Obituary of Morris Alexander 'Morry' Bondurant, ID = 154468

(Found online, posted by volunteerMT; obit written by Joshua Robin and published in The Seattle Times, Seattle, WA, Sunday, 4 June 2000.)

MORRIS BONDURANT worked for Boeing, was union leader
By Joshua Robin

Morris Bondurant had a lot weighing on his mind the day he hung his nose over the fence at Boeing Field.

It was 1941 and he had recently been fired from a job at the post office. He had a wife and children to feed.

Mr. Bondurant always liked airplanes, and he thought watching them defy gravity over what was then a grassy Seattle airstrip might clear his head.

As it ended up, the day changed his life.

Mr. Bondurant would work for Boeing for 32 years in airplane manufacturing and test flights. He also became the highly regarded president of the aeromechanics union.

Mr. Bondurant, known as Morry, died at his Everett home Wednesday (May 31) from several illnesses. He was 90.

Mr. Bondurant hadn't always been pro-union. Before going to work for Boeing, he had crossed a picket line at a job servicing new cars. After the union at that job won its strike, he talked with several union officials and was converted.

Mr. Bondurant's son, Ted, of Forks, Clallam County, said his father was trusted by co-workers. He became a shop steward by accident - after gaining the eye of union officials after he complained to Boeing management about a workplace problem.

"The members saw something in him that they wanted in a leader," his son said. "He's a remarkable person for the little person."

Mr. Bondurant also served on the union's district council for 20 years and was active in the 1948 Boeing strike, which lasted for five months.

According to Mr. Bondurant's daughter Susan of Brooklyn, N.Y., the best crew her father worked with were the so-called "Rosie the Riveter" women who built planes for Boeing during World War II, when male workers were scarce. He also enjoyed meeting and working with test pilots.

Mr. Bondurant also was involved with the Boy Scouts and the Boeing Employees Good Neighbor Fund.

His son said he was "a remarkably patient man, with great intuition."

"I thought other parents should take lessons from him . . . He never criticized me, never tore me down."

Mr. Bondurant was born Sept. 16, 1909, in Kalispell, Mont., to parents who were both ranchers. He came to Seattle in 1930, where he first worked as a guide to mining camps in the Cascades.

In addition to his two children, Mr. Bondurant is survived by six grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, and six great-great-grandchildren. A daughter, Patricia, died in 1967 of Hodgkin's disease.

Mr. Bondurant's first wife, Ann, died in 1965. His second wife, Dorothy Nyquist, died in 1986.

A memorial service will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 3808 S. Angeline St., Seattle.

Remembrances in Morris Bondurant's name may go to any charity.

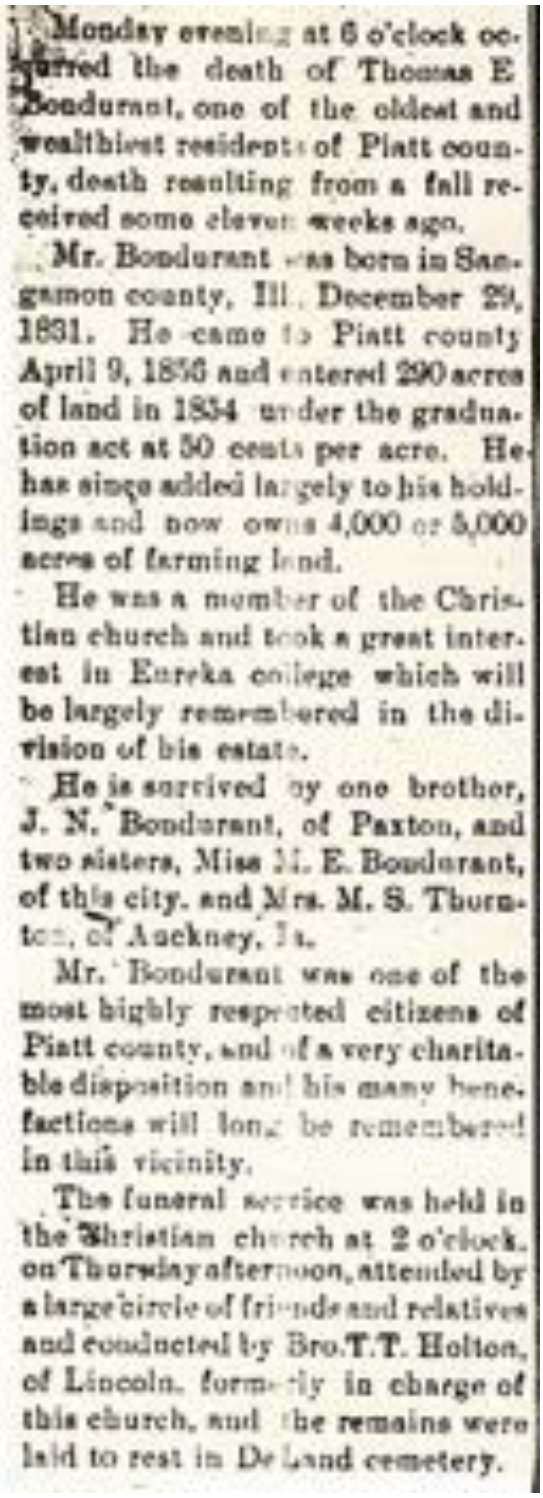
Obituaries of Thomas Early Bondurant, ID = 1545

(Found online at F-A-G, memorial created by Max Turpin.)



Monday evening at 6 o'clock occurred the death of Thomas E Bondurant, one of the oldest and wealthiest residents of Piatt county, death resulting from a fall received some eleven weeks ago.

Mr. Bondurant was born in Sangamon county, Ill. December 29, 1831. He came to Piatt county April 9, 1856 and entered 290 acres of land in 1854 under the graduation act at 50 cents per acre. He has since added largely to his holdings and now owns 4,000 or 5,000 acres of farming land.

He was a member of the Christian church and took a great interest in Eureka college which will be largely remembered in the division of his estate.

He is survived by one brother, J. N. Bondurant, of Paxton, and two sisters, Miss M. E. Bondurant, of this city, and Mrs. M. S. Thornton, of Auckney, Ia.

Mr. Bondurant was one of the most highly respected citizens of Piatt county, and of a very charitable disposition and his many benefactions will long be remembered in this vicinity.

The funeral service was held in the Christian church at 2 o'clock, on Thursday afternoon, attended by a large circle of friends and relatives and conducted by Bro. T. T. Holton, of Lincoln, formerly in charge of this church, and the remains were laid to rest in De Land cemetery.

THOMAS E. BONDURANT

A Firm Friend of Eureka College Passes Away at DeLand.

Word was received in this city Tuesday of the death of Thomas Bondurant, which occured at his home in DeLand Monday night. Mr. Bondurant was one of the firm friends of Eureka college and President Hieronymus is in attendance at the funeral, which occured this afternoon in that city. A committee composed of T. J. McGuire to represent the board of trustees, Prof. Radford, the faculty and F. W. Sutton, the students, was appointed to draft resolutions of sympathy.

Mr. Bondurant's death was the result of a fall three months ago. He was born in Sangamon county December 26, 1831, and went to Piatt county in 1856, where he entered 200 acres of land under the graduation act, at fifty cents per acre.

At the time of his death he was the owner of between 4,000 and 5,000 acres of the richest land in central Illinois, most of it in Piatt county. He was greatly interested in the work of the college in this city, and gave it large sums during his life. It is thought the institution is one of the principal beneficiaries of his will. He never married and is survived by a brother and two sisters.

(Note by RRC: By my calculation, Thomas was aged 83 years, 11 months and 1 day at death. Based on other sources, Thomas & Margaret were married on the 28th, not the 20th; "Co. A" is Co. I in other sources.)

Rattlesnake Bites Fatal to Obliging Reptile Collector

Word has just been received here by friends of Dr. Albert Allen, druggist of Coral Gables, and former resident of West. Palm Beach, of his death several days ago from bites inflicted by a rattlesnake.

Dr. Allen, his friends here were informed, was attempting to extract tho fangs of the reptile when it bit him on tho left hand and again bit him as he attempted to suck the poison from the wound. The second wound was in the right temple. He died about eight hours after being bitten. The snake which caused his death was to have been placed in a collection of reptiles belonging to a friend, it was said.

Both Dr. Allen and his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Lillian T. Thornton, were well-known here. His wife was formerly the operator of the Thornton inn of West Palm Beach. The couple married about four years ago.

PIATT WOMAN LEADER DIES

Mrs. Lucy T. Trenchard, wife of G. B. Trenchard, president of the First National bank of DeLand, died at 7:30 o'clock Saturday morning after several months suffering. Death was caused from a tumor on the spinal column, which caused paralysis and nervous trouble. Mrs. Trenchard had been bedfast since last September, and her condition gradually grew worse, but it was not until the last week that hopes of her recovery were given up. She was aged 50 years, 10 months and 7 days. Her death coming just five weeks after that of her aunt, Miss Mary E. Bondurant, is a shock to her many friends and relatives in that community.

Lucy Thornton was born in Dee Moines, Iowa, January 12, 1871, the daughter of William and Fannie Thornton, the youngest of three children. About 1890 she moved to DeLand to make her home with her uncle and aunt, T. E. and Mary Bondurant. In 1898 she was married to George R. Trenchard, of that place.

Two children were born to them, Wendell and Mary, who with the father survive. She also leaves her aged father and stepmother, one sister, Miss Lillie Thornton, of Palm Beach, Fla., and one brother, Harry Thornton, of Des Moines, Iowa.

The funeral services were held from the Christian church in DeLand Monday afternoon, 2:30 oclock, and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Fisher of Champaign; Rev. John R. Golden, of Decatur; Rev. T. T. Holton, Bloomington and Rev. D. Morris of the Christian church of DeLand. Interment was made in the DeLand cemetery.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, "G. B." should be G. R.; she was born in Ankeny, near Des Moines; she was the 2nd of 3 children.)

A LIFE TO CELEBRATE & REMEMBER

Mary Trenchard Timmons was born on September 22, 1906 in DeLand, Illinois, the daughter of Lucy Thornton and George R. Trenchard. She graduated from DeLand High School in 1924 and Dana Hall School, Wellesley, Massachusetts in 1925. Mary received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Illinois in 1929, and then served for a time as assistant dean of women.

She married Ray H. Timmons, who died in 1978. Together they raised a daughter and a son, both of whom survive her: Mary Ellen Emerson (husband, Mark) of New York City; and George T. Timmons (wife, Susan, of Monticello, Illinois). Also surviving are three grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Mary was an active and energetic member of Covenant Presbyterian Church, attending weekly Prayer Cordon meetings and Sunday worship services well into her late nineties. Also active in civic and community groups, she served on the board of the Presbyterian SeniorCare in Oakmont and enjoyed membership in the Literary Club of Butler and the Butler Garden Club.

Having witnessed a full century of change and yet firmly committed to the constancy of family, faith and friendships, Mary died on Saturday, May 5, 2007 following several months of ill health and confinement to her Pennsylvania home, Windy Knoll.

Mary's final resting place will be in DeLand, Illinois, where her life's journey comes full-circle to the beloved farmland of her birth. She made a home wherever her heart led her to live and to love. We bid not "good-bye," but "farewell 'til we meet again" to our sister in the Lord, Mary Timmons. May she rest in the fullness of God's eternal peace.

Summer and winter, and springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon and stars in their courses above,
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.

Great is Thy faithfulness, Great is Thy faithfulness,
Morning by morning new mercies I see:
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!

J. N. BONDURANT
PASSED AWAY

Death Occurrs at Sumner Mo.
Home Following Stroke.
Funeral Here Monday

Our citizens were shocked Friday when the news of the death of J. N. Bondurant was received from his home near Sumner, Mo. The message which was received had been sent by Frank Bondurant, son of the deceased, and was as follows: "Father passed away at 12:15 o'clock Thursday night. A party of four will arrive in Paxton Sunday noon by way of Chicago. Would ask that funeral preparations be made for Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, service to be held at the M. E. church in Paxton."

A message was received Thursday in Paxton which brought the news that Mr. Bondurant had suffered a stroke of paralysis on Wednesday and that his entire right side had been affected. The message stated that his condition was serious, and friends in Paxton who have known that he had been in poor health for many months were not surprised when the news of his death was received. Mr. Bondurant had been troubled with a very high blood pressure for a long time and in March, 1918, he went to his farm near Sumner, Mo., where he could rest and retire from active life.

The deceased was a resident of Paxton for many years and was one of the most extensive land owners of this community. He was a member of the M. E. church and was a good man, honored and respected by all who knew him. His death is received with deepest sorrow and the Record and friends join in extending sympathy to the widow and son, Frank Bondurant.

Funeral Service Held Monday Afternoon at M. E. Church, Rev. P. P. Carson Officiating.

The remains of J. N. Bondurant, accompanied by his widow, his son, Frank Bondurant, and wife, of Warrensburg, Mo., and Edward Handley of Britton, Mich., arrived in Paxton Sunday noon from Sumner, Mo., where the deceased passed away on Thursday night at his farm home.

The body was taken to the home on West Lawn in Paxton, where it lay in state until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when services were conducted at the M. E. church. Rev. P. P. Carson of Springfield, Illl., former pastor of the local church, officiated and preached a very consoling and comforting sermon. During the services the quartet consisting of Messrs. Walter Klest, Everett Pierce, J. Dale Ellithorp and J. A. Kemp beautifully rendered the selections, "Rock of Ages" and "Going Down the Valley," which were favorites of the deceased.

At the close of the services the cortege moved to Glen cemetery, where burial occurred. The pall bearers were Messrs. John Coulter, Chas. Kridner, John Plackett, M. L. McQuiston, W. H. Hunter, l.awrence Parker, W. S. Corbly and Henry Corbly.

During his last illness Mr. Bondurant was very anxious to come hack home, and preparations were being made by his family to bring him to Paxton on a stretcher, that his wish might be fulfilled. He was taken with a stroke of apoplexy, however, and passed away the following day.

Obituary.

Rev. Carson read the following obituary during the services:

On May 2nd, 1844, the home of Joseph and Martha Thorpe Bondurant of Mechanicsburg, Ill., was blessed by a son — Joseph Newton Bondurant. For a little more than seventy-five years the world knew and was blessed by his life — the greater part of which was spent at Mechanicsburg and Paxton, Ill.

In 1867 he was married to Sarah M. Devore of Monticello, Ill. To this union three sons were born William, Ernest and Frank — the oldest two dying in childhood.

In 1881 Paxton became the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bondurant, at which place, in 1893, Mrs. Bondurant died.

On June 27th, I895, occurred the marriage of Mr. Bondurant and Miss Eleanor Handley, who survives to mourn his loss.

The one great aim of Mr. Bondurant's life was to leave a place better than he found it, and in his chosen profession, that of farming, he found wide scope for carrying out this ideal. He often expressed the thought that the land was given to us as a trust which we were to develop and to make better for the generations to come. In this form of practical Christianity he used the splendid facilities with which God had endowed him. In the full use of these God given faculties on August 14th, 1919, in Sumner Mo., he lay down to rest amidst the scenes of nature which he so much loved.

In young manhood he became identified with the Methodist Episcopal church, which he loved and served until the father called him home.

Besides his widow he leaves one son, Flank L. Bondurant, and three granddaughters, Medora, Gladys and Lillian Bondurant, of Warrensburg, Mo.

ELEANOR JONES

Eleanor Park Jones Beloved wife and mother Eleanor Park Jones (Ellie) passed from this life to her eternal life on July 29, 2008.She leaves an enormous void in the hearts of her husband and family. Where she has brought such great joy and tenderness into our lives, there is now a deep feeling of loss and heartache for our temporary separation. She made our life heavenly here; it will truly be heaven to be with her again. Ellie was born in 1932 to Richard E. and Willian Medora Park in Oak Park, Ill. She received her B.A. cum laude, in History at Grinnell College in Iowa where she was active in Mortar Board, women's league president, modeling, dance and drama. She did graduate work at Harvard University (Radcliffe) majoring in International Relations - and there she met … her future husband. They were married in 1955, and sealed in the Salt Lake LDS Temple by Elder Richard L. Evans. After two years living in Boston, she and … moved to Burbank, CA. Then they moved again, this time to Salt Lake City, UT. In the first 10 years of their marriage, she and … had seven children which she nurtured with exceptional love and joy. In 1967, she and her husband, together with their seven children (ages 1 to 10 years old) were called to preside over the Uruguay-Paraguay Mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS). In preparation, Ellie spent two full months as a sister missionary at the Language Training Mission in Provo, UT to learn Spanish. She became remarkably fluent during her first mission to Uruguay, where she was advisor to the Relief Society, Young Women's and Primary organizations of the mission. Upon their return to Utah, Ellie decided to complete a Master's degree in Educational Counseling at the BYU, during which she received straight A grades. Meanwhile the family moved to Alpine, Utah for "country living". Ellie became a master at home-made ice cream (from the cream of the family milk cow); making beef jerky (from the family fatted calf); and making wonderful crab apple, potawatamee, plum and chokecherry jellies. In 1992, Ellie and … now empty nesters, were called to preside over the Missionary Training Center in Mexico City. Again, Ellie's fluent Spanish served her and the missionaries well. Upon their release in 1995, she and … built a "retirement" home in the foothills of Bountiful, UT. Then they embarked upon a yearly summer study abroad program, first to Siena, Italy and then to Cambridge, England. Further plans were overruled by her increasing forgetfulness. She is survived by her eternal sweetheart,… seven children, … along with 27 grandchildren, seven great-grand-children and brother … She will be at home in heaven. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, August 2, 2008 at the Mueller Park 10th Ward Chapel, 1800 East Mueller Park Road (1800 S), Bountiful, UT. A viewing will be held Friday evening from 6- 8 p.m. at Russon Brothers Bountiful Mortuary, 295 North Main and Sat. morning from 9:30-10:30 a.m. at the church prior to services. Interment- Salt Lake City Cemetery. Online guest book at www.russonmortuary.com The family extends deep appreciation to the aides at Heritage Place for their constant, tender care in these last years. Also special thanks to Cathy and Emogene of Alpine Hospice.

Obituary of William Nathaniel Jones, ID = 154a311

WILLIAM NATHANIEL JONES

Sandy, Utah-William Nathaniel Jones 1926-2018. Beloved father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, William N. Jones (Bill) passed away peacefully in his sleep on October 19, 2018. He will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and by many colleagues from a lifetime of church and community service. His family is filled with joy knowing that Bill and his eternal companion, Eleanor Park Jones (Ellie), are together again.

Bill focused his life on nurturing his family and extending consecrated, Christ-like service to others. An only child, he and Ellie were lovingly devoted to raising a large family of children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. They took great care to ensure that their growing family was nurtured in the gospel of Jesus Christ. During her later years, Bill helped his beloved Ellie through her struggle with severe memory loss. The love, devotion, and strength they demonstrated during this difficult time provided inspiration to all who knew them.

Born on May 14, 1926 in Ogden, Utah to Bliss Ivins Jones and Aaron Barlow Jones, Bill enlisted in the U.S. Navy and served in the North China Sea. After returning from war, he completed his B.A. degree at the University of Utah in Electrical Engineering and Spanish. Bill also played football on the "U" varsity team. He later received an M.B.A. from the Harvard University Business School. At Harvard, Bill met the beautiful and talented Eleanor Park, who was studying at Harvard's Radcliffe College. Bill and many of his friends helped Ellie learn about the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. After joining the church, Bill and Ellie were married in 1955 and sealed in the Salt Lake Temple. Their love for each other was strong and exemplary throughout their lives.

Bill was deeply committed to consecrated service in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

He served as a Missionary (Uruguay-Paraguay), District President (Massachusetts), Bishop (serving under stake president, Gordon B. Hinckley), Mission President (Uruguay-Paraguay), Regional Representative, President of the Mexico City Missionary Training Center, and as a Sealer in the Bountiful Utah Temple. For decades, Bill was joyfully engaged in community service. He was grateful for the opportunity to serve as the founding Chair of the Board of Trustees of Intermountain Health Care, on the University of Utah Medical Hospital Board, and as an elected official of the Utah State Senate.

Bill loved the excitement and challenges of creating business opportunities, and founded and invested in several successful enterprises, including Electro Controls, LiteTouch, and serving on the Board of Directors of the Questar, Mountain Fuel, Snowbird Ski Resort, Allendale Insurance, and Lloyd's of London.

Bill Jones is survived by seven children,… along with 27 grandchildren, and 30 great-grand-children. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, October 27, 2018 at the Mueller Park 10th Ward Chapel, 1800 East Mueller Park Road (1800 South), Bountiful, UT. Viewings will be held on Friday evening, October 26th, from 6 - 8 p.m. at Russon Brothers Bountiful Mortuary, 295 North Main, Bountiful, UT, and on Saturday morning just prior to the memorial services from 9:00-10:30 a.m. The Interment will be the Salt Lake City Cemetery following the funeral. (Note by RRC: Mo & Dave give Mary's day of birth as the18th; in the notes I made when I saw this gravestone in 1994, I saw Mary's day of birth as the 19th; there is little chance that I will ever get back to Mt. Pleasant, IA, to re-examine this gravestone, so I hope someone who lives nearby can put their fingers on this part of the inscription and then tell me whether 18 or 19 is correct.)

George Jerred Dead of Bums

Explosion of Auto Fuel Caused Fatal Injury

George B. Jarred, 53, who lived at 735 Louisiana street, Gering, died Tuesday at 11:45 a. m. at a Scottsbluff hospital from burns received Monday night in downtown Gering.

Jerred was fatally burned when gasoline on his clothing became ignited. Gering Chief of Police Lee Shipley said the man spilled gasoline on his clothes and on the motor of an old model pickup truck as he poured fuel into the machine's tank, which is located above the motor.

When Jerred attempted to start the machine the gasoline fumes exploded and his clothing became ignited. Dave Richards of Gering, in the cab of the truck with Jerred, received minor burns on his left hand and wrist.

Shipley said Richards was passing by as Jerred prepared to start the motor and offered the man a ride home. Richards and passerby rolled Jerred in the snow to extinguish the blaze. Shipley took the man to a Scottsbluff hospital.

Born in Austin, Minn., Jerred came to Gering four years ago from Gregor, S. D.

His widow, Marjorie Jerred, and five children, including Verl, 14, at home, are among his survivors.

Obituary of Howard Benton Jerred, ID = 1552124

(Found online at F-A-G, memorial created by War Graves, maintained by Albert Ledoux.)

Howard Benton Jerred was born in rural White River, SD, in Mellette County on July 3, 1923. His parents were George B. and Margie (Howlett) Jerred. Howard was one of eight children. He grew up in rural Gregory, SD. He attended the rural Scott School District #43, where he graduated from the eighth grade in June of 1938. For fun Howard liked to go horseback riding and fishing. He worked on a farm as a farmhand. His sister remembers Howard as a good brother, hard worker, responsible, big tease, jolly and fun loving. He would wash the dishes with the younger siblings drying. He would put one piece of silver in the rinse water and make his siblings dry them and put them in drawer one at a time. Howard had dark hair, brown eyes, and was medium built.

Howard enlisted in the service from Gregory, SD, in May of 1944. He was trained at Camp Walters, TX. He was sent overseas in January of 1945. He was stationed in several locations in Europe. After the war he was stationed in Austria. He held the ranks of PVT, PFC and CPL. He was in the 242nd Infantry, the 42 Division BN 1, Company B. He earned three Battle Stars with Seventh Army across Europe, France, and Germany.

Howard wrote to his mother May 11, 1945, “Mom, you’re always asking what I done in Hdq. Co., well since the war is over, I’ll tell you. I was in a Ranger Platoon, if you know what that is, you know patrols behind the Jerry lines and see what they got and where it’s at, interesting work, I had plenty of close calls.” In another letter dated May 16, 1945, he told his mother, “I thought as long as you thought I was in Headquarters Co. you thought I was pretty well to the rear and wouldn’t worry so much.”

Howard died May 7, 1946 at the 42nd Field Hospital just outside Salzburg, Austria. He was aboard a troop train and came too close to high-tension wires that supplied current to the train and electricity jumped to his body. A friend and commanding officer, Lt. Howard Beck, quoted, “I saw a blinding flash and Howard falling.” A letter addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Jerred from Lt. Beck said, “He came-to just shortly after it happened and recognized and talked to me. He wasn’t in any great pain, complained he was awfully hot.” The official telegram sent to Mr. and Mrs. Jerred read, “The Secretary of War has asked me to express his deep regret that your son CPL Howard B. Jerred died in Austria 7 May 46, confirming letter follows. (Signed) Edward F. Witsell, the Adjutant General of the Army.” Howard’s original burial was in Salzburg, Austria. He was later reburied at St. Avold, France, Military Cemetery. Howard was awarded Combat Infantry Badge; Good Conduct Medal; European, African, Middle Eastern Campaign Medal; World War II Victory Medal; and Army of Occupation Medal Austria.

Survivors at the time of the soldier's death were his parents, four brothers, and one sister. Current survivors are Verl H. Jerred- Tucson, AZ; Lenora M. Dodds-Kiowa, KS; Lyle H. Jerred- Rapid City, SD; George B. Jerred Jr.- Harrisburg, NE; Ronald H. "Cork" Jerred-Littleton, CO. His sister offered these closing remarks, "Howard was a kind and loving brother, close to the family, volunteered to do chores."

The entry was respectfully submitted by Amanda Faatz, 10th grade, Bonesteel-Fairfax High School, Bonesteel, South Dakota, November 8, 2001. Information was provided by Mrs. Lenora M. Dodds, Kiowa, Kansas, sister of Army CPL Howard B. Jerred.

HENRY KNOWLTON

Henry Knowlton, 72; Winchester generations knew him as 'coach'

Private funeral services will be held today for Henry Knowlton, the main force behind Winchester High School athletics for 34 years as coach, athletic director, trainer and all-around sports leader. He died of cancer Sunday in Winchester Hospital at 72.

Mr. Knowlton, known as "coach" by generations of Winchester residents, had been identified with local sports as far back as his student days.

As a teenager, he was one of the town's all-time athletic greats, starring in three sports and being captain of the Winchester High football team of 1927.

He came back to Winchester as a coach in 1940 and by the time he resigned as athletic director in 1974, Knowlton football teams had compiled the formidable record of 215 wins, 72 losses and 17 ties.

Coach Knowlton guided Winchester football teams to four undefeated seasons, the Class B championship in 1951 and the Class C championships in 1946 and 1948.

He resigned as coach in 1966 but continued as athletic director, and when he retired from that post in 1974, the town voted to name the school playing field "The Henry Knowlton Athletic Field" in his honor.

His colleagues in the Massachusetts High School Football Coaches Assn. also recognized his accomplishments publicly, naming him to its Hall of Fame.

Two years ago - six years into his retirement - Coach Knowlton volunteered to fill the breach when trainer Frank Provinzani became ill, continuing to serve as trainer for Winchester High School athletes until he was hospitalized a couple of months ago.

After graduating from Winchester, Coach Knowlton attended Springfield College with the thought of going into medicine.

He returned to Winchester to help coach Wendell Mansfield work with the football team. Coach Knowlton said it was enough to whet his appetite.

The following year he coached three sports and taught chemistry, physics and biology at New Hampton School in New Hampshire.

Two years later, in 1935, he became coach of football, basketball and baseball at Plymouth High School.

In 1940, in his words later, his dream came true. He became coach at his own Winchester High School.

Coach Knowlton leaves a daughter, Marcie Allison of Mount Laurel, N.J.; a brother, Hal Knowlton of Hampton, N.H.; three sisters, Ethel Jung of Peabody, Bernice O'Meara of Danvers and Helen Sweeney of Stoneham; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

(Note by RRC: By my calculation, Henry was 74 at his death, not 72.)

Mrs. Jane Howlett, who until about 15 years ago, was a resident of this city, died yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her son Frank Howlett at Argentine Station, Kansas. HOWLETT BODY TO ARRIVE IN CITY TOMORROW NIGHT

The body of Frank R. HOWLETT will arrive in Fairfield tomorrow night at 11:45 o'clock from Kansas City over the Rock Island. It will be taken to the Hoskins Funeral Home.

Short funeral services will be held from the grave at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning in charge of Dr. Gilbert Voorhies.

Mr. HOWLETT is well known in Fairfield having resided at one time on West Burlington street.

Note by Richard K. Thompson: Frank R. HOWLETT (born about 1867) was the first husband of Clara BOOKER HOWLETT CARPENTER HEFLIN; married on October 2, 1890.

Frank R. HOWLETT is buried at Evergreen Cemetery in 2nd.158. The Howlett family plot has one large monument with the Howlett surname, and there is only one individual headstone marker for the father of the family, Thomas R Howlett.

The plots for Mrs. Thomas R Howlett (Nancy Jane Wissemance Howlett) and their son Frank R Howlett are unmarked, however.

(Note by RRC: Richard K. Thompson, together with Verda Baird, determined "Wissemance" was actually Wissenance in the marriage registry document #6829; I can't find anyone with a surame spelled either way in a Google search.)

(Update to above note: Richard K. Thompson now says Nancy's maidenname was actually "Whisenand" not Wissemance or Wissenance.)

Philip A. Gordon

KRCD Chief
P. Gordon
Dies At 78 Philip

Philip A. Gordon, 78, the colorful former president of the Kings River Conservation District and known statewide as an irrigation leader, died Sunday in a local hospital after a short illness.

A onetime president of the Irrigation Districts Association of California in the early 1950s, Gordon had served as president of the KRCD from the time the district was created in 1951 until 1969.

A son of the late Jack Gordons, who settled in the Rolinda area in 1888, he was born in a house that still stands on the family farm at 2145 S. Dickinson Ave.

He attended local schools and was graduated from Fresno High School.

Although Gordon did not continue formal education,

Gordon:

he was a voracious reader, a habit he inherited from his father.

He was particularly fond of books about the Civil War because of a grandfather's service in the war. He also was an avid Shakespeare fan, and frequently laced his reports and comments during discussions on water matters at KRCD meetings with quotations from literature.

In addition to his leadership role on the KRCD, Gordon had also served as chairman of the Kings River Water Association, a group made up of water agencies which hold rights to the Kings River and the Fresno Irrigation District.

Following a tour of duty in France during World War I where he served in the field artillery and military police, Gordon returned to Fresno to resume the farming of cotton and alfalfa.

He was a member of the Farm Bureau, the Grange, and the masonic Order.

Gordon and his wife, the former Mary Dau, observed their golden wedding Anniversary last year.

Besides his widow, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Jean Boltinghouse of Fresno; a sister, Nellie Gordon of Fresno; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be announced by the Stephens & Bean Funeral Service.

Obituary of Frederick Cornelious Robbins, Jr., ID = 157411

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The San Francisco Examiner, San Francisco, CA, Thursday, 19 March 1987, page B7.)

Frederick C. Robbins

EXAMINER STAFF REPORT

Frederick C. Robbins, who moved to San Anselmo at the turn of the century when the central Marin County town was little more than a cow pasture with a daily train running through it, died Tuesday night at the age of 90.

He was born in San Francisco's Mission District but lived most of his life in Marin County.

Mr. Robbins liked to recall the time when he was 16 and the town had its first bank robbery. The town marshal immediately formed an armed posse and gave chase.

"Freddy," the marshal told him, "go get your shotgun and join the men."

Later he laughed about it. They spent all day crawling over the brushy slopes of Mount Tamalpais, but the bandits got away.

Mr. Robbins recently was moved from his home in Corte Madera to a convalescent home in Novato, where he died of old age.

He served as an Army officer in both world wars. In between he worked as a shipping company agent and as a coffee executive before forming a collection agency in San Rafael.

Mr. Robbins retired in 1968 to travel, hunt, fish and talk about the old times at the Elks and Masonic lodges, where he was a member.

He leaves his widow, Harriett of Corte Madera; a daughter, Donna, of Novato; and a son, Fred, the traffic court commissioner in Marin County and a former city councilman and planning commissioner in San Rafael.

Services will be private.

(Note by RRC: By my calculation, Fred was 89 at his passing, almost 90; based on other sources, he died on the 18th.)

She was born in Port Neches, Texas, on October 3, 1944. She lived in the Longview area for more than 35 years. Sue was a devout Christian and loved her God and Savior. She had an extraordinary faith that carried her through life and her battle with cancer. Sue was a Realtor by trade, an occupation that literally ran through the blood in her veins. She loved people and loved helping them find a home or property. In the process of helping them find a home, they became an instant friend or an adopted family member.

Sue was very proud of her boys. She was the epitome of the "Super Soccer Mom." She was very involved in the soccer leagues in the Longview area when her boys were growing up. Sue loved spending time with her family and loved playing with her grandchildren.

Obituary of Oscar James Connely, ID = 161132

OSCAR CONNELLY.

Oscar Connelly, the eldest son of Oscar and Alice Connelly was born April 7, 1892 at Stone Lick, Clermont County, Ohio. In 1899 his parents removed to Kings Mills, where he died September 2, 1912, aged twenty years four months and 26 days. |

In these few words is told the story of a life that was all too brief.

Oscar was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

A dutiful son, a kind brother, and a comrade and friend to schoolmates and fellow-workers.

He graduated from the Kings Mills High School in the class of 1911. His, was a strong mind and he was ambitious for further education.

He had planned to go away to college would have been yesterday, Tuesday last, September 3rd, and fit himself for a larger career for usefulness, in order that, as he once said to his teacher, he might help his father care for the younger children. |

We cannot understand his untimely death and can only pray that He woh wept by the grave of Lazarus may comfort the grief stricken father, mother and brothers and sisters.

For Sharp Circling 100 Feet Above Ground.

T. R. Hunter, Newtown, Student-Passenger, Assisted In The Formation Of Aviation Club.

Two amateur aviators were injured, one fatally and the other probably fatally, when an airplane in which they were flying went into a nose-dive and crashed 100 feet to the ground at the Cincinnati Flying Club Field, on Batavia Pike, south end of Newtown, Ohio, 10 miles from Cincinnati, yesterday afternoon.

Lovell E. Connely, 27 years old, 2188 Fulton Avenue, pilot, was dead on arrival at General Hospital.

Theodore R. Hunter, 28 years old, High Street, Milford, Ohio, a student passenger, sustained a fracture of his skull, internal injuries and shock. Physicians at General Hospital hold out little hope for his recovery.

PLANE LANDS IN FIELD.

Witnesses said the men had been flying during the morning. Shortly after 1 o'clock the plane circled the field to make a landing. As it came within 100 feet of the ground it turned, swerved suddenly and crashed into the cornfield.

William Bickett, Newtown, who was passing on the pike, was among the witnesses. He said the accident occurred because the pilot, in attempting to land, made a turn when the plane was not traveling at sufficient speed.

When witnesses reached the wreckage they found Hunter crumpled in the rear cockpit. He was removed from his safety strap and was taken in the automobile of C. R. Muhlberger, Back Street, Newtown, to the hospital.

Connelly, strapped in the plane, was wedged in the front cockpit and appeared to be dead.

Patrolman Warner Edwards and Herman Inderreiden, of Patrol No. 4, were rushed to the scene on order of Police Chief William Copelan, although it is outside of the city.

The officers were forced to cut away a strap and part of the plane before they were able to remove Connely.

BURIES NOSE IN GROUND.

Force of the fall drove the nose of the plane two feet into the ground. The wings collapsed.

Mrs. Ruth Connely, widow of the pilot, told Coroner Fred C. Swing that her husband left for the flying field yesterday morning with the intention of passing the entire day in flying. She said he had started his vacation and intended to pass most of the time in the air in an effort to accumulate sufficient hours to qualify for examination as an air mail pilot.

Hunter, Mrs. Connely said, was President of the Cincinnati Flying Club, but did not have sufficient hours in the air to obtain a pilot's license. Connely had been instructing Hunter and aiding him to obtain the necessary number of hours.

They were close friends, Mrs. Connely said, and were the organizers of the flying club, which had been in existence for one year.

HAD DUAL CONTROLS.

The plane in which they were riding was one of two planes owned by the club. It was a two-seater and had dual controls. It is not known which of the men was piloting the plane at the time of the accident.

For several months the club members had been taking passengers on short flights, and had obtained a number of new members in this way.

The field, which is located just outside Newtown, extends from Batavia

Pike to the Little Miami River, and is owned by C. R. Muhlberger, Newtown.

Two small buildings, constructed by the club members, and located near the pike, comprise the hangars. A large sign facing the pike invites passengers to take flights.

Connely was employed as a milk-wagon driver for the Matthews Selected Dairies Company, and had been with that company several years.

He passed his evenings and Sundays at the field of the Cincinnati Flying Club, where he was chief pilot and instructor.

Connely received instruction in flying at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station and was a graduate of the Embry-Riddle School in Cincinnati. He made his first solo flight at Lunken Airport September 6, 1927. At the time of the accident he was piloting an old Standard plane with an OX5 motor, built during the war for the training of aviators.

During the war he served in the Navy on the experimental ship Ohio.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Ruth Miller Connely, one daughter, Doris Connely, 5 years old; his father, Tice T. Connely, lineman, and two brothers, Harold and Walter Connely, survive him.

Hunter was the driver of a truck between Cincinnati and Milford, and had been a resident of Milford several years.

Hunter originally came from the South with his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sparrow, and lived with them on the estate of L. D. Drewry, near Milford. Four years ago he married Miss Ruth Sparrow, daughter of his stepfather. She survives him, together with Mr. and Mrs. Sparrow, and a brother, Robert, all of whom live in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Hunter recently won a beauty contest at Milford for which she was designated as "Miss Milford." A loving cup was presented to her.

Body of missing minister is found

OMAHA. (ĂP). The body of Rev. E. J. T. Connely, long-time Nebraska minister, was found Sunday more than three months after he disappeared while taking a walk during one of Omaha's worst snowstorms.

The body was found on the Iowa side of the Missouri river, two miles north of the Plattsmouth, Neb., bridge, Deputy Sheriff Frank Logan of Glenwood, Ia., said.

The information was received by Edward Connely, the minister's son, shortly after he returned from church where he and other members of the family attended memorial services for Rev. Mr. Connely Sunday.

The minister was past treasurer of the Nebraska annual conference of the Methodist church from 1937 to 1941, and had held pastorates at Norfolk, Fremont, Auburn, Springfield, Fairmont, Randolph and Ainsworth during 40 years in the ministry in Nebraska.

Body of Omahan Found in River

Rev. Connely had wandered from his home in the Florence district of Omaha on Feb. 21. Trailing parties traced him to the banks of the Missouri where tracks indicated that he had slipped and fallen into the water.

By strange coincidence, his body was recovered on Sunday at the same time that his family was attending memorial services for him at the Pearl Methodist church in Omaha.

Burial was made Tuesday afternoon in Pierce, Neb., where he had once been a pastor. Survivors are his widow Elizabeth of Omaha; two sons, Edward and James Connely of Omaha; and two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Mckinnon of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Frances Rybin of Omaha.

Rev. Connely's Body Found Sunday

FORMER PIERCE PASTOR HAD BEEN MISSING SINCE STORM OF FEBRUARY 25TH

The body of Rev. E. J. T. Connely, former pastor of the Methodist church at Pierce, was found Sunday afternoon on the Iowa side of the Missouri river, north of the Plattsmouth bridge and 30 miles below Omaha. He disappeared on February 25th during one Omaha's heaviest snow storms.

The readers of The Call will remember of reading an account of the pastors disappearance in its March 1st edition. It was customary for Rev. Connely to take daily walks for exercise, generally taking the same route down toward the Missouri river. It is now thought he became lost in the snow storm and fell into the river.

Information was received by Edward Connely, the ministers oldest son, shortly after the family had returned Sunday afternoon from memorial exercises held at Pearl Methodist Memorial church in honor Dr. Connely. The body was identified by means of check stubs, a monogrammed handkerchief and physical marks.

The body was brought to Pierce for burial Tuesday forenoon. Impressive services were held at the grave in Prospect View cemetery at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon by Rev. Harry E. Hess, pastor of. the Methodist church at Norfolk. Accompanying the body from Omaha were the wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Connely, the son, Edward and wife and a daughter, Mrs. J. F. Rybin. The Omaha folks and Norfolk friends were entertained at dinner by Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Calvert following burial services at the cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Connely have two children buried at the Pierce cemetery. They are twins born here — one dying et birth and the other at the age of four years while living in Randolph. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Connely also have two children buried on family lot.

Rev. Connely is survived by his wife; two sons, Edward and James of Omaha; and two daughters; Mrs. H. H. McKinnon, Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. J. F. Rybin of Omaha. Another daughter, Mrs. Grace. Connely Evans, died at McCook, Nebr., July 3, 1944. Grace was born in the Methodist parsonage at Pierce January 14. 1908.

Rev. Connely was pastor of the Pierce church from 1905 to 1909. He served a dozen or more pastorates during his 40 years of service in Nebraska. He was secretary of the Nebraska Conference Claimants Society and financial secretary of Nebraska Wesleyan University and from 1937 to 1941 was treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the Nebraska annual conference of the Methodist church.

Obituary of Frances Elizabeth (Caniglia) Connely, ID = 1611822

(Partially copied from an obit found online at the website of the Roeder Mortuary, Omaha, NE.)

Frances Elizabeth (Caniglia) Connely

September 4th, 1931-January 18th, 2022

Born September 4th, 1931 in Omaha, Nebraska to Samuel and Tina Caniglia, Frances Elizabeth Connely, affectionately referred to as Fran or Cici by those who knew her best, passed away on January 18th, 2022 surrounded by her loving family. Fran grew up in Omaha and graduated from Omaha Central High School. She married the love of her life, Donald W. Connely, Sr. on September 10th, 1955 and together they raised 4 children. She always put family first and was an extremely proud matriarch no matter where life took them for Don's job in the Air Force; from Nebraska, to Alaska, to Washington D.C., to Hawaii, to Colorado, and back to Omaha. Never short on words, she always knew the right thing to say but was never afraid to spar and give you her opinion and always had a joke, smile, or laugh even in the worst of moments. She also knew how to cook like no other, which she attributed to her strong Italian roots. Fran was also a dedicated, life-long Catholic and longtime attendee of Omaha's St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church and in her later years, St. Vincent De Paul Catholic Church. She didn't fear death and we are comforted knowing she has been reunited with her husband in heaven who she oftentimes spoke of missing.

Fran was preceded in death by her husband, Donald W. Connely, Sr.; her father, Samuel Caniglia; her mother, Concetta Butera Caniglia; her sister, Carolyn Caniglia; and her brother, Tony Caniglia. Frances is survived by her brothers … sister-in-law, … brother-in-law, … daughter … son … daughter … son, … grandkids … as well as 5 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and others.

Services for Harry E. Kugler, retired streetcar motorman whose great-grandfather, Conrad Waldschmidt, operated the first paper mill in Ohio, will be held Monday at the Wiltsee funeral home, 24 West Ninth Street. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery, Miamisville.

Mr. Kugler, who was 84 years old, died Thursday after a week's illness at his home, 3327 Renfro Avenue, Westwood. He retired several years ago after working for the Cincinnati Street Railway Company for approximately 50 years.

A native of Camp Dennison, Mr. Kugler was the last child born in the Waldschmidt homestead, which was used in Civil War days as headquarters for General Josua Bates. Last March a memorial marker was erected at the home by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Charles G. Coulson, a lawyer with short life

Even though he hasn't practiced in many years, people will always remember Charles G. "Chip" Coulson as an attorney who not only helped his clients with their cases, but who also was someone who affected their lives, said his sister...

Mr. Coulson, 50, of Park Hills, died Friday at the St. Charles Care Center in Covington.

Mr. Coulson, who was with Holbrook and Associates law firm during its beginnings in Northern Kentucky, still received visits from former clients, even though he hadn't practiced for nearly 20 years because of injuries he suffered in a car crash.

His former law partner... was with him until the end...

"He was a good man who was well-liked," she said of her brother.

Mr. Coulson received his undergraduate degree from the University of Cincinnati and his law degree from Chase College of Law at Northern Kentucky University.

He was on his was back to downtown Cincinnati from a meeting in Mount Lookout on a stormy night 19 years ago when a dog ran in front of his car. He lost control of his car and was involved in a crash.

He had been at St. Charles Care Center ever since, his sister said.

"He had a short life, but the life he had, he lived," she said.

"He expected the best of himself," she said.

In addition to his sister... survivors include his mother... and his sister...

Visitation will be 9 to 11 a.m. Friday at the St. Charles Care Center, Covington, with services following. Linnemann Funeral Homes is in charge of arrangements.

Memorials may be made to the St. Charles Care Center, 500 Farrell Drive, Covington, KY 41011; or to the Charles G. Coulson Scholarship Fund, Chase College of Law, Northern Kentucky University, Highland Heights, KY 41099.

Louis Toerner was sound system expert

By Rebecca Goodman
Enquirer staff writer

KENTON HILLS - on July 5, 1934, 17-year-old Louis Toerner helped his brother George take down the speakers that had been installed for the Independence Day celebration in Devon Park so they could both get home to be with their dying father.

It was the beginning of Mr. Toerner's lifelong interest in communication systems. He learned how to set up sound systems and to design and build radios.

In 1944, he enlisted in the Army and became a radio mechanic. When he returned home two years later, he and George founded American Sound Service.

With a small bank loan and a Model A Ford borrowed from his sister, Mr. Toerner set out to solicit jobs. Among his first was the contract for installation of a public address system at Crosley Field, the former home of the Cincinnati Reds. He was owner and president of American Sound Service, now American Sound and Electronics Inc. in Covington, for 40 years.

Mr. Toerner died Monday at Carmel Manor in Fort Thomas. The Kenton Hills resident was 88.

He was always industrious.

The youngest of seven children, he helped support his family by building a chicken coop and raising chickens. In the spring of 1934 - just before he turned 17 - he rented an acre in Park Hills on which he planted a vegetable garden. He tended it daily until he was able to give his dying father a 3-pound tomato on July 3. The elder Toerner died two days later.

After going into the sound system business, Mr. Toerner also designed and built a battery-powered radio, which he sold to farmers and others who lived in areas without electricity. He bought a Willys Whippet Coupe for $40 and drove it door to door to demonstrate the radio.

He entered the Amy Air Force cadet program in 1944. Stationed in Saipan during the waning days of World War II, he worked as a radio communications technician. He also bartered for camera equipment and ran a photography business on the side.

Two years later, Mr. Toerner was back home starting American Sound Service in his basement. His wife... - who was his secretary - took calls while he was out hanging speakers in churches, schools and hospitals. In 1950, he and George had become successful enough to move to an office in Covington. Ten years later they had 10 service trucks. The Frisch's restaurants bellhop intercom system was designed and installed by American Sound.

Mr. Toerner retired in 1986 when his son... of Fort Mitchell bought the business and became its president.

In addition to his son... survivors include his wife of 65 years... and other children... a sister... 17 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Services have been held. Burial was at St. John Cemetery in Fort Mitchell.
Memorials: St. Elizabeth Hospice, 401 East 20th St., Covington, KY 41014 or Carmel Manor, 100 Carmel Manor Road, Fort Thomas, KY 41075.

One of the saddest death which has occurred in Drennon Springs community in many years, was the death of Mr. Alex Hardin on December 26. Mr. Hardin (Uncle Alex) as he was known in his country and visitors at Drennon has been living at the Springs for sixty-five years and was one of the best citizens of the county, kind and curteous to all. His wife has been dead about thirteen years and-the following children are left to mourn his loss, G. V. Hardin and E. F. Hardin, his only sons, and Mrs. Harvey Jones and Mrs. Sylvanis Roberts his only daughters. Had he lived until July 5 he would have been ninety years old. Since the-death of his wife he has been living with his children.

Obituary of Julia (Bryan or Ryan) Hardin, ID = 1634

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in the Henry County Local, New Castle, KY, Friday, 9 Dec. 1910, page 2.)

Death of Mrs. Julia Hardin

The death of Mrs. Julia Hardin, of Drennon Springs, wife of Mr. A. T. Hardin, which occurred at her home, on Tuesday November 29, 1910, caused much sorrow in the hearts of her many friends and acquaintances. Mrs. Hardin had been in declining health for the past year or more, her affliction being in the form of paralysis of the tongue and throat.

Mrs. Hardin was a native of Ireland, from whence she came to New York, when quite a young woman; thence to Cincinnati and to Covington, where she met and married her husband, Mr. Hardin. With his parents, afterwards, they came to Henry county, locating at Drennon Springs, where they purchased 600 acres or more of good land, and where they have since resided for the past 40 years or more. Never was there a more respectable, peaceable, law-abiding family, than these good people.

Mrs. Hardin had the love and respect of every one who knew her. She was an intelligent, industrious Christian lady. She proved herself a true neighbor in deed and truth. At midnight or any hour during the night whenever she was called upon, she was ready and willing to go out and minister to the wants of a sick neighbor or friend. She lived a quiet, unassuming life. We believe she was prepared to meet her Lord in peace. At the last she went quietly to sleep, as it were—into death without a struggle. We would comfort the bereaved ones, by this: look to God, love and trust Him, for—"All things work together, for good to those who love God",— A FRIEND.

Never was there a more respectable, peaceable, law-abiding family, than these good people.

Mrs. Hardin had the love and respect of every one who knew her. She was an intelligent, industrious Christian lady. She proved herself a true neighbor in deed and truth. At midnight or any hour during the night whenever she was called upon, she was ready and willing to go out and minister to the wants of a sick neighbor or friend. She lived a quiet, unassuming life. We believe she was prepared to meet her Lord in peace. At the last she went quietly to sleep, as it were—into death without a struggle. We would comfort the bereaved ones, by this: look to God, love and trust Him, for—"All things work together, for good to those who love God".

A FRIEND.

Death from lightening strike. Survived by his wife, Fannie Lee Jones Hardin, sons, Samuel Edward "Sambo" and Leslie Hardin; daughters, Mary Margaret "Haley" and Glenna Hardin. His parents, Edmond F. & Mary E. Cravens Hardin and several siblings.

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in the Henry County Local, New Castle, KY, Friday, 17 Aug. 1923, page 6.)

Drennon Springs — Lightning struck and instantly killed Thomas Hardin, 40, near here and stunned Hazel Jones, a brother of Hardin's wife, as they sought shelter from a thunderstorm under an oak tree on the Hardin farm. Jones was burned severely and is seriously ill at his home. G. T. Hammond, who was the first to reach the side of the stricken men, worked more than an hour on Jones in an attempt to save his life and this probably did.

(Note by RRC: By my calculation, Thomas was 30 at his passing, not 40.)

IN MEMORY of Samuel Edward Hardin

Samuel Edward Hardin was born November 25th, 1914 and died December 25, 1945.

He was a member of the Drennon Christian Church. He leaves a wife, two children, mother, two brothers and two sisters to mourn his loss.

His many friends were deeply shocked and grieved at his sudden death and the family and community has lost a good husband, father, son, brother, citizen and neighbor.

The happy times we all enjoyed,
How sweet their memory still;
But death has left a loneliness
That never can be filled.
Nothing can ever take away
The love a heart holds dear;
Fond memories linger every day,
Rememberance keeps him near

Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church at Drennon by her former pastor, Rev. L. D. Fisher, and her body was laid to rest in Port Royal cemetery. A husband, Mr. G. B. Hardin, three children, Ray, William and Mrs. Willie Singleton, six brothers, Thomas, Will, George, Anthony, Robert and Charlie-Sanders, one sister, Mrs. John Gillock, and a host of relatives and friends are left to mourn her passing.

She shall be greatly missed as she was well known and loved by all who knew her. Our hearts are deeply saddened by her passing from us, for there is a vacancy that never can be filled. We do not grieve for her as one without hope for we have God’s wonderful promise of being with her again, if we live our lives as the life she left behind. She was cheerful, kind and sympathetic, having a smile for everyone, rejoicing with those that were happy and grieving for the ones who were in sorrow.

She did not fear death and was ready to go because she was a noble Christian character and had lived a useful life, always trying to follow the Golden Rule by doing unto others as she would have them do unto her. As God knows best and has seen fit to take her, we shall with sweet memories of her, feel that her going is our loss but Heaven’s gain.

A loved one.

Obituary & funeral notice for John Heathcote, ID = 16353

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Harrisburg Telegraph, Harrisburg, PA, Saturday, 2 Oct. 1943, pages 1 & 17.)

John Heathcote,
Retired Insurance
Manager, Dies

John Heathcote, 80, 115 Hillside road, Bellevue Park, retired manager of the Harrisburg branch of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, died today in the Harrisburg Hospital.

He was overcome by coal gas fumes at his home September 20 and had been in the hospital since that time.

His wife, Mrs. Effie N. Heathcote and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Marcella Heathcote, were also made ill, and were treated by the family physician. Members of the family said the fumes apparently escaped from a bucket-a-day stove.

The former insurance manager's wife, confined to her home for some time because of illness, was being attended by a nurse and when Mr. Heathcote complained of being ill from the gas, the daughter-in-law summoned the nurse. Upon her arrival both Mr. Heathcote and the daughter-in-law were unconscious. The daughte-in-law recovered quickly but Mr. Heathcote failed to respond to treatment and was admitted to the hospital.

John Heathcote, Retired Insurance Manager, Dies

John Heathcote, 80, 115 Hillside road, Bellevue Park, retired manager of the Harrisburg branch of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, died today in the Harrisburg Hospital.

He was overcome by coal gas fumes at his home September 20, and had been in the hospital since that time.

His wife, Mrs. Effie N. Heathcote and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Marcella Heathcote, were also made ill, and were treated by the family physician. Members of the family said the fumes apparently escaped from a bucket-a-day stove.

The former insurance manager's wife, confined to her home for some time because of illness, was being attended by a nurse and when Mr. Heathcote complained of

Obituary of John J. 'Jack' Drysdale, ID = 1635411

(Partially copied from The News Journal, New Castle, DE, 29 Jan 2014 online.)

John J. Drysdale
AGE: 86 • Hockessin

John J. Drysdale passed away after a long illness on January 27, 2014 at the age of 86.

He was born in Springfield, Illinois in 1927 to Robert Drysdale, the sports editor to the Springfield Journal and Marguerite Drysdale, nee Jones, a school teacher. He was an avid musician, playing, inter alia, the violin, bassoon, clarinet and piano.

As his high school valedictorian, he had the option of going to Oberlin to study music, MIT for chemistry, or West Point. To the surprise of all (to put it mildly), he enlisted in the Navy. But the war ended while he was in boot camp, so instead of going into the radar program, he cleaned toilets until an in-depth conversation about classical music with his officer got him transferred to St. Louis to debrief returning GIs on their GI rights - and where he didn't miss a Cardinals game all spring and summer. Then it was off to MIT in the fall of 1946 to study chemistry. While at MIT he attended the 1946 World Series between St. Louis and Boston on a press pass that his father sent him to work the games in Boston. The series went 7 games, 4 in Boston, and he taught three fellow fraternity brothers how to keep an official score book so that they could all attend one game. He also broke the 50 second barrier for the quarter mile while running on the track team (on an outdoor, wood track of all things), unfortunately tearing his arch while doing it and not racing again.

After graduation he became a Fighting Illini where he got his PHD in Chemistry, married his college sweetheart... and moved to Delaware to work at DuPont.

After doing basic research, he moved to management in the Organic Chemicals Department. He was a trouble-shooter solving problems and was Project Director for the Reverse Osmosis plant in Orange, Texas. He also served as president of the Delaware division of the American Chemical Society.

His family moved to Hockessin in 1963 where they raised three sons in the idyllic Horseshoe Hill. Jack loved crossword puzzles, murder mysteries, cats, sports and generally putzing in the garden. He was a long-suffering Phillies and Eagles fan, but he always loved the Cardinals.

Jack was an accomplished musician and his love of music later took him to play the violin with the MIT Symphony, Brandywine Pops and the Horseshoe Hill Sinfonietta.

The family wishes to thank the devoted nurses and staff at Christiana Care, Select Hospital at St Francis and the Compassionate Care Hospice nurses at St Francis Hospital.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory his wife... sons... grandchildren... He was predeceased by an infant daughter. His was a life well-lived.

Burial services will be private at the Hockessin Friends Cemetery. A memorial service will be held at 11:00 am on Saturday, February 1, 2014 at Chandler Funeral Home, 7230 Lancaster Pike, Hockessin.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to the Delaware Nature Society, Box 700, Hockessin, DE 19707 or the First Unitarian Church, 730 Halstead Road, Wilmington, DE 19803.

Obituary of Mary Frances ( ) Hardin Shields, ID = 1636

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Dade County Advocate, Greenfield, MO, Thursday, 24 Feb. 1910, page 1.)

Obituary

Mary Francis Akery was born September 7, 1851, at Covington, Ky. Married to B. S. Hardin of Covington, Ky., in 1868. Of this union were born two sons, Edgar and Roy, who are now living. Mr. Hardin died in 1883. She was united in marriage to J. L. Shields of Tipton, Mo., August 16, 1887. Of this union was born one daughter, Nina L., who is left with her father to mourn the loss of mother. Mrs. Shields became a member of the Christian church while a girl and lived a consistent Christian life until her death. They resided in Lockwood, Mo., 19 years and about three years since they moved to Greenfield, Mo., where they remained until the messenger death called for her, February 18, 1910. Age 58 years, 5 months and 13 days. “Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth."

John McLaughlin, Pastor..

(Note by RRC: It seems to me that this obituary implies that Mary’s maiden name is Akery. In the death certificate of her son Roy it is Acree. I have never been able to confirm either of those as Mary’s maiden name. In a biography of Mary’s husband Berry S. Hardin, his wife’s maiden name is said to be Thompson. Berry married a Mary Thompson in 1864 but, again, I can’t confirm that Thompson was Mary’s maiden name.)

PAINTER FALLS TO DEATH.

A painter, believed to be Roy Hardin, 41 years old, fell from a scaffold in front of third-story windows of the Grand Hotel yesterday afternoon and was killed. Harry P. Linville, of Linville Bros., Dayton, Ky., contracting painters, whose employ the stranger had entered yesterday morning, had left Hardin a few minutes before he fell. Linville said Hardin had told him he lived on Fifth street, near Broadway; had a wife and twelve-year-old daughter, and that he had served six years in the United States regular army. The body was removed to the County Morgue.

Mrs. John Nolin.

Mrs. John Nolin passed from death to life at her home near Drennon Springs, Wednesday, March 17, 1915, in her 70th year. Mrs. Nolin had been a great sufferer from acute indigestion, which was the primary cause of her death.

Hers was a grand Christian character. To know her was to love her. She leaves a crushed and heart broken husband, one son and four daughters – all devoted children – besides numerous relatives and friends to mourn her loss. Sincere and heart felt thanks are extended by the family for the delicate and timely services rendered by their many friends.

The remains were interred in the cemetery at Franklinton, Thursday March 18.

(Note by RRC: By my calculation, Nancy was 74 when she died.)

Obituary of Roy Wilburn Nolin, ID = 163771

(Found online at F-A-G, created by Genealogy Girl; obit contributed by E. T. "Hammer" Smith; Henry County Local -- 17 September 1943.)

Roy Wilburn Nolin, 35 (1909-1943), was shot and killed by his brother-in-law, Charles Ricketts, 15, at dusk Sunday. They were squirrel hunting on Nolin's farm near Lacie, when Nolin sat behind a stump to rest and Ricketts saw his head and fired, thinking he was shooting at a squirrel. The rifle bullet went through his head, causing almost instant death.

The Ricketts youth said his brother-in-law's head was moving just above the stump and he mistook it for a squirrel. Sheriff Bishop Adcock investigated the shooting and said no charge had been placed against the youth.

Nolin was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lego Nolin, Franklinton, and Ricketts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ricketts, Lacie.

Death notice and other news articles for George Berry Connely, ID = 165

Death of G. B. Connely.

Many will be surprised and grieved when they read this morning the death of Uncle Berry Connely. Uncle Berry, as he is familiarly known, died last night at fifteen minutes past eight o'clock. He was born on Mudlick Creek, in Boone County, Ky., on January 10, 1810, and consequently at the time of his death was in the sixty-ninth year of his age. He moved to Covington when quite a small boy, and engaged in the hotel business with his father at the corner of Second and Garrard streets. The old stone house still stands there. After a number of years from this he went into the undertaking and livery stable business, and thence in the teaming business. While in the latter business he was elected Wharfmaster, which he held for a number of years, when he was elected County and City Jailer. He continued to hold both of these offices until about six months ago, eleven years in all. Mr. Connely's death was caused by paralysis, of which he has been suffering for several weeks. His death was a surprise to every one, his family not even dreaming that his condition was at all dangerous.

Just previous to his death, a friend in the sick-room lifted him up to help him into bed, when Uncle Berry gasped, and said he could not stand it until morning. He was laid gently back in bed, and died almost as soon as he touched it.

There will be and there can be none to dispute that he lived his long life without a stain upon his honor and without an unkindness to any creature.

THE CONNELY ESTATE.—H. Clay White, Esq., administrator of the estate of G. B. Connely, deceased, filed his inventory yesterday. It is gotten up in exceptionally neat, plain and terse fashion, and its summary makes the following exhibit: Set apart to widow, $589 50; cash, including $277 to widow, $657 20; other personal property, $2 048; notes and accounts, $14,287 38. Total, $17,582 08. The stable property is listed at $1,647 50. The administrator has purchased the interest of James S. Warrington for $300.

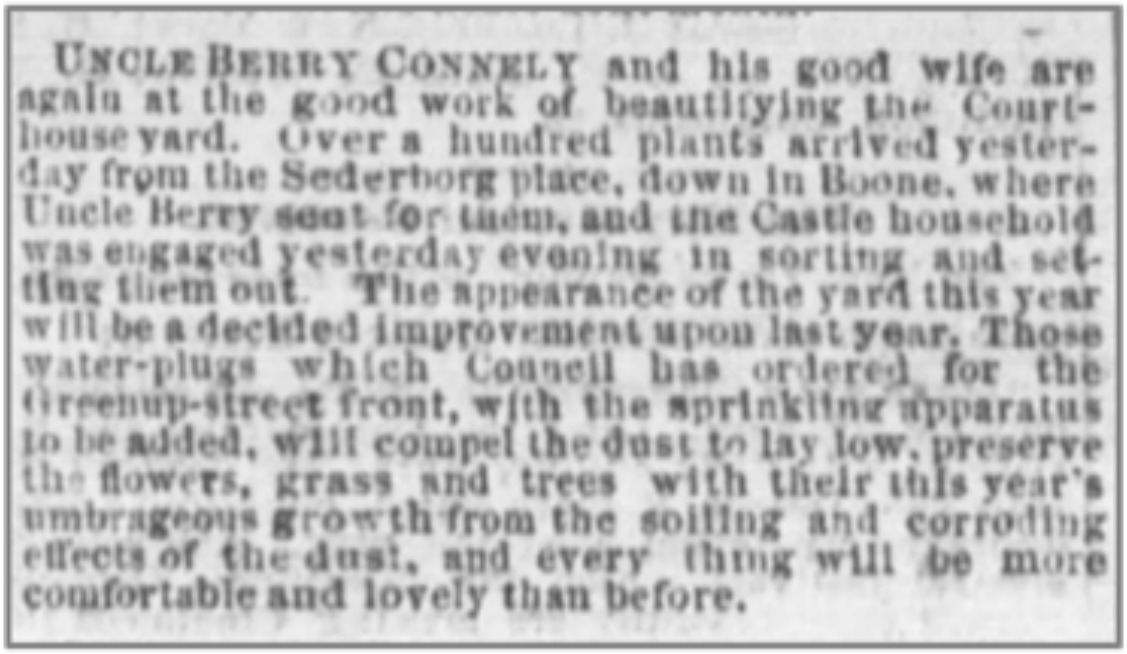
COVINGTON



UNCLE BERRY CONNELY and his good wife are again at the good work of beautifying the Courthouse yard. Over a hundred plants arrived yesterday from the Sederborg place, down in Boone, where Uncle Berry sent for them, and the Castle household was engaged yesterday evening in sorting and setting them out. The appearance of the yard this year will be a decided improvement upon last year. Those water-plugs which Council has ordered for the Greenup-street front, with the sprinkling apparatus to be added, will compel the dust to lay low, preserve the flowers, grass and trees with their this year's umbrageous growth from the soiling and corroding effects of the dust, and every thing will be more comfortable and lovely than before.

DEVON.

Death has called from our midst our beloved friend and neighbor, Mrs. Alice Connely, Thursday, 9:40 p. m., aged 76 years and 3 months. She leaves to mourn her death two sons, eight grandchildren and many loving friends. She was the widow of the late Berry Connely, of Covington, who was known as uncle Berry by his many friends. Words fail to express the high esteem in which this good woman was held by all who knew her. She became a member of the Florence Baptist church some 20 years ago; she obeyed the greatest commandment "Love one another and thy neighbor as thyself." Her constant thought was for the comfort and happiness of others. Bro. Baker conducted the funeral services at the Chapel, Highland Cemetery, Monday morning. Mr. Blanton, of Erlanger, had charge of the funeral.

Ernest Hartman entertained the young people with a dance, Tuesday evening.

Obituaries of Arthur G. Connely, ID = 166

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Daily Commonwealth, Covington, KY, Saturday, 19 July 1884, which undoubtedly got the obit from a Shebina, MO, newspaper. A few blurred words that I could not read are shown as _____. The obit was sent to me in Nov 1980 by Stella Shearer, Covington, KY. Stella's great grandfather, Alexander Connely, was Arthur G. Connely's father.)

Death of Arthur G. Connely.

[Shelbina (Mo.) Index.]

Our old and highly respected citizen, Arthur G. Connely, was between 12 and 1 o'clock a. m. of last Friday, July 18, 1884, called to join "the innumerable caravan which moves in silence to that bourne from which no traveler returns" Mr. Connely was so well and widely known, his life so exemplary, and the regret of his loss so generally felt, that it seems proper that more than a passing notice of his death should be given.

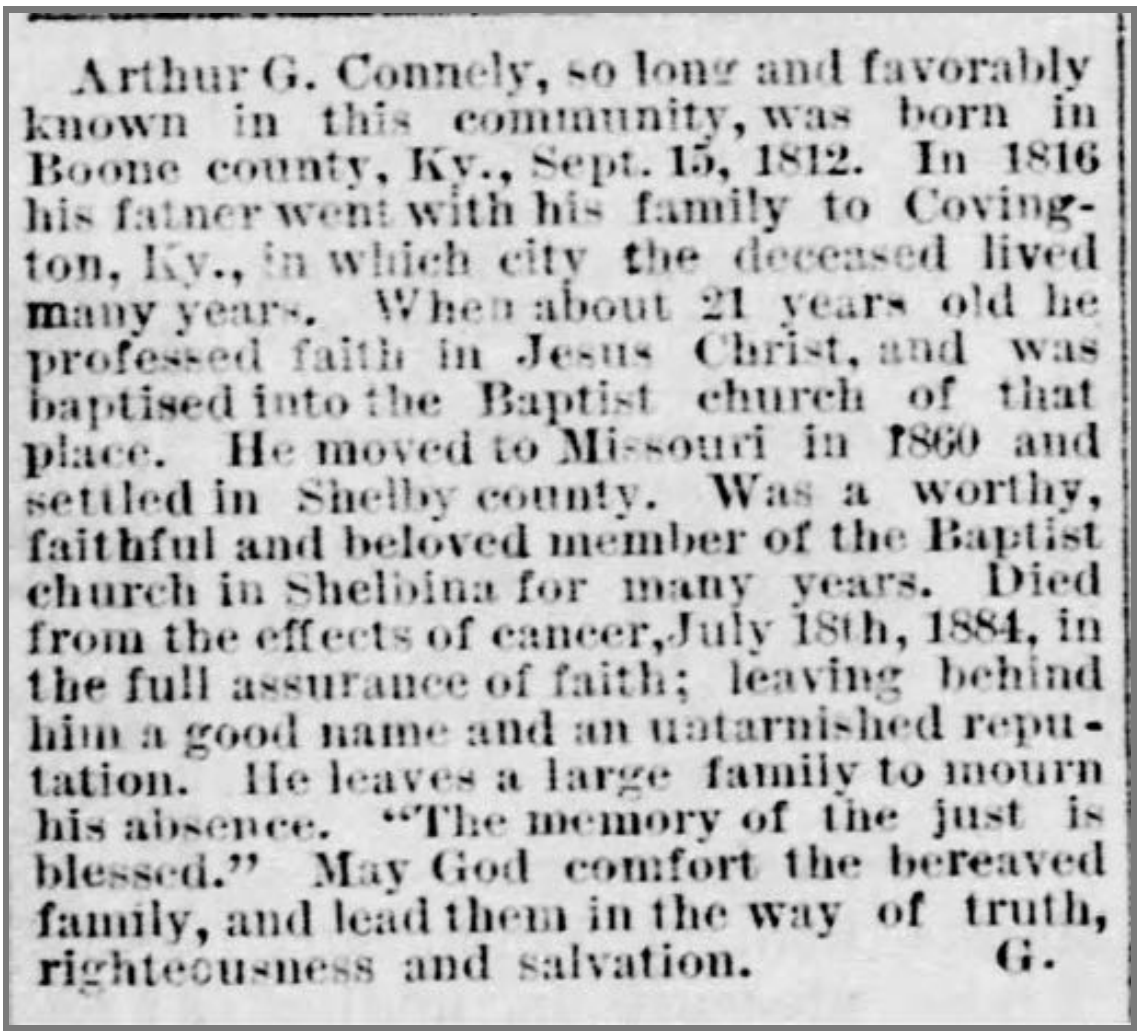
He was born in Boone county. Ky., Sept 15, 1812. In 1816 he moved with his father's family to Covington, Ky., where he grew up to be a young man of steady _____ and and honorable to a fault. He _____ became interested in his soul's _____, and when near the age of 21 he gave his heart to God and his hand to the _____ of beneficence. He united with the Baptist church at Covington in 1833, and has ever since been an earnest, consistent member.

About the beginning of the war he concluded to move to Missouri and cast his lot among the good people of Shelby county. Mr. Connely has been prominent for many years, and was known far beyond his own county. He has been foremost in every good work for the town and county, and passed away at a ripe old age, regretted alike by kinsman and friend. He was twice married, first in Covington, Ky., to Miss Mary Bennet. The result of this marriage was six children, of whom four are dead and two living. Those living are Cassius and Bushrod Connely, the latter of whom is the present proprietor of the Waverly House of this place. His second marriage was in December, 1854, to Miss Maggie Hawthorne, of Morgantown, W. Va. Of this marriage six children were born, of whom five are living and one dead. Those living are Mrs. J. H. Miles, Mrs. R. E. Smith, Lucy, Minnie and Arthur Connely, jr., all of whom are now living in this city.

He has been a resident of this city about twelve years, first as proprietor of the Central Hotel, and after its destruction by fire, he became proprietor of the Waverly House, and continued in charge of it until a few months before his death. He transferred his church membership to the Baptist church of this city in 1865, and continued an active and useful member until his death. Of his seven brothers and sisters only one now survives, a sister, who resides in Henry county, Ky.

His loss is such that it can not soon be forgotten, and can never be fully replaced. He aided the poor in their distress and comforted the sorrowing in their afflictions. It can be truthfully said of him that the world has lost a good man. May his reward in the future world be such as his noble character and well spent life deserves.

(Copy of a photocopy of the original article in the Shelbina Democrat, Shelbina, MO, Wednesday, 23 July 1884, page 1.)



Arthur G. Connely, so long and favorably known in this community, was born in Boone county, Ky., Sept. 15, 1812. In 1816 his fatner went with his family to Covington, Ky., in which city the deceased lived many years. When about 21 years old he professed faith in Jesus Christ, and was baptised into the Baptist church of that place. He moved to Missouri in 1860 and settled in Shelby county. Was a worthy, faithful and beloved member of the Baptist church in Shelbina for many years. Died from the effects of cancer, July 18th, 1884, in the full assurance of faith; leaving behind him a good name and an untarnished reputation. He leaves a large family to mourn his absence. "The memory of the just is blessed." May God comfort the bereaved family, and lead them in the way of truth, righteousness and salvation. G.

She was an ardent fan of her grandkids and loved watching them on the ball fields, plays, and recitals. Her grandkids were the stars; just ask her!

Bonnie's favorite activity was being with her family and extended family, exploring the mountains of Idaho. She and Ken loved taking the family fishing, hunting, cutting wood, hiking, berry picking, or mushrooming. Her favorite pastime was always when she had family around to share in laughter and food.

Bonnie is survived by her sons and daughter; … eleven grandchildren; … three great-grandchildren; her sister, … and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Mom will be remembered for her faith, love, compassion, meals prepared in the mountains, and the fudge she made at Christmas time.

Obituary of Guy Tricillan Conley, ID = 16623

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Paris Express, Paris, AR, 11 Jan 1934, submitted to me by Christie Conley, Paris, AR.)

ANOTHER GOOD MAN
GONE TO HIS REWARD

Guy Conley Sr., Dies at His Home Tuesday Following
Paralytic Stroke

Guy Conley Sr., 63 years old, widely known Logan county business man, died suddenly at his home here at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning as the result of a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. Conley appeared in his usual health Tuesday morning. He arose as usual and had eaten his breakfast when Mrs. Conley, who was in an adjoining room, heard him groan. He had turned in his chair, where he sat reading, and was unconscious when she reached him. A physician was summoned, but Mr. Conley was dead when he arrived. This was the third stroke suffered by Mr. Conley over a period of two years.

Mr. Conley was a native of Hickory county, Missouri, where he was born Feb. 14, 1871, the son of the late Cassius F. Conley and Kathryn Bell Conley of Kentucky and Virginia. Mr. Conley came to Roseville, Ark., in 1884, and in 1895 he was married to Miss Virginia Florence McElhannon of Roseville. Entering the ginning business at the age of 18 (44 years ago) he was still in it at the time of his death. When a mere boy he was placed in charge of the Quaile & Sewell gin at Roseville. His equipment although one of the most complete and modern at that time, consisted of one 70-saw stand with a capacity of 8 bales per day - or 10 if operated from "sun to sun." The one press was stationary and the cotton was packed by foot-power-tomped.

Later the gin was sold by Quaile & Sewell to H. McElhannon, Mrs. Conley’s father, and Mr. Conley entered partnership with John Smith in operation of the Roseville ferry, leasing it from Quaile & Sewell. Later he bought Mr. Smith's half of the lease and operated by himself.

After five years on the river, Mr. Conley bought the gin from his father-in law in 1897. In the spring of 1899 it burned, and Mr. Conley rebuilt, installing the first modern gin system brought to this country and which was quite a curiosity to the people for many miles around. It had three gin stands, pneumatic elevating system, double pressing box and a steam packer.

LEROY H. CONNELY DEAD

Leroy H. Connely, eldest son of A. Connely of Shelbina, died Friday afternoon in St. Louis, where he had been living for the past two years. The cause of his death was locked bowels, and he had been sick only a few days. His father had been with him since Wednesday.

Mr. Connely was born in Shelbina March 4, 1884, being 37 years of age at the time of his death, which was seemingly untimely, as he leaves a wife and six children. He grew up in Shelbina, leaving here when about 17 years of age. He went from here to St. Louis, living there for several years, and it was while there, June 6, 1906, that he married Miss Hazel Anderson who survives him.

He later went West and was for about eight years located in California, returning to St. Louis two years ago, after service in the army. He was an engineer in the valuation department of the Missouri Pacific Railway.

In addition to his wife, children and his father, he leaves a sister, Mrs. Arthur L. Sparks, of St. Louis; and four brothers, L. H. of Shelbina; Arthur, of Kansas City; Frank, in foreign missionary work in China; Robert, in home missionary work in Michigan, now visiting his father; also a number of other relatives in Shelbina.

The remains were brought to Shelbina Saturday evening, and funeral services were held at the residence of his father Sunday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev. B. F. Kennedy, pastor of the Shelbina Baptist church, to which denomination he belonged. Burial was in the Shelbina cemetery.

STONE MOUNTAIN:
Carole Connely, inviting artist

By HOLLY CRENSHAW

When Carole Connely ran an errand, she'd often return with a stranger in tow --- some striking person who'd caught her eye and agreed to pose for her figurative abstract oil paintings.

"Strangers are usually very happy to model," the artist said in a 1989 Atlanta Journal-Constitution article. "I choose people who just have a lot of flair, something about them that's interesting."

At her private memorial service today, so many former models are expected to turn up that it may feel like her paintings have sprung to life.

"Mom would go to Home Depot, and two hours later the clerk is coming home with her and sitting down to dinner with our family," said her daughter... "Dad used to joke about what it would be like if all these people showed up at the same time, and I think this may be it."

Carole Ann McKinley Connely, 68, died at her Stone Mountain residence Sunday of a heart attack. The body was cremated. Cremation Society of Georgia is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Connely earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the Kansas City Art Institute in 1960, the same year she moved to the Atlanta area. From her home studio, the Aurora, Ill., native created motion-infused paintings with figures that seem to be half-emerging from their abstract surroundings. Galleries throughout the Southeast exhibited and sold her work.

Evelyn Lagerquist, who owns Lagerquist Gallery in Buckhead, has shown Mrs. Connely's pieces for 25 years.

"Carole's paintings worked in so many different ways," she said. "Her colors were wonderful, and it felt like her work was so free and spontaneous."

"She was one of the loveliest, nicest, fairest, above-board artists I've ever had," Mrs. Lagerquist said. "If we ever decided to take some of her paintings but not one in particular, she always wanted to know why --- but not with an attitude, never with an attitude. She was just very conscientious about her work."

Mrs. Connely was a reluctant traveler who harbored a hint of dread when expected to show up for her openings, including one in Florida two days before she died. When they were little, her children would be dispatched throughout the gallery to eavesdrop on viewers' comments and report back. Mostly, she couldn't wait to get back to her studio.

Her prankster side crept out late at night. If her husband dozed off early, she handed out washable markers to her children to decorate him with while he slept or took them out for furtive hot fudge sundaes.

"Carole was a mystery to me," said her husband... who married her three months after their first date in 1960. "There was a lot about her that I never fathomed.

"She was a private person, and I have never seen Carole paint --- except one time. One day, I figured out if I stood on one foot and leaned over the ledge, I could look out the bathroom window and see a portion of her easel. So I looked down there and saw Carole painting.

"The next morning at breakfast, I told her I'd seen her and the first thing she did was put a big sheet of Styrofoam over her window, and I never saw her paint again."

Survivors include another daughter... her son... her brother... and four grandchildren.

Obituary of Elizabeth Fairchild (Heller) Schreiber, ID = 168142

(Partially copied from the website of the Grove Funeral Home, Hancock, MD.)

Elizabeth Fairchild (Heller) Schreiber

July 18, 1922 ~ October 11, 2013 (age 91)
Hancock, MD

Elizabeth (Beth) Fairchild Heller Schreiber, age 91, passed away at her home in Stayton, Or. on Friday, October 11, 2013. She had been declining in health, but her sudden death was a shock to the family and her loving caregivers.

She was born July 18, 1922, to the late Daniel Elwood Heller and Bertha Elizabeth Rhodes Heller.

She grew up in Hancock and graduated from Hancock High School in June, 1940, and met her late husband, Bob Schreiber, when he was part of the crew that was building the new bridge in Hancock. They married on October 15, 1940 and moved to Baltimore, Md., Martinsville, Va., Natchez, Ms., and then settled in Los Angeles, Ca. to start a family.

She was a housewife until the children were older and they moved to South Pasadena. It was there that she catered private parties to the “rich and famous” in and around Pasadena. Her passions were cooking and traveling. She attended cooking schools in France and Italy, and had the pleasure of working with Julia Child and Jacques Pepin.

She and her husband, Bob, traveled all over the world. Bob was a very good photographer, and made albums of their travels, which were proudly displayed on their coffee table. She enjoyed Hawaii so much that on their 25th anniversary, she and Bob purchased a plot of land on the big island. For her 80th birthday, she wanted to cruise around the islands with family and friends. She decided to repeat her birthday wish with another cruise on her 90th birthday. Family and friends had a wonderful time renting vans and sightseeing with her.

While living in South Pasadena, she was an active member of the Oneonta Church, the Women’s Club, and the Pasadena Art Museum Society. In Stayton, she was an active member of the Stayton Hospital Auxiliary Board, and a very active card-playing group of ladies.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Max Robert Schreiber, and their son, William Elwood Schreiber.

She is survived by a son… and a daughter… a sister… three grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; and one niece.

Services were held at the Weddle Funeral Chapel, 1777 North 3rd Avenue, Stayton, Or., on Thursday, October 17, 2013.

Burial, with a family graveside service, will be in Hancock, Md., in the Hancock Presbyterian Cemetery, on Wednesday, October 23, 2013, at 11:00 a.m. Rev. F. Allan Weatherholt will officiate.

Final arrangements were handled by the Grove Funeral Home, 141 West Main Street, Hancock, Md.

Obituary of Richard George Ives, ID = 16815111& 1683411

(Partially copied from an obit found online at F-A-G, memorial created by Rose Ramsey.)

Richard George Ives passed away peacefully Saturday afternoon surrounded by his loving family.

He was born in Portland, Maine on November 26, 1929, and was the son of the late Muriel Ives Warrington and George "Kirby" Warrington.

He attended Portland High School and The United States Merchant Maritime Academy in New York. As a young man Mr. Ives wanted to serve his country so in 1944 fabricated his age and attempted to sign up for the United States Merchant Marine. His real age at the time was 15 and he was rejected. However, he was quickly employed by the Norwegian and Panamanian Merchant Marine, and then by the US Merchant Marine. For the next 50 years he worked in a profession he loved, traveling to many countries around the world. After retiring, he became an avid book reader and master of the crossword puzzle. He enjoyed Sunday dinners with his family, and watching baseball games. He was an Atlanta Braves fan!

Mr. Ives was a retried member of the National Maritime Union and a member of the American Legion.

He is survived by his wife of 63 years… and their children… He is also survived by 7 grandchildren who fondly referred to him as Tatone… as well as 6 great-grandchildren; 1 great great grandchild, Cousin… a very large extended family, and numerous long time friends.

A Requiem Eucharist will be celebrated 11:00 am, Tuesday, at St. Paul's Anglican Church, 279 Congress St., Portland. Burial will follow at Calvary Cemetery, South Portland. Arrangements are by Conroy-Tully Crawford Funeral Home, 172 State St., Portland.

(Note by RRC: I have no genetic connection to Richard as far as I know. He is included in this genealogy because he was a stepson of G(eorge) Kirby Warrington and I do have a genetic connection with Kirby.)

LAST OF EARTH.

Death of Miss Harriet Patterson.

One by one the pioneer settlers are called to the long home prepared for the righteous by Him who is Omnipotent. On Sunday Miss Harriet Patterson, an old pioneer resident of Xenia, died, after a long and painful illness, in the 74th year of her age.

Miss Patterson was born in Georgetown, Ky., in 1811 and in 1824 removed with her parents to Xenia, then but a village. Shortly after her parents dying she became a member of the late Mr. Samuel Gowdy's family, and remaining a member thereof while the family continued. Early in life she became a Christian and until death was a devoted follower of her Lord and Master, always abounding in good. While living a life of good faith in the Son of God. Although her sufferings for me past few months were great, she bore all with the most uncomplaining resignation and even cheerfulness. She died in the communion of the First U. P. church, of which she had been a member since its organization.

Mr. Farrell

John Farrell helped Crittenden

Barber was force behind water district

BY ANDREA TORTORA
The Cincinnati Enquirer

Being a barber and organizing water service for a community may seem an unlikely job combination, but they were a life's work for longtime Northern Kentucky resident John S. Farrell.

Mr. Farrell died Saturday at his Walton, Ky., home after a long illness. He was 93.

Mr. Farrell opened his barber shop in Crittenden in 1926. He retired in 1991, when he felt he was no longer able to do the work, his son, Dudley H. Farrell, said.

His small shop on Crittenden's Main Street was open five days a week, 10 hours a day. Crittenden had a barber before it had water and electricity.

Lights came to Mr. Farrell's store a few weeks after it opened, but getting water was another story.

So Mr. Farrell talked with customers about forming a water district for northern Grant and southern Boone counties. The shop talk began in 1952.

Water flowed into the newly formed Bullock Pen Water District in 1961. Mr. Farrell served as its treasurer for 17 years. The water district went from a base of 452 customers to the 2,500 it now serves. And the district's home building was named after Mr. Farrell in 1989.

A sign hanging in his shop read "All haircuts $5," Dudley Farrell said. "He cut hair for six decades and never got tired of doing it."

Mr. Farrell's career started at the Old Reliable barber school that used to be at Third and Sycamore streets in downtown Cincinnati. He worked weekends and vacations in Cincinnati while toiling at a barbershop in Williamstown, Ky.

When he opened his Crittenden shop, Mr. Farrell found a place to call home.

He expressed his feelings in an Enquirer article in 1989.

"I love my work and I love the association with people. I've been here a long time and I've enjoyed every minute of it," Mr. Farrell said.

His fondness for Crittenden even led Mr. Farrell to serve as Crittenden's fire chief.

Also surviving are his sister-in-law and companion, Lora Readnor of Walton; and three granddaughters.

Visitation will be 5 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Hamilton-Stanley Funeral Home on Walton-Verona Road in Verona, Ky. Funeral service will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.

Burial will follow at Hill Crest Cemetery in Dry Ridge.

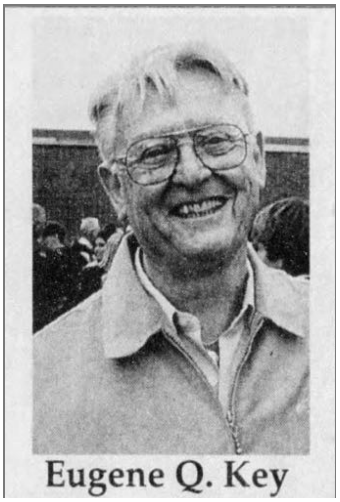
Obituary of Eugene Q. Key, ID = 191ad12

(Partially transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Desert Sun, Palm Springs, CA, Saturday, 24 Sept. 2011, page B8.)



Eugene Q. Key

Eugene Q. Key passed away Friday, September 16, 2011 after a brief battle with cancer. To all who knew him he was a larger-than-life character, full of humor, optimism and a powerful love for life. He started each day with a look in the mirror and the exclamation, "I'm the luckiest man alive!" Eugene was born in Copperhill, Tenn. on March 25, 1923. He earned his Eagle Scout badge in high school, later became a graduate of both Georgia Military College and Emory University School of Law. In WWII he served in the 8th Air Force as a B17 pilot. He served again as a pilot and later in the JAG corps during the Korean Conflict. After leaving the military he made his career working for Crawford and Co., retiring in 1983. Afterwards, he and the love of his life, … began traveling the world. Together they went on ten Semester at Sea voyages, multiple People to People tennis exchanges and trips that were often too numerous and varied for even their family to keep track of. Eugene had the enviable gift of making friends everywhere he went, working hard at maintaining those friendships over the years. He was most in his element when entertaining, and loved every chance he had to wear a tux. He was steadfastly devoted to his family. He even turned family get-togethers into parties with the most memorable being the annual Key Bash. For all of us, family and friends, he will be dearly missed- his spirit has been etched into each of our hearts forever. He is survived by his best friend and beloved wife, … his children, grandchildren and scores of friends from all walks of life, and from all over the world. It was his wish that there be no traditional services, but, instead, that one last party be held to celebrate his life. This will take place in Palm Desert later this fall. In lieu of flowers, remembrances can be made in his name to either Semester at Sea or the Palm Springs Air Museum... and feel free to lift one last glass of Johnnie Walker Red in his memory.

Obituary of Rozzie Morris (Conley) Soderstrom, ID = 191ae

(From the Pawhuska Daily-Journal, Sunday, Jan. 13, 1924, posted online at Find-A-Grave by Gwen Nolte, genealogist and family historian.)

Mrs. Floyd Soderstrom died at the Municipal Hospital Fiday night following an operation which was the second one performed in the past week. Complications following the first operation made it seem inevitable to perform a second one Friday. The weakened condition of Mrs. Soderstorm made it impossible for her to rally from the effects, however. The body will lie in state today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B.F. Parsons, corner of Leahy and Eighth St., until the time of the funeral. The hour of the funeral has been set for 3:00 p.m. at the Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. W.S. Woodhull. Interment will be in the local cemetery. Mrs. Soderstrom, formerly Miss Rozzia Conley, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.F. Conley and was born near Chilocco, Oklahoma, July 20, 1897. Her mother is still living in this city at 220 East Seventh St., but her father passed away some years ago. From the Chilocco ranch home, the family removed to Pawhuska where the children entered the public schools. Mrs. Soderstrom was a member of the class of 1913 of the Pawhuska High School. She was married to Floyd Soderstrom Oct. 23, 1915. They continued to make this city their home since that time. Mrs. Soderstrom was a devoted wife and mother, a faithful worker in the Methodist Church and a woman whose life and deeds have earned the respect and honor of the entire community. Three small children, in addition to the husband, remain to mourn her loss: Joe, age 6, Donald, age 4, and Edwin, age 3. Four brothers and two sisters, in addition to the mother, also survive.

(Note by RRC: From other sources, I have her given name as Rozzie, her birthplace as Arkansas City, KS, her birthday as 27, and her marriage day as 27.)

Floyd W. Soderstrom, 64, pioneer Pawhuska merchant and a Pawhuskan since the age of two, died while on a hunting trip Thanksgiving afternoon.

Soderstrom, hunting with his two sons, Don and Joe, and friend Port Kennett, apparently died of a heart seizure about 30 miles north of Pawhuska about 5 p.m. yesterday while bird hunting.

Kennett and Soderstrom, hunting as a team, were separated from the two boys. Kennett said that when a flight of birds went near the elder Soderstrom and he heard only one shot he suspected something was wrong. He said he found the grocer collapsed with his hunting dog at his side.

Soderstrom came from a pioneer Pawhuska family. He was the son of the late John and Laura Soderstrom who came to the Osage in the late 1800s. He joined his family here, at the age of two, in 1896. His father was an early day rancher and with another brother operated the Soder- strom Mill one of the earliest establishments operated in the county The mill was located near Bird Creek and was later destroyed by fire.

Floyd was educated in the Pawhuska public schools. As a youth he worked for the Conway Grocery. In 1925 purchased the grocery. Two years later, it was moved next door north, to its present location, where it has been in opertion under Sodestrom's management since that time.

He was married September 23, 1925, to Lillian Benson who survives at the home here.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, the Chamber of Commerce, the Masonic Lodge and the Isaac Walton League.

Funeral services are tenatively set for 2:30 p.m. Sunday at the Johnson Funeral Home chapel, pending the arrival of relatives. Burial will be in the city cemetery with the Johnson Funeral Home in charge of the arrangements.

Survivors, in addition to his wife include:

Three sons, Joe and Don both of Pawhuska and Eddie of Bartlesville and one daughter, Mrs. Ira R. Oldham of Williamburg, Va. and grandchildren Patricia Sue and Joe Soderstrom Jr.; Diana and Alan Soderstrom all of Pawhuska and Mary Don and Larry Soderstrom of Bartlesville and Ira Benson Oldham of Williamsburg, Va.

Other survivors include one sister, Mrs. Ben Parsons of Pawhuska and two brothers, Eben of Pawhuska and Carl of Jay.

Soderstrom, after graduating from the Pawhuska schools, homesteaded in South Dakota but returned to Pawhuska in 1924 and a year later went into the grocery business.

Soderstrom, during his high school days here in the early times, was a member of the 1915 undefeated Pawhuska High School football team which was the state championship team that year. He was an avid sportsman and hunted and fished extensively all his life.

(Note by RRC: I don't understand why his middle initial is W here - based on other sources, his 1st & middle names were John Floyd.)

Obituary of Sarah Jane (Tinker) Soderstrom, ID = 191ae1

(Partially copied from an obit found online at osagenews.org, obit dated 16 March 2020.)

Sarah Jane Tinker Soderstrom, age 100 passed peacefully on March 9, 2020, at her home in Houston, TX. Sarah Jane was a beauty with a sharp wit and loving, generous nature that stayed with her into her senior years.

She was born February 29, 1920, a member of the Osage Indian tribe, the daughter of Alex and Na Dine Tinker on their family farm in Ralston, OK. Sarah Jane grew up among four brothers: Nick, Ed, Jack, and Bill. Her family had deep roots in Osage County and the tribe, but they feared to remain there in the early 1920s when many Osages were murdered for their inheritance, a dark period often referred to as "the Osage Murders." The family moved to Colorado for their safety, but that didn't stop Sarah Jane from giving her family a scare by falling into a creek at age 5. She was rescued by a bystander. That man came to visit her the next day, and asked to keep a souvenir of the adventure, her "little red shoe."

She was married in 1942 to Joe Soderstrom, with whom she had two children, … She lost her son Joe Jr. to leukemia in 1981 at age 36. Her husband Joe suffered a stroke in 1984, and she cared for him until his death in 1999. She is survived by her daughter … of Houston, her grandsons … and numerous nieces and nephews.

Her leap year birthday was celebrated by her extended family throughout her life. In her 80th year, her family celebrated her "20th" birthday with a 3-day celebration including a family barbecue, a party in Pawhuska with 150 guests, and a family bus tour of Tinker Air Force Base, which was named for her uncle, Major General Clarence Tinker of World War II fame.

Sarah Jane was a remarkable woman and was deeply loved by her family and friends. She was also involved in her community. She was widely known as a great cook and once prepared dinner for the noted Osage author John Joseph Matthews. Her family was honored in 1957 at the Muskogee State Fair as "Farm Family of the Year." She was the first president of the Osage County Cowbelles

Association, which began during her husband's term as the Osage County Cattlemen's Association President. Her hobbies included gardening, sewing, painting, quilting, 4-H supporter, golfing, and playing cards, at which she excelled. She always maintained an active social life, especially at the bridge table.

A memorial service will be held in Pawhuska, OK, in late June. Kendrick McCartney Johnson Funeral Home will be in charge.

He was born in Gallatin county, Kentucky, Oct. 9, 1847, and was married to Elizabeth Henderson March 21, 1870 at Zena, Ind. His funeral was he'd Wednesday at 2:30 from the Smith home, where three funerals have occured during the past year. Rev. J. B. Mackenzie was in charge and the M. E. choir from Eskridge furnished the music. He was laid to rest beside his wife in the cemetery below Keene.

Obituary of Elizabeth McConnell (Henderson) Howlett, ID = 1925

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Alma Enterprise, Alma, KS, Friday, 2 Nov. 1923, page 4.)

Mrs. W. B. Howlett, one of the early settlers in the county and an aunt of the Henderson and Younker families, died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Herb Smith, on Mission Creek Tuesday about 6 p. m., aged over 83 years, after a long illness.

Elizabeth McConnell Henderson was born Sept. 18, 1890, at Athens, Ohio. Her early life was spent in Ohio and Indiana and she was a teacher in the private schools of those early days.

March 21, 1870, she was married to W. B. Howlett at Zeza, Ind., and the next spring they came to Kansas, locating on their farm on Mission Creek where Frank Mossman now lives. Here they remained for 25 years, after which they moved to Topeka where they lived until a few years ago when the health of both became such that they needed constant care and they came back among relatives.

Aunt Lizzie was the friend, nurse and helper of all in those early days. She was a devout Christian and was a member of the Lowman Hill M. E. church in Topeka when she died.

She leaves her aged husband, one sister, Mrs. Sallie Stewart, of Toronto, Canada, one brother, Jesse Henderson. of Minneapolis, Minn., and many nephews and nieces.

Her funeral was held yesterday at 1:30 from the Herb Smith home with Rev. J. B. Mackenzie of Eskridge in charge and she was laid to rest in the cemetery near Keene beside her sisters.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, Elizabeth was born in 1840, not 1890. Based on an index to Indiana marriage records, William & Elizabeth were married on 21 March 1871, in Switzerland Co., IN.)

Manelle Weaver

Former history teacher, Manelle Weaver, is truly part of the history at Southfield School. Mrs. Weaver taught Modern, World, American, and Louisiana History to Southfield middle-schoolers for a span of 25 yearsâ€¦from 1963-1988. Her own abiding interest in history and the people and places who made it, brought it alive and created long-term interest in it among many of her students. Her vast collection of slides taken on trips to the places she taught about, was legendary, as was the South Louisiana field trip which she pioneered. Her personal teaching philosophy focused on helping students understand that historical facts were created by real people, influenced by the culture and time periods in which they lived.

Mrs. Weaver received her BFA from the University of Cincinnati. As a young woman, she was a fine dancer, and one of the special memories that many students have of Mrs. Weaver was the incentive of seeing her unpin her long (but always pinned-up) hair and dance! This was only offered for very unusual and outstanding accomplishments! Mrs. Weaver always had very high expectations of her students, and she worked closely with them and with their parents to see that her students reached their greatest potential.

Obituary of Anna Louise Scobee, ID = 1932216

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Daily Banner, Greencastle, IN, Wednesday, 3 Oct. 1934, page 2.)

Anna Louise Scobee

Anna Louise Scobee, better known as "Squeaky," daughter of Clarence and Katie Scobee, was born on Oct 6, 1922, and departed from this life on Sept. 28, 1934, at the early age of 11 years, 11 months, and 22 days. She leaves to mourn their loss her devoted parents, three sisters, Mrs. Eileen Williams, of Cleveland, Ohio: Mrs. Dena Rowings, of Greencastle and Adrian, at home; two brothers, Thomas, at home, and John of Newcastle, Ind.; two little nephews Donald Wayne Rowings, of Greencastle, and Keith Lynn Williams of Cleveland, Ohio; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Howlett, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Anna had always been the picture of health and one of the most active girl in her school until only one week ago she became seriously ill and all was done to save her but God's power was greater and called her away. Even though she suffered untold agonies her familiar smile was with her until the last.

She will be sadly missed by her schoolmates, for it was there that she grew to be the favorite of all. Even though her seat will be vacant and she will be gone, she has performed her life's work well and leaves us behind to follow her to that land of eternal rest.

(Note by RRC: A typo - "girl" should be girls.)

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Cincinnati Post, Cincinnati, OH, Tuesday, 5 July 1994, page 13A; a photo of Nathan accompanied the obit but was not copied by me; obit submitted by his wife, Alma Faye Clements, St. Petersburg, FL.)

Rev. Nathan B. Clements, retired
Baptist minister, school teacher

Rev. Nathan B. Clements didn't dream of spending most of his life as a minister.

In fact, Rev. Clements, who was born and raised in Union, was in his late 20s when he received his calling in 1958 to become a preacher, said a daughter, Patricia C. Miller of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Rev. Clements had been selling real estate in California when he returned to the Bluegrass State to join the ministry, Mrs. Miller said.

He was ordained in 1959 at the Big Bone Baptist Church in Union. "He had a real love for education and was a teacher in Kentucky and every place he pastored," Mrs. Miller said.

He was an excellent speaker. He liked speaking about moral standards and honesty."

Rev. Clements, 64, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and formerly of Union, died Saturday at Bradley Memorial Hospital in Cleveland, Tenn.

He had served several churches in Kentucky and Ohio before his retirement in 1976. He also was a retired schoolteacher with the Jefferson County Board of Education. He was a member of the Boone Union Masonic Lodge No. 304.

Rev. Clements attended Georgetown College and later received his undergraduate degree in education from the University of Kentucky and his master's degree in education from Western Kentucky University.

Mrs. Miller said her father had a good sense of humor and had a low-key approach to sermons. He enjoyed UK basketball and made of point of spending time with children and young people, she said.

"He had a wonderful ability to communicate with people," Mrs. Miller said.

Survivors also include his wife of 44 years, Alma F. Clements; another daughter, Linda C. Watson of Georgetown, Ohio; and five grandchildren.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Linnemann Funeral Home, Burlington. Visitation will begin there at 9 a.m. Wednesday.

Burial will be in Big Bone Baptist Church Cemetery, Union.

Memorials are suggested to the church cemetery fund, Big Bone Church Road, Union, 41091, or to Boone Union Masonic Lodge No. 304, Mt. Zion Road, Union, 41091.

Anita "NeeNee" Gullion Ryle
February 14, 1925 – August 1, 2020

Anita “Nee Nee” Gullion Ryle

Embraced in the loving arms of Christ August 1, 2020.

An artist of every medium, whether with raised paintbrush or sweet soprano, Anita found inspiration in her greatest loves: Her/Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, beloved husband Robert C. Ryle, and all of her cherished family and friends.

Amidst the Great Depression, Anita Davis Gullion was born into a family flourishing with a spirit of generosity. This spirit of generosity was never lost on her though she was soon to become the middle child of nine. Oh, how she loved her brothers and sisters! Her elder sister Helen and brother Emery among her most beloved. The farm girl quickly blossomed into “the prettiest girl in Gallatin County” and was married to the besotted Robert C. “Papaw” Ryle, WWII Army Air Corpsman. The couple was blessed with two devoted daughters, … and … Meanwhile, Mr. Ryle’s love of Christ and entrepreneurial spirit took hold and Mrs. Ryle kept busy tending the children and mending the hands’ of the husband who faithfully built churches and businesses.

Among those mourning the loss of her earthly presence are her daughters … her son-in-law … six grandchildren … a sister, … fifteen great grandchildren and many loving nieces and nephews.

While together we mourn our matriarch, our Nee Nee, we also rejoice in her heavenly arrival and reunification with her beloved husband, Robert C. Ryle. A father, grandfather, and great-grandfather who is still sorely missed.

A visitation will be held Wednesday August 05, 2020 from 5-7pm at Riverside Memorial Park & Funeral Home located 7242 Normandy Boulevard, Jacksonville FL 32205. Anita's Graveside service will be held Thursday August 06, 2020 at 11am at Riverside Memorial Park on the North side of Normandy Boulevard.

RULING IN A MURDER

Coroner Says Leslie Conley, 43, Was Strangled With Cord

An autopsy performed yesterday showed that Leslie Conley, 42, of 1114 East Forty-fifth street, who was found dead in his apartment, had been strangled with an electrical cord.

The body was discovered yesterday after a report by Charles McMarrow, who lives on the same floor of the small apartment building. The victim had been bound at the wrist, ankles and neck with an electrical cord.

Conley was a long-time employee of the Cook Paint & Varnish Co., where he had not reported to work since November 11.

The coroner said death must have occurred last Monday.

Police have conducted about a dozen interviews of persons who were acquainted with the victim.

(Note by RRC: Based on other sources, Leslie was born on 5 Sept. 1927, so he was 41 years old when he was murdered.)

Obituary of Harry Lee Terry, ID = 1934612

(Transcribed by RRC from a photocopy of the original article in The Missourian, Harrisonville, MO, Thursday, 8 Oct. 1936, page 4.)

HARRY LEE TERRY

Just two years, one month and twenty-four days ago on August 10, 1934 a tiny babe was given into the care of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Terry. Day by day he grew and each day loved ones became more endeared for he was sunshine in their home and hearts. A pal and playmate for his older brother, Ezra Wayne, now five years old, they romped and played as robust healthy children always do. Then about noon on Saturday, October 3rd, little Harry Lee became ill. All night he grew worse and at nine o'clock Sunday morning without a murmer, his little spirt slipped away to rest safe in the arms of Jesus until the Resurection Day.

All that human hands could do was lovingly done. But Jesus said ‘‘Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of Heaven.” And the further promise that we will meet them in that Kingdom and the smile on his little face is surely a beckon to his Heavenly home.

Besides his parents and brother, Ezra Wayne, Harry Lee leaves both his maternal and paternal grandparents who were with him when the summons came. They are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smead of Kansas City and Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Terry of the home, also heartbroken uncles and aunts, Harry Wayne and Dorothy Smead of Kansas City, Mrs. Rex Anderson of Freeman, Neil and Ardith Terry of the home and a community of friends.

It is beyond human power to solve the mystery, why one so young and precious should taken but we know that God knoweth and doeth all things best and we can only humbly bow to His will.

The funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the Hickory Grove Baptist church by the Rev. Richard Talbot of Liberty, Mo. Burial was in the Freeman cemetery.

(Note by RRC: I suspect that “mumer” should be mumur and “Resurection” should be Resurrection.)

All that human hands could do was lovingly done. But Jesus said "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of Heaven." And the further promise that we will meet them in that Kingdom and the smile on his little face is surely a beckon to his Heavenly home.

Besides his parents and brother, Ezra Wayne, Harry Lee leaves both his maternal and paternal grandparents who were with him when the summons came. They are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smead of Kansas City and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Terry of the home, also heartbroken uncles and aunts, Harry Wayne and Dorothy Smead of Kansas City, Mrs. Rex Anderson of Freeman, Neil and Ardith Terry of the home and a community of friends.

It is beyond human power to solve the mystery, why one so young and precious should be taken but we know that God knoweth and doeth all things best and we can only humbly bow to His will.

The funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the Hickory Grove Baptist church by the Rev. Richard Talbot of Liberal, Mo. Burial was in the Freeman cemetery.
