ill for some time past, and the sad affair was kept from the widow and children for an hour or so after the occurrence and a physician summoned to whose lot it fell to break the news to her.

HEART RENDING SCENE.

The scene at home, on the street and at the saloon by the frantic wife and the bereaved children, was something heart-rending in the extreme - a scene that the writer never again wants to witness.

Mr. McMain worshipped his wife, idolized his children, and they had the same high regard and esteem for him.

The only cause that can he assigned for the rash act is that he was somewhat financially embarrassed, and had been drinking heavily of late.

He leaves a devoted wife, two sweet daughters, aged respectfully 11 and 14 years, two brothers and one sister, to whom we extend sincere sympathy in this their sad hour.

The brothers of A. F. McMain are Charlie McMain of Pollock, Will McMain of Cloverdale, Ind., and a sister, Mrs. Cora Stanley of Verda, La.

The deceased carried an insurance policy of $2,000 in the New York Life and $2,000 in the Woodmen of the World.

He was a member of the Odd Fellows and Woodmen of the World.

Interment will be made in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Pineville, tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock.

HOMER ROUTT

HOMER W. ROUTT

Homer W. Routt was born October 23rd, 1884, age 43 years, three months, nineteen days, at what was then known as Needmore in Indiana, later called Cunot, Indiana. He was the seventh son of eight brothers in a family of twelve children. He was the son of Wm. E. and Nancy Routt. His boyhood days were school days for him, which later made him able to cheerfully fight the grim and serious problems which face us all in life. After the usual years in the rural schools he spent some time in the State University. He taught school in his younger manhood. One year was spent in Arkansas teaching school with a brother George.

Homer was an active member in the Universalist Church. He believed energetically and actively in the Brotherhood of man and the Fatherhood of God. His life and dealings with men was always a living evidence of his faith. No man who knew Homer could question his motives or his faith.

His later years were years rich with problems and blessings of raising his family. And this indeed, was a blessing to Homer. He had his tears, his aches and pains in working out these problems of a family man, and yet in spite of all this he counted his life worth the cost. He smiled often through his tears because of the smile of life was in his soul and it must come through.His strength of Character was the optimism of his soul. He climbed one hill of life after another, singing a song which echoed through the valleys below.
This song was not alone to cheer his own heart but perhaps a brother or neighbor might hear it and be cheered.

The last year or two of Homer's life was filled more or less with pain, having trouble with sciatic infection. The pain was courageously endure don't out with the hole that somehow it would correct itself, but it didn't.
The immediate cause of death was acute appendicitis.

October 27th. 1909, Homer married Miss Grace McMains. To this happy union was born three children. The oldest Carl, the second, Gordon, the third a girl, Mary Louise.

To anyone who knew this man or who had visited his home it is needless to say he loved this family. These children, and this wife put the fighting spirit in Homer's life. Duty was not the moving force of his life so far as his family was concerned, it was Love.

He leaves a wife and three children. Besides his own family his going breaks the ranks of a family of eight boys and two sisters, a Father and Mother. For us all he is blazing the trail, leading on to unknown fields.

We hardly say that he is dead. We feel that he has just begun a freer and fuller life.

With Parker we say:

"That clod which yonder dust shall cover is not brother. The dust goes to its place, the man to his own. It is then I feel my immortality. I look through grave into heaven. I ask no miracle, no proof, no reasoning for me — I am conscious of eternal life.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, Homer died on 2 April 1928; by my calculation, he was 43 years, 5 months, & 9 days old at his death.)

Obituary of Granville Finley McMain, ID = 13316

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Greencastle Democrat, Greencastle, IN, Saturday, 19 October 1895, page 5.)

Death of an Old Soldier.

Died at Melder Louisiana, Sept. 28, Granville McMains. He was an old Putnam county boy, a son of Wm and Jane McMains, formerly of Warren township, and a brother of Mrs. S. J. Elliot of this city, who is now the only child living of the eight children of Wm. McMains, by his first marriage. Two sons by a later marriage, Joseph McMains of Louisville, Ky., and Lucius McMains, of Boone, Iowa, are still living. Granville was an old soldier serving in the 9th Ind. Battery, his death was caused by a complication of diseases contracted while in the army. His remains were interred at his late home near Melder, La.

(Note by RRC: The surname was spelled McMains early on, often changed to McMain by later generations; on Granville's gravestone, it is McMaine, but that is the only place I have ever seen that spelling and I'm fairly certain that is an error. Based on other sources, "Elliot" should be Elliott; his sister Sarah married Serring J. Elliott; perhaps that surname was also spelled differently by the earlier generations.)

Obituary of Amy Ann (Rhame) McMain, ID = 13316

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Weekly Town Talk, Alexandria, LA, Saturday, 9 Feb. 1918, page 3.)

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MRS. AMY ANN M'MAIN.

After a long and patiently borne illness Mrs. Amy Ann McMain, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. Gillespie, Thursday, Dec. 19, 1917, aged 72 years, 7 months and 24 days.

She leaves seven children, four brothers and twenty-eight grand children and one great grand child, a father and mother and several brothers and sisters to welcome her to that great beyond.

The children, and brothers are as follows: Mrs. W. J. Rossitter, of Many, La.; Mrs. F. J. Embree of Slidell, La.; Mrs. C. H. Ford of Shreveport, La.; and Mrs. A. Gillespie of Melder, La.; Mr. J. L. McMain of Shelbyville, Tex.; Mr. R. C. McMain of Oakdale, La.; Mr. T. L. McMain of Elmer, La.; and Mr. W. A. McMain of Woodworth, La.; her brothers are Mr. T. P. Rhames, of Melder, La.; Mr. Allison Rhames of Brookland, Texas; Mr. Allen Rhames of Shelbyville, Texas; Mr. John Rhames of Seymour, Texas.

All that medical aid and willing hands could do was done, but could not keep her any longer.

Dear bereaved ones, your vision is over cast with the gloom of sorrow

The only consolation that is vouchsafed you is the sweet realization of the fact that your beloved one is at rest; the one upon whom you have lavished your affection in now in that land, where the weary are at rest.

Sister McMain as she was commonly known was a member of the Methodist church from her early days and lived a noble and Christian life.

She was ready to go when the Savior called her to join his band.

She was laid to rest in the Melder cemetery by her husband. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Baggette and Rev. Carruth.

Thank God for the faith that teaches
When the struggles of life are over
We shall meet our own, our loved ones
And know them all once more.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The procession left the family home and proceeded to Melder Baptist Church, where services were conducted by Reverend Starks Johnson. Interment was made in Melder Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife and nine children; Mrs. Flora Lewis of Otis, La. Mrs. Eva Walker of Forest Hill, W. P. McMain of Austin, Texas, Olen, Finley, Walter, Sidney, Lewis and Gordon McMain of Forest Hill. Besides these he is survived by three brothers and four sisters.

All of the children were present at the funeral. Also many other relatives and friends. He will be missed by many throughout Central Louisiana, who are sharing their grief and sympathy with the family.

Grieve not dear ones, he is at rest;

We all loved him, but God loved him best.

Dorothy Gail, youngest daughter of Samuel A. and Minnie Brann Turner was born Nov. 22, 1908 and passed away Oct. 16, 1948 at the age of 39 years, 10 months and 24 days.

She was united in marriage to Chester Elliott April 3, 1926. To this union was born one child, Norman.

At an early age Gail confessed and was baptized in faith with the Lord.

Always living a true Christian, she was a kind and faithful wife and loving mother. Being in poor health for the past year, she bore the suffering with love and patience and kind to all who ministered her. Let us not weep for she has only gone on before, we know it is sad to say farewell but we love the consolation she is at rest.

She leaves to mourn her passing, the husband and son Norman; three sisters, Mrs. Dave Hall of Reelsville, Mrs. Louis Roberts of Manhattan, Mrs. Ralph Randell of Greencastle and one brother, Otho Turner of Cloverdale, several nieces and nephews and host of other relatives and friends.

A precious one from us is gone
A voice we lived is still
A place is vacant in our home
Which can never be filled.

KILLED BY JEALOUS HUSBAND

George W. Sink Shot by Lee Hammond, Fellow Miner.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

LINTON, Ind., November 18. — Developments last night show that George W. Sink of Jasonville, found dead yesterday afternoon on the Southern Indiana right-of-way, north of this city, and who was thought to have fallen from a train, had been shot and killed by Lee Hammond, of Jasonville. Three bullets took effect, one in the neck, another under the right arm and another in the left arm. Hammond was arrested last night at Jasonville, and he readily confessed that he had waylaid Sink. Jealousy because of Sink's attention to Mrs. Hammond was the inciting cause. Sink was a man of family and thirty-five years old. Hammond is of similar age. Both men worked in the mines.

MRS. ELIZABETH SHULL

BRAZIL Ind. June 2 (Special) – Mrs. Elizabeth Shull, 99 years old, retired Brazil seamstress and vest maker, died at 8 o'clock Friday morning at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Roy Downing of 617 South Walnut street. Mrs. Shull, who operated a business here for 40 years, last month returned from a winter in Florida. Also surviving are a granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Aydelott of Washington, and two great-grandchildren. Services will be at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Lawson Funeral Home. The Rev. Samuel E. Carlton will officiate and burial will be in Cottage Hill cemetery. Friends may call after 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

(Note by RRC: Joan Aydelott, in a letter to me dated 17 Jan. 1983, said "If my branch of the family is confusing, I suspect it's because of my grandmother, Lizzie Shull. Apparently her marriage was such an unhappy affair that she not only divorced the man but took back her maiden name, and that with a daughter to rear. The middle pages of the family Bible were torn out. My grandmother supported herself and her daughter by being a tailoress. For years she made vests for the tailors in Brazil. When ready-made suits took over, she went in for cleaning and pressing. She was still very good with a needle so that 'Take it to Lizzie' is what people said when they got a hole or tear, 'She'll fix it so you'll never see it'.")

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Joan Aydelott, Washington, and two grandchildren.

(Note by RRC: Joan Aydelott, in a letter to me dated 23 May 1983, said "My mother, Neva Shull, taught school - all eight grades - at Center Point, and at the Cabbage School north of Brazil, then in Brazil, nine years in all, before she was married. Married women were not allowed to teach then; but I think she was happy making a home for her family. Since my dad, Roy Downing, grew up on a farm, he tried farming but was not successful at it. After his service time in World War I, he came back to Brazil and became a rural mail carrier and stayed at that job until he retired. Because he had carried mail on three different routes, he knew where nearly everyone lived for miles around Brazil. When I was five, we moved to the house where my mother, dad, and grandmother lived for the rest of their lives. When my dad retired, all three of them spent their winters in a concrete block home that he helped build in Bonita Springs, Florida. Bob and I are looking forward to spending our winters there beginning the winter of '84-'85. We've enjoyed quiet summer months down there ever since 1973.")

She was born in Illinois on January 10, 1858. In 1976 she was married to Wm. Richardson. She was the mother of nine children, eight of whom survive her. She has lived to see these children grow to womanhood and manhood and take prominent places in the development of this country. She worked at the telephone company in Cedar Rapids and graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1948. She met her husband of 49 years when he offered to take her home one night from a babysitting job. Charles J Kalina and Betty were married on August 6, 1948.

Chuck and Betty moved to Kansas City Missouri where their daughter... was born and then moved to Hastings Nebraska where their son... was born.

From Hastings they moved to Denver into a new house in a neighborhood filled with other young couples and many children. Betty was a homemaker, along with her two neighbors on each side, two of which became lifelong friends of Betty until her passing.

She worked at Centennial Race Track after her children were grown. Chuck and Betty both retired from Centennial when it closed and moved to Lakewood Colorado where again they found wonderful neighbors and became close friends.

Chuck and Betty were grandparents to three grandchildren... They were adoring grandparents and loved every moment they shared with their grandkids. Betty was always there for her grandchildren. ... became a key support to her grandma as her grandma was for her.

In 1997 Chuck passed away from cancer. Betty stayed in her beloved home after Chuck's passing.

In 2001... blessed her with her first great grandchild, ... followed by ... and ... Her grandchildren and her great grandchildren always gave her hours of complete joy and amusement as she always greeted them with her beautiful smile.

Sadly, her son Brad passed in 2007 a loss she never really recovered from.

On July 4th, 2017, with... by her side, she decided to join her husband, son and mother as she entered into the hands of God with gentle guidance and love from her angels. As she took her last breathe, she was truly home.

Betty will be greatly missed by her lifelong amazing friends, her family and all of her extended family.

She is survived by her daughter... her granddaughter... her great grandchildren... and her grandson...

She is now and forever loved.

Obituaries of Jessie Richardson, ID = 133518

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Goodland Republic, Goodland, KS, Friday, 5 Mar. 1897, page 3.)

Died.

Saturday morning, February 27, the Lord sent his angel to bear away the soul of little Jessie Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Richardson.

The funeral services were held at the New Harmony school house Sunday at ten o'clock. Rev. Bates conducted the services.

The little one has fulfilled its mission short as it may seem and has joined the heavenly hosts. We think of the pure little soul as

Blooming all for Jesus,
In a garden fair,
Folded on His bosom,
Sheltered by His care.

—A Friend.

Died, Jessie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Richardson, aged 3 years, 5 months and 5 days. The little one was first stricken with a fever, a doctor was called in and the fever broken and it was thought she would recover, but later complications set in ending in blood poison and death. She was laid to rest in the Kanorado cemetery Sunday February 28, Rev. Bates conducting the services. The sympathy of neighbors and friends go out to the family in their bereavement.

Rev. Bates started for Paradise Monday. We don't mean that realm above but, unbelievers or eastern doubters to the contrary notwithstanding, there is a Paradise in Kansas, and in the brown grass country too, yet even there the sinner seems to flourish, and Rev. Bates goes to reason with them, point out their high privilege, and if agreeable see that they are branded properly. From there he expects to attend the annual church conference at Beloit.

AN OLD CITIZEN

PASSED AWAY

(From Saturday's Daily)

Mr. Frank J. Smith, who had lived in this section of the state for 29 years, was buried on Friday at Greeley. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. E. Mason at the residence 12 miles northeast of Fort Collins. This city was his business headquarters, but his first wife was buried at Greeley and therefore his body was laid away at the same place. Mr. Smith had acquired considerable wealth by his activity and frugality. There was a large company of friends and neighbors present despite the bad weather and the distance. His hospitality had won for him many personal friends. He leaves his widow with no children by the second marriage but two sons by the first wife survive him. He also leaves an aged mother who lives in Kansas, a sister in Montana, two brothers, one living in Kansas and one near Windsor, Colo. Mr. Smith was 58 years of age, having been born in New York state in 1855.

Connie "Lee" Walkling

April 13, 1946 ~ January 31, 2019 (age 72)

Connie Lee Walkling, 72, passed away peacefully on January 31, 2019. In lieu of a funeral which Lee did not want, she asked that you download Elvis' Amazing Grace, Elvis' How Great Thou Art, and if you can keep a straight face, Sammy Davis Jr.'s, I Did It My Way. Play those while you're reading this. Have a single shot 12 oz. latte and remember just one time when Lee made you smile. Buy flowers for a complete stranger. Or make a contribution to your local Friends of the Library group. Born April 13, 1946 in Pasadena, California this daughter of Lee E. Walkling and Marion L. (Chisholm) Walkling was mistakenly named Connie Lee (for her father's favorite uncle whose last name was Connelly). She spent her early years growing up in sunny California surrounded by family and maternal grandparents. At age 8 her family which now including sister, Nancy, moved to Centralia, Washington. She spent the next 10 years in the rainy Northwest, graduating from Centralia High School in 1964. Connie Lee escaped this exile by returning to Pasadena in 1965 to attend Pasadena City College and then UCLA, attaining a useless degree in Motion Picture Production. When employment eluded her, Connie Lee got a Master's Degree in Library Science. She worked for Los Angeles County Public Library as an Audio Visual Librarian for five years. This position did not provide the challenge she was searching for. In 1975 Connie Lee made a bold move; quit her paying job, and walked out of the library. Thankfully, Connie Lee had a core group of friends who provided support and encouragement throughout her life. It was one of these contacts which turned her on to an ad in Variety magazine. She applied for and got a job as an apprentice Script Supervisor (or Continuity Expert). Shortly thereafter she began her career in the film industry, and like many others, adopted a "stage name" by dropping her hated first name. Almost immediately she was christened with her nickname, "Lady Lee"; a name that followed her from job to job for the next 20 years. Over those next 20 years she built a reputation for her meticulous attention to detail, powers of observation, and her obvious ability to multi-task. Working closely with the director, Lee was the person who made sure that scenes shot out of sequence would end up making sense, especially visually, and that costumes and sets were consistent between takes. She tracked the timing of the show, keeping records of shots taken, and reporting back daily to the producer. The first movie Lee worked on was shot on location in Arkansas where her patience was tested with a novice director who didn't know when to say "action" or "cut." She also worked on a horror movie, "Where Evil Dwells" in Japan. One of Lee's proudest credits was a job that led her to Canada to work on a film called "The Grey Fox" based on a true story about a train robber. It starred Richard Farnsworth as Bill Miner. The movie was highly acclaimed. Farnsworth received a Golden Globe nomination for his portrayal. Other travels led Lee to Australia where she fell madly in love with the country. During her career in Hollywood, Lee also worked on several TV shows including Eight is Enough and Knots Landing but the majority of her career was on the set of Falcon Crest which ran on CBS from 1981 to 1990. This is where she met and became friends with various stars including Jane Wyman, Lana Turner, Celeste Holm, Morgan Fairchild, and Willie Nelson – just to name a few. All in all, a fascinating career filled with wonderful memories. When long hours and deteriorating working conditions coincided with her mother's kidney dialysis, Lee quit showbiz and returned to Chehalis,

Washington to help care for her mother. After a series of lucky decisions and introductions, her job as a volunteer led to a permanent job with the State of Washington, Department of Natural Resources, Division of Geology and Earth Resources as librarian for the state's geology library in Olympia. Lee had always thought rocks were described in carets and worn to awards ceremonies, and dirt was dished; not dug up or mapped. She quickly learned otherwise. As always, she immersed herself in geology giving it her creative twists; helping write a cookbook "Geology Bites: A Cookbook That Really Rocks", and founding the now infamous "Rock Auction", a fundraiser that has grown bigger each year. Her favorite assignment at the DNR was being editor of Tsulnfo Alert, a newsletter of the National Tsunami Hazard Mitigation Program. After 15 years as Geology Librarian, she retiring in 2013 and began enjoying her new life. Sadly, by late 2016, the ravages of dementia began to steal this charismatic and creative woman's life. She was preceded in death by her parents and her beloved sister, Nancy. Lee is survived by cousins… and longtime friend… as well as cousins… She asked that you remember the 11th Commandment --- Pursue whimsy!

Obituary of David Earl Clark, ID = 1338214

(Found online; obituary written by David's daughter, Alice (Clark) Coakley.)

David Earl Clark, 91, passed away August 13, 2005 at Sharon Care Center in Centralia, WA. He was born January 16, 1914 in Hillrose, Colorado to David and Cora (Smith) Clark. As a child, he attended schools in Colorado, Idaho, and Washington; many times walking or riding horseback to school. He graduated from Chehalis High School in 1932. In October 1942 he enlisted in the U.S. Army at Ft. Lewis, Washington. He served in WWII with the 66th Infantry, 71st Division under Patton's 3rd Army throughout Europe and was discharged in March 1946. He married Naola Rice in Colorado Springs, CO on October 22, 1946. She passed away in May 1947.

In 1948, Earl became a substitute rural letter carrier for the three rural routes out of Centralia; a job he held for more than 27 years, retiring in January 1976. On January 15, 1948 he married Evelyn Walkling. He and Evelyn moved to the family farm in Zenkner Valley, north of Centralia, where they farmed, sold milk and cream to the Hub City Creamery and later raised beef cattle. They were married 56 years before she passed away on August 13, 2004.

A 70-year Grange member, Earl held all seven degrees of the Patrons of Husbandry. He served as Oakview Grange Master for 13 years as well as numerous other offices at both the local and county level, including two years as Lewis County Pomona Grange Master. He was co-superintendent of Grange aisle for many years and was instrumental in the construction of the former Fair Meadows Harness Race Track. His love of agriculture was reflected in the numerous Open Agricultural awards he won at the fair. In 1996, he was made an honorary member of the SWW Fair Assn. For 16 years, Earl served as fire commissioner for the Gibson Valley Fire District #16 and oversaw the construction of a new fire station and purchase of several fire trucks. He and Evelyn volunteered for the Spring Youth Fair "Child ID" booth as well as numerous other community activities over the years. He was a lifetime member (bronze) of the Veterans Memorial Museum and a member of the First United Methodist Church in Centralia.

If Earl wasn't farming or tending the garden with Evelyn, he was working in the 15,000+ trees he had planted on their farm. He was an avid reader. He enjoyed music and dancing, and never outgrew his love to travel. For many years he cut more than 30 cords of firewood a year!

Preceding him in death were his wife Evelyn, brothers Lester and Dale Clark, and infant brother Arthur; sister, Thressa Neuert and her husband, Ted; sister-in-laws Marion Walkling and Harriett Clark, and his niece, Lillian Simpson.

He is survived by his daughter and son-in-law, Alice and Gene Coakley; his daughter, Marilyn Clark, and his grandsons, David and Jason Schroeder and Jason's fiancée, Heidi Smith all residing on the family farm in Centralia; three great grandchildren, Nicole, Austin and Marisa Schroeder of Yoncalla, Oregon; his brother-in-law Lee Walkling and his wife, Versa of Chehalis; sister-in-law, Helen Clark of Poulsbo, WA; nieces, Connie Lee and Nancy Walkling, Lois Kaech, Verna Murray, and nephew, Don Neuert.
