A large and sorrowing throng of people attended the funeral, Sunday, Afternoon, in the local Presbyterian church, of Frank Logan, who was killed by a horse's kick near Morrill, Nebr., the fore part of last week. The services were by Rev. Faurot, and were listened to by many who had known Frank all his life. Burial was in Fairview cemetery.

Frank, son of R. C. and Mary J. Logan, was born near Smith Center, Kans., December 22, 1885 and died at Scotts Bluff, Nebr., August 14, 1928 at the age of 42 years, seven months and 22 days. He was the fourth child in a family of nine, six boys and three girls. His mother and brother, Clarence, preceded him to te great beyond.

He was united in marriage to Lucy Beatrice Morgan in this city, July 1, 1908, and their union was a happy, congenial one. Their only child, Lucile, born in 1909, brightened their home barely a year, then died of infantile paralysis.

Frank's nature was warm and generous. Most of his life was spent in the vicinity of his birthplace, but he lived for a time at Sheridan, Wyo., Burlington, Colo., Atwood, Kans., and finally near the town where he died. Wherever he went he made friends easily by his friendly, open manner, and news of his tragic end brought grief to many in widely separated communities.

His memory is cherished by his wife, his aged father, three sisters and four brothers. The sisters are Mrs. M. R. Church, Osage City; Mrs. Sherman Mathis, Smith Center; Mrs. Herbert Fryback, Colby. Suit Settled Out of Court

Bridegroom's Death Brings Damages

(Special to The State Journal)

MASON, Feb. 6—An $80,343.69 damage suit to be tried before a jury in circuit court Tuesday morning was settled out of court for an unannounced sum.

Settlement brought the finale to a tragic honeymoon trip in which the bridegroom was killed in an auto accident near Kalamazoo.

The suit charged that John C. Goodale, 23, of Milwaukee, Wis., was driving with his bride, Rebecca, on US-12, between Battle Creek and Kalamazoo, Sept. 13, 1948, when his car was struck by a silo filler which fell from a passing truck operated by Everett L. Schultz of Lansing.

Goodale died Nov. 4, of that year. Suit was brought Tuesday in court here before Judge Marvin Salmon, with George W. Loomis, special administrator of Goodale's estate, suing Schultz and two partners in the Plumber Machinery company for $80,343.69 damages. The other two partners are Ray Ticknor and John Boersma, both of Lansing.

Schultz is charged with negligence. Goodale, according to the declaration, was a law student at the University of Michigan who showed ability beyond the ordinary and indications that he would have achieved success in his profession.

The suit lists $50,000 as pecuniary loss to the widow by Goodale's death, $25,000 for Goodale's pain and suffering prior to his death; plus burial and medical expense, nursing care and other items.

He was the loved and respected patriarch of the family, and truly exemplified the values of the "Greatest Generation." After the war was over he went to work for Pacific Northwest Bell, rising from a lineman to a communication engineering manager. After retirement they got to travel with their van and trailer, and do what they did their whole lives helping others, whether to help a nephew to fish, or friends and neighbors who needed something done requiring electrical know-how. Although they had no children of their own, they became "Grandma and Grandpa" to all the children of their nieces and nephews. They were the number-one fans of their grandchildren in all their own endeavors, from sports, to music concerts and plays. Mike was preceded in death by his wife Verna. May they be united once again. Obituary of Harry Monroe Logan, ID = 135413

Final Rites for Harry M. Logan, Pioneer Attorney

Death took one of Mills county's early-day attorneys Saturday when Harry Monroe Logan died at the Edmundson hospital. He had been in poor health for several years.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Glenwood Tuesday, conducted by the Rev. Paul H. Hicks. Burial was in the Glenwood cemetery.

Mr. Logan had practiced law in Glenwood for more than half a century. He established his office there in 1904, as a partner of the late Shirley Gillilland. This continued until he was elected county attorney in 1913, an office he held until 1917.

He continued in active practice until 1954 when failing health caused him to close his office.

Born in Union township, Iowa, July 7, 1871, continued to live in that vicinity and in north central Iowa until manhood. He taught school for two seasons, then took some formal training in the Drake University law school.

He then moved to Jefferson county, Neb., and later with his grandfather and other relatives participated in the Cheyenne Arapahoe land run into Oklahoma, fording the Cimarron and riding a mule in the rush 12 miles west although he was too young to stake a claim.

He read law in Jefferson county, and was admitted to the Nebraska bar in that county in 1893. He then moved to Ogalalla, Neb., and established a law office. On May 12, 1894, he was married to Miss Laura Ann Record and they lived together more than 60 years, until her death in 1954.

After the tragic death of their older daughter from a rattlesnake bite at their ranch near Ogalalla, the Logans moved to Glenwood, in 1903. There, in addition to his law practice, he helped with community work having served nine years on the board of education and as Sunday school teacher and on the board of trustees of the Methodist church. He also was on the governing board of the YMCA fund.

He is survived by a daughter, Mary Evelyn, who lives in the family home in Glenwood, and three nieces and two nephews.

Obituary of Galen R. Gilbert, ID = 13548111

(Partially transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in the Reno Gazette-Journal, Reno, NV, Thursday, 5 June 2014, page C6.)

Dr. Galen R. Gilbert

Galen R. Gilbert went peacefully to be with the Lord on June 2, 2014. He was born April 4, 1939, in Saint Francis, Kansas to the late Phil and Martha Gilbert. Galen is survived by his wife... daughter... and granddaughter... Galen attended Clover Meadows Elementary School and Lamar Union High School where he lettered all four years in baseball. He was honored by being selected Head Boy during his senior year and graduated in l956. After high school he attended Colorado State University, earning a bachelor's degree in accounting. He met and married the love of his life... November 18, I967. They resided in Lamar Colorado and had a daughter... who was born in 1970. Galen and his family left the Lamar area shortly thereafter so that he could attend Pacific University in Forest Grove, Oregon. He graduated in 1974 with a doctorate degree in optometry. In 1976 he moved to Sparks, Nevada and started his optometry practice along with his wife... He said that building the practice and working with... was one of the best times of his life. He truly enjoyed his work and took great pride in helping his patients. He was honored by being selected as one of the doctors on the United States Olympic Committee Optical Program in 1979. After he retired in 1997 he often commented that he missed seeing and visiting with his many patients.

Those who knew him knew that Galen was a self-described "Jack of all trades, and master of none." However, those that knew him also knew that anything he put his mind to would come to fruition. His patience, determination, focus and, "dumb luck" (as he would say) made him a successful and masterful "Jack of all trades." Although he participated successfully in different professions, Galen continued to hold farming and ranching near and dear to his heart. In the late 1980s he became an active stockholder in Valley State Bank. Later, he was proud to become Chairman of the Board of the bank. He considered this one of his most enjoyable careers and found much success and joy in his work. He enjoyed his participation in the bank because it gave him the opportunity to work with and help people in a community that he loved.

In 2006 Galen's granddaughter... was born to.... was the "twinkle in his eyes." She entertained him with piano and singing concerts, storytelling, and lots of hugs and kisses. He enjoyed playing hide-and-seek, Sorry, hide the golfball, and counting coins with her ...and her grandpa spent special times together when he would buy McDonald's oatmeal raisin cookies and milk and have them waiting for her when she came to visit after school.

Galen enjoyed traveling and was fortunate to visit many of the destinations he had always dreamed about. As a sports fan, Galen enjoyed watching all kinds of sporting events. He was thrilled when he was able to attend the Super bowl game in 2008. In 2009 he was able to fulfill a lifelong dream when he experienced a game at Yankee Stadium played by his favorite baseball team, the NY Yankees. His travels included adventures throughout the U.S. as well as Japan, Europe, Mexico, Canada, Russia and the Caribbean. He was able to experience many trips with friends and family and loved to share funny stories about the people he met and experiences that he had.

Galen was passionate about education, setting and meeting goals, and encouraging people. He would share words of encouragement and advice with anyone that needed them. He was always ready to support anyone that was interested in pursuing their goals and dreams. Galen was a member of numerous community and philanthropic organizations including Elks, Rotary, and the United Methodist Church. His words, actions, and financial support have positively impacted many individuals and organizations. One of his goals was to leave this world a better place and through his efforts he accomplished exactly that.

Galen left this earth on a cloud of prayer and love. We will miss him but are comforted to know that he will continue to watch over, protect, teach and guide us as our personal guardian angel.

A celebration of Galen's life will be held at 11:00 A.M. on Friday, June 6, 2014 at the Sparks United Methodist Church. In lieu of flowers the family respectfully requests that donations be made to the Sparks United Methodist Church.

Obituary & tribute for James Alexander Logan, ID = 132a & 1357

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Colby Free Press, Colby, KS, Thursday, 21 April 1898, page 5.)

Died - Saturday morning at the home of his son, J. F. Logan, in this city, James A. Logan, age 73 years. He was born in Kentucky in 1825, but spent his early life in Indiana. He was married twice. His last wife, together with two sons, J. F. Logan of this city and W. T. Logan, formerly editor of this paper but now of Colorado Springs, and one daughter, Mrs. Walker of Colorado Springs, survive him. All were at his bedside when he died except W. T., who was prevented from coming. Uncle Jim had lived a little more than his three score and ten years of labor and usefulness, and though his last illness was quite long, yet he was never known to find fault or complain, but, with the fortitude, patience, and resignation of one who had lived a worthy, open, and honest life, he waited the final summons, leaving all to his Savior, in whom he firmly trusted. His funeral was preached at the home by Rev. Welch, after which his remains were interred with Masonic honors in the Buelah cemetery to await the resurrection morn. The relatives have the sympathy of all in their hour of sorrow.

James A. Logan—Born in Kentucky January 28th, A. D. 1825, died at Colby, Kansas, April 17th, A. D, 1898.

Whereas, after the fullness of years allowed to man it has pleased Jehova, the Supreme Ruler, to call our worthy brotner, James A. Logan, to the eternal rest—

Be it Resolved, by St. Thomas Lodge No. 336 A. F. and A. Obituary of Paul David Stutzman, ID = 13571541

(Partially copied from the website of the Davis Funeral Home, Las Vegas, NV.)

PAUL STUTZMAN

Paul David Stutzman, 72, of Las Vegas, was promoted and called home by our Lord May 26, 2012. Paul arrived to Paul and Rose in New Baltimore, Mich., Aug. 25, 1939. He moved to Las Vegas in the mid-60's and worked in all the "Old Joints," the Silver Slipper, Fremont, Stardust (of Casino fame) and Hacienda, just to name a few. He then met and married... helping to raise her sons... Paul then moved to real estate sales and development doing projects in Nevada and Texas. One of Paul's proudest accomplishments was being a little league baseball and Pop Warner football coach, ultimately winning the City championship with the Dusters. After family, his passion was golf. I am sure he is now tracking down other members of the Las Vegas Country Club who preceded him and created his own "Ali Baba" group. Paul lived life to the fullest, never letting "the world" get him down and this was infectious on his family. Paul is survived by his loving wife... sons and daughters-in-law... and grandchildren... We will miss him for his short time that we are part. We love you Paul! A memorial of his life will be at Davis Funeral Home, 6200 S. Eastern Ave.: Visitation will be noon-1 p.m. Saturday, June 2, with services following. Burial following at Davis Memorial Park. Come one and all.

WILLIAM THOMAS LOGAN

Was born at Pleasantville, Iowa, September 22, 1861, and died at the University Hospital, Iowa City, Ia., March 26, 1923, aged 61 years, 6 months and 4 days. He was married to Eunice Carmickle at Jewell City, Kansas, October 28, 1885. Three children were born to this union, all of whom are living. They are Merle C. Logan or Wheatland, Wyo., Mrs. J. S. Fleisher of Peoria, Ill, and Mrs. Carl W. Koontz of Colby, Kan. His wife died August 11, 1919 at Linn, Kan. In August 1920 he was married to Mrs. Lou Marsh at Tipton, Iowa.

In early life he learned the printing trade and was in the newspaper business a god share of his life. In1886 he came to Thomas county and homesteaded a quarter of land one mile from the present town of Mingo and lived upon it until he made proof. In the tall or 1894 he was elected to the office of clerk of the district court in this county and was re-elected in 1896. After his election in 1896 he found that the work of the office in addition to the work of running the Colby Free Press, which he bought in 1895 was more than he could look after, so he resigned the office and devoted all of his time to the newspaper. In later years he owned and ran papers at Selden, ElDorado and Linn, Kan.

When yet a young man he was converted and united with the Methodist church and lived a consistent Christian life to the end. Will Logan was a man of high ideals, good mind and a heart full of human kindness. No man in need ever was turned from his door until he had shared with him his store. He betrayed no friend, compromised with no evil, feared no enemy. If Bill Logan was your friends, you did not have to look him up or send for him when you needed a friend. He was there without being sent for. If we are taught aright and some day must stand before the Judgment, where our deeds in the flesh shall be reviewed, among all those who shall then gather, not one can say to him, "I was an hungered and you gave me no meat. I was athirst and you gave me no drink. I was sick and in prison and ye visited me not." When he shall waken from the last long sleep may his eyes open upon a sky darkened by no clouds, where no sorrow pains the heart and where no stones bruise the weary feet.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Carl E. Smith of the Christian church at 2 o’clock this (Thursday) afternoon. The pallbearers, old neighbors and friends of the deceased thirty years ago, were John Ackard. J. B. Hampton, H. F. Davis, Asa M. Smith, Ernest Boerner and H. W. Marshall.

(Note by RRC: A typo - "god" should be good; based on other sources “Marsh” should be March.)

Obituary of Alma Emily Gertrude (Filbert) Koontz, ID = 1357632

(Partially copied from an obit found online at obits.dignitymemorial.com.)

Gertrude Koontz
Broomfield, Colorado
Oct 28, 1922 – Jun 27, 2014

Gertrude (Filbert) Koontz, 91, of Broomfield, died Friday, June 27, 2014 while under Tru Hospice care at the Peaks Care Center in Longmont, CO.
Born Oct. 28, 1922 to Charles Alvin and Alma (Dulin) Filbert in Baltimore, MD, Gertrude was the oldest of three sisters. Younger sisters Doris Spaulding (St. Louis, MO) and Ethel Coleman (Burlington, NJ) preceded her in death. She loved regaling visitors with her tales of growing up in Baltimore and visiting the Eastern Shore of Maryland during the 1920s and '30s.

Like many young women growing up in that era, Gertrude was a Rosie the Riveter, working as a soldering technician in Glenn L. Martin's Maryland airplane plant during World War II.

A 1950 graduate of the Methodist-sponsored National College for Christian Workers (NCCW) in Kansas City, MO, Gertrude maintained close friendships throughout her life with fellow NCCW graduates, frequently attending and organizing class reunions.

Upon graduation, Gertrude served briefly as a missionary in Texas, before returning to Maryland to teach. While teaching 2nd grade at Linthicum Heights Elementary School, she met fellow teacher... and they were married as soon as school ended June 14, 1952 [Flag Day]. Three children were born... while the Koontz family lived in Linthicum Heights, North Linthicum and Glen Burnie, Md.

A move to Detroit in 1966 (where Gertrude was a substitute teacher) was followed by a permanent move to Colorado in 1967. Gertrude remained a Colorado resident for the rest of her life, a resident of Littleton until 1987 and of Broomfield until the present.

She worked as a volunteer at Gallup Park School in Littleton, did school cafeteria jobs at several Littleton-area schools, was a member of the Littleton Independent's circular-stuffing crew, and became active in foster-parenting.

In 1971, the Koontzes became foster parents...

Gertrude was an avid reader, who kept her library volunteer busy. Other hobbies included sewing, piano playing, gardening and baking.

She is survived by her husband of 62 years... by two sons... one daughter... and three grandchildren... as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

A private celebration of Gertrude's life will be hosted by the family in August.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Tru Hospice of Boulder County.

Please join us in celebrating the life of Gertrude Filbert Koontz at an informal potluck luncheon... on Sunday, August 24 at 1:00 p.m. We will provide lunch fare, but side dishes and desserts are welcomed if you wish to bring them. Since Gertrude loved church potlucks and picnics, we have chosen to honor her in this way, with good food and music. Please bring any photos or happy memories of times spent with Gertrude to share with us. Please contact the family if interested in attending the memorial event. We will also have a computer set up for people to Skype with us that afternoon, for out-of-town relatives and friends who can't make it but would still like to participate.

Robert Wynn Holk

Feb. 10, 1947 — Dec. 9, 2012

Robert Wynn Holk of Philomath died Dec. 9.

He was born Feb. 10, 1947 in Long Beach, Calif., to Palmer T. Holk and Rose L. Logan, both of Bend. He spent his childhood summers in Bend, and always had a love for it.

In 1959, his father, Palmer, passed away. His mother remarried and in 1962 they moved to Camarillo, Calif. Bob loved the ocean, and was a great swimmer and surfer. After graduating from high school, Bob joined the U.S. Navy, and was stationed in San Diego when he met... also of Camarillo, in 1967. They were married on Dec. 20, 1969.

Bob's military service took him to Florida and Texas, then Vietnam, Japan, China and the Philippines. He worked as an electrician on an aircraft carrier. After his military service he attended California Lutheran College, but a summer trip to Oregon in 1974 reminded him of his love for Oregon. He visited the Oregon State University campus, and fell in love with the state and the Beavers. He attended OSU and received a degree in science education.

However, while looking for a teaching position, he took a part-time job as an electrician, and this would forever change his life and his career path. After another four years of school, he became a journeyman electrician; he retired after 25 years. He worked on many projects, including Raising Reser, Sacred Heart Hospital and Hewlett-Packard Co.

In 1976 Bob and… had a daughter... Bob always was a big softball fan, and when... was 6 months old, they formed a team and named it... after her. They are still together today, and will be playing one more season in Bob's honor.

In August 2007, after Bob went to see the Beavers win the College World Series in Omaha, his granddaughter... was born. Bob also was a cancer survivor after a long eight-year battle with bladder cancer.

He was preceded in death by his father, Palmer Holk; and his mother, Rose Holk, who just passed Sept. 8. He leaves behind his wife of 43 years... his daughter... son-in-law... and granddaughter... He also leaves behind many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Donations can be made to Heartland Humane Society or a charity of your choice.

A celebration of life is planned for the spring, date to be announced.

Obituary of Virgil Sydney Hollis, ID = 135c131

(Copied from Barbara Herring's website; obit published in the Marin Independent Journal, 1 Nov. 1990, pages A1 & A13.)

Virgil Hollis dies at 76
Marin educator hurdled handicaps

by Mary Leydecker, Independent Journal reporter

Virgil S. Hollis, who hurdled what he called a "Huckleberry Finn" childhood to earn a doctorate degree at Stanford University and serve six terms as Marin County superintendent of schools, has died.

Hollis, 76, died Tuesday at home in Tiburon. He had been ill for two months with cancer.

He was known during his 24 years as Marin schools chief as both a critic and champion of the schools. After coordinating a number of innovative programs, he retired in 1982.

He will be remembered as a tireless campaigner, who never missed a public event, walked precincts and just stopped to talk to people. One standing joke during his glory days was that any time there were three people standing in a group, one of them was Virgil Hollis.

"I think he invented walking precincts," said County Administrator Thomas Campanella. "He was a good man, one of the old-timers."

"He was viewed by many as a consummate politician - elected six times and all that kind of thing,: said Byron Mauzy, superintendent of the Marion County Office of Education who served 15 years as Hollis' deputy superintendent.

"But what a lot of people don't know is he was really an outstanding educator. He initiated some of the early special education programs when nobody else was doing them. He was really a leader in special ed. He never lost sight of the fact that we're in it for the kids."

"He was foremost a teacher," said county schools Deputy Superintendent Bob Spain. "I was an administrator under him for 20 years, and he taught me every day. It brings tears to my eyes to think about it."

Hollis was an illegitimate child, educationally handicapped and grew up in utter poverty.

His father died at age 19, four days before Virgil was born at a Salvation Army home in Oakland. His mother was an unmarried farm girl from Oregon.

He was shunted between grandparents in Mill Valley and Eureka, and also spent time at a Salvation Army home near Healdsburg.

He had dyslexia, a disability in which the perception of written words is scrambled.

He had said he was a "problem" child who shoplifted, sneaked into movies and stole milk from farmers. When he was 11, he ran away after being threatened with reform school. He found his mother in Livermore and lived with her.

After being bounced out of San Jose State College because of poor performance, he went on to earn a bachelor's and master's degrees at Humboldt State College and the University of California at Berkeley.

In 1958, his first year at Marin County superintendent, Hollis was named the year's winner of the Who's Who award annually selected by the alumni association of Humboldt, from which he had graduated in 1938.

Mauzy recalled that on the drive to Arcata to accept the honor, Hollis told him the college yearbook had, 30 years before, named him as "least likely to succeed."

Mauzy was sure Hollis would remind the college in the speech of those early expectation in on uncertain terms - "Virgil could roll out the Panzer divisions if he wanted to," Mauzy said - but Hollis never did. " He was really hurt by that (the yearbook slight). It was such a wonderful evening for a guy people hadn't thought would amount to anything. "

Hollis was 28 when he decided, during World War II, to join the Marines. Told he was probably too old to make it as a Marine, he took that as another challenge to meet - which he did, becoming a captain.

In 1953, he earned a doctorate at Stanford.

He launched a career as a teacher, first in Sacramento County and then Oakland.

He came to Marin in 1956 to become principal of Park School in Mill Valley. Two years later, he was elected Marin County Superintendent.

"He ran the department with a very firm hand," Supervisor Robert Roumiguiere said. But, he added, "He was a great guy ... just a wonderful guy. Everybody loved him."

Hollis made the county's special education programs a model for others around the country.

He also worked to set up school programs at the county honor farm and at San Quentin Prison.

At his retirement, Hollis said: "I don't take it lightly that I call myself a friend of the children, a friend of the taxpayers. I've never been part of the educational establishment. ... I was elected not just as a spokesman for public education but for all the children."

He was a member of numerous professional organizations, including the American Association of School Administrators, the California Association of School Administrators, Phi Delta Kappa and Schoolmasters of California.

He also participated in may civic and conservation organizations. He was instrumental the move to save the Martha Alexander Gerbode Preserve in the Marin Headlands until it could be purchased for the Golden Gate National Recreation Area.

His memberships also included Sons in Retirement and the Marin Rod and Gun Club. He loved horses, and often rode in Tennessee Valley.

He is survived by his wife, Marjory Hollis of Tiburon; his daughter, Candace Hollis, also of Tiburon; and his mother, Luella Starr of Corning.

A private family funeral will be held, and burial will be in Fernwood Cemetery in Tennessee Valley.

There will be a public memorial gathering from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Nov. 1 1 in the big barn inside the GGNRA at the end of Tennessee Valley Road. A shuttle service will be provided; those attending are asked to wear Western garb.

Memorial contributions may be to Hospice of Marin of the Salvation Army.

IJ reporters Scott Sandsberry and Brad Breithaupt contributed to this report.

Marjory (Cropley) Hollis
March 17, 1919 ~ April 11, 2008

Marjory Hollis, with her little dog Libby at her side, died peacefully in her sleep at her Tiburon home, April 11th, 2008. She was the beloved wife of the late Dr. Virgil Hollis, her high school sweetheart and loving mother of Candace (Franklyn). Marjory was born in Alameda, the youngest of four children. Shortly after her birth, the family moved to East Oakland where they lived until they lost their mother to illness. Being very young, she was sent to live with her aunt, Caroline Minor who raised her as an only child. After graduating from High School, she attended Humboldt State College where she received her Bachelor of Arts Degree and her teaching credential. During WWII, newly married and with her husband in the military, Marjory was employed by the Army Corp. of Engineers as a draftsperson, her first love. Following the war she taught Elementary School until the birth of her only child, Candace. After an eight year hiatus from teaching, she returned to her profession, teaching Elementary School in the Reed Union School District in Marin until her retirement in 1979. Marjory loved animals (especially her little dog Libby), music (she enjoyed playing the piano), gardening and traveling. As she got older, remaining in her Tiburon home was of primary importance to her quality of life. This home, her joy, sits on a hill overlooking Richardson Bay and "Blackie's Pasture." Further west looms Mt. Tamalpais. For 56 years Marjory was enthralled with the sunsets framed by this beautiful western vista. Marjory had a wonderful sense of humor, played a wicked game of cutthroat Canasta and was never shy about trying to take money from the Casino's in Nevada, playing Blackjack. She leaves a loving family and friends, and will be deeply missed. Her wish to those who would remember her, is to plant seeds of the California Golden Poppy on any hill facing West. A Memorial is pending. For information call (415) 435-2031. In lieu of flowers, a donation to any animal welfare agency of your choice would be appreciated.

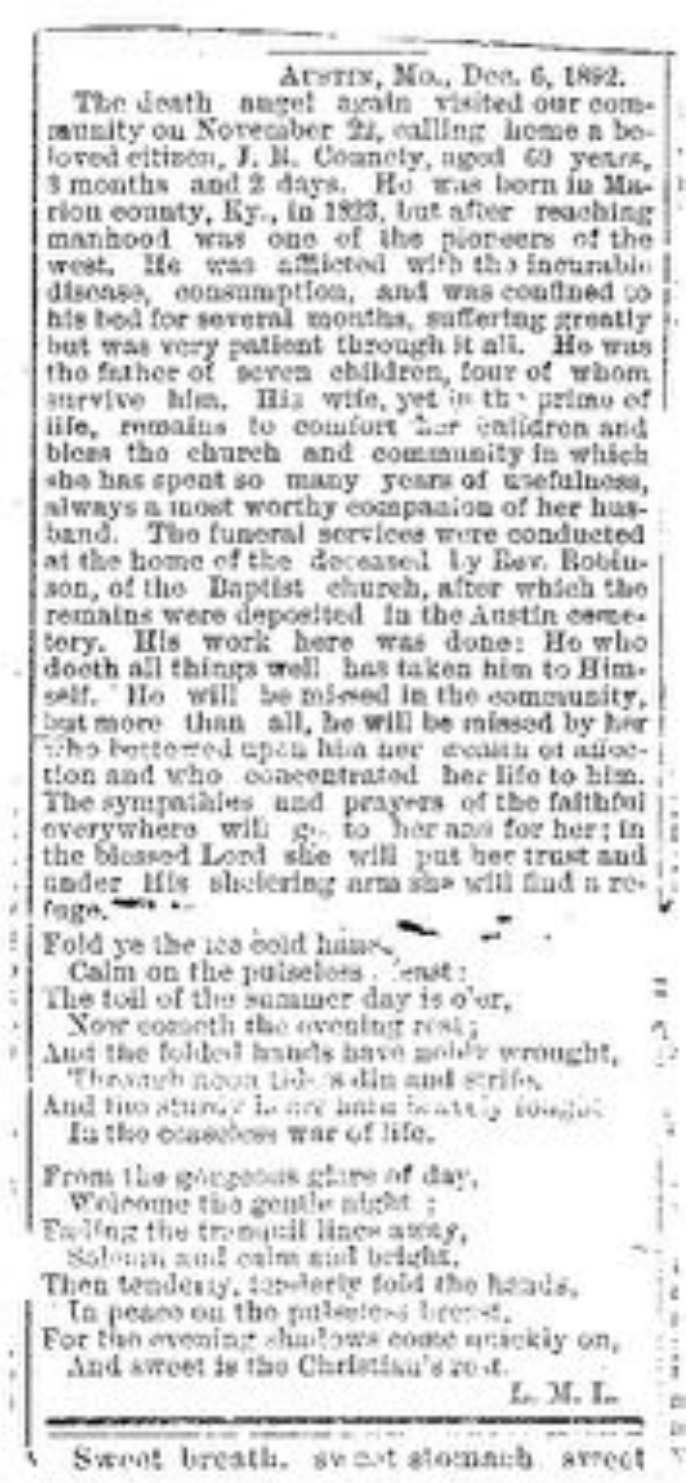
Obituary of James Robertson Connely, ID = 1382

(Submitted by Cathy A. (Connely) Bird, Oak Grove, MO, his great-granddaughter.)



AUSTIN, MO., Dec. 6, 1892.

The death angel again visited our community on November 22, calling home a beloved citizen, J. R. Connely, aged 69 years, 3 months and 2 days. He was born in Marion county, Ky., in 1823, but after reaching manhood was one of the pioneers of the west. He was afflicted with the incurable disease, consumption, and was confined to his bed for several months, suffering greatly but was very patient through it all. He was the father of seven children, four of whom survive him. His wife, yet in the prime of life, remains to comfort her children and bless the church and community in which she has spent so many years of usefulness, always a most worthy companion of her husband. The funeral services were conducted at the home of the deceased by Rev. Robinson, of the Baptist church, after which the remains were deposited in the Austin cemetery. His work here was done: He who doeth all things well has taken him to Himself. He will be missed in the community, but more than all, he will be missed by her who bestowed upon him her wealth of affection and who concentrated her life to him. The sympathies and prayers of the faithful everywhere will go to her and for her; in the blessed Lord she will put her trust and under His sheltering arm she will find a refuge.

Fold ye the ice cold hands,
  Calm on the pulseless breast:
The toil of the summer day is o'er,
  Now cometh the evening rest;
And the folded hands have nobly wrought,
  Through noon tides din and strife,
And the sturdy [illegible] have bravely fought
  In the ceaseless war of life.

From the gorgeous glare of day,
  Welcome the gentle night;
Fading the tranquil lines away,
  Solemn and calm and bright,
Then tenderly, tenderly fold the hands,
  In peace on the pulseless breast,
For the evening shadows come quickly on,
  And sweet is the Christian's rest.

L. M. L.

Sweet breath, sweet stomach, sweet

(Note by RRC: Marion Co., KY, was formed from Washington Co. KY, in 1834, so I have assumed that James was born in that part of Washington Co. that became Marion Co.)

Obituary of Susan E. (Cassida) Connely, ID = 1382

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Miami Republican, Paola, KS, Friday, 15 March 1907, page 1.)

Mrs. Connelly Dead.

Mrs. Susan Connelly died Monday afternoon, March 11, at her home in Paola, the result of a cancerous condition of the stomach and bowels. She was seemingly in good health until Tuesday of last week, when she was taken to her bed and grew rapidly worse.

Mrs. Connelly lacked a month of being 70 years of age. She was a daughter of the late Mrs. Nancy Cassida. She was born in Indiana, where she grew to womanhood, and was married to her late husband, James Connelly. Shortly after their marriage they moved to Cass-co., Mo., and remained there a number of years. At an early day they came to this county and several years later returned to Cass-co., where Mr. Connelly died fourteen years ago. Five years ago Mrs. Connelly purchased property in Paola and moved here. Mrs. Connelly was a member of the Baptist church for many years and was much respected. During her recent illness she was conscious to the last, and being informed that she could not recover, she expressed herself as being prepared and willing to go. Her children were sent for and were all with her at the final parting. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. James Feilds of Stanton-twp., and three sons, James, Edward and Fred Connelly of Garden City, Cass-co., Mo., also a brother, Isaac Cassida, of Marysville-twp. The remains, accompanied by her daughter, her three sons, her nieces, Mrs. Eben Saunders of Olathe and Mrs. Charles Clark of Eight Mile, Mo., and her nephew, Wm. Cassida of Marysville-twp. were taken Tuesday morning for burial beside her husband at Garden City, Mo. A brief funeral service, conducted by Rev. Frank Durham of the Baptist church, were held at the residence.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, “Connelly” should be Connely & “Edward” should be Edgar.)

Obituary of Charles Pearson Clark, ID = 138211

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in the Cass County Democrat, Harrisonville, MO, Thursday, 2 June 1927, page 5.)

CHARLES P. CLARK.

Charles Pearson Clark was born at Rockville, Parke county, Indiana, March 19, 1872, and died in Kansas City, Mo., May 26, 1927.

When a child he moved with his parents to Cass county, Missouri, where he lived all of his life until a few years ago when he moved to Kansas City. He was united in marriage to Georgia Moore, September 4, 1895, and to this union there were born two children who survive. They are Henrietta Noell of Harrisonville and Harold Clark of the home.

For a number of years Mr. Clark was a merchant in Daugherty, Mo., and was recognized as a very industrious man, keeping his store up-to-date and in every way trying to provide for his customers the things he felt they wanted.

He was very successful in the mercantile business, and later when he became a traveling salesman, his ability in this line made him of great worth to the company he served.

Mr. Clark was kind, considerate and neighborly. If one wanted an accommodation he could always get it from “Charlie,” as those near him called him. He was a man who made friends. His smile won for him the friendship of those he met. For several years Mr. Clark had been in poor health, but was not confined to his home until a few hours before his death.

Besides his wife and children, he leaves a brothe,r G. W. Clark of Perry, Okla., and a sister, Mrs. Mary Chandler, of Oswego, Kans., and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held in Harrisonville at the Methodist church on Friday, May 27, at 2 o’clock p. m., conducted by the Rev. F. E. Jenkins, pastor of the South Prospect M. Gerry was born on March 13, 1930, on a farm east of Archie, the youngest daughter of George Dudley Noell and Henrietta Clark Noell. She graduated as Salutatorian of the class of 1948 from Archie High School and then attended Central Missouri State University. She lived in Archie her whole life.

Gerry married Donald Foote and, together, they had two daughters. She was so proud of her daughters and their families, especially her three grandchildren. Gerry touched every person she met. She was a strong, independent woman. She always was available to support her family and friends. One could only hope to accomplish a life legacy similar to Gerry's. She loved to work. She is survived by two daughters… her three grandchildren… three sister-like cousins; three nieces; two nephews; other relatives and a multitude of friends.

Donald married Geraldine Noell on September 13, 1950 and divorced in 1970. After months and months in the hospital, he made the decision to follow his dream and become a farmer. In the fall of 1961, they purchased a farm east of Archie that was bordered by the Grand River. Donald developed that land into a productive farm and served as the President of the Grand River Drainage Ditch Board for many years. On November 27, 1971, Donald married Georgia Wilburn. They farmed together until their retirement in 1991. They then moved to Warsaw, Missouri where they fished at their favorite spots on Truman Lake and enjoyed good neighbors and friends. Donald loved to be outdoors. He thoroughly enjoyed fishing, hunting and gardening. In 2007, when their health became an issue, Donald and Georgia moved back to Archie to be near their families. Harriet Neerman

Harriet Neerman, Surrounded by her loving family, Harriet Russell Chase Feild Harrison Neerman peacefully departed this world on Sunday evening, March 14, at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Francie and Gene Austin of Paradise Valley. Harriet was born in Topeka, KS, on May 20, 1912, to Clarence and Mary Frances McMillen Chase. She spent most of her childhood in Salina, KS. At age eighteen, with two hundred dollars in her pocket, she went to Kansas City to gain a higher education and find employment. She became a dental assistant and later married her employer, Dr. James Monroe Feild. They were married for 44 years and had one daughter… In 1977 she married Roy Harrison of Kansas City and acquired two stepsons… She became Roy's care giver during his long siege with Alzheimer's disease and he preceded her in death in 1986. When she married her third husband, George Neerman, she moved out of the home she had lived in for 54 years and they bought a new model home in Overland Park, KS. She acquired another wonderful family, a stepdaughter and her husband… and a granddaughter… Again she became the care giver for a husband with Alzheimer's and George passed away in 2001. Her life was one of service. For 50 years she served in various board positions of La Sertoma of Kansas City and the American Legion Auxiliary, including President of Missouri 5th District. She chaired the American Legion Girl's State program and was a board member of the Kansas City Rose Society for 10 years. She was an active member of St. Andrews Episcopal Church for over 40 years and a member of Atonement Lutheran Church in later years. She enjoyed playing bridge and was a part of a foursome at The Springs of Scottsdale. She recently took up painting and showed remarkable talent. Many family members are recipients of her accomplished work. She was preceded in death by her three husbands, both parents and her brother, Thomas Sidney Chase. Surviving are her beloved daughter… her devoted son-in-law… her cherished granddaughter… grand children… her dear sister… her loving nephew… and a host of great-nephews, their wives and children. Norvell Eugene "Gene" Austin

Norvell Eugene "Gene" Austin went home to his Heavenly Father Dec. 29, 2005

He was born March 28, 1940, and raised in Vernon, where he attended school in a two room school house. He joked about being chosen the valedictorian of his eighth grade class, because he was the only student in his grade level. He attended Round Valley High School in Eagar and was chosen for the all state teams in both football and basketball. He served a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in the Monterey, California Mission after which he graduated from Arizona State University in Special Education.

Gene's life work was championing the cause of special needs students. He founded the Nueva Vista School for emotionally handicapped children at the Arizona State Hospital, and became an educational specialist for the Arizona Department of Education where he created the current statewide training program to assist teachers in instructing special needs students. Gene served as the Special Education Director for Creighton, Madison, Osborn and Deer Valley School Districts. He obtained his masters degree and did doctoral work in educational administration and special education at Arizona State University and taught at that institution for 10 years.

In 1995, Gene founded the Austin Centers for Exceptional Students known as The ACES, to provide the best possible educational and therapeutic programming for special needs students. Through his own vision, The ACES has grown to become the largest private special education day school in the state of Arizona and has bettered the lives of thousands of students from over 30 school districts. Gene's personal and professional commitment included accepting every child who needed help and making all decisions based only upon the best interests of the student.

Gene is survived by his cherished father… three brothers and three sisters; his wife and soulmate… his devoted children… Gene's adored grandchildren…

Funeral services were held at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, 6840 E. Gold Dust, Scottsdale, Tuesday, Jan. 3 at 4:30 p.m. Interment will be in the Eagar Cemetery in Eagar. Donations can be made to the Gene Austin Scholarship Fund at The ACES.

Walnut Creek Items.

- Mr. Fields and wife went to Austin, Mo., last Saturday. They were called there by the sad news received of the death of Fannie Connely, a sister of Mrs. Fields. Fannie is a daughter of James Connely, formerly of this county. She died on January 3d, 1879, at her parents' residence, of consumption. She was born in Miami county and was about sixteen years old at the time of her death. When we remember that we attended the same school it makes us feel sad to pen these lines. It has only been a few months since we saw her and she was then enjoying good health. The family has the sympathy of the entire communty.

(Note by RRC: Had she lived to 8 July 1879, by my calculation, she would have been 18. Based on other sources, "Fields" should be Feild. A typo - "communty" should be community.)

GARDEN CITY SOLDIER IS DEAD

Lyle James Connely Passed Away at Camp Funston Thursday Night

By Courtesy of The Garden City ??????

Lyle James Connely, age 25 years, died at Camp Funston, Kans., on Thursday evening, November 22, 1917, 9:30 o'clock, after a short illness of diphtheria. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Connely of Garden City, and on the Sunday previous to his death had paid them and his sister, Miss Bessie Connely, a visit at that place. On the occasion of his visit there, he was suffering with a severe case of tonsillitis, and was advised by a local physician, who examined him, that he had better obtain an extension of his leave of absence, and not return until he was better. After several efforts had been made to get headquarters at Camp Funston, over the telephone, without success, however, he decided to return to camp, rather than face a possible reprimand for overstaying his leave.

On Thursday afternoon a message to his parents from the physicians in charge of his case brought the information that he was very low, and that they had better come at once. They arrived at Camp Funston the next morning, to find that their son had died during the night before. The remains were shipped to Garden City, arriving there at noon on Sunday, November 25, and were met at the depot by a large delegation of the citizens of Garden City and community, each carrying an American Flag, ???? followed the body to the home, where it lay in state until the hour of the funeral.

Lyle James Connely was born in Cass County, Missouri, near Austin, on August 5, 1892, and was reared in the neighborhood of Garden City. He died at Camp Funston, Kans., on Thursday, November 22, 1917, where he was a member of the 356th regiment of United States Infantry, being detailed from company M in that regiment to special duty in the drug department of the Medical Corps. He was called to the service of his country, through the Selective Draft, and left Kansas City, where he was registered, for Camp Funston on September 21, 1917. Of the many men there, who claim Cass county as their home, he was the first to yield up his life for his country, and he and is entitled to all the honor of one who has died on the field of battle.

His family and friends will console themselves with the fact that while he was with us, he met his duty bravely, and when his country called, stepped forth a patriot, ready to serve, and did not try to evade or escape his responsibilities. He leaves behind, to glorify his memory, the record of a life of devotion, which will go far to assuage the grief of those who will mourn his untimely death.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Connely, a sister, Miss Bessie, and numerous other relatives and friends…

JOSEPH LISLE BROWN.

Joseph Lisle Brown, a native Cass Countian and son of pioneers, died at 3:40 o'clock Thursday morning, September 2, in the family home at 18 Wayland Drive, Springfield, Mo. He was 64 years old.

Inactive Five Months.

Mr. Brown, always known as Lisle in Harrisonville, had been field district engineer in Springfield for the State Highway Department nine years. He had been inactive in the highway department since last April, when heart disease forced his retirement. He had been an employee of the department thirty-two years.

Lisle Brown, born October 16, 1889, was a son of Walter R. and Maggie (Lisle) Brown, who themselves were children of pioneer Cass Countians. The father, Walter R. Brown, was born near Harrisonville in 1853, being a son of Robert A. and Mary J. (Gillenwaters) Brown who came to Cass County from Tennessee in 1842. The Brown homestead is several miles north of Harrisonville, and it was there that Joseph Lisle Brown was born, for the homestead was then owned by Lisle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Brown, who are better remembered as living at "Grassy Cove," their farm home northwest of Harrisonville where they celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary in 1932.

Lisle's mother was the former Miss Maggie Lisle, only daughter of the late Judge and Mrs. J. D. Lisle. Judge Lisle was the first probate court judge in Cass County, and the town of Lisle, in Southwest Cass County, was named for him. He was probate judge eight years. Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Brown were parents of three children — Joseph Lisle Brown, who died in Springfield; Mrs. Buford L. (Margaret R.) Thompson, who lives in Nashua, Mo., and Mrs. Coates C. (Glessie) Cockrill, a resident of Liberty, Mo.

The father, Walter R. Brown, in his prime became one of the best known farmers and livestock breeders in Cass County, and at one time bred German coach and Kentucky saddle horses, owning several trotting sires which later became famous. Mr. and Mrs. Brown moved from "Grassy Cove" when he retired in 1933 and they purchased a home at 604 East Mechanic Street in Harrisonille. His death occurred there early July 7, 1938, at the age of 85 years. Afterwards Mrs. Brown went to Liberty to make her home, and she yet lives there.

Lisle Brown completed his early education in Roswell, N. M., where his parents lived awhile. He was graduated from the New Mexico Military Institute there, and later from Valpariso University, Valpariso, Ind.

He and a Harrisonville girl, Miss Corrine Connely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Connely, were united in marriage June 14,1922, in the home of the bride on South Independence Street, the Rev. J. D. Robins, pastor of the local Methodist Church, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Brown established their home in Atchison, Kans., he then being employed by the Kansas State Highway Department as a civil engineer.

In September of that year Mr. Brown accepted employment by the Missouri State Highway Department as assistant project engineer. He and Mrs. Brown then moved to Trenton, Mo. After four years he was transferred to Moberly, Mo., as project engineer. Later he moved to Sikeston as division construction engineer, being there six years. Then he was assistant maintenance engineer in Jefferson City three yars. Mr. Brown was placed in charge of the division headquarters in St. Joseph in 1936, living in that city more than eight years, going to Springfield as district engineer in 1945.

Obituary of Herbert Botts Plunkett, ID = 138262

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in the Mexico Ledger, Mexico, MO, Wednesday, 24 Dec. 1975, page 1.)

Herbert Botts Plunkett

Herbert B.
Plunkett Dies

Herbert Botts Plunkett, 85, a Mexico civic leader particularly in the development of Mexico's park and recreation program, died at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday at Jackson, Miss. The Plunketts resided at 2 Park Circle until they moved to Jackson several weeks ago to live with a daughter.

He retired in 1958 as executive vice-president of A. P. Green Refractories Co.

Services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Mexico United Methodist Church. The pastor, the Rev. J. C. Montgomery will officiate. Burial will be in Elmwood Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p.m. Friday.

Mr. Plunkett was born in Bevier, Feb. 22, 1890, one of five children of James W. and Bessie L. Botts Plunkett. He came to Mexico with his family as a child, growing up on East Monroe Street.

On Feb. 1, 1919, he was married at Harrisonville to Elinor Connely of that community.

She survives with a daughter, Mrs. A. W. (Betty Nell) St. Clair, and a son, Herbert Connely Plunkett, both of Jackson; eight grandchildren: two great-grand-children; a sister, Miss Trix Plunkett of Mexico; and a niece Mrs. Harold Merten, 421 N. Coal St. Three sisters preceded him in death.

After attending Mexico schools and working from boyhood onward, be completed his education by correspondence and special training courses.

During World War I, he served with the U.S. Naval Reserve Force aboard the USS Oakland. Soon after his release from the Navy, Mr. Plunkett began working for the A. P. Green Refractories Co., in 1919 and retired 39 years later in 1958 as executive vice president of the company.

He had varied and complete experiences in all phases in the company's operations, having served as sales correspondent, territory salesman, general superintendent of works, general sales manager, secretary, vice president and manager of domestic and Canadian affiliate companies.

For many years, Mr. Plunkett held important positions in the refractories industry and had headed various committees having to do with national policy. He had been active in the trade association since its conception in the early 1920s.

During World War II, he was chairman of the Audrain County war bond campaign.

Active for many years in local civic affairs, Mr. Plunkett served as president of the Recreation Corporation for 20 years before retiring in1968. He had been appointed to the commission in 1948 by the late Robert H. Finley, then mayor of Mexico.

In 1953 he was elected chairman of the city's park board.

During his years of service, the park system grew from the three acres of Hardin Park to 300 acres of land in nine parks. In appreciation of his many years of faithful service in developing the recreation program, the commission honored him by naming the tract of land northwest of Mexico High School, Plunkett Park.

Roy Creasey, 502 E. Promanade, who worked with Mr. Plunkett for many years at the A.P. Green Firebrick Co., said today that Mr. Plunkett "was one of the finest men I ever had the pleasure of knowing. I have only pleasant memories of my association with him."

Col. C.R. Stribling Jr., who with Mr. Plunkett organized the Mexico Recreation Corporation which is responsible for much of Mexico's park system, said today that Mr. Plunkett was one of the community's outstanding citizens.

"It brings to mind the story of the big tree in the forest. When it falls, it cannot be replaced. It just leaves a void for years and years, "Col. Stribling said.

"He was one of the few who could get all of the citizens of this community to pull together in working toward the development of our park system," Col. Stribling added.

"He is a man all of us will miss," Don Decker, chairman of the Mexico Park Board said today. "Certainly his contributions to Mexico will live on for many, many years to come."

At the time of Mr. Plunkett's retirement from the Recreation Commission, Neil Nielsen, then city manager, said of him, "Mr. Plunkett is the man who had a dream and made it work."

An article in a 1957 edition of Reader's Digest focused attention on the Mexico park system. At the 1959 dedication of Park Pool in Plunkett, Park, the mayor, Clarence Torreyson proclaimed Mr. Plunkett as "Mr. Recreation" in Mexico.

Mr. Plunkett was honored at a dinner at the Country Club in December 1968 when he retired as chairman of the Mexico Recreation Commission and was presented an engraved plaque recognizing his 20 years of service on the commission. At that time, a souvenir booklet entitled "Twenty-One Years of Recreation at Mexico, Mo., 1947-68" was presented to the guests. The booklet had been dictated by Mr. Plunkett and traced the history of the commission from its start.

Mr. Plunkett retired from Commerce Bank's Board of directors last March after being a member for 40 years.

He was a longtime member of the Mexico United Methodist Church and for many years was a director of the Mexico Area Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Plunkett was a member of the Mexico Country Club and had been a director of the Mexico Community Chest.

He also had memberships in the Refractories Institute, American Iron and Steel Institute, American Institute of Management, American Management Association and the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis.

Herbert B. Plunkett Dies

Herbert Botts Plunkett, 85, a Mexico civic leader particularly in the development of Mexico's park and recreation program, died at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday at Jackson, Miss. The Plunketts resided at 2

Herbert Botts Plunkett

Park Circle until they moved to Jackson several weeks ago to live with a daughter.

He retired in 1958 as executive vice-president of A. P. Green Refractories Co.

Services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Mexico United Methodist Church. The pastor, the Rev. J. C. Montgomery will officiate. Burial will be in Elmwood Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p.m. Friday.

Mr. Plunkett was born in Bevier, Feb. 22, 1890, one of five children of James W. and Bessie L. Botts Plunkett. He came to Mexico with his family as a child, growing up on East Monroe Street.

On Feb. 1, 1919, he was married at Harrisonville to Elinor Connely of that community.

She survives with a daughter, Mrs. A. W. (Betty Nell) St. Clair, and a son, Herbert Connely Plunkett, both of Jackson; eight grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; a sister, Miss Trix Plunkett of Mexico; and a niece Mrs. Harold Merten, 421 N. Coal St. Three sisters preceded him in death.

After attending Mexico schools and working from boyhood onward, he completed his education by correspondence and special training courses.

During World War I, he served with the U.S. Naval Reserve Force aboard the USS Oakland. Soon after his release from the Navy, Mr. Plunkett began working for the A. P. Green Refractories Co., in 1919 and retired 39 years later in 1958 as executive vice president of the company.

He had varied and complete experiences in all phases in the company's operations, having served as sales correspondent, territory salesman, general superintendent of works, general sales manager, secretary, vice president and manager of domestic and Canadian affiliate companies.

For many years, Mr. Plunkett held important positions in the refractories industry and had headed various committees having to do with national policy. He had been active in the trade association since its conception in the early 1920s.

During World War II, he was chairman of the Audrain County war bond campaign.

Active for many years in local civic affairs, Mr. Plunkett served as president of the Recreation Corporation for 20 years before retiring in 1968. He had been appointed to the commission in 1948 by the late Robert H. Finley, then mayor of Mexico.

In 1953 he was elected chairman of the city's park board.

During his years of service, the park system grew from the three acres of Hardin Park to 300 acres of land in nine parks. In appreciation of his many years of faithful service in developing the recreation program, the commission honored him by naming the tract of land northwest of Mexico High School, Plunkett Park.

Roy Creasey, 502 E. Promenade, who worked with

Mr. Plunkett for many years at the A.P. Green Firebrick Co., said today that Mr. Plunkett "was one of the finest men I ever had the pleasure of knowing. I have only pleasant memories of my association with him."

Col. C.R. Stribling Jr., who with Mr. Plunkett organized the Mexico Recreation Corporation which is responsible for much of Mexico's park system, said today that Mr. Plunkett was one of the community's outstanding citizens.

"It brings to mind the story of the big tree in the forest. When it falls, it cannot be replaced. It just leaves a void for years and years," Col. Stribling said.

"He was one of the few who could get all of the citizens of this community to pull together in working toward the development of our park system," Col. Stribling added.

"He is a man all of us will miss," Don Decker, chairman of the Mexico Park Board said today. "Certainly his contributions to Mexico will live on for many, many years to come."

At the time of Mr. Plunkett's retirement from the Recreation Commission, Nell Nielsen, then city manager, said of him, "Mr. Plunkett is the man who had a dream and made it work."

An article in a 1957 edition of Reader's Digest focused attention on the Mexico park system. At the 1959 dedication of Park Pool in Plunkett, Park, the mayor, Clarence Torreyson proclaimed Mr. Plunkett as "Mr. Recreation" in Mexico.

Mr. Plunkett was honored at a dinner at the Country Club in December 1968 when he retired as chairman of the Mexico Recreation Commission and was presented an engraved plaque recognizing his 20 years of service on the commission. At that time, a souvenir booklet entitled "Twenty-One Years of Recreation at Mexico, Mo., 1947-68" was presented to the guests. The booklet had been dictated by Mr. Plunkett and traced the history of the commission from its start.

Mr. Plunkett retired from Commerce Bank's Board of directors last March after being a member for 40 years.

Obituary of Francis E. 'Gene' Troy, ID = 1382621

(Copied from The Advocate, Baton Rouge, LA, 24 Aug. 2009, online.)

Gene Troy

"A remarkable individual" dies at 93. He had stories that would make you cry, and stories that would double you up in laughter. Gene Troy had a temper as well as a great sense of humor. His greatest asset was how he could "read" a person in a split second. He had a brilliant mind, placing him in the forefront of his competition and contemporaries. Gene Troy loved and played golf, scored several 'holes in one,' piloted his Beechcraft Bonanza and accumulated more than 12,000 hours, and loved vintage sports cars. Born on June 22, 1916, in Maxwell Ind., Gene Troy had the motto to always "bite off more than you can chew, and that is the meaning of success." He did just that during the 93 years that touched many lives, corporations and communities around the planet. As a graduate of Indiana University Bloomington, Gene Troy was president of Kappa Sigma fraternity, was quite the ballroom dancer and later in life, survived several emergency landings in his Beechcraft Bonanza. Commissioned in 1942 by the U.S. Navy as an ensign, his assignment as the commander and captain of a "tuna clipper" took him to Australia to be the Naval supply ship to other U.S. Navy vessels. The pre-requisite training for such a journey lasted only nine months including the protection of New York Harbor. In 1942, he sailed to Australia where he spent two years protecting the Australian coast. It should be noted that to reach this far country from the U.S. mainland, his only aid for the sea journey were the stars. His crew built "pot shot" (better known today as 'Exmouth Gulf') in Western Australia, which provided port for other Naval vessels during the World War II battle in the Coral Sea. With an honorable discharge from the U.S. Navy in 1945, Gene Troy started his success in the business world with the Sheaffer Pen Co. as a junior salesman to eventual promotion as the vice president of marketing. From Sheaffer, the story unfolds into many business acclamations. As the executive vice president of U.S. General Time Corp., Gene Troy installed and created the "Big Ben" in New York's Grand Central Station. Recruited as the vice president of Brunswick Corp. and president of McGregor, Gene Troy in 1961 enlisted Jack Nicklaus to represent the company and endorse the McGregor name. Gene Troy had an eye for the best that one could be and gave Jack Nicklaus his first professional endorsement contract. Onto Monsanto Chemical Corp. where the legacy of a "door mat" turned to the first Astroturf synthetic sporting field in America. Working with more than 30 university coaches, the sales of Astroturf recreational surfaces expanded from the Superdome to worldwide sporting arenas and locations in Saudi Arabia, England, Scotland, Africa, Russia, Australia and anywhere "where the grass didn't grow!" Other executive assignments included positions with Gorham Silver and the Amana Corp. Retirement brought him to Boca Raton and Boynton Beach, Fla. His passion was golf. As past president of Pine Tree Golf Club in Boynton Beach, Gene Troy played with the best. Sammy Snead, Tony Penna, and other golfing celebrities were his golfing allies. Gene Troy passed at the Butterfly Wing of Hospice of Baton Rouge of kidney failure on Thursday, Aug. 20, 2009. His survivors include his wife, Betty Troy, of Baton Rouge; a daughter, Beverly Adams, of Denver; a son, Stephen Troy, of Huron, S.D.; and grandchildren, Luke, Jenny and Kelly Adams, all of Denver. He will be sadly missed. A memorial service will be held at a later date after arrangements are finalized with Arlington National Cemetery. Memorial donations may be made to Hospice of Baton Rouge, 9063 Siegen Lane, Baton Rouge, LA 70810.

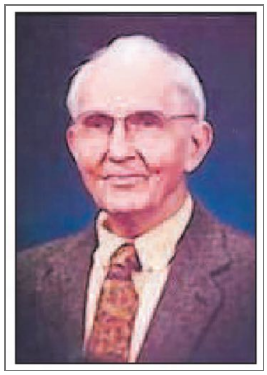
JACKSON
CONNELY MOODY



Oct. 20, 2015

Jackson Connely Moody, 90, died Tuesday, Oct. 20, 2015, at his home in Silver City, N.M.

There was a memorial service at 11 a.m. Oct. 24 at the Methodist church in Silver City.

Jackson was an ophthalmologist who had lived in Silver City for 40 years. Jackson defied his small town upbringing to lead an adventurous life living and practicing medicine around the world. He was born in 1925 in Harrisonville to a hardware store owner and a music teacher. He attended Westminster College, Fulton, graduating in only three years so that he could enter the Navy during World War II. Jackson served aboard a light cruiser, the USS Dayton, as a communications officer in both the Atlantic and Pacific before being demobilized after the end of the war.

One of Jackson's naval colleagues suggested they get a sailboat and spend a year sailing the Caribbean. Another suggested he join him in a fishing business in the Galapagos. He also considered becoming a jazz musician as a trombone player, but instead entered medical school supported by the G.I. Bill and graduated from Northwestern University, Chicago, in 1950. He spent an additional year of training at the Illinois Central Rail Road Hospital in Chicago, which had the added benefit of allowing him to ride the railroad free to New Orleans to visit jazz clubs. Jackson then moved to Kansas City, where he spent one year working as a physician at the Reming- ton Arms factory followed by one year of surgical training at Kansas City General Hospital.

During this time, he met… who was from Pleasant Hill, a small town near Jackson's hometown of Harrisonville. They married in 1953 and began their married life in Kansas City in a small apartment with a pull-down Murphy bed. At the end of his surgical training, Jackson returned to Harrisonville and started up a general practice of medicine, which he continued for the next eight years. During that time, Jackson and… had three children.

In 1961, Jackson decided he wanted to use his medical skills to help the poor in Third World countries and joined the Methodist Board of Missions. After six months of language training, he moved the family to Bidar, a town in southern India where he worked in a small hospital where many patients arrived by camel. Bidar was an adventurous place to live with only intermittent electricity and no running water or phones. It did have large troops of monkeys, a few cobras and the occasional small pox epidemic. Their fourth child was born during this time. While in India, Jackson became very interested in diseases of the eye. When they returned to Missouri, Jackson trained in ophthalmology, a skill much needed in rural Asia.

In 1969, the family, now with five children, returned overseas to Kathmandu, Nepal. They journeyed there on a freighter that took three months to reach Calcutta from the U.S. In Nepal, Jackson ran an eye clinic in Kathmandu and went on eye camps into the mountains where no eye surgeon had ever been, equipped with a mobile eye hospital carried on the backs of sherpas. He later moved to Kabul, Afghanistan, where he continued eye surgery and helped train local physicians. He lived there through turbulent political times, including a coup d'etat that deposed the king of Afghanistan. In 1975, Jackson retired from working with the Methodist board and returned to the United States to practice ophthalmology.

He settled in Silver City, which would be his home for the next 40 years, and joined Dr. Bob Sexton in the practice of ophthalmology. Silver City shared many characteristics with the towns where Jackson and… were raised. Jackson lived on the same block as the Methodist church, where he was a member and very active in church affairs. Jackson sang in the church choir for many years and also was active in local theater, performing in "Tartuffe" and playing Colonel Pickering in a production of "My Fair Lady."

In 1985, Jack moved to Weligama in southern Sri Lanka, his final foreign assignment. He lived there several years, where he started an eye hospital before returning to Silver City for the rest of his career. Later in life, Jack- son developed a great interest in nutrition, preventive health and hymn writing. Jack recently was honored in the Harrisonville High School Alumni Hall of Fame.

JOY NOYCE | She was a passionate walker and an amusing talker

A friend to all generations

By JULIE BARTOSZEK
The Kansas City Star

Name: Joy Noyce of Leawood

When and how she died: Jan. 9 of ovarian cancer

Age: 51

An avid walker: Whenever she could, Noyce walked seven miles a day, said… Daniels, her sister. She would walk alone or with a group of friends and was committed to good health and fitness.

“She was a health nut,” Daniels said. “Most of the time, you could guess she was out walking.”

Noyce had a vast circle of friends, Daniels said. She considered anyone she met to be her best friend. Besides being a very warm and loving person, Daniels said, Noyce was also a great storyteller who often made her version better and more entertaining than the actual story.

“She was so dramatic whenever she told a story, but it was all very loving and fun,” Daniels said. “She had a gift for making people laugh.”

Proud of her family: When Daniels’ sons at West Point were commissioned in the U.S. Army, Noyce flew to New York to be with them for their graduation. Although Noyce was undergoing chemotherapy at the time, she insisted on being there to support her family.

“She was always there for me” Daniels said. "We shared the tears of my sons going to West Point together.”

Noyce also considered the children of… Leek, her friend for 30 years, as her own. Leek said Noyce was always a presence in her girls’ lives and became her mentor for teaching them what it was to be a friend.

“She always told my girls that she would always be there for them,” Leek said. “The lessons she taught us were life lessons We all learned from Joy.”

Leek said Noyce’s friendship extended across generations, from Leek’s parents to the young children of her friends. She had the ability to make people from any generation feel wonderful, Leek said.

Survived by: Her husband a daughter and son, and her sister and brother-in-law.

The last word: “She gave you everything,” Leek said. “She didn’t hold anything back.”

One day in 1978 I was at Newberry Library in Chicago doing family research - read about a great-grandson of James Robertson Connely called Jim Bob Connely - this Jim was said to be living in Chicago in 1976. Later that day, when I opened the 1978 Chicago telephone directory, there were many pages of "two l" Connelly's but only a few "one l" Connely's, and one of those was a James R. Connely, so I called - it was Jim. I got to meet him and his family in person in 1984 when they paid me a visit at my home in Columbia, MD.)

Mrs. Lora Garner
Expired Saturday

WAS ONE OF THE WELL KNOWN WOMEN OF THE NORTH PART OF COUNTY

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Raccoon, this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, for Mrs. Lora Garner, wife of Walter Garner. She died at 7 o'clock Saturday evening at her home a half mile south of Raccoon, on state road 43, after an illness of 21 months, her death resulting from heart trouble.

Mrs. Garner was one of the well known women of the north part of this county.

Born in Putnam county, Feb. 3, 1868, Mrs. Garner was the daughter of Henry and Elizabeth McMahan Secrest. She was a member of the local Methodist church.

Surviving are the husband, Walter Garner; one son, Chester Garner of near Roachdale, one sister, Mrs. Blanche Runyon of California, and a granddaughter, Miss Janet Garner of Indianapolis.

The funeral services were conducted by The Rev. Russell Hester of Bellmore. Interment was in the Brick Chapel cemetery.

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Daily Banner, Greencastle, IN, Monday, 14 Nov. 1938, page 3.)

Lora Secrest Garner

Lora Secrest Garner was born near Putnamville, Indiana, Feb. 3, 1868. She was the oldest of three children born to Henry Secrest and his wife, Lizzie McAhan Secrest, pioneers of the Putnamville community. One sister, Mrs. Cass Hughes, died eleven years ago. The surviving sister, Mrs. Blanche Runyan, now resides in California.

Mrs. Garner grew to womanhood in the vicinity of her birth. Of a deeply religious nature she united with the Putnamville Methodist church at an early age, and thus began a life of Christian devotions and untiring service. During a long period of years she was especially active in Sunday School work, and it was here as a teacher that she influenced many lives to nobler and better living. Just how far-reaching and lasting this influence may have been, only Eternity can disclose.

September 9, 1884, she was united in marriage to Walter Garner. Theirs was a marriage of more than usual devotion, growing stronger and more tender as the years sped by. Of the three children born to them, two died in infancy. One son, Chester, together with his wife and daughter, Janet, and her husband, Walter Garner, are her immediate survivors.

Mr and Mrs. Garner celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1934, and were still given four more years of happy companionship together before she was called to her reward Nov. 5th, 1938.

A change of residence in the later years of Mrs. Garner's life brought about a transfer of church membership from the Putnamville Methodist church to the Methodist church at Raccoon, where she remained a member until her death.

Mrs. Garner's home was her kingdom, and only those to whom she gave unstintedly of her love and care can fully appreciate the loss her passing brings. To her husband and family her kindness and loyalty will always remain a priceless memory. "Servant of God, well done,
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the victory won,
And thou art crowned at last."

CHESTER GARNER OF NEAR

Wife and Daughter Also Survive;
Was Born Near Putnamville;
Lifelong Resident of County

Chester Garner, age 50 years, well known Fincastle farmer, died Monday morning at 9:45 o'clock at the Putnam county hospital, following a brief illness. He had been a patient at the hospital since Thursday.

Mr. Garner was born north of Putnamville December 9, 1888, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Garner. On November 11, 1916, he was united in marriage to June Scroggins. He had been a resident of the Fincastle community for many years.

Survivors are the widow, one daughter, Janet, at home, and his father, Walter Garner. His mother preceded him in death last November.

Funeral services will be announced later.

In Memory of
CHESTER O. GARNER

Chester O. Gamer, only child of Walter and Lora Secrist Garner, was born on a farm near Putnamville December 9, 1888. Here in a Christian home, under the guidance of devoted parents, he grew to manhood, being educated in the public schools of the Putnamville, and later the High School.

November 11, 1916, he was united in marriage to June Scroggin of Urbana, Illinois. They began their married life on a farm in the vicinity of his boyhood home, and later removed to a farm near Fincastle, near the home of his parents. One daughter, Janet, now of Indianapolis, was born to them - upon whom he centered his affections and whose welfare and happiness were ever his deepest concern.

During the long illness of his beloved mother he stood steadfast - lavishing upon her all the tender care that one of his nature could give, at the same time upholding and supporting his father in his declining years, at a time when the very foundations of that father's life seemed giving away. He became suddenly ill a few days before his passing on Monday morning, May 15th. Neither medical skill nor the devotion of those who loved him could avail to prolong a life so full of quiet, unselfish service to those who needed him most.

And so he slipped away, leaving his faithful companion, his daughter and his father, other relatives and many friends. Chester Garner will always be remembered as one who lived for those who loved him and whose passing is a distinct loss to his wide circle of friends.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, "Secrist" should be Secrest and "Scroggin" should be Scroggins.)

Chester O. Garner, only child of Walter and Lora Secrist Garner, was born on a farm near Putnamville December 9, 1888. Here in a Christian home, under the guidance of devoted parents, he grew to manhood, being educated in the public schools of Putnamville, and later the High School.

November 11, 1916, he was united in marriage to June Scroggin of Urbana, Illinois. They began their married life on a farm in the vicinity of his boyhood home, and later removed to a farm near Fincastle, near the home of his parents. One daughter, Janet, now of Indianapolis, was born to them—upon whom he centered his affections and whose welfare and happiness were ever his deepest concern.

During the long illness of his beloved mother he stood steadfast--lavishing upon her all the tender care that one of his nature could give, at the same time upholding and supporting his father in his declining years, at a time when the very foundations of that father's life seemed giving away. He became suddenly ill a few days before his passing on Monday morning, May 15th. Neither medical skill nor the devotion of those who loved him could avail to prolong a life so full of quiet, unselfish service to those who needed him most.

And so he slipped away, leaving his faithful companion, his daughter and his father, other relatives and many friends. Chester Garner will always be remembered as one who lived for those who loved him and whose passing is a distinct loss to his wide circle of friends.

JAMES F. SWIFT
(A Tribute)

James F. Swift was the fourth and youngest child of Flower and Mary Ann Evans Swift, early settlers of Putnam county. He was born in Warren township, March 25, 1863, and grew to manhood on his father's farm, receiving a practical education in the public schools. From boyhood he had a passion for the soil—a passion that possessed him throughout life and motivated many of its activities.

December 24, 1884, he was united in marriage to Amanda Catherine Howlett, daughter of John L. and Martha Howlett. Growing up as children in the same immediate neighborhood, the attachment formed in their early youth gradually and naturally developed and was strengthened as they passed into young manhood and womanhood. The consummation of their early affection into the marriage relation formed a tie that was stronger than death, for it survived and was held sacred until each had passed beyond the limits of time and separation.

James Swift was a man of sterling honesty and forcefulness of character. All his efforts in life were marked by persistence and loyalty to what he believed to be his duty. Working in harmony and complete sympathy with the wife of his youth, they together laid the foundations of an enduring home life and a substantial fortune. February 24, 1925, Mrs. Swift passed on, leaving to her husband a priceless memory — a memory that he cherished and revered to the last conscious moment of his life.

He was a man of unbounded sympathy and generosity. It would be unseemly, knowing him as his closest friends have known him, to recount the kind and charitable deeds by which his daily life was characterized. His passing has left sadness in many hearts, and could all those whom he has befriended now speak, a host would rise up and call him blessed.

While still a young man he joined the Methodist church and became a member of the Old Bethel congregation. This church where he attended in the earlier years of his life is now, like many of its former worshippers, only a memory.

Mr. Swift spent practically all his life as a farmer, first as a resident on his farm in Warren township and later at his suburban home near Greencastle. His inherent love for the things of nature and his deep appreciation for God's great out-of-doors was a part of life itself to him.

In the providence of God he was permitted to carry on his active interests down until the close of his life. After a brief illness he passed away in the early morning of Tuesday, November 17th, leaving a stricken household — a household that "Longs for the touch of a vanished hand, and the sound of a voice that is still. He leaves, in his immediate family, one daughter, Edith, (a son having died in infancy) one sister, Mrs. Thomas Howlett of Brick Chapel, a number of other relatives and a large circle of friends.

After more than seventy-three years of useful life, his generous hand is stayed, and his tender heart no longer beats in sympathy for the needs of those about him. But the memory of his kindly deeds and the inspiration of his integrity will not be soon forgotten.

A Friend.

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in the Terre Haute Tribune, Terre Haute, IN, Monday, 18 August 1919, page 2.)

Mrs. Mary F. Clearwater.

Mrs. Mary F. Clearwater, 52 years old, died at her home 12 miles south of Terre Haute on the Sullivan road. She is survived by her husband, Frank, and one son, Byron; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Bolton of Putnamville, Mrs. Cora Soper of Greencastle, and Mrs. Martha Broadhurst of West Union, Ill., and one brother, Frank. The funeral was held at the home at 11 o'clock this morning. Burial was made at the Bethesda cemetery, four miles west of Terre Haute on the Paris road.

(Note by RRC: I believe this obituary is for Mary, a daughter of Therianthan & Amanda (Connely) Clearwater, and wife of William Franklin 'Frank' Clearwater. The husband called Frank, son called Byron, sister called Martha Broadhurst, and brother called Frank in the obit support my belief. Mary Frances Cooper, my major source of information on his branch of the family, said Mary, daughter of Theory & Amanda (Connely) Clearwater, "had a son, Byron"; she did not give Byron's surname (I think Clearwater was supposed to be inferred). From Mary Frances Cooper and other sources I know that Therianthan & Amanda (Connely) Clearwater also had a son named Frank and a daughter named Martha (Clearwater) Broadhurst who lived for a while in West Union, IL. But I was surprised that Laura (Clearwater) Cusick, another daughter of Therianthan & Amanda (Connely) Clearwater, was not mentioned in this obituary. I suspect that the Mary Bolton & Cora Soper - called sisters in the obit - were actually sisters-in-law.)

Obituary of Nancy (Cusick) Cowan, ID = 1386511

(Partially copied from an obit found online at the website of the Hartley Funeral Home, Cicero, IN.)

Nancy Cowan

February 17, 1937 ~ May 2, 2022 (age 85)

Nancy Cowan, age 85, of Cicero, Indiana passed away peacefully on May 2, 2022 with her family at her side.

She was born February 17, 1937 at Indianapolis, Indiana to Donald and Mary (Fisher) Cusick. At four years of age Nancy and her parents moved to Cicero, Indiana where she resided the rest of her life. Nancy's father was a funeral director and her parents had purchased the funeral home in Cicero. The family lived above the funeral home as many funeral home owners did at that time. That introduced Nancy to a new way of life as it was necessary to be very quiet at times and in that era many funerals lasted two or three days.

She attended Cicero Elementary School, then Jackson Central High School and graduated with the Class of 1955. Nancy then attended Indiana Business College. Her first job was with Herff Jones Company in Indianapolis.

Nancy was always a smiling, fun loving person. She loved to play jokes on someone and also loved to be the recipient of a good joke. Her bubbly personality resulted in her having many friends and one friend even wrote a booklet about their escapades. During her high school years everyone knew Nancy and of Nancy--all good!!!

She was an active member of Cicero Christian Church and the Red Hat Society. She liked to read, travel, garden, have dinner with her lady friends, and spend time with her family. And her uplifting personality endured until the end of her life.

She married J.R. Cowan on February 22, 1957 and began her new role as wife and later as mother. Being an industrious couple she and her husband became owners and operators of Cowan & Cusick Hardware, Cowan Hallmark Store, and the Cowan Insurance Agency, all located in Cicero, IN.

Surviving her are two sons: … of Noblesville, IN and … of Cicero, IN, grandchildren: … eight great-grandchildren, and a nephew, …

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, a daughter, Lori Cowan and a son, D.J. Cowan.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, May 7, 2022 at 11:30 A.M. at Hartley Funeral Home Cicero Chapel, 209 West Jackson Street, Cicero, IN 46034, with John Knapp officiating. A time of visitation will be from 10:00 A.M. until time of the services. Burial will follow the services at Cicero Cemetery. Obituary of Frances Evelyn (Connely) Cooper, ID = 1389

OBITUARY.

Frances E. Connely, daughter of Gilmore and Jane Connely, was born Jan. 21, 1838, and died June 26, 1907, aged sixty-nine years, five months and five days.

She was the youngest of a family of ten children, all the others having preceded her to the spirit land, except her eldest sister, Mrs. Margaret Garner, who alone of all that family is left to mourn the loss.

She was married Dec. 22, 1864 to Archibald Cooper. Soon after their marriage they began houekeeping near Clay City, Ind, and lived there three years after which they came to live at the Connely homested one mile east of Putnamville, on the National road, this place having been her home from her birth until her death with the exception of the three years mentioned.

To this union were born four children, James Walter, Marion Edgar, Amanda Maud and William Albert. She leaves six grandchildren, Mrs. Roscoe Wells, Mrs. Richard Alexander, George Hurst, and Marion, Mary Frances and Ruth Cooper.

She was converted and united with Bethel M. E. church under the ministry of the Rev. James Williams, and from 1858 on until the end lived an honest, conscientious Christian life. The love and esteem in which she was held by her neighbors and friends speaking far more for her christian character than words could tell.

Death eparated her husband from her Feb. 11, 1904, she wh ophysically had always been a frail little woman was truly like the clinging vine torn from the strong tree. But with the strong endurance and will she had always shown she battled on desiring to live for the sake of her children. But when we look on the peaceful, restful face we think that truly now these two devoted spirits are reunited in the Beautiful Beyond. Her life has left an abiding faith in the hearts of all who knew her thta he is with him upon whose holy name she was ever wont to call. And so those who knew and loved her weep not as those who have no hope but rather press with renewed zeal toward a goal which is still dearer now because of the one who awaits them. Interment at Forest Hill, June 29, 1907.

(Note by RRC: Several typos - "houekeeping" should be housekeeping; "eparated" should be separated; "wh ophysically" should be who physically; "thta" should be that. Based on other sources, Frances was the next-to-youngest of ten sibs and was married in 1863.)

Obituary & card of thanks for James F. Swift, ID = 15121

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Daily Banner, Greencastle, IN, Saturday, 21 Nov. 1936,)

JAMES F. SWIFT

James F. Swift was the fourth and youngest child of Flower and Mary Ann Evans Swift, early settlers of Putnam county. He was born in Warren township, March 25, 1863, and grew to manhood on his father's farm, receiving a practical education in the public schools. From boyhood he had a passion for the soil—a passion that possessed him throughout life and motivated many of its activities.

December 24, 1884, he was united in marriage to Amanda Catherine Howlett, daughter of John L. and Martha Howlett. Growing up as children in the same immediate neighborhood, the attachment formed in their early youth gradually and naturally developed and was strengthened as they passed into young manhood and womanhood. The consummation of their early affection into the marriage relation formed a tie that was stronger than death, for it survived and was held sacred until each had passed beyond the limits of time and separation.

James Swift was a man of sterling honesty and forcefulness of character. All his efforts in life were marked by persistence and loyalty to what he believed to be his duty. Working in harmony and complete sympathy with the wife of his youth, they together laid the foundations of an enduring home life and a substantial fortune. February 24, 1925, Mrs. Swift passed on, leaving to her husband a priceless memory—a memory that he cherished and revered to the last conscious moment of his life.

He was a man of unbounded sympathy and generosity. It would be unseemly, knowing him as his closest friends have known him. to recount the kind and charitable deeds by which his daily life was characterized. His passing has left sadness in many hearts, and could all those whom he has befriended now speak, a host would rise up and call him blessed.

While still a young man he joined the Methodist church and became a member of the Old Bethel congregation. This church where he attended in the earlier years of his life is now, like many of its former worshippers, only a memory.

Mr. Swift spent practically all his life as a farmer, first as a resident on his farm in Warren township and later at his suburban home near Greencastle. His inherent love for the things of nature and his deep appreciation for God's great out-of-doors was a part of life itself to him.

In the providence of God he was permitted to carry on his active interests down until the close of his life. After a brief illness he passed away in the early morning of Tuesday, November 17th, leaving a stricken household—a household that "Longs for the touch of a vanished hand, and the sound of a voice that is still. He leaves, in his immediate family, one daughter, Edith, (a son having died in infancy) one sister, Mrs. Thomas Howlett of Brick Chapel, a number of other relatives and a large circle of friends.

After more than seventy-three years of useful life, his generous hand is stayed, and his tender heart no longer beats in sympathy for the needs of those about him. But the memory of his kindly deeds and the inspiration of his integrity will not be soon forgotten.

A Friend.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincerest thanks to our friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our father and brother. Also the singers, Rev. Raphael for his kindness and others who were a great help to us.

Edith Swift,
Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Howlett,
Mrs. Clara McKee.

Dorothy Tyler

Dorothy Jane Tyler, 97, passed peacefully into the loving arms of Jesus Wednesday, Nov. 2, 2016 in Port Orange, Florida with her daughter by her side.

Born Dorothy Jane Haines in East St. Louis, Ill., Dot was the daughter of the late William and Margaret "Daisy" Haines. She graduated from East St. Louis Senior High School and during her teen years she met the love of her life, J. Scott Tyler, on a beautiful day while riding horses in Jones Park. They had a wonderful courtship, enjoying the dances at Western Military Academy in Alton where Scott attended school. World War II briefly separated them, but when Scott returned, they married in 1946 at Lansdowne Baptist Church in East St. Louis. Both she and Scott were active members in their church and community. Dorothy worked as a legal secretary in St. Louis for the law firm of Huesch, Eppenberger, Donahue, Elson and Jones during the late 1950's and early 1960's. She was a talented piano player, had a pretty singing voice and was an artist, designing and creating seasonal Styrofoam accessories and pine cone Christmas trees for florists in Illinois and Florida. She was an exceptional seamstress who enjoyed making clothes for her young daughter... and continued making her beautiful formals for football dances and Proms at East Side. In 1969, she and her family moved to Miami, Florida and resided there until 1992. Hurricane Andrew hit that year and destroyed much of her house and she, being widowed 5 months earlier, briefly moved back to Illinois. She returned to Florida in 2006.

Dot was a loving and devoted wife, a nurturing and caring mother, a beloved aunt and was loved by so many.

She is survived by her daughter... and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her loving husband Scott; her son-in-law William F. Lee III; her brothers Richard "Dick", Paul "Bud", Bert, and Bobby Haines; her sisters Margaret Gohn Soehnlin, Fonnie Jane Farrar and her loving Aunt Leila "Auntie" Haines Stief who raised her and Margaret after her mother Daisy passed away due to complications of childbirth.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 28.—William F. Bagnell, secretary of the Bagnell Automobile Co. of St. Louis, died at 9:30 a. m. today from injuries he received when the automobile he was driving from Denver to this city turned over two miles north of here at 1 a. m. George H. Boeck, a realty man of St. Louis, was in the car with Bagnell, and was badly hurt.

Bagnell was pinned under the car. His shoulder was broken and he received severe scalp wounds and internal injuries.

Boeck's injuries are not believed to be dangerous. The men were unable to tell how the accident occurred.

They left Denver at 9 o'clock last night in their machine to join Mrs. Boeck, who was at the Antlers Hotel in Colorado Springs.

Boeck Has Severe Bruises.

A second examination of Boeck, made at the Blockner Sanitarium at noon today, showed the man was more seriously injured than seemed at first, but it is believed he will recover. He is bruised severely. He lapses into periods of unconsciousness, but has been able to give some of the details of the accident.

Bagnell and Boeck were discovered an hour or more after the accident by joy riders returning from the Springs. The joy riders told the police, who sent a rescue car and had Bagnell and Boeck taken to the hospital. Boeck also was caught under the machine and was only partly conscious when rescued. Mrs. Boeck hurried from the Antlers to the hospital and aided in caring for Bagnell as well as for her husband.

Boeck said that because of defective headlights Bagnell was unable clearly to see the unfamiliar roadway. They were going rapidly when they encountered a curve.

Bagnell threw the steering wheel suddenly to keep from plunging over a 20-foot embankment into a creek, and had almost got the car in the middle of the road when the earth on the creek side sank under the rear wheels, allowing the machine to fall into the creek, turning over as it went.

Bagnell never spoke after the car fell into the creek. When he realized the machine was turning over, he said, "Jump, Boeck, or you will be killed."

In early reports of the accident Bagnell's name was given as "E. C. Smith."

Bagnell Secretary of Auto Firm; Boeck Son of Millionaire.

Bagnell was secretary of the Bagnell Automobile Co. and lived at the Blue Grass Hotel, 400 Olive street. He was 30 years old and unmarried. He has three relatives in St. Louis, Miss Jane Bagnell of 3500 North Broadway, an aunt; William Bagnell, a brother, and Mrs. Byron F. Babbitt, a sister. Two brothers reside in Marshall, Mo.

Boeck is a son of Adam Boeck, millionaire president of the Adam Boeck Realty Co., and is about 30 years old. Adam Boeck spends most of his time in California, leaving the real estate business, which is one of the oldest in St. Louis, in charge of his son.

It was stated at the Bagnell company's office that the body will be brought to Missouri for burial, though the funeral plans will not be known until a conference of the relatives is held.

Bagnell's name was mentioned in October, 1911, in a divorce suit filed in Clayton by Mrs. Clara Pingree of Ferguson against Frank H. Pingree. The husband, in a cross-bill, charged his wife accompanied men on automobile rides.

Bagnell gave a deposition in the case, which he refused to sign, telling of taking Mrs. Pingree automobile riding. Pingree obtained a divorce on his cross-bill. Mrs. Pingree died in February, 1912.

Boeck is married, and resides at 4553 Parkview place. Mrs. Boeck accompanied him on his vacation trip to Colorado.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, William was 28 years old at his death, not 30.)

Obituary of Lynn DeWitt Sifford, Jr., ID = 1524551

Lynn DeWitt Sifford, Jr., died in his sleep from natural causes at the age of 80. He was born the son of Lynn DeWitt, Sr., and Anna Roy Sifford in Anna, IL. Lynn, Jr., received his early education in Anna and graduated from Anna-Jonesboro Community High School in 1937 at the age of 16. He was too young to enter the Academy after high school graduation, so he spent a year at the Georgia Military Academy in Atlanta to prepare for West Point.

Lynn received his appointment from the 25th Congressional District of Illinois and quickly plunged into the intricacies of cadet life. His avowed goal was to become an Air Force pilot, so he concentrated on learning everything necessary to do so. He spent most of his free time during Yearling year building a huge radio-controlled model airplane, a relatively new concept on the cutting edge of technology at the time. Lynn proudly launched his aircraft from the Plain on its maiden flight; it flew beautifully and so well that it soared high enough to be caught by a mini jet stream and barreled down the Hudson Valley. The radio controls were unable to execute a turn, and the plane continued its voyage south and disappeared. He also turned his attention towards maintenance and things mechanical and was endowed with immense natural intelligence and mechanical skills. Those who knew him considered his mechanical abilities ranking in the genius range.

As a quiet, religious man, Lynn devoted his time to teaching Sunday school at the Cadet Chapel. He did not neglect the skills he needed for soldiering, and he managed the Pistol Squad during his firstie year and excelled in the courses on automotive maintenance. His love of automobiles and his obvious automotive skills assured him a place on the Cadet Automobile Committee, but the Class of ’42 was denied the option of purchasing a car when the production of passenger cars ceased for the duration of WWII. His broad interests always were accompanied by an infectious sense of humor, an irrepressible smile, a joyous sense of fun, a love of music, and a keen eye for feminine beauty.

Lynn quickly received his wings after graduation in May 1942 and flew P-47s and P-51s as well as other types of aircraft during WWII, the Korean War, and Viet Nam. When the U.S. Army Air Corps became an independent service in 1947, he happily became a member of the Air Force. His natural bent and genius for things mechanical quickly led him into maintenance and associated fields. He digressed during 1952-55 to serve as an attache in Brazil and learned Portuguese. He progressed rapidly through the ranks and was promoted to colonel in June 1960. In that rank, he served in the Directorate of Materiel Management, Headquarters, San Bernardino Air Materiel Area at Norton Air Force Base, CA. He was direcdy responsible for welding together the tremendous international team that made the Thor Weapon System an unequalled success and an important deterrent during the Cold War.

During that period, the crown jewel of his career, he consistently demonstrated outstanding qualities of initiative, leadership, and managerial ability in executing his varied logistical duties. For that outstanding service, he was awarded the Legion of Merit.

Lynn faced retirement with the same smile and sense of humor that had served him so well while on active duty. He was a member of the Retired Officers Association, the Daedalians, the Quiet Birdman, and the Air Force Association. He maintained his interest in music and also participated in civic affairs. He quickly turned to his twin loves: flying and automobiles. He owned several garages where he stored more than 20 automobiles that he had repaired and traded. He also sold, repaired, and traded cars for others. In time, he became one of the oldest graduates in the Dayton area.

Three sons and two daughters survive Lynn. His surviving sons are Lynn D. of Mesquite, TX; John Thomas, a retired Army warrant officer, of Plainfield, IN; and Kenneth Howard of Energy, IL. His surviving daughters are Nancy Ann Spolrich of Kettering, OH, and Susan Betina Smith of Laurinburg, NC. A sister, Dr. Nancy Sifford McGarry of St. Pete Beach, FL; two nephews: Dr. Michael McGarry and Christopher McGarry; and niece Nancy McGarry Leach, also survive him. Lynn was a loving grandfather of nine and great-grandfather of five.

Lynn was preceded in death by his revered parents and his beloved wife Anne Farmer Sifford in 1972. He was buried with full military honors in Arlington National Cemetery. In each hand he holds a wrench so that when he enters the pearly gates he will be able to fix all those small vexing problems his friends and family used to save up for one of his visits. The visits always were full of laughter and camaraderie.

He was a father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, roommate, and friend, and we will all miss him. We are reminded of a slightly altered verse of the Alma Mater, "Now that his work is done, his course on earth is run, we all say, ‘Well done. Be thou at peace.’ "

Obituary of John Maria "Johnnie' Fellet, ID = 1525446

Johnnie M. Fellet passed away on December 17, 2007 at home. He was born and raised on a ranch in Yuma, Arizona on October 25, 1915, as the eldest of five children born to Giovanni Maria and Angela Rosa Fellet of Italy. He is survived by his loving and adorable wife... his two daughters... and his son... He was blessed with grandchildren... as well as two great grandchildren... Johnnie's sister... lives in California, but his other sister Theresa and his two brothers Angelo and Louis, as well as a granddaughter Mary Kate (Hanlon) precede him in death. He was proud of the time he spent in the Air Force between 1938 and 1944 which led to many stories to share with family and friends. His post-war professions were varied, but revolved around the electrical circuit. Inventions were a way of life with him... just present the man with a need, he would give it some thought, go out to his workshop, and create something to fill the need or the problem. Johnnie never knew a stranger. His good humor and love of talking endeared him to all he met. He was called on widely throughout his neighborhood and valley-wide for his "Mr. Fix-it" skills; he was always generous with his time and talents, and simply happy to help out. The visitation will be held Wednesday, December 26, 2007 at Whitney & Murphy Funeral Home, 4800 E. Indian School Road, Phoenix, Arizona, from 5:00-8:00 p.m. with the Rosary service at 7:00 p.m. The Funeral Mass will be celebrated Thursday, December 27, 2007, at 10:00 a.m. at St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church, 2312 E. "Bess" was born in the family home in Johnston City on Halloween Day, Oct. 31, 1923, to John Everett Oliver and Estella Grace Mathis-Oliver, who later ran Oliver's Bus Stop.

Bess married Edwin Lawrence Greer July 3, 1943, on the Birmingham, Alabama USAAF Air Force Base before Ed was sent to Italy during World War II. After Ed passed Nov. 18, 1981, she later married Dr. Noel Grimm, psychologist at Marion VA Hospital, where they both worked. Noel Grimm passed away Oct. 23, 2013, at age 94 and is buried near his birthplace in Youngstown, Ohio.

Bess was a dynamic twentieth century woman, remembered for her bright smile, platinum blond hair and stylish class. She was a war bride who worked out of the home her entire adult life until she retired from the VA in 1987 while amassing a civil service career totaling 38 years. Starting as secretary for the U.S. Army Quarter Master Corps in St. Louis, Bess then became secretary, dental technician, psychological technician and library specialist, all at the VA Hospital in Marion.

She was an active member of the First Baptist Church of Lady Lake, Florida, where she was a soloist and choir member. She was also known for being a charming, energetic and organized hostess for JCTHS Class of 1942 reunions every five years, spanning six decades. Ed Greer dies;
His photos
told our story

Bv Ben Gelman
Of The Southern Illinoisan

Ed Greer, senior photographer of The Southern Illinoisan, had reluctantly made the decision to retire because of failing health, and his retirement party was to be held this Friday.

The party has been called off.

Ed died al 2:50 a.m. today in Marion Veterans Hospital at the age of 62, after suffering the last of a series of heart attacks that had plagued him the past several years

Ed was a photographer for The Southern Illinoisan for more than 25 years and there was hardly an area news event or a feature story he did not cover during that time.

Dedicated, intense and keeping first things first - getting the photo and getting it back to the office by deadline - Ed climbed water towers, tramped through backwoods and waded through swamps, but always came back with a dramatic picture of whatever was news on a particular day.

His pictures won top prizes - in contests conducted by the Associated Press and Inland Press Association, for instance - but more importantly, his pictures told the story of what was happening over the years in Southern Illinois

Whether it was a Presidential candidate making a campaign speech, a train crash, a ballplayer in a memorable situation, or a scenic view of his native Southern Illinois, Ed had his camera ready, and brought back the image that fixed the occasion in our memory.

Off duty, Ed was a fun guy, but on the job, he was all business.

He started working for The Southern Illinoisan in January 1956, and for a time he was the entire photo staff. I joined him as a photographer for the newspaper near the end of that year and so had many an opportunity to see him on the job. He was as careful in the darkroom as he was on location, turning out prints that would make the best newspaper reproductions.

Many of his old friends in and out of the newspaper business had already sent in notes and letters for Ed's retirement party, recounting special moments they remembered their association with him over the years.

I was going to read excerpts from some of those letters to Ed.

Editor Pete Selkowe captured the spirit of Ed's photography:
"When you talk about pictures that worked, or how you talked your way past a subject's initial reserve, your grin widens, your voice takes on a little higher pitch. When you talk about your best pictures, you invariably talk about the people - what they had to say, how you and they hit if off."

Publisher John Gardner: "You... came back with what we needed as well as what we thought we wanted "

My own experience with Ed Greer goes back to 1943, when we both happened to be stationed in the little town of San Severo, Italy, where he was with a photo reconnaissance squadron and I was a photo interpreter during World War II.

When I first walked into The Southern lllinoisan office in November 1956, it was he who recognized me.

We worked together for several years, using the old cumbersome 4-by-5 Speed Graphic cameras. Ed then became a pioneer in working with smaller format cameras for news work, first with 2 1/4-by-2 1/4 reflex and later with 35mm outfits. The smaller cameras made it possible to get better, more candid pictures and they are now standard equipment in newspaper work.

As as been pointed out, Ed often brought back not only the photo that was assigned, but a much better one that he had conceived on the scene of the news event he was covering. He defended his choices and fought to have photographs published big enough to have the impact they deserved.

His friends and all the many people with whom he came in contact over the years will miss him as a photographer, as a representative of The Southern lllinoisan and as a man.

Edwin Lawrence Greer was born May 4, 1919, in Karnak, to Lawrence Blaine Greer and Ruby Alora Stubblefield Greer.

He was a graduate of Johnston City High School (his family had moved to Johnston City when he was a year old). He served four years in the Army Air Corps during World War II as a photographer (he enlisted Dec. 4, 1941, three days before the attack on Pearl Harbor) and attained the rank of staff sergeant.

He married Bessie B. Oliver of Johnston City on July 3, 1943, in Birmingham, Ala.

Survivors include his wife: two sons, Edwin Blaine Greer of Harrisburg and Barry Lynn Greer of Fort Myers, Fla.; two grandchildren; and a sister, Olivena Miner of Johnston City. One granddaughter preceded him in death.

Ed Greer dies; His photos told our story

By Ben Gelman
Of The Southern Illinoisan

Ed Greer, senior photographer of The Southern Illinoisan, had reluctantly made the decision to retire because of failing health, and his retirement party was to be held this Friday.

The party has been called off.

Ed died at 2:50 a.m. today in Marion Veterans Hospital at the age of 62, after suffering the last of a series of heart attacks that had plagued him the past several years.

Ed was a photographer for The Southern Illinoisan for more than 25 years and there was hardly an area news event or a feature story he did not cover during that time.

Dedicated, intense and keeping first things first — getting the photo and getting it back to the office by deadline — Ed climbed water towers, tramped through backwoods and waded through swamps, but always came back with a dramatic picture of whatever was news on a particular day.

His pictures won top prizes — in contests conducted by the Associated Press and Inland Press Association, for instance — but more importantly, his pictures told the story of what was happening over the years in Southern Illinois.

Whether it was a Presidential candidate making a campaign speech, a train crash, a ballplayer in a memorable situation, or a scenic view of his native Southern Illinois, Ed had his camera ready, and brought back the image that fixed the occasion in our memory.

Off duty, Ed was a fun guy, but on the job, he was all business.

He started working for The Southern Illinoisan in January 1956, and for a time he was the entire photo staff. I joined him as a photographer for the newspaper near the end of that year and so had many an opportunity to see him on the job. Steers, William D.

As word began to trickle out on Friday, April 10, 2015, about the loss of Dr. William D. Steers, the urologic community was devastated to have lost one of their own. Dr. Steers, born August 19, 1955, was a Paul Mellon professor and Chair of the Department of Urology at the School of Medicine of the University of Virginia, editor of the Journal of Urology, member of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration's Reproductive Medicine Advisory Panel, President of the American Board of Urology from 2010-2011, initiator of the Charlottesville Men's Four Miler, actively laying the foundation for the Virginia Institute for Men's Health Improvement and Performance, and, as he was quick to point out, the left pair of legs on the wine label from his very own Well Hung Vineyard. With the work stuff out of the way, Bill would want you to know what was most important to him the accomplishments that you don't find on Wikipedia.

He was a loving husband of thirty-four years, an amazing father to two sons of whom he was more proud than any of the national awards he received, a grandfather for fourteen months, a viticulturist and oenophile with a photographic memory for wine, a lover of the outdoors, and the life of a party. On any given Saturday, if he wasn't traveling, you'd find him jogging down Morgantown Road, driving the tractor, streaming his favorite music on Spotify while editing Journal of Urology articles, making a cheese plate to take down to his beloved "party porch" in the woods, and starting the prep for a five course meal; all before noon. William was as active as his mind and lived more in an hour than most people live in a lifetime. While he was passionate about saving lives at work, he derived equal pleasure from sharing a good bottle of wine with friends and family. William is survived by his wife... sons... daughter-in-law... and grandson...

His passion, honesty, dedication, friendship, and humor will be dearly missed. Dad, urine our hearts forever.

A casual and colorful (no black, please) celebration of his life will be held Saturday, April 18, 2015, from 2 until 5 p.m. at the Steers residence and home of Well Hung Vineyard, 5274 Ivy Road, Charlottesville, VA 22903.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the Men's Health Initiative, HSDO P.O. Box 800773, Charlottesville, VA 22908-0773 In Memory Of Bill Steers.

OBITUARY
Mabel Steers is the eldest child of S. A. and Mary Steers. She was born in this house Nov. 17th, 1897.
Mabel has had the unusual experience of enjoying the innocence, simplicity and sweetness of childhood all her life. Her life in the home and community has been like a lovely, sweet-scented rose that would live for decades and that would not perish in a week. Why God has arranged it so Mabel should have such unique experience is beyond our comprehension and it reminds us of the language of the inspired Apostle Paul when to the church he said, Rom. 11:33, "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of his judgments and his ways past finding out."
Mabel was permitted to escape the common trials and perplexities of mortals and to enjoy the loving sympathy and care of home and community for more than 22 years. She lived in the sweet state of childhood long enough to win many more friends than the ordinary child. She never had an enemy in the world.
We believe, but for the imperfections of our earthly house, her spirit would have manifested all the intelligence of ordinary human beings. We believe her responsibility to the home, society and God was like that of an innocent child. God has never required impossibilities of his creatures. We believe the language of our Lord, when he said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of heaven" is applicable to all such.
The illness that terminated in her death lasted some weeks.
Mabel leaves her faithful parents and one sister, Helen, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her departure from them here, but to be consoled by the glorious precious promise of Christ of eternal life in heaven. Mabel lived in this world 22 years, 4 months and 14 days, and died March 31, 1920. We believe she is now at home with the Lord.
A large assembly of friends attended the funeral services, conducted by Rev. C. W. Freeman, ably assisted by Bro. Joel Burgess, on April 3rd, at 1 p.m. at the family residence.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, she died on 1 April, not 31 March.)

MRS. THOMAS STEERS PASSED AWAY MONDAY MORNING

Mrs. Maud Steers, age about 60 years, wife of Thomas Steers, passed away at her home in Mound City at 3 o'clock Monday morning following an illness of long duration.

Mrs. Steers was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ulen, who were pioneer residents of this city. Her father was formerly a member of the school board in this city and Mrs. Steers spent many years as teacher in the Mound City schools. She was a member of the Pilgrim Congregational Church of this city, but for many years she had been unable to attend any church, her health being so bad.

In 1905 she was united in marriage to Thomas Steers and to this union three sons were born, all of whom survive their mother. The sons are Roger of Cincinnati, Stanley of the University of Illinois, Urbana, and Sam of Mound City. The husband also survives her. Other relatives are two brothers, Jerome Ulen of Hot Springs, Alaska; George Ulen of Los Angeles, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Belle Morgan of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Grace Jenkins of Beaumont, Tex., besides several other relatives.

Mrs. Steers was a woman of unusual mental attainments. She was very well read and very capable. Only those close to her knew of her fine courage and spirit and of her devotions to her family. She was one of those fine women who walk humbly through this world, attract little attention, receive faint praise, but who, after all, make of life, hard as it is, a success.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the residence at 2 o'clock, Rev. Everett Hayden, pastor of the M. E. Church, officiating. The choir, which was composed of members of the Congregational and Methodist choirs, very sweetly sang two beautiful hymns, "Some Day We'll Understand" and "Jesus Savior Pilot Me." Immediately following the services at the residence, the cortege moved by automobiles to Beech Grove Cemetery, where interment was made. Ellenwood and Commings had charge of the funeral.

Casket bearers were George R. Martin, M. L. Capoot, R. M. Hurst, Sr., John Trampert, J. B. Blankinship and George Gunn.

J. W. BARTLESON DEAD

James W. Bartleson died at his home in Grand Chain, Ill., April 10, 1920, after an illness of ten days. In vigor and strength in the very prime of life he was stricken with pneumonia on April 2nd, and from that time until the Angel of Death appeared, the anxiety of the entire community was centered on the home where love, devotion and the skill of medical aid was doing all that could be done, but nothing availed, for his work on earth was completed, and we know beyond doubt he received the Savior's approved 'well done.'

Mr. Bartleson has lived his entire life, except for a brief period in this community, and has won and held the respect and esteem of everyone and will be missed by all. A man of rare character, broad in his views, kind and courteous to all alike, upright in all dealing, a true and noble Christian in every sense of the word his life was worthy of imitation.

Mr. Bartleson was one of the most prosperous farmers in this section, turning his attention in later years to stock raising, keeping only the best of thoroughbreds.

James W. Bartleson was a son of the late Capt. James Bartleson, well-known veteran of the Civil War, and minister of the gospel. He was born near Grand Chain on April 16, 1863. On Dec. 9, 1885, he was united in marriage to Miss Laura Lipe, three children were born to them the two surviving with him to the last. On April 9th, 1885, together with his wife, be became a member of the Church of Christ of Grand Chain, of which he was a faithful member and officer, seldom missing service.

Funeral services were held in the church he so often entered to worship, and on similar occasion to pay the last respect to friends and loved ones. Rev. C. W. Freeman conducted the beautiful services, the sermon impressing the importance and reward of the preparation on earth for the life eternal, that carried a message to all. The music was especially touching and well rendered by mixed quartette and duet singers. The floral offerings were many and most beautiful. The funeral was one of the largest ever witnessed in the community and despite the inclemency of the weather the church was filled to its utmost capacity. Under the direction of Mr. Lucas Parker the body was interred in the Masonic Cemetery near the waters where thirty-four years ago his body was buried in baptism.

The immediate family to mourn his loss are his devoted wife, one son, Guy C., one daughter,. Mrs. Nina Bartleson Lyerle, of Joplin, Mo., two sisters, Mrs. Elsie Davidson, of Grand Chain, Mrs. Ida Heathcock, of San Francisco, Cal., one brother, Mr. G. C. Bartleson, of Grand Chain.

Mr. Bartleson will be missed by all and the sincere sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family and we commend them to the care of our Heavenly Father, in whose power alone it lies to give and to take away and who in His own good time will reveal to all, why his will not ours must be done.

Obituary of Mary Ellen (Knapp) Mathieu Fisher, ID =1528472

(Partially copied from the website of the Skaja Terrace Funeral Home, Niles, IL.)

Mary Ellen Fisher
November 16, 2014

"What I Did for Love," (A Chorus Line) was not only one of Mary Ellen Fisher's favorite songs to sing, it was a theme of her life. Mary Ellen made a peaceful transition after many people she loved visited her in the nursing home. After 85 years, less than a year after her colon cancer diagnosis, she left this world a better place.

Mary Ellen is survived by her children… sister… grandson… and great-grandchildren… She was preceded in death by her beloved husband Arthur Fisher, of Park Ridge, IL; and by the father of her children, Joseph E. Mathieu III, of Springfield, OR.

Mary Ellen was born in Chicago to Ferdinand and Rosemary Knapp. She took music courses at Wright College and liberal arts coursework at De Paul University before marrying Joe in 1949. In 1962, she began working in an office, a rare occurrence for wives with children in the early '60s, while at the same time rekindling her love of theatre, which had started in 1932 when she danced in Hansel and Gretel at the Chicago World's Fair. Immediately before her retirement, she worked as regional office manager for the Florida Department of Citrus.

Although retired, she loved being active, most recently in September 2014 when she performed another of her signature songs, "Losing My Mind" (Follies) with the Park Ridge Senior Center. She took tap classes and had danced in community theatre revues until quite recently. Some of her favorite musical theatre roles included Fiona (Brigadoon), Lady Thiang (The King and I), Bloody Mary (South Pacific), Golde (Fiddler on the Roof), Mother Abbess (The Sound of Music), and The Witch (Into the Woods). Her one-woman show, A Celebration of the American Musical Theatre, delighted audiences in the northwest suburbs; she also acted as musical director and vocal coach for various productions.

Visitation with the family is scheduled from 4 pm to 7 pm on Thursday, November 20 at Skaja Terrace Funeral Home, 7812 N. Milwaukee Ave., Niles 60714, (847) 966-7302. Father Mark Augustine will say the requiem mass at 10 am on Friday, November 21 at Our Lady of Ransom Church, 8300 N. Greenwood Ave., Niles 60714, (847) 823-2550. A reception for family and friends will follow immediately at Andrews Open Pit & Spirits, 2610 Dempster St., Park Ridge 60068, (847)

824-3800. Mary Ellen's ashes will be buried next to Arthur's at All Saints Catholic Cemetery & Mausoleum.

The family would like to thank Advocate Lutheran General Hospital, Advocate Home-Delivered Meals, Lee Manor, Rainbow Hospice, and most of all Julie Coburn for her loving support. "Kiss today goodbye," Mary Ellen; "The gift was ours to borrow."

OBITUARY

Bro. F. A. Bartleson, youngest son of Capt. James and Sarah Bartleson, was born in 1875 and died March 7th, 1914, aged about 38 years.

He professed faith in Christ while young and was baptized into the fellowship of the Christian Church and was a devoted member at the time of his death. He was faithful and devoted to the Master's work. He was true to his church, true to his God, true to his wife and children. His life is worthy of imitation and it is hoped that his wife and children will continue in faith and pattern after him, then they will pattern after Christ and their blessed Savior. He was united in marriage in 1897 to Miss Florence Lyerly. To this union were born five children, three having preceded their father to their home above while in infancy. The two living are Ella, aged 15 years, and Edwin, aged 6. Ella, with her mother, is following in the footsteps of husband and father. In the death of Brother Bartleson, the church and orders of I. O. O. F., and Masons are bereft of one of their faithful members, the community one of its best citizens, and the home of its only father, a vacant place that never can be filled. May his life for Christ be ever green in the memory of his church and home. And when our battle is fought and life's work is done, may we rest with him in his sweet Eden home.

Deceased left a wife and two children, father, Capt. James Barlteson, of Olmsted, two brothers, J. W. and G. G. Bartleson, of Grand Chain, two sisters, Mrs. Ida Hecock, of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Elsie Davidson, of Grand Chain, besides a host of relatives and friends.

He is gone, his voice is stilled; a place is vacant in our home that never can be filled.

MRS. W. J. DAVIDSON DIES AT GRAND CHAIN

Devoted Wife, Kind Mother and Friend to All Enjoyed Her Acquaintance; Mourned by a Host of Neighbors and Relatives.

Elsie Gertrude Bartleson was the youngest child of Captain James Bartleson and Sarah __ his wife. She was born at the old Bartleson homestead near Grand Chain, Ill., April 30, 1876 and was the youngest of a family of seven children. Two brothers, James W. and Fred, and sisters preceded her to the other land. Her father died about 7 years ago and her mother died 31 years ago. She became the wife of W. J. Davidson, January 13, 1901, and to that union was born 6 children, 3 girls and 3 boys, and had the reputation of being a hardworking, industrious woman, and who was willing to do well her part in life, striving hard to give her children the best religious and educational and physical training possible. When she was about 15 years old, she gave her life to the Lord and was buried with him in baptism. From that time until her death, we believe she kept up the good fight of faith to lay hold on eternal life.

The illness that terminated in her death began about 6 months ago, being confined to her bed for about 4 months, and was practically helpless for about 3 months, enduring her afflictions with great patience.

Under all her trials and perplexities, she may have said or done some improper things, but the superintendent, who stood by to hear her last words tells us that she said, "I am gone" and died with the words, "God" and "Lord" on her lips. Our Lord said, “whosoever cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out." J. 6:37. She professed to be a Christian for years.

On August 8, 1921, at about __ a.m. Sister Davidson fell asleep in Jesus, having lived in this world 43 years, 3 months and __ days. She leaves to mourn her departure, her beloved husband, 5 children, one sister, Mrs. Heacock, of San Francisco, Cal., one brother, George G. Bartleson, of Grand Chain and many good friends, and all to be consoled by her __ous hope for eternal life inChrist.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. C. W. Freeman at 2:00 p.m. August 9th. It was largely attended and the __ was L 8:52. Weep not: he is not dead, but sleepeth. __ Fellenstine was at the piano and the singing was good. Many relatives and friends from a distance were in attendance —Communicated

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, Elsie was born in 1878, not 1876, and was the youngest of 9, not 7; she had 1 child with John Doty & 5 with William Davidson, not 6.)

Obituary of Robert Bartleson Davidson, ID = 152896

(Found online at Ancestry.com in “Davidson Family Tree” owned by suzanneinsf; ext from the memorial service program held September 29, 1999.)

ROBERT BARTLESON DAVIDSON was born in Grand Chain, Illinois, April 9, 1918 and died September 23, 1999. Bob had grown up in a Masonic orphanage in La Grange, Illinois.

He is survived by his wife of 55 1/2 year, Frances Mae Davidson, his son, Robert Charles Davidson of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, his daughter, Nancy Ann Clanton of Gig Harbor, Washington, and two granddaughters. Bob was a loving husband, father and grandfather.

Robert Davidson served as a first sergeant in the Air Force during WWII. He and Frances met at the Hollywood Cantana and danced to the swing music of Tommy Dorsey and were entertained by many other "Hollywood Celebs." After that first night Bob told his brother that he had met the girl he was going to marry. Bob was a member of the Los Angeles Police Post #381 of the American Legion for fifty two years.

Bob and Frances moved to Woodland Hills in 1947 when the Valley was first being developed amidst the walnut trees. They lived in a tent while they built their beautiful home on Collins Street. They were instrumental in finding the property where the First Baptist Church, Woodland Hills is now located and were charter members of the church. Bob served as a deacon and Frances was the church clerk. Both of them were faithful choir members. In the past few years Bob considered it an honor and privilege to serve Communion. He was in church whenever his health permitted. Both Bob and Frances were avid golfers and there are many golf trophies on display in their home.

Bob was a Los Angeles Police Officer for twenty years. After an accident forced his retirement he worked for the Automobile Club of Southern California for twelve years.

Robert Davidson will always be remembered for his words of emcouragement and his warm, friendly ways. His genuine trust in and love for His Savior was most apparent as he suffered healthwise in the last few years.

Obituary of Marvin Leroy Palmer, ID = 15292231

Marvin L. Palmer, auto mechanic, was "just an old country person"

Known for helpfulness,
independence, son says

BY REBECCA BILLMAN
The Cincinnati Enquirer

AMELIA - His family ran a widely known landscaping business in Columbus, but Marvin Leroy Palmer chose to be an auto mechanic.

Described by his son... as a loner, he nonetheless helped others whenever he could.

"He would do anything in the world for a person," his son said.

"He was just an old country person. (He) believed in doing everything the backwoods way."

Mr. Palmer died Dec. 15 of cancer at Clermont Mercy Hospital. The Amelia resident was 63.

During his illness, his independent nature was evident in the way he insisted on walking even after doctors told him he couldn't.

"He didn't believe in asking anyone for anything," his son said. "He didn't want anybody's help."

Even so, Mr. Palmer had moved to Amelia about 15 years ago to be near his grandchildren.

Self-employed for most of his life, he retired in 1996.

Other survivors are five sisters... six grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

The service was private.

James Edwin "Jim" Thurston

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." Psalm 116:15. Jim went to meet his Savior on Tuesday, Feb. 22, 2011. He was 78, a native of Pulaski, Ill., and a resident of Denham Springs. Jim might not have been a saint by human standards, but by God's standards he was every bit the saint! He loved his Lord and trusted Him with his life. Jim loved only one woman... his "sweetheart." Married to... for 52 years, together they raised a son... who has followed his father's Godly example. Jim also leaves behind a daughter-in-law... and granddaughter... Additionally, Jim is survived by sisters... brothers... Many saints went before Jim and it comforts his family when they think of those saints and Jesus meeting Jim the moment his spirit was returned to his Savior. Those precious saints are his father and mother, Rollie and Alice Thurston, sister, Ruth Bates, and great-nephew, Rollie Joseph Thurston. Together they partake of the rest promised to His faithful servants. Finally, Jim is able to rest and truly sleep! Jim donated his body to LSU Medical School, New Orleans. A memorial service will be held at Amite Baptist Church, 7100 Amite Church Road, Denham Springs, on Saturday, March 5, at 3 p.m., conducted by the Rev. Terry Booth and the Rev. Daniel LeBlanc. Memorial donations may be made to The Louisiana Baptist Children's Home, P.O. Box 4196. Monroe, LA 71211 (www.lbch.org.) Resting in Jesus' presence.

Police: Villa Ridge man was stabbed to death

Authorities said Monday that a 78-year-old shopkeeper whose body was found inside his Villa Ridge home Thursday had been stabbed.

Clenton Modglin was last seen alive around noon Thursday at the grocery store and service station he had operated for more than 50 years in the Pulaski County community.

A family member found his body late that afternoon.

Illinois state police Master Sgt. Lou Lemme said a request for help from the public has produced several leads that investigators are following. They are still seeking information, Lemme added.

An autopsy was performed on Modglin's body late last week, but a cause of death was not immediately available.

Lemme said Monday that investigators still are considering several possible motives for the slaying.

The homicide is the subject of an investigation by state police agents of the Division of Criminal Investigation and county authorities. The DCI office in Marion can be reached by calling 997-9431. The number at the Pulaski County Sheriff's Department is 748-9124.

Obituary of Matilda Ann (Tharp) Hensley, ID = 1531

(Found online at F-A-G, memorial created by Joy Logan Burkhart; obit was published in the Franklin Democrat, Friday, 7 October 1910.)

Matilda Tharp Hensley was born in Kentucky, July 30, 1826 and died at her home in Hensley Township, Johnson County, Indiana, September 29, 1910, aged 84 years, 1 month, and 26 days. She was married to Richardson Hensley January 27, 1841. To this union were born ten children as follows: Hiram, James, and Willard Hensley, Mrs. George Logan, and Mrs. John Barnes of Johnson County, and Richard Hensley and Mrs. Isaac Brown now residing in Sullivan County, Elizabeth, Moses, and Mrs. Mahala Barnes together with their father having preceded her.

She had been identified with the Old Baptist Church at Bethlehem for a half century and her devotion and fidelity to her belief in God has never been questioned. She was left a widow early in life with a large family to support. But with a resolution rarely found in a woman, she went forward to the task in hand and has given to the world much more than she took from it. The record is fifty years of ceaseless devotion to this large family.

Aunt Matilda, as she was familiarly known, spent most of her long and useful life in or near the home where she died. It is useless to attempt to enumerate in this brief obituary all the virtues of this good woman. But it is fitting at this time to acknowledge our deep sense of gratitude and appreciation for the beautiful life that has just gone out from us and the splendid examples she set before her children and friends. Tributes of respect should not be paid the dead from a cold formality or a mere sense of duty, but from the basis of merit and love. History of the human race furnishes us a record of heroic struggles accompanied by ceaseless changes in human affairs. Aunt Matilda lived through more than 84 years of these restless cycles and adjusted herself harmoniously to every new condition. But in all of this evolution of human progress there must be some flexibility in human character, sometimes, even sacrifice of character, and we often find people yielding it for the sake of conformity, but not so with Aunt Matilda.

She was one of nature's sterling coinage who recognized in life some great basic principles, such as love, justice, honesty, uprightness, and a fidelity to trust, and obligation and a deep reverence for God. She was cautious and her counsel wise. Her life was an open book. She was one of a very small number of Hensley township's aged and respected mothers, a pioneer of the early days of toil and hardship. She has given the world her service and her days are ended. The heart that was full of tender kindness and sympathy is still. The hands, that ministered in sickness and sorrow are folded. A loving mother, a kind neighbor and a friend in need has gone to her reward. And, dear children, remember as the years go by and as the gentle dews of the morning freshen the little grass roofed mound of mother's grave that she sits in glory waiting the resurrection morn when she can meet her own where parting will be no more.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C.A. Obenshain at Morgantown.

Obituary of George Mathias Webb, ID =153118

(Abstracted by RRC from a photocopy of the original article found in the papers of Marie Monroe)

In the services that brought a sincere tribute to husband, father; brother, and friend, the last sad rites for George M. Webb were held at the Pentecostal Church Thursday afternoon of last week. Rev. William Smith brought the sermon consolation and the sympathy of sacred hymns came with the Pentecostal choir singing. Flower bearers who carried the profusion of beautiful and fragrant floral pieces were friends of Mrs. Webb and the pall bearers were Jesse Eaton, Mellie Eaton, Newt Dudldy, Charles Thrasher, Gus Thrasher and Fred Pinkston. Burial was in Center Ridge cemetery. George M. Webb, son of Joseph M. and Nancy Ann Webb, born Oct. 6, 1875, departed this life April 23, 1929, aged 53 years, 6 months and 28 days. He was united in marriage to Myrtle Brown, Sept. 4, 1898. To this happy union five children were born, three sons and two daughters, both daughters, Beulah Elva and Kathryn Louise having preceded him in death. George as he was known to everyone, was always jovial but thoughtful of everyone in suffering. He was a kind and loving husband and father. During his illness his association with the members of the Pentecost Mission inspired George to cast his lot with those people. Left to mourn his passing are the wife Myrtle and three sons, Willard, Walter and George Jr., three brothers and three sisters, besides a host of other relatives and friends.

Gloria Ann (Webb) Graham

SULLIVAN — Gloria Ann (Webb) Graham, 84, of Sullivan, entered Heaven at 9:52 a.m. Sunday, Dec. 7, 2014, at Terre Haute Regional Hospital, after a brief illness. She was born in Sullivan, on July 16, 1930, the daughter of Walter Webb and Lula (Marlowe) Webb Byrd. She was preceded in death by her parents; and her husband of 62 years, John Thomas Graham (1924-2012). She was a member of the First Christian Church in Sullivan and Psi Iota Xi.

Although Gloria had worked for Coca-Cola, her greatest joy in this life was having her family and friends around — usually for a home cooked meal. She directed family and friends in the preparation of many holiday and special occasion meals as well as in canning fruits and vegetables every summer and fall. Gloria was a life-long sports fan who supported her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren in a variety of sports, and rooted for Indiana University basketball and Indianapolis Colts football teams. Those who knew her will miss her kindness, gentleness and generous spirit. We will all be comforted in knowing Gloria will forever enjoy a “Heavenly breeze.”

ALBERT MARTZLOFF DIES AT INFIRMARY

Familiar Ironwood Character Once Worked at Old Temple Theatre.

Albert Martzloff, familiar character in Ironwood for many years, died this morning at the county infirmary, where he had been since 1938. He had been a resident of Ironwood for 25 years.

A native of Lancaster, N. Y., Mr. Martzloff was reared in Buffalo. During the early years of his residence here, he was employed by Manager Kelly of the former Temple theater and was often to be seen posting theatre notices and driving a donkey, carrying theatre signs, about town. For a- time he worked at the railroad roundhouse.

He was married here to Mrs. Charles Hanscom. She died a little more than a year ago at the infirmary. They were admitted there together when their health began to fail. After being admitted to the infirmary, he referred in conversation frequently to a collection of diamonds which he claimed had been left at their home. Welfare officials investigated and found five diamonds, set in pieces of jewelry; these, they said today are still in possession of the welfare department and will now be sold to reimburse the county for care of the couple. Rumored to have had a value of several thousand dollars, they actually are worth only a fraction of that, it was declared.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at the Ketola funeral home.

Obituary of Mary Elizabeth (Gillaspy) Hensley, ID = 15317

Obituary.

Rest for the toiling hand,
Rest for the anxious brow;
Rest for the weary-worn feet,
Rest, from all labor now.

Mary Elizabeth Gillaspy Hensley, was born in Johnson county, Ind., February 12, 1855, and died suddenly at her home, two miles south of Trafalgar, on Wednesday evening, November 20, 1918, at 11:30 p. m., aged sixty-three years, nine months snd eight days.

She had been in ill health for some time, but always helped with her household duties. At late bedtime, after seeing that everything was all right about the house, she quietly went to bed. She had been in bed only twenty minutes when her husband noticed her not breathing perfectly. He spoke to her, but she made him no answer. Then he called to Miss Roberts, a girl who was staying with them, together they summoned the children and her sister, who was living nearby, but she had quietly passed away before any of them could arrive. They did all that loving hands could do to revive her, but the Lord knoweth all things best, and He came and plucked her from their midst.

She was a daughter and the eldest child of Robert and Nancy Gillaspy, who at one time served two terms as sheriff of Johnson county, living at Franklin.

On December 19, 1877, she was united in marriage to James Hensley. "As one" they entered life's duties that were in the future before them, and labored together forty-one years afterward. To this union were born four children, three sons, Everett, Robert Leonard, Richard Emmett, and one daughter, Emma May.

At the age of fifteen she expressed her faith in Christ by confessing her Saviour under the teachings of the Rev. John C. Miller, and was baptised into the Christian faith by James M. Jacobs, in l870. Being a charter member of the Mt. Carmel Christian church, which was organized at the above date, and remained a faithful and active member until death. She was present at church on the Sunday before her death.

She was a member of the Mt. Carmel Ladies' Aid, of which she was always ready and willing to do her part whatever it might be. The society is bereft of a sincere and faithful member and her's a great loss that will be deeply felt by all.

She was always interested in the welfare of the young folk and the little folk as well, thinking always of their comforts.

One of her desires was to live until the close of the war, and to see the boys arrive safely home. Her home was always open to everyone and as we know quite a number of her relatives and friends made their home with her at different times.

She was always ready to help the needy for she thought of others interests as well as her own. At the Christmas time she thought it more blessed to give than to receive and she always tried to remember everyone with a gift, especially the little children. All will remember the Christmas of this year with sad heart as it is now drawing very near. Her father and mother, two sisters, Mrs. Willard Hensley and Susie, and her little son, Everett, who departed this life when only a small child, have all preceding her to the land beyond. Besides, her husband, two sons, Lenord and Emmett, and a daughter, Mrs. Loran Green, she leaves to mourn her loss, six grandchildren, one brother, Joseph Gillaspy, of near Columbus, and a sister, Mrs. Clara Beeler, living near Trafalgar, together with a host of relatives and dear friends.

The family and relatives have the sympathy of her many friends neighbors. May they look to the Lord for comfort in their sorrowing moments, knowing that he is as ever a present helper in time of trouble.

She was a devoted wife, a loving mother, sister and grandmother and a kind friend and neighbor.

Funeral services were held at Mt. Carmel on Sunday morning, Nov. 24, conducted by Rev. Eshelman of Trafalgar, burial in the cemetery near the church beside her little son.

Fading away like the stars of the morning.
Losing their light in the glorious sun;
Thus did she pass from earth and its…
To be remembered by what she hath…

She will be missed by others…
Reaping the fields she in springtime…
For they, the sowers, may pass from…
They, too, will be remembered by what…

Only the truth in life she hath spoken…
Only the seed that on earth she had…
These shall pass onward, when she…
Fruits of the harvest and what she had…

GEORGE LOGAN, AGE 62, COMMISSIONER-ELECT, DIES EARLY SATURDAY

———————-

Had Been Ill Since November — Funeral Services at Home Monday at 1:30.

———————

George Logan, age 62, commissioner-elect of Johnson county and one of the most prominent farmers of Hensley township, died Saturday morning at his home south of Trafalgar on the Porter farm, following in illness of the past eight weeks. Mr. Logan had been confined to his home since the election in November when he was named as a member of the board of commissioners from the first district.

His death was wholly unexpected by his many friends as he was generally thought to be slowly improving after a severe illness brought on by kidney and heart trouble. He had been able to be up and around the house for the past few weeks and while his condition had not improved as fast as was hoped, his friends and members of the family were very hopeful. Death came suddenly Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock after a critical illness of a few hours.

Funeral services held Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the late -residence with burial in Greenlawn cemetery at Franklin.

Mr. Logan was one of the best known farmers of Hensley township where he had been a resident for the past forty years. During his long residence in the community he had won the respect and good will of neighbors and friends alike. His first service to the township came in 1918 when he was elected a member of the township advisory board. As a member of that board his counsel was sound and always worthy of consideration. He served in that capacity until 1922.

Term Began Next January.

During the past year he was prevailed upon by his friends in the Democratic party to enter the race for commissioner from the first district. He finally consented to make the race and was successful both in the primary and in the election, receiving a substantial majority. His term as a member of the board would have commenced next January, 1930. He was looking forward with interest to his service as a member of the board and the county is deprived of a loyal and dignified servant in his death.

Mr. Logan was born in Union township on May 9, 1866, and was the son of Samuel and Mary Jane Porter Logan. A sister died in infancy and he was the sole survivor of the family. At an early age he went to the Western states where he remained until he was eighteen years of age. At that time he returned to Johnson county and soon afterwards purchased his present farm, known as the Porter farm, which had belonged to his grandfather.

TRAFALGAR, June 2—One week after he had celebrated his 50th birthday, Hiram Logan, for ten years chairman of the Agriculture Conservation Association of Johnson county, died at his home southwest of here.

Two years ago he became ill and since that time his condition had been critical. He had been a patient in Johnson County Memorial hospital once and at St. Vincent hospital in Indianapolis seven times in the past year. Death occurred Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed awaiting word from one son, Dean Logan, who is in Wyoming on business and cannot be located until Friday morning. An announcement will be made in The Star later.

The body will be returned to the late residence from the Emerson Clark mortuary at Morgantown, and friends may call after 10 a. m. Friday. They are invited to attend the funeral.

Mr. Logan was born in Hensley township, May 25, 1899, and was the son of George H. Logan and Naomi Hensley Logan. His entire life had been spent in the community.

He attended the Trafalgar schools graduating from the high school with the class of 1918.

Following his graduation in May, Mr. Logan was married to Miss Hilda Johnston in Hensley township on July 25, 1918, and two sons were born to this union.

Elected Chairman In 1937

Mr. Logan successfully operated his farm in Hensley township. When the A. C. A. was organized, he became associated with the organization, and in 1937 was elected as the county chairman. He served in this capacity until his health began to fail in 1947 and he was forced to retire from active service.

Interested in his work and his friends and neighbors, Mr. Logan became known not only in his own district, but other districts over the state. His jovial and cheerful disposition had won and held many friends. During his long illness, he kept this perspective.

Mr. Logan was the great-grandson of the late Richard Hensley, founder of Hensley township.

When a boy, Mr. Logan united with the Morgantown Methodist church and was a member of the Methodist Brotherhood. He also was

Obituary of James Hensley 'Jim' Logan, ID = 1531a32

(Partially copied from an obit found at F-A-G, created by Joy Burkhart.)

James (Jim) Hensley Logan

Jim Logan, 85, passed away Friday morning at Franklin Meadows Nursing Home, Franklin, Indiana. He was born June 9, 1927 in Hensley Twp., Johnson Co., Indiana to Hiram and Hilda (Johnston) Logan at the "Porter home place" near Trafalgar.

Little Jimmie was baptized at the United Methodist Church, Morgantown, Indiana, but in the late 60s, he transferred his membership to the Baptist Church in Morgantown. He was also a trustee of Friendship Church near where he was born; the land had been donated by one of his ancestors.

When he started school, Jim went to a one room schoolhouse, just down the road from the Old Home Place. His teacher was his aunt, Lottie Logan Hoagland. Jim graduated in 1944 from Trafalgar High School at the age of 16, then attended Purdue University. From 1946-1948, he was in business with his father and brother, Dean, selling Ferguson and Case farm equipment at Hiram Logan and Sons just west of Franklin.

Jim was united in marriage March 16, 1952 to the former Evelyn Lois Good, Listie, Pennsylvania at the Grace Evangelical United Brethern Church, Somerset, Pennsylvania in a double-ring ceremony. After a two week Florida honeymoon, the couple set up housekeeping near Peru, Indiana. Jim farmed his own 320 acres there, in addition to several hundred acres at Bunker Hill AFB, Bunker Hill, Indiana (now Grissom Air Reserve Base). From 1960-1966, Jim owned and operated Logan Construction/Celtic Homes. During the 1970s, he worked for a church building company. In the 1980s and 1990s, Jim traveled the USA remodeling K-Mart and Target stores. He retired from construction work in September 2003. For a few years, Jim owned and operated the Biograph Video Store in New Port Richey, Florida. He named the store after the movie theater in Chicago where John Dillinger was killed in 1934. When Jim was a youngster, he got to meet Dillinger and crew when they stopped at his home near Trafalgar, Indiana, asking for directions. The meeting made a lifelong impression.

Jim always had a strong constitution. As a child of 3, Jimmie contracted Saint Vidus' Dance, "a motor nerve disorder characterized by irregular involuntary jerky movements of the limbs and facial muscles. It is thought to be caused by sequence of rheumatic fever." (medical-dictionary/ thefreedictionary.com) He was given the typical treatment of the day: dosages of strychnine, increasing and decreasing the amounts, for several years.
Due to this treatment, his nerve endings became deadened to pain. This probably saved his life in 1971 when he was badly burned on his face, hands, and arms. Once healed, Jim went back to work like nothing had happened. The only time he didn't go to work that I remember was when he either had kidney stones, or jack-knifed from the roof of a house!

In Feb 2011, he slipped on ice and broke his ankle, also hitting his head on the bumper of his van. He was able to crawl back to the house to have his wife call for help. I don't know how he did it! Any other person would have blacked out from the pain! He had a concussion from the head trauma, found only after badgering the doctors for 2 weeks for a CT scan. This accelerated his dementia/ Alzheimers. It became worse after his wife died on Halloween 2011, to the point he would hardly open his eyes and very rarely spoke.

Jim was a fiercely patriotic man. In 1974, he ran for the House of Representatives, 6th District, Democratic Party, against Lee Hamilton. He garnered 25% of the vote. In 1976, he again ran in the same district, Democratic Party, House of Representatives, against Dave Evans. In 1978, he ran in the 2nd District, American Party, House of Representative, against Floyd Fithian.

Jim was a big sports fan. He played basketball for at Trafalgar High School and he loved the Chicago Cubs, Purdue football and basketball. He was a fan of Nascar, also; #24 Jeff Gordon was a favorite driver.

Genealogy was one of Jim's great passions. Hensley Twp., where Trafalgar is located, was named after his g-g-grandfather, Richardson Hensley, the first settler in the area. Jim was a 3rd cousin to Governor Paul V. McNutt of Indiana, and had a letter from McNutt to Jim's mother regarding their family members. He also found he was the 35th great-grandson of Charlemagne, or Charles I, King of the Franks, King of the Lombards, and Holy Roman Emperor (768-814 AD). King John of England, of Magna Carta fame, was his 23rd great-grandfather. Jim was president of the Sturgeon Family reunion in 1976, the get-together being held in Louisville, Kentucky. I (Joy) used to play scribe for him when we went to the library, or to graveyards, searching for long-gone relatives. Jim passed his love of genealogy on to most of his children.

Jim was preceded in death by his wife, a son (Kevin/Bud), a great-grandson (James Tyler Logan), his brother (Dean) and his parents. Surviving are daughters… sons… Grandchildren… Great-grandchildren…

The funeral will be handled by Eskew-Eaton, Edinburgh, IN. Service Oct 17, 2012 10 AM, Graveside 11 AM. Bagpipes will be played at the gravesite, especially playing Amazing Grace, one of Dad's favorite hymns.

Note: This was to be the obituary for my Dad to be published in the Daily Journal, Franklin, Johnson Co., Indiana, but the paper (all papers I've come across anyway) charged so much, it had to be pared down to the bare bones. So, instead this will be Dad's eulogy at the funeral.

Mrs. Nancy Jane Nation died at her home in Samaria after a lingering illness. Mrs. Nation was born April 26, 1829, and died in May 1897.

She was married to Sylvester Nation Dec. 24, 1854. She has lived in Hensley township over fifty years. To this union was born nine children, three of whom are living, viz: Mrs Margaret Ann Eaton, of Tipton; William, who lives in Belleville, Brown County, and Allen who lives in Indianapolis. Mrs. Nation was a sister of the old pioneer, Sam Tharp, and a sister of Aunt Tilda Hensley.

She has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church for many years. Her father and mother moved to Hensley Township about sixty years ago and setted on the farm of Uncle G. W. Musselman. On the farm they died and are resting in Friendship cemetery on Indian Creek.

Mrs. Nation was a true and helping companion, a dear mother and a good citizen. During her long and active life she has watched anxiously and lovingly over the dear little ones in her care. She has experienced trouble and sorrow, having lived long enough to follow six dear children to the grave. All who new her respected her for kindness and simpathy with those in distress. She had lived her three score and ten years nearly, and all that long life she never was nown to be idle or indifferent to home and chldren. Mr. Nation's loss is one that cannot be replaced. Those three surviving chidren have lost their best friend; their neighbors a true and good friend. She was followed to her last resting place by her many relatives and friends.

Once more we are called upon to record the death of one of our old soldiers, Uncle Sylvester Nation, who died Saturday morning at his daughter's home in Indianapolis and was brought here Monday for burial. Funeral services were conducted at the old Bethlehem church by Rev. Ernest Linton, after which interment took place in the cemetery. The funeral was largely attended by friends and relatives from Samaria, Edinburg, and Indianapolis. Deceased was a soldier in the Mexican war and was eighty years of age. Uncle Sylvester was a kind, good-hearted man and was loved and respected by all. This makes the second one of our old soldiers who have recently been called away. Uncle Morg Pitcher being the last one before this. He was buried at the same place about two weeks ago.

(Note by RRC: By my calculation Sylvester was 79 at his death, not quite 80.)

Obituary of Lina A. (Nation) Hoaglan, ID = 153241

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Franklin Evening Star, Franklin, IN, Saturday, 17 July 1937, page 1.)

MRS. LINA HOAGLAN IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Widow of Originator of Noted Hippodrome Passes Friday Near Morgantown

Mrs. Lina Hoaglan. 56, widow of the late George Hoaglan, originator of the noted Hoaglan Hippodrome, passed away at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at her farm home near Morgantown.

Death was due to a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Hoaglan had been in failing health about a year, but had been able to come to Franklin two weeks ago for the day. The following day she suffered a stroke and had been unconscious since.

Funeral services in charge of the Rev. J. P. Wilbourn, pastor of the First Baptist church, will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Vandivier funeral parlor. Interment will follow in Greenlawn cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home to view the remains Saturday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock, Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, Sunday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock, and at any time Monday prior to the funeral.

Mrs. Hoaglan was born October 8, 1830, in Sullivan, the daughter of William and Elizabeth Campbell Nation. She was the oldest of six children. At an early age the family moved to Edinburg, where Mrs. Hoaglan spent most of her early life.

While still living at Edinburg, Mrs. Hoaglan married George Hoaglan on September 22, 1900, and shortly thereafter the couple moved to the farm near Morgantown where Mr. Hoaglan died in April of 1933.

One son, Jinks Hoaglan, of Franklin, was born to the union.

Mrs. Hoaglan was as great a lover of horses as was her husband, who originated the hippodrome which played all over the United States in recent years. Mr. and Mrs. Hoaglan traveled widely over the country to exhibit their trained horse collection at fairs and carnivals. Since the death of Mr. Hoaglan, the son, Jinks, has operated the hippodrome and was engaged in working out a schedule for the late summer and fall at the time of his mother's death.

Mrs. Hoaglan was well known and respected all over Johnson county, where she had many friends. Her acquaintances were not confined to this county alone, however, since she became acquainted with hundreds of persons on her many travels over the country.

In addition to the son, who was in this county at the time of his mother's death, Mrs. Hoaglan is survived by three sisters and a brother, Mrs. Garfield Green, of Greenwood; Mrs. Harvey Keeling, Mrs. Alfred Goodin and Robert Nation, all of Franklin, and several nieces and nephews.

Widow of Originator of Noted Hippodrome Passes Friday Near Morgantown

Mrs. Lina Hoaglan, 56, widow of the late George Hoaglan, originator of the noted Hoaglan Hippodrome, passed away at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at her farm home near Morgantown.

Death was due to a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Hoaglan had been in failing health about a year, but had been able to come to Franklin two weeks ago for the day. The following day she suffered a stroke and had been unconscious since.

Funeral services in charge of the Rev. J. P. Wilbourn, pastor of the First Baptist church, will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Vandivier funeral parlor. Interment will follow in Greenlawn cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home to view the remains Saturday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock, Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, Sunday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock, and at any time Monday prior to the funeral.

Mrs. Hoaglan was born October 8, 1880, in Sullivan, the daughter of William and Elizabeth Campbell Nation. She was the oldest of six children. At an early age the family moved to Edinburg, where Mrs. Hoaglan spent most of her early life.

While still living at Edinburg, Mrs. Hoaglan married George Hoaglan on September 22, 1900, and shortly thereafter the couple moved to the farm near Morgantown where Mr. Hoaglan died in April of 1933.

One son, Jinks Hoaglan, of Franklin, was born to the union.

Mrs. Hoaglan was as great a lover of horses as was her husband, who originated the hippodrome which played all over the United States in recent years. Mr. and Mrs. Hoaglan traveled widely over the country to exhibit their trained horse collection at fairs and carnivals. Since the death of Mr. Hoaglan, the son, Jinks, has operated the hippodrome and was engaged in working out a schedule for the late summer and fall at the time of his mother's death.

Mrs. Hoaglan was well known and respected all over Johnson county, where she had many friends. Her acquaintances were not confined to this county alone, however, since she became acquainted with hundreds of persons on her many travels over the country.

Crash kills Franklin man

Jinks Hoaglan dies at scene

A Franklin man was killed when his car crashed head-on into a truck Thursday evening on U.S. 31 at Edinburg just seconds after state police received a report he was driving in the wrong lane of the highway.

Jinks Douglas Hoaglan, 60, of 448 North Jackson street, was killed instantly according to state police at the scene.

Hoaglan's car was completely demolished as he drove north on the southbound lane of the highway, side-swiped one car and hit the truck head-on, officers reported.

The fatal accident occurred just south of the. Bartholomew-Johnson county line about 9:40 p.m. near Edinburg.

Authorities said Hoaglan, a well known car salesman in the Franklin area, died of a crushed chest and internal injuries.

State police radio officers in Seymour said today they had just received a report of Hoaglan driving in the wrong lane of U.S. 31 and the report of the accident came in as a police unit was being dispatched to stop him.

Persons in the other two vehicles escaped injury according to state police, mainly due to the use of seat belts.

The impact of the crash hurled the semi-truck, driven by 22-year-old James Allen of Indianapolis, about 20 feet off the highway. The truck landed upside-down on the west side of the road.

Allen sustained knee lacerations but a seat belt he was wearing apparently kept him from being thrown from the truck.

Driver of the side-swiped station wagon, Jo Kuhens, 35 of Lexington, Kentucky, and her 15-year-old son sustained only minor Injuries. They also were wearing seat belts.

State police reported both the truck and the Kuhens vehicle were en route south on U.S. 31 about one half mile west of Edinburg. As they approached the Hoaglan car, which was headed toward them,

Mrs. Kuhens swerved her car to the left allowing the Hoaglan car to graze the entire left side of the car.

Truck driver Allen, unable to swerve his truck in time hit the Hoaglan car almost directly headon.

Both the Hoaglan car and the truck were a total loss. Damage to the Kuhens station wagon was estimated at $800.

State troopers Ron Miller, Sherrill Alspach and Forrest Brewer investigated the accident along with Edinburg city police and Bartholomew county sheriff 's officers.

Funeral services for Hoaglan will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Flinn and Maguire funeral home. Burial will be in Greenlawn cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday evening and until time of service on Saturday.

He was born July 1, 1904, in Morgan county the son of George and Lina Hoaglan. He married Clara Shetterly in 1925.

He owned and operated with his parents the famous Hoaglan Hippodrome which was started 60 years ago. The horse show played all the leading state and county fairs. The troupe appeared in every state in the United States and all the provinces of Canada.

Mr. Hoaglan attended high school in Trafalgar. He also attended the Baptist church. He was presently employed as car salesman at Ingle's Nash-Rambler in Franklin.

Survivors include his wife, Clara, and one daughter, Mrs. Katherine Donelfeld of Dayton, Ohio. Two grandchildren also survive.

Obituaries of Harvey Allison 'Pete' Keeling, ID = 153245

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Daily Journal, Franklin, IN, Monday, 17 May 1965, page 1.)

Businessman, civic leader for years

Keeling was skilled mechanic at '500'

Harvey (Pete) Keeling, killed Saturday in a freak accident when a truck fell on him at his garage, was well-known in Franklin. He was respected for his work in civic affairs, and had lived a full and interesting life.

Keeling was a skilled and natural mechanic and had owned and operated Keeling Motors, Inc., for many years. As a youngster he had shown his mechanical ability, and one long-time friend recalls an incident which happened during his high school days and pointed to his talent. Keeling came to school one Monday morning and told his friends that he had worked on a car all day Saturday and the next day had driven two local men to Turkey Run. He proudly added that they had had no mechanical trouble on the round trip and had had only two blowouts, a remarkable feat with early cars.

His skill with automobiles brought him to the Speedway and the 500 mile race, where he worked for several years. With the late Wilbur Shaw, three-time race winner and president of the Speed, way, he had invented the low-speed auto fan for motor cooling. The invention was patented and used on pace cars for the 500 mile race, the first year in 1954. During the mld-1930's he had owned a race car with Orvlll W. Baker, now a resident of. Arizona, and the two men entered the car in the 500. Keeling was driving the car on a warm-up run during pre-race trials and crashed into the wall, putting himself in the hospital.

The Franklin native was a member of the famous "Franklin Wonder Five" basketball team when it won its first of three state titles in 1920. He played forward for the team and was considered a sensation throughout the state for an interesting statistic.

Apparently, the other team .members were tall, and height was considered a tremendous asset for a player-. Keeling was short and slight — and fast. A friend recalls that he could grab the ball and run down the court and make a basket before anyone knew he even had it.

He was graduated from Franklin High School in 1920. and married the former Verna Nation on June 26 of that year. He worked with his brother, the late Oren Keeling, before he opened his own auto business.

Keeling was a member of many civic and social organizations in Franklin, and was serving his second term as city councilman at the time of his death. He had also served his country. During World War I, he was with the First Marine Aviation Corps overseas and he also served in World War II. Being over the enlistment age, he nevertheless used his mechanical talent to some advantage.

During the war he was an Allison representative in the South pacific, and was in charge of restoring damaged combat planes. He served over three years at this Job.

His son, Harvey A. Keeling Jr., of Cherry Point, N.C., is retired from the Marine Corps. Keeling is survived by his widow, Verna, and three grandchildren, in addition to his son

Ben Eaton was born in Johnson county, May 9, 1853 and came to this county with his parents, James W. and Martha (Ragsdale) Eaton, in March, 1864. Mr. Eaton who was a lad of 11 often spoke of that trip which took four days. They settled on a farm of 160 acres which is now the Fred Foster farm west of Tipton near Goldsmith.

The pioneer farm was forest land. The elder Eaton had purchased the land and he and his family with some outside assistance started in to clear up a patch. Timber in those days was practically worthless and as a result thousands of trees were leveled in this county and burned.

When Mr. Eaton moved to Tipton he learned the carpenter trade and followed this work for years until his health failed.

Of the eleven children in the Eaton family, seven boys and four girls, only two are living, George Eaton of Anderson and Mrs. Celia Wilson of Atlanta. George and Mrs. Wilson are twins. George suffered a stroke of paralysis many months ago and is in ill health. Mrs. Wilson's husband, Bert Wilson, is dead.

Mr. Eaton had been twice married. In 1873 he was married to Loretha Wells, daughter of J. M. Wells of Tetersburg. She died in 1883 and the one daughter by this marriage, Ida has been dead twenty years. In 1887 Mr. Eaton was married to Margaret Nation of Trafalgar who died in this city April 11, 1905. Four children were born to this marriage, Ira of Jacksonville, Fla., Forrest of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Docie Shotts and wife of R.C. Shotts and Mrs. Lavona Tudor, wife of Jesse Tudor, both residing in North East street, this city.

Obituary & death certificate for Claude (C. or M.) Miller, ID = 153441

HORRIBLE DEATH

Monon Brakeman, Formerly of Morgantown, Was Killed by Train Near Spencer,

The Spencer Journal gives the following account of the horrible death of a former Morgantown citizen: —

A horrible accident occurred near Jordan Station on the new branch of the Monon railroad last Thursday morning, when Claud C. Miller, a brakeman on the road, was found on the right of way with his head almost entirely severed. How or when the accident occurred is not known, as the crew of the freight train on which Miller was working first missed him when the train pulled into Wallace Junction about 2 a. m. The last that was seen of him was when the train left Jordan about midnight, when the young man was seen sitting on the end of a box car. The train backed up from Wallace Junction, searching for the missing one, and his remains were found at 3:35 a. m., lying at what is known as the "Haltom Crossing" near the Bob Martin farm.

Coroner F. E. Drescher was called and made the trip in an auto. He found the death due to an accident, and it is probable that in some way Miller was knocked from the car on which he was sitting and fell across the track. His head was severed from his body and was just hanging by the skin. No other marks were found on his body, and it is remarkable that he fell in such a way that such an accident could occur. After he had examined the body and held an inquest, Mr. Drescher, at the request of the railroad company, called Spencer and sent a hack after the remains. John Robinson, the young son of Sheriff Robinson, made the trip alone, returning with the remains Thursday about noon.

The body was prepared for burial and was shipped by Mr. Drescher to Miller's old home at Morgantown for burial Thursday evening. Geo. W. Smith accompanied the remains, which were taken to Indianapolis, where Mr. Smith remained over night, completing the journey Friday morning.

Miller is survived by his wife and one child, and they made their home at Lafayette. His other relatives reside at Morgantown. He was about twenty-six years of age and was well liked by his fellow workmen.

He was a member of the I. O. R. M , the I O. O. F., Haymakers and B. of R. T., and the local lodges cared for his remains here.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, "Claud" should be Claude; his middle initial is either C. or M.)

How or when the accident occurred is not known, as the crew of the freight train on which Miller was working first missed him when the train pulled into Wallace Junction about 2 a. m. The last that was seen of him was when the train left Jordan about midnight, when the young man was seen sitting on the end of a box car. The train backed up from Wallace Junction, searching for the missing one, and his remains were found at 3:35 a. m., lying at what is known as the "Haltom Cossing" near the Bob Martin farm.

Coroner F. E. Drescher was called and made the trip in an auto. He found the death due to an accident, and it is probable that in some way Miller was knocked from the car on which he was sitting and fell across the track. His head was severed from his body and was just hanging by the skin. No other marks were found on his body, and it is remarkable that he fell in such a way that such an accident could occur After he had examined the body and held an inquest, Mr. Drescher, at the request of the railroad company, called Spencer and sent a hack after the remains. John Robinson, the young son of Sheriff Robinson, made the trip alone, returning with the remains Thursday about noon.

The body was prepared for burial and was shipped by Mr. Drescher to Miller's old home at Morgantown for burial Thursday evening. Geo. W. Smith accompanied the remains, which were taken to Indianapolis, where Mr. Smith remained over night, completing the journey Friday morning.

Miller is survived by his wife and one child, and they made their home at Lafayette. His other relatives reside at Morgantown. He was about twenty-six years of age and was well liked by his fellow workmen.

He was a member of the I. O. R. M., the I. O. O. F., Haymakers and B. of R. T., and the local lodges cared for his remains here.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, “Claud” should be Claude; his middle initial is either C. or M.)

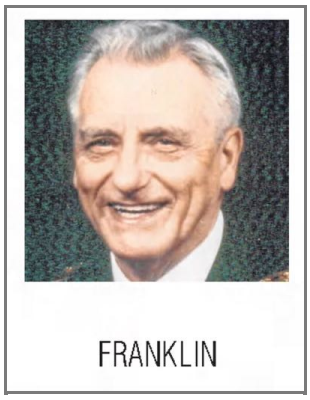
Robert 'Doc' Newton Tharp



FRANKLIN

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
ROBERT NEWTON THARP
January 13, 1925 — June 14, 2019

"Doc" was a nickname he was given as a small child and stayed with him all his life. Only a very few were allowed to call him Bobby.

He graduated from Ninevah High School in 1944 and proudly attended almost every reunion including his 75th Reunion this past April, coming straight from the Hospital to attend. He was the oldest living graduate at the time.

He married Virginia Flinn and they had two daughters…and a son…

He loved fishing, going to Red Lake, Ontario, Canada every year for over 50 years with his longtime friend Gene Brown. Once in a while the wives got to go and even the kids a few times. Consider yourself "special" if you were invited to go with them. On his bucket list was to fish in Alaska; he went in 2009 and 2011.

He was a very active and dedicated member of the Franklin Elks lodge #1818 for 44 years. Serving as Exalted Ruler four times and as the District Deputy. He was very proud of the support his Lodge gave to the numerous charities. He was made a life member in 2017.

He loved being around his family and friends and usually had a good joke for the occasion. He was first to volunteer to help anyone and had a positive outlook on life. He enjoyed life to the fullest and always had a smile on his face.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Bill and Ida Tharp, brother and sister-in-law, Charles and Mildred Tharp, brother and sister-in-law, Noble and Dorothy Tharp, sister, Kathleen Tharp, sister, Beulah Baker, and nephew, Ron Tharp. His wife, Virginia Flinn Tharp.

He is survived by daughter and son-in- law… daughter and son-in-law… and son and daughter-in-law… Grandson… and, great-grand-daughters… and great-grand-son… and grandson…

Nephew… his son… his daughter… Nephew and wife… their daughter and husband… Nephew and wife… their daughter and husband… and their son…Wannabe Tharp's…

Obituary of David Wayne Tharp, ID = 1534623

(Partially transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Indianapolis Star, Indianapolis, IN, Sunday, 15 Jan. 2017, page 25A.)

David Wayne Tharp

90, of Indianapolis, Indiana, passed away on Sunday, January 8, 2017.

He was born to Frederick Estle and Lelia Mae Tharp in Johnson County, Indiana on September 13, 1926. David and his twin brother Donald, each weighing less than 4 pounds, were given little chance to survive by their country physician, the first doctor to underestimate his ability to thrive. David grew up in a close and loving farm family with four brothers and a sister on the edge of Johnson and Brown counties, a place that would always remain dear to him. Drafted into service in December 1944, his senior year, he was declared graduated from Ninevah High School and served as a medic in the U.S. Army in the Pacific. Trained for the invasion of Japan, he was stationed on Saipan after the war ended. Returning to Indiana, he graduated from Franklin College in 1950 and met his future wife, Martha Ann Helmick, an Indiana University Nursing student, on a blind date. They were married on September 3, 1950 in Logansport, Indiana. Together for nearly 65 years, they forged a marriage of love, respect, and commitment. David worked briefly for Kingan's Meat Packing in Indianapolis before securing a position with Eli Lilly and Company. He proudly worked as a chemist for Eli Lilly for 41 years. In July 1955, David and Martha moved from Fletcher Place to build a home in the Southport area. For the next 62 years he raised a family and enjoyed life in a home transformed by his own skill and hands. He expanded the original house, constructing additions and porches of his own design. He transplanted and nurtured small oaks, maples and dogwoods collected from the hills and woods of Johnson, Brown, Cass, and White counties and transformed the former cornfield into his own shaded retreat. There he relaxed caring for his yard and feeding generations of squirrels that prospered from his kindness. He was at his happiest when his home was crowded with the family that meant so much to him.

He loved to travel and discover new places, including vacations to much of the United States, Canada and Europe. Weekends were a time to explore the parks and out of the way places of Indiana, Kentucky, and Ohio. However, no place was more special than regular trips to the hills and trails of Nashville and Brown County. He always enjoyed a picnic or tramp through the park in any season, and even recognized its beauty and potential in the deep winter when it was at it grayest. Even a short drive down through the backroads around his childhood home in Johnson County, then through the park and back, held rejuvenating power for him.

He was a longtime member of Southport United Methodist Church and was devoted to his wife, Martha and his sons and their families. A large extended family, including his sister in law, Marilyn Helmick, brothers Harold, Howard, Don, and John and sister Doris and their spouses and families, were all an indispensable part of his long life and happiness.

David is survived by his three sons and their families… He was a quiet, gentle and honorable man who loved animals and children and whose kindness, strength, and determination will be cherished and missed.

A service will be held on Saturday, January 21, 2017 at Southport United Methodist Church at Noon. Visitation will be Saturday from 10:00 a.m. until the hour of service. Interment will follow at Forest Lawn Memory Gardens. Arrangements are being conducted by Singleton Community Mortuary and Memorial Center. Obituary of Martha Ann (Helmick) Tharp, ID = 1534623

Mrs. Martha Ann Tharp

86, of Indianapolis, passed away on Monday, March 23, 2015. She was born to Thomas and Huldah Helmick in Argos, Indiana on July 6, 1928 and graduated high school in Royal Center, Indiana in 1946. She was a graduate, as was her mother, of Indiana University. Martha received her degree in Nursing in 1950 and worked in Bloomington and Indianapolis including a position as an Industrial Nurse with Kingan & Co. She married… on September 3, 1950 in Logansport, Indiana. Together for nearly 65 years, they forged a marriage of love, respect, and commitment. In July 1955, anticipating the birth of their first child, Martha and… moved from Fountain Square to build and later to expand a home in the Southport area.

As a devoted mother and homemaker she reserved her nursing skills for the various ills and accidents of her three sons, assorted nieces and nephews, and neighbor children. Martha raised a family, welcomed daughters-in-law, and cherished grandchildren, and passed away in her home surrounded by trees she helped plant years before. An avid birdwatcher and enthusiast, her home and yard always included a plethora of bird houses and well-stocked feeders that provided her a great deal of joy and fascination and some consternation, too, as she learned to tolerate and appreciate the many squirrels that benefited from her love of birds.

She enjoyed traveling with her family on vacations and trips around the state. She visited most of the United States, toured Europe, cruised Alaska and through the Panama Canal, but loved her regular excursions to Brown County State Park best. Any halfway pleasant day was a good excuse to take off for a picnic in the park, providing decades of happy memories for her and her family. She was a longtime member of Southport United Methodist Church and Homemakers. Most importantly, she was devoted to her husband and family. She enjoyed being with her sister… her children and their families and her husband's large extended family of Tharps and relatives who all brought her joy and happiness. She was a strong-willed and determined woman with a gentle and loving nature, who will be missed and cherished.

Martha is survived by her husband… and by her three sons and their families…

A service will be held on Saturday, March 28, 2015 at Southport United Methodist Church at 11:00 a.m. Visitation will be Saturday from 10:00 a.m. until the hour of service. Interment at Forest Lawn Memory Gardens. Arrangements are being conducted by Singleton Community Mortuary and Memorial Center. Online condolences may be made at Singletonmortuary.com

Wilbur Fisk Dallas.

Wilbur Fisk Dallas was born January 31, 1841 and died of apoplexy Thursday, June, 13th at 10:20 p. m. He was born in Belmont county, Ohio and was a son of Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Dallas. He came to Kansas with his parents in 1859. He returned to Ohio the following fall where he taught school and studied medicine. He returned to Kansas in 1865, locating at Prairie City and forming partnership with his father in the drug business and practice of medicine. He was married to Miss Martha Churchill in 1867 and came to Linn county shortly after marriage, locating at Brooklin, Scott township. From this union two children were born — Cbarlotta G. Dallas and Orlo W. Dallas. He later removed to Twin Springs and from there to his farm three miles north west of Cadmus and then to his farm in Liberty township where he has lived for about twenty years. He married Mrs. Helen C. Peters, January 14, 1885, from this union two children were born — Ivon L. Dallas, age 15 years, and Craig H. Dallas, age 10 years. Dr. Dallas was out spoken in both his religious and political beliefs. Evasion was unknown in his make up. He was a great reader and student and mastered everything he read thoroughly. If his opinion was asked the answer came as straight as an arrow and it was an honest opinion, too, though often what the questioners did not much desire to hear. A most durable trait when he attempted to do a thing he threw his whole soul into it and won. Such a thing as failure was not considered. He must win and he did win. No man in Linn county took a greater pride in his home than Dr. Dallas. His home in Liberty township bears every evidence of neatness and order. A prettier home is not to be found in Linn county. All the buildings are substantial and neat. No slipshod or untidiness was permitted. Thoroughness was his motto.

In the sick room he was self-possessed and calm under all circumstances. If the sanitary conditions were not as they should have been he would not rest until such changes as were necessary were made good . His patients, no matter what their circumstances were, they always received the best service he was able to give. Day and night he answered calls and often when he should have been in bed. He was faithful to those he served and when others worked for him he expected good service also. A helper that did not do work right he would not have around him. He led all others in the work of charity. When misfortune came to one of his friends he was the first to respond. A few years ago when John W. Cannon's house burned down leaving Mr. Cannon in very straited circumstances, with a large family to support. Dr. Dallas was in his buggy with a subscription paper in less than an hour after hearing of it and he did not cease his work until he bad raised sufficient funds to rebuild another. When the cyclone destroyed Parker in 1893 Dr. Dallas headed the list. When Jacob Miner's barn burned several years ago the next mail carried a receipt in full for the account the doctor had against him and it was no small account. I might mention a score of cases similar to the above which prove his generous heart and noble character.

Old friends were not forgotten by him. He never failed to hunt them up when away from home and give them a word of cheer. The doctor was an agnostic in belief and an admirer of Robert Ingersoll. He loved his home and family and was ever solicitous for their welfare. Firm, yet kind and gentle, fearless in thought and action he will be missed among his hosts of friends in Linn and Miami counties. Funeral services were held at the residence conducted by Ed. Blair in the absence of Ed. H. Smith, whose sickness prevented his attendance. Mrs. Bentley, of Mound City, also read Will Carleton's "Old Country Doctor," a poem which the doctor greatly admired and when he first read it he laid it away with the request that it be read at his funeral. A few years ago the doctor secured a lot in the beautiful Oak Lawn cemetery at La Cygne, and placed thereon a monument of Kansas stone with the simple inscription "Dallas" carved upon it. All his business affairs had been carefully looked after with the same characteristic fore sight that had been his through life. Interment was made in the Oak Lawn cemetery at La Cygne a large number of his friends from Liberty and Scott townships following the remains to their last resting place. Relatives present at the funeral were his brothers, Everett Dallas, of Topeka, C. E. Dallas, of Mound City, and his sister, Mrs. Adda E. Griswold, of Topeka, Mr: William Corn, of Kansas City, Mo. and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lyon of Galesburg, Illinois.

All the buildings are substantial and neat, No slipshod or untidiness was permitted. Thoroughness was his motto.

In the sick room he was self-possessed and calm under all circums tances. If the sanitary conditions were not as they should have been he would not rest until such changes as were necessary were made good. His patients, no matter what their circumstances were, they always received the best service he was able to give. Day and night he answered calls and often when he should have been in bed. He was faithful to those he served and when others worked for him he expected good service also. A helper that did not do work right he would not have around him. He led all others in the work of charity. When misfortune came to one of his friends he was the first to respond. A few years ago when John W. Cannon's house burned down leaving Mr. Cannon in very straited circumstances, with a large family to support. Dr. Dallas was in his buggy with a subscription paper in less than an hour after hearing of it and he did not cease his work until he had raised sufficient funds to rebuild another. When the cyclone destroyed Parker in 1893 Dr. Dallas headed the list. When Jacob Miner's barn burned several years ago the next mail carried a receipt in full for the account the doctor had against him and it was no small account. I might mention a score of cases similar to the above which prove his generous heart and noble character.

Old friends were not forgotten by him. He never failed to hunt them up when away from home and give them a word of cheer. The doctor was an agnostic in belief and an admirer of Robert Ingersoll. He loved his home and family and was ever solicitous for their welfare. Firm, yet kind and gentle, fearless in thought and action he will be missed among his hosts of friends in Linn and Miami counties. Funeral services were held at the residence conducted by Ed. Blair in the absence of Ed. R. Smith, whose sickness prevented his attendance. Mrs. Bentley, of Mound City, also read Will Carleton's "Old Country Doctor," a poem which the doctor greatly admired and when he first read it he laid it away with the request that it be read at his funeral. A few years ago the doctor secured a lot in the beautiful Oak Lawn cemetery at La Cygne, and placed thereon a monument of Kansas stone with the simple inscription "Dallas" carved upon it. All his business affairs had been carefully looked after with the same characteristic foresight that had been his through life. Interment was made in the Oak Lawn cemetery at La Cygne a large number of his friends from Liberty and Scott townships following the remains to their last resting place. Relatives present at the funeral were his brothers, Everett Dallas, of Topeka, C. E. Dallas, of Mound City, and his sister, Mrs. Adda E. Griswold, of Topeka, Mr. William Corn, of Kansas City, Mo. and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lyon of Galesburg, Illinois.

Loepp

Long-time resident of Beaver County, George W. Loepp, died June 20, 2015, at Bradford Village Assisted Living in Edmond, OK. He was preceded death by his wife, Kathlyn V. (Green) Loepp, on Dec. 20, 2007. George was born on Sept. 26, 1916 in Floris, OK, to his parents Peter and Agnetha Loepp, the youngest of six children. His wife, Kathlyn, was born just fifteen minutes earlier in Forgan, OK.

George began his schooling at Locust Grove near Turpin, graduated from high school at Greenough, and also Panhandle College where he met Kathlyn. The newlyweds began their careers as teachers at Turpin High School. During World War II, jobs in the aircraft industry were in demand, so the young couple moved to Wichita, KS, for his job as design engineer at Beechcraft and Boeing. In Wichita, three children were born–Janis Kathleen, James Martin, and Gary William who died at birth. When George inherited his father’s lands in Beaver County, the family returned where George farmed and taught school in Beaver and Liberal, KS. In 1957, they purchased farmland in the Forgan area. George also taught sixth grade and was elementary principal. After receiving his Master’s Degree from Oklahoma State University, he was later named Superintendent of the Forgan Public Schools until his retirement in 1973. He continued to farm and ranch until they moved to Beaver in 1986. They became active in the Beaver community mostly through their church at Beaver United Methodist.

Sporting events were his love, and George delighted in seeing his grandchildren compete in football, basketball, track, wrestling, and pom/dance competitions. He also loved the land, the crops, the garden, flowers and trees, and his herds.

He leaves in passing his children... His thirteen grandchildren include...

Three great-grandchildren are... George also leaves a sister-in-law... and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were held June 23, 2015, at the Pioneer Cemetery in Beaver. Memorials are suggested to Forgan Public Schools and Beaver United Methodist Church.

In Remembrance
Both former students and faculty remember George Loepp as an outstanding superintendent who had a positive influence on their lives during the years 1957-1973 when he served as the leader of the Forgan Public Schools. During that time his leadership reflected the major changes about to take place in the way schools were financed and administered. He was ahead of his time in implementing those changes.
Mr. Loepp inherited a brand new school building, having just moved into it in February 1957 before he became superintendent in July. Although everything was new, there were still lots to be done! During his tenure he realized that there was not a facility for the superior music department led by Aubrey Pierce, and later by Emma Lou Hodges, so Mr. Loepp led a bond election to build on not one, but two new rooms for both band and vocal programs. The vocal room was a part of the new facilities for implementing a special education program and a kindergarten classroom, both new to the curriculum. In fact, Loepp was so far ahead of this time that it was another nine years before national legislation provided mandatory programs for special needs students. He then set out to find state support and faculty for both programs, hiring Margaret Nichols, who became the administrator of special education, as well as their teacher.
At the same time, this innovative superintendent realized the new emphasis on reading programs nationally and hired a special reading teacher to supplement the reading instruction in the elementary classrooms. His encouraged his wife Kathlyn to complete her Master’s degree in reading instruction to implement this new trend, one of the first in the state as well as nationally.
In addition, this rural Panhandle superintendent carried forward the new national program called Core Curriculum in 1957, long before the latest effort to do so. However, this one was an interdisciplinary program that used multiple teachers and curriculum standards to integrate instruction instead of teaching each in a vacuum. He then sent his new English and social science teachers to Oklahoma State University for special training and facilitated their having adjoining classrooms for joint instruction. This method proved to be successful nationally and the idea is still used in many schools across the country, especially in metropolitan areas.
Only a few years after that, it became obvious that the library that also served as an English classroom was too small for the expansion of the collection as Mr. Loepp saw the need. Therefore, he implemented the building of the new library at the front entrance to the building, as well as adding a superintendent’s office and meeting room for the Board of Education. Mr. Loepp felt that was essential since the original space for both the superintendent’s and high school principal’s offices were quite small and held no privacy for consultation with either students or parents. He shared the new superintendent's space for Board of Education meetings.

One of the outstanding marks of Loepp's tenure was his emphasis on a full rounded academic program. During those years of his tenure, music students qualified for state contests yearly, as well as being recognized by colleges and universities in the area. Loepp also provided for a speech and debate program, again with students in regional and state contests each year. He expected his students to be winners in academics, as well as in the excellent athletic programs in the school. His daily visibility and words of encouragement conveyed that to all of the students, no matter what their interests were.

His commitment to athletics is evident in the fact that Forgan has a real football field, fenced in and with a stadium and concession stands, something they had not had before Loepp's time, even though they had had a football team as early as the 1920's. Finally, a few years ago the Forgan patrons named the field for its founder, Loepp Field, and even though recently the name has been removed, those who remember his efforts to get a field that was the pride of the Forgan Community still know who built it! He then raised funds to build a new field house and basketball court to the east of the one built by the WPA in the 1930's. This new building was used for the first time in 1967 and today is the home of basketball games, as well as graduation ceremonies and other community activities.

Mr. Loepp was typical of many of that second and third generation descendants of European immigrants in Beaver County in that he knew a quality education was the key to a better life and a successful future. He will long be remembered by his students and faculty.

Harry Leon Greene was born on June 26, 1919 in El Reno, Oklahoma, and died on December 19, 2012 in Tulsa. Following his retirement, Harry's hobbies included researching and mapping the history of Beaver County, and extensive family genealogy. A member of St. Mark's Methodist Church in Tulsa for over 50 years, Harry was preceded in death by his wife, Eva Priscilla (Pat) DeCoster Greene in June 2012. He is survived by: children and step-children... thirteen grandchildren; and many great-grandchildren.

Obituary of Eva Priscilla (DeCoster) Willoughby Greene, ID = 1542414

(Partially copied from the Tulsa World, Tulsa, OK, 12 June 2012, online.)

Eva Priscilla DeCoster Greene

Eva Priscilla DeCoster Greene, age 93, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, the 5th day of June, 2012 at home. “Pat,” as friends and family knew her, was born Eva Priscilla DeCoster on October 12, 1918 in Quebec, Canada. Her mother was one of nine children, her father one of eight. Pat was raised in a loving and closely-connected family, with two brothers, Robert and Donald, and one sister, Mary, all now deceased. She had a large church family as well. When she was 9 years old, her family settled into a farm in Pownal, Maine. Pat wrote poetry from a young age, and her favorite poet to read and quote throughout her life was Robert Frost, who wrote of the rural New England experience of her time. She graduated from high school in Yarmouth, Maine in 1936, then from Gorham Normal School, now the University of Southern Maine, a few years later. She first taught 5th through 8th grades in a two room schoolhouse in North Conway, New Hampshire, where she and her students often skied to school in winter. Pat married Roy W. Willoughby, a World War II Navy radioman, in 1943, and they were married until his death in 1957. They had added three children... to their family of four, as “Red” had two daughters... from a previous marriage. Pat supported her three younger children in the wake of Red’s death, working fulltime, while going to school in the evenings and summers, and singing in the church choir at St. Mark’s Methodist Church, of which she was a charter member. In this church choir, Pat met her second husband... a native Oklahoman who experienced some of the worst of the Depression in the Oklahoma Panhandle, and an aeronautical engineer and a graduate of Oklahoma A&M (OSU). They were married in 1960. Pat graduated from the University of Tulsa in 1962 and began teaching Spanish and French at Edison and later went back to TU to earn an additional major in English, which she taught at Memorial High School. Teaching was a great passion for Pat for the next twenty years. Then, following retirement, and although she had always created beautiful “hand work,” (knitting and crocheting many afghans and sweaters for family) she began to quilt, and this became a love of Pat’s. She added volunteering as a retirement pastime, along with traveling and time with family. Her family and friends will remember Pat for her skillful blending of three families, based on intelligence, love and acceptance of people, and a vibrant sense of humor and hospitality. They will remember her love of travel, of the arts, and especially her love of poetry. Many have savored long and interesting letters from her, as she corresponded extensively with family and friends in several states and three continents. She is survived by her husband... whom she loved dearly, and her children... thirteen grandchildren, and many great-grandchildren. A memorial service will be held Friday, June 15th at 10:30am at St. Mark's Methodist Church, 10513 East Admiral Place, Tulsa, reception following. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Hospice of Green Country or St. Mark's Methodist Church.

Obituary of Kenneth Frederick Churchill, ID = 1542652

Kenneth Churchill
March 29, 1918 - October 20, 2010

Kenneth F. Churchill, age 92, a resident of Chillicothe, passed away at Hedrick Medical Center on Wednesday, October 20, 2010.

Kenneth was born son of Cliffton Bondurant and Anna Louise (Gehlhaar) Churchill on March 29, 1918 in Garden Grove, Iowa. Kenneth attended grade school and high school in Meadville, Missouri, graduating in 1936. Upon graduation, he immediately entered into the trucking business under the guidance of his late father, Cliff Churchill. Kenneth married Eugenia (Jeanne) Minnis on May 25, 1940. Jeanne preceded him in death on August 15, 2010.

Kenneth's strong work ethic began on the farm and continued as he worked hard and long beside his father and brothers. His father, Cliff, started the business as an individual in 1926 before many gravel roads or concrete pavement existed. Cliff began the business with one Dodge straight truck hauling livestock from the rural area to Kansas City, St. Joseph, and later to St. Louis, and hauling feed, tankage, and vinegar in wooden barrels back into the North Missouri area. All of this was prior to the state and federal regulation of the trucking industry. In 1932, the Missouri legislature passed laws to regulate motor carriers. In 1935, federal laws were passed to regulate operations which were managed by the Interstate Commerce Commission. CHTL was granted as a regular route with authority to transport general commodities, as well as irregular routes between Meadville, Missouri, and all points in Illinois, Iowa, and Missouri. In later years, this authority proved quite helpful in expanding operations into major cities. The company was incorporated in 1935 and was owned by Cliff Churchill, Mr. J.E. Creason, and Mr. John Miller (all of Meadville). Later, both gentlemen sold their interest in the company to Churchill. In 1936, ownership reverted to a family-owned corporation, and Kenneth's mother became a stockholder and member of the Board of Directors. In 1943, the company moved its general offices from Meadville, Missouri, to Chillicothe, Missouri, purchasing all or parts of numerous other carriers throughout the years.

Since 1936, Kenneth has been associated with Churchill Truck Lines, Inc., serving as Secretary-Treasurer from 1936 to 1960, President from 1960 to 1966; and Chairman of the Board and president from 1966 to the present. There was never a task too remedial, too mundane, too unimportant, or too dirty to do as he worked long and hard to grow a very successful business in a very tough, highly competitive industry. As president and chairman of the board, he arrived for work by 6:30 a.m. and rarely left before 7 p.m. Through the years, he touched business associates; employees; competitors; a variety of board members he served with on local, state, and national levels; friends; acquaintances; and family. His leadership and day-to-day operation of his company reached into 26 states with 100 terminals employing several hundreds of people. Receiving national, statewide, and regional recognition and awards, he was also committed to the community where he kept his company although many thought he should move his headquarters to the city. Kenneth's distinctive handwriting was always admired and noticed - he said his elementary teachers made him practice over and over to achieve this level of quality. His dedication and effort paid off. His quality of leadership and success in management may be seen by the summarized list of achievements over his lifetime. This list was created in 1992, which was 18 years ago... since that time, he continued to go to work every day, continued to generously contribute to the community where he lived, and continued to be admired wherever he went.

Kenneth was a recipient of the "Frank G. Campbell Award for Outstanding Service" in 1980. This award is given to an individual in Missouri for his/her distinguished record of service to the Transportation industry, the Missouri Motor Carriers Association, and his/her community. In 1986, he was named the Chillicothe Chamber of Commerce "Business Person of the Year."
His business activities included: Served as President and Vice President of the Missouri Bus and Trucking Association, served many years on the Board of Directors, served and chaired various standing committees, including Public Relations, Legislative, and Membership, Past President (1966) and member of the Missouri Motor Carriers Association (MMCA) Executive Committee and Board of Directors since before 1960, Member of the Association Finance & Administrative Committee MMCA, Chairman of the Committee for Sound Transportation, Board member and Past President of Missouri-Kansas Motor Carrier Conference, Board of Directors of the Rocky Mountain Motor Tariff Bureau, Past President of Transport Clearings-Midwest and member of Board of Directors, Vice Chairman from Missouri for the American Trucking Association (1967-1988), ATA Vice Chairman at Large (1988-1990),ATA Executive Committee member, Chairman of the Special Committee of Nominations for Officers of the Middle west Motor Freight Bureau (MWMFB), Chairman of Executive Committee of MWMFB, Member of MWMFB Board of Directors, Treasurer of the Central States Motor Freight Bureau (CMB) Board of Trustees, Board of Directors of American Trucking Association (ATA), ATA's 1992 National Membership Task Force, First Vice-Chairman and Board member of the Regular Route Common Carrier Conference of the American Trucking Association, Regular Common Carrier Conference (RCCC) Administrative & Finance Committee, RCCC Strategic Planning Committee, Board of Governors of the Southern Motor Carriers Rate Conference, Board member of Trucking Management, Inc., Washington D.C., Board of Directors - Excalibur Insurance Company, Carrollton, Texas, Served many years working on the Missouri Economic Development, Export and Infrastructure Board in Jefferson City, Diplomat Club member (industry political action committee), Early volunteer to help home community cut down noise from truck traffic.

G. L. MILLER IS DEAD

GARDEN CITY'S MAYOR AND SPLENDID CITIZEN PASSED AWAY THIS MORNING.

WAS AT KIRKSVILLE

Where He Had Been for 2 Weeks Trying to Regain His Health — Mrs. Miller Was With Him Funeral Probably Sunday.

George Lynn Miller died this morning at 10 o'clock at Kirksville, Missouri, where he went two weeks ago for treatment.

The information came in a telegram from Mrs. Miller to O. H. Foster, Mr. Miller's law partner. No particulars were given, so the community is at a loss to know just when he began to fail, and exactly what it was that caused his death.

Mr. Foster, Frank M. Dunn, and Mrs. C. E. Dickinson left this afternoon for Kirksville. Mrs. Dunn and Mrs. Dickinson are brother and sister of Mrs. Miller's.

The effort was made to get into communication with Fred Dunn, brother of Mrs. Miler, at Santa Fe, but this was impossible. No telephone service, even via Fowler, is possible today.

The remains will be brought home at once, and it is possible that the funeral will take place Sunday. This, of course, however, rests entirely with Mrs. Miller and relatives. If agreeable to Mrs. Miller, the Masons will participate in the funeral exercises.

Mr. Miller has been in poor health for the past year. He suffered a nervous breakdown, though he still attended to considerable business up to the day of his departure for Kirksville.

The two small children of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Leonore and Philip, were left behind when their parents went away, and have been cared for in their absence by Mrs. J. M.Dunn, and Mrs. C. E. Dickinson, mother and sister of Mrs. Miller's.

George Lynn Miller was 44 years of age. He was born in Illinois, and came to Garden City in 1885. Before that, he lived in Pawnee county. He was an energetic man, full of life and action, kindly, charitable, forceful. He left his impress upon the community as few men have done. He was eminently successful, both in law and business, and leaves a considerable estate, including handsome city property, and his splendid farm under the government ditch north of town. It was this farm that gave Mayor Miller his greatest pride and attention in the last year or so, and his beets were among the finest if not the finest, in the valley.

Mr. Miller was county attorney of Finney county from 1892 to 1895, and again from 1899 to 1903. He was city attorney from 1895 to 1899. He was member of the council from 1903 to 1905 and was elected mayor the latter year, and reelected in 1907. He was therefore closing his second term as mayor, and the city never had a better or more faithful official or executive. His pride was the betterment of the town, especially in a physical way, and he gave freely of his time and money to make Garden City a good place in which to live. Especially was this true in the current year, when Garden City has made such apparent strides in its progress and its physical appearance.

Mr. Miller was a strong Republican in politics, and was frequently discussed for higher honors in that direction. Had his health permitted, he would have been the party nominee for state senator this year.

The Industrial club will miss Mayor Miller, for he was one of its most loyal and active members, a director for years, and its president in the years 1905 and 1906.

The mayor was a Mason, belonging to the Blue Lodge, Chapter, and Commandery. He took great interest in Masonry, and may be said to have exemplified in every respect the teachings and practice of that greatest of fraternal orders. He was also a Knight of Pythias. He had been a member of the Christian church, and his private life was blameless and conspicuously pure and exemplary.

Mr. Miller was married about twelve years ago to Miss Laura Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dunn, of this city, and a little daughter, Lenore, and a little son, Philip, were the result of the union. Mr. Miller was vastly attached to his home his wife, and his children.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, “Leonore” should be Lenore; this is the only record I’ve ever seen where his son’s given name was not Phil.)

Obituary of Alexander Conley Bondurant, ID = 1544

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Des Moines Gazette, Des Moines, IA, Thursday, 21 Sept. 1899, page 8.)

DEATH OF A. C. BONDURANT.

Alexander C. Bondurant, founder of the town of Bondurant, and one of the early settlers of Polk County. died at his home in Bondurant Sunday night from heart failure. He had been affected by heart trouble for some time, nevertheless his death came as a shock. The funeral was held at the Christian church at Bondurant Monday at 11 a. m. The services were conducted by Rev. I. N. McCash, assisted by the local pastor, Rev. Arthur C. Vail.

Mr. Bondurant was born in Sangamon county, Illinois, September 1, 1829. His parents, Joseph and Martha Bondurant, were natives of Boone County, Kentucky, but removed to Illinois in 1828. Mr. Bondurant's early life was unlike that of other farmer boys in early days in Illinois. He obtained the elements of an education at the local school. He was much associated with his brother, Thomas, who was but a year younger. Together they took many contracts for breaking prairie and earned enough money to enable them to enter government land. Thomas Bondurant went to Piatt County, Illinois, and entered a quarter section. Alexander Bondurant came to Polk County, Iowa, and entered 320 acres in Franklin Township, which he retained until his death. He constructed a small house, which is still standing. He gradually increased his landed possessions until they aggregated nearly 3,000 acres.

Mr. Bondurant was married to Margaret M. Brooks October 27, 1861. She was a daughter of Stephen Brooks. a native of Indiana and a Polk County pioneer. They were the parents of eight children, Emma B., the wife of John W. Redlingeshafer of Douglass township; Fannie, wife of S. C. Perdue of Douglass township; Martha E. and Frank, both dead, and Florence, Burton, Nellie and Alexander C. Bondurant.

Mr. Bondurant was always an active church worker. He assisted in funding the church at Altoona, to which he gave forty acres of land, the income from which furnishes a yearly source of revenue. He gave $500 to Drake University some years ago. He founded and platted the village of Bondurant, which was named for him. During the early years of the town he gave to all willing to open a business a town lot. He also gave the ground upon which the Christian church is erected, he and others, for the sake of convenience, withdrawing from the Altoona church and lending support to the new society. For many years he devoted the use of thirty acres of corn land to the church. Members of the congregation cultivated and gleaned the crop, and the proceeds from the sale went to the church.

Obituary of David S. & Pamela S. (Baxter) Closson, ID = 15441251
(Found online at F-A-G, created by dawgman.)

David S. Clossen (age 35) and his wife, Pamela S. Clossen (age 32) were killed on Sunday, May 18, 1980 in a traffic accident that occurred along southbound I-5 near the Coweeman River Bridge (near Kelso WA) from traffic conditions that were affected by the eruption of Mt. St. Helens.

According to a news article that appeared in the Monday, May 19, 1980 edition of the Longview Daily News (pg B2), a truck-trailer rig slammed into three cars after one had stalled resulting in a chain-reaction accident. The Clossons were killed in the accident when their car burst into flames.

Although not included among the official death toll for the 57 listed victims of Mt. St. Helens, the Clossons were killed in circumstances involving the May 18, 1980 eruption of Mt. St. Helens and so became victims of that fateful day nonetheless. According to Washington State Police troopers, traffic conditions were affected by a number of panicked motorists fleeing the eruption of Mt. St. Helens in this area.
